DARWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWS

Submitted by Sandra Stepaniuk, Library Manager

Happy New Year!

It's happening.....we have been fundraising for several years and are breaking ground on the library expansion. We apologize in advance for any inconvenience that may occur during the building process; we will do our best to minimize any disruptions and continue to provide all the library services our patrons are accustomed to. We are looking forward to the additional space for programs and events at the library.

Never been to the library? We would like to encourage anyone who has thought about the library but hasn't taken the time to drop by, to do so. We are currently working on programming for the spring sessions so keep your eyes open for our articles as the planning is completed. We do however have a couple of things happening for January 2016.

The Colouring Club for all ages continues as an ongoing, drop in program during regular library hours. We supply the materials (or you can bring your own); coloring pages, crayons, and markers and you supply the inspiration. Bring a friend, relative or just yourself, create and relax.

We will be celebrating Family Literacy Day on Wednesday, January 27, 2016 with a Read for 15 Challenge. The purpose of the challenge is to bring awareness to literacy by promoting reading, making all reading valid and to make people aware of the value of reading in their lives. Imagine your life if you couldn't read! We will compete against other Alberta libraries to have the highest percentage of our community read for 15 minutes.

BARRHEAD ROTARY MUSIC FESTIVAL CELEBRATE THE ARTS

Submitted by Jennifer Thomas

This spring the Barrhead Rotary Music Festival will run March 9-17. The local festival is a part of the Alberta Music Festival Association and promotes appreciation and participation in music and speech arts.

We attract participants from Barrhead, Westlock, Neerlandia, Fort Assiniboine, Rich Valley, Onoway and surrounding communities in the area of speech arts, both English and French, piano, vocal, and instrumental. This event grants young people the opportunity to bravely demonstrate and celebrate their literary and musical talents. It allows them to perform in front of an audience and learn from professional adjudicators giving positive and informed constructive feedback to inspire their creativity. All entrants benefit through participation.

A number of scholarships and awards are available and the opportunities exist for recommendation to the annual Provincial Music Festival held in May in Edmonton.

Participants can enter Public Speaking, Creative Storytelling, Solo or Group Scenes, Improvisation, and Poetry Recitation. They may wish to perform a solo on their instrument of choice, or enter with a group in an ensemble category. For those who would like to sing and play and instrument, there are categories for self-accompaniment. Vocalists or Pianists may enter solos, duets, or trios. There are also categories for choirs and bands, both school and community.

We would like to encourage church choirs, community groups, garage bands, and 4-H public speakers to consider entering our Festival.

Any individuals or groups wishing to enter the festival may view the provincial syllabus at www.albertamusicfestival.org and obtain entry forms and a fee schedule at the Barrhead Public Library, Neerlandia Public Library, Westlock Public Library, or they may phone the Entry Secretary, Jennifer Thomas 780-305-3153 to obtain copies or further information. The entry deadline is February 1. Visit our Facebook page for more information.

It is wonderful to showcase our local talent. We encourage all of you to attend at least one of the sessions and appreciate the many budding artists and musicians in the Barrhead area. Come and celebrate the arts this March 19-17!

You can report in a couple of ways, firstly you can come in person to the library or call, secondly, on our website under the Read for 15 tab on the main menu. Reported readings from midnight to midnight on Wednesday, January 27, 2016 will count towards our total. ONLY the first 15 minutes for each person counts towards the reported totals. If you read for an hour, only the first 15 minutes count. If 5 people in your family/office read for 15 minutes then they can each count their session. This challenge is for all of our patrons, not just the children, so help us promote literacy by participating in our challenge.

The Darwell Library Friends Society is holding their Annual General Meeting and Regular Meeting on Thursday, January 21, 2016 at 7PM. If you are interested in contributing to the library this could be your opportunity to make a difference in your community.

The next Book Club meeting is on Monday, February 1, 2016 at 7:00p.m., we will be reviewing "East of Eden" by John Steinbeck. Do you love to read? Do you like to discuss what you have read with others? We have a couple open spots and are always interested in a new perspective to add to our conversation. If you are interested in participating you can register and make arrangements for loan of the current title by calling the library @ 780-892-3746.

The Darwell Public Library Society will be holding their regular meeting on Monday, January 25, 2016 starting at 7 pm. Meetings are open to the public and everyone is welcome to attend. The Library is open 11:00 am to 4:00 pm on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday and from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm Wednesday and Friday, closed Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays. ONOWAY ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION NEWS

Submitted by Lorinda McCool

Greetings from the Onoway Legion, it was our first supper of the year and it was a Greek Style Pork Chop with all of the trimmings and we were pleasantly surprised by very good attendance so soon after the Christmas season. The hard-working volunteers Bob, Ron, Marcelle, Jay, Sylvia, Liane and Randy made sure the meal ran smoothly and Scouts Harvey, Dawson, Jack and Marshall helped with the cleanup. The free meal voucher was won by Ray Smith, the meat draw by Wade Neilson and our expert dishwasher Randy Wenckowski picked the three of clubs which means the Queen is still hiding and waiting for the lucky ticket holder. You do not need to be a member to join in the Friday fun and are welcome to enjoy the dinner or just the camaraderie and play Nevada tickets, crib, pool or darts.

Congratulations to our membership chairperson Cheryl Sadler for her outstanding efforts to recruit new members. We proudly inducted nineteen new members in 2015.

Last week I neglected to thank our District Commander Wayne Willis for officiating at our January 2nd Dart tournament and coming back to install our executive at the Annual General Meeting on January 4th. Area A Commander Bob Peterson also attended the meeting and helped scrutinize the election ballots. Thank you both for your time and travel. I was hoping to have a few pictures of our election winners but they have not shown up as of this time. (The Legion still needs a Secretary!)

Darts have resumed on Tuesday nights and it seems as if everyone is eager to get back into the action. Thanks to Liane for tending the bar and selling the 50-50 tickets. Cory Gyman is fighting pneumonia but wanted to play so badly that he asked for permission from his doctor to attend the dart and pool nights! One of our senior dart teams playing the District 8 tournament in Morinville on January 23rd will be practicing together on Tuesday nights with hopes to represent our Branch at the Provincial level.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

January 19 - Tuesday Night Darts

January 20 - Wednesday Night Pool and Games

January 22 - Friday Night Supper – Breaded Pork Cutlet

January 24 - Volunteer Appreciation Dinner @ 4:30 PM

January 26 - Tuesday Night Darts

January 27 - Mason's Meeting

The Legion phone number is 780-967-5361. Please contact Ted Latimer @ 780-967-4980 for hall rentals, Bob Clark @ 780-967-3640 to volunteer in the kitchen and for meal inquiries/suggestions, Cheryl Sadler @ 780-967-4146 for membership and Lorinda McCool @ 780-967-3640 to register teams for Sports or to place information in the Legion newsletter. See you at the Onoway Legion and have a great week!

JOKE OF THE WEEK
Submitted by Joe Waldowski

A farmer stopped his truck on the side of the road and was watching two groups of workers from the County of Lac Ste. Anne working. He asked the foreman sitting in his pickup "just what the hell is going on here, one group is digging holes about 8 feet apart while another group comes behind and fills the holes up again". The foreman says "we were told to plant trees along the fence for a shelterbelt but the guy that was supposed to deliver the trees took the day off."

WHITECOURT TOWN COUNCIL UPDATE

Submitted by Tara Gallant

JANUARY 12, 2016

The business plan for the proposed arts & culture centre has been drafted. Duncan Webb, President of Webb Management which was contracted to complete the study, presented findings and highlights at a Special Council Meeting attended by both Whitecourt and Woodlands County Councils. The presentation outlined operational systems, facility features and funding models, and, once completed, the plan will be used to guide further decisions regarding the proposed facility. Development of an arts & culture facility has been discussed locally for over 10 years. Multiple initiatives have been completed over the years to gain feedback and comments from the public; most recently a series of information sessions hosted in 2015 by the Town and County and an online survey. Both Whitecourt and Woodlands County Councils will be discussing the presentation at an upcoming Joint Liaison Committee Meeting to determine next steps.

Whitecourt Town Council will host an information open house on Wednesday, February 17. Residents and community stakeholders are invited to attend the event to learn about the 2016 budget, and provide comments. All comments received will be compiled for Council's consideration prior to adoption of the final 2016 Budget. The open house is scheduled for:

Wednesday, February 17

Allan & Jean Millar Centre – ATB Financial Fieldhouse
4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Lac Ste. Anne Foundation's Chief Administrative Officer provided a review of the Foundation's 2016 budget to Whitecourt Town Council. A portion of property taxes is directed to operate local seniors housing facilities, and the rate is set by the Lac Ste. Anne Foundation.

The Foundation's CAO reported that the seniors requisition mill rate will remain at 0.2060 for the 2016 tax year.

The Youth Advisory Committee has requested that Council provide $100,000 in funding for expansion of the Whitecourt Skate Park. The Committee would like to move forward with a second phase at the Park to include a "bowl" with different types of ledges and banks for park users to sharpen their skills. The total cost of the Park expansion is budgeted at $250,000. The Committee plans to initiate fund-raising efforts to assist with capital costs, and Council has deferred the request to 2016 final budget deliberations.

DARWELL LIBRARY EXPANSION GRANT & LOAN IN PLACE

County Council has given full support to the Darwell Public Library facility expansion. Lac Ste. Anne County has provided a $25,000 grant and a $25,000 interest free loan to the Library for its planned 2016 expansion. The expansion is planned to the current library building to give them more space for community programs. COUNTY CONTRIBUTION

RECOGNIZED BY EASTLINK PARK

Lac Ste. Anne County Council will be among the many generous contributors to Whitecourt's Eastlink Park recognized at a Sponsor Appreciation night in Whitecourt on January 13th. The Winter Recreation Park, now Eastlink Park, is a joint community initiative that brings skiing, snowboarding and other winter activities to the region. More information about the park can be found on their website at <http://eastlinkpark.com/>. The park is set to celebrate its GRAND OPENING Saturday, January 16th.

BUDGET REVIEW MEETING SET

At the first council meeting of the year, County Council takes care of a number of recurring items. Among those are the bylaw that allows operating credit and the interim budget. The interim budget allows County business to continue during the first months of the year until the operating and capital budgets receive final approval. The budget will be reviewed at a special meeting on March 11th, 2016. There is no opportunity for public input during this meeting but the public are welcome to observe the process. Once approved the 2016 budget will be made public at <http://lzac.ca/>.

BANNER YEAR AT DDRA

Submitted by Lorne Ross

2015 was a banner year for the Darwell District Recreation Association. Under the direction of Association President Marie Smith substantial progress was made in the upgrading of the Centennial Hall and in the activities and programming offered by the DDRA. Funding was obtained to upgrade lighting in the hall and to re-surface the floor. Renovations were also made to develop a meeting room for use by individuals and organizations.

IT'S THE PRINCIPLE!

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: Before the campaign started, Justin Trudeau told Canadians that “wealthy families...like mine” didn’t need the government to help pay for their childcare. During the campaign he repeatedly attacked our Conservative ‘Enhanced Universal Child Care Benefit (UCCB) and income splitting for families, arguing rich families like his didn’t need taxpayers’ help. He even promised to give his annual UCCB payments of about $3,400 for his three children to charity.

We have now learned that Canadian taxpayers are paying the wages of two nannies hired to care for Prime Minister Justin Trudeau’s three children. In fact, the day Trudeau and his cabinet were sworn in, November 4th, one of his “first official acts” was to approve the hiring of two nannies. Each nanny will be paid $15 to $20 an hour during the day and $11 to $13 an hour for night shifts. That’s 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Leading up to the Oct 19th general election, Mr. Trudeau vowed to scrap the Conservative UCCB and replace it with a means-tested program his party has since named the Canada Child Benefit.

My questions is this: Why is he having taxpayers pay for his nannies? He said he was rich. He said he didn’t need the money. Prime Minister Trudeau, why are Canadians footing the bill for your children’s nannies after you hammered our Conservative Party when we were government for handing out benefits, such as a new universal childcare benefit, to wealthy families, including your own?

Banner Year At DDRA

Interior decorating under the direction of Teresa Utri has created a warmer, friendlier atmosphere throughout the hall.

Directors of the DDRA continue to strive to increase the relevancy of the hall to the community through its programming and activities. The second annual information and registration night for community groups was held in September. This once again proved to be very popular and will continue to be an annual affair. In November the DDRA hosted a “Small Business Expo” providing an opportunity for Darwell and area residents to meet service providers in the community. Planning for next year’s Business Expo is already underway and hopefully will be part of Small Business Week held annually in October.

Recreational activities such as Zumba and Pickleball continue to grow in popularity. Registrants in both programs have increased since being introduced to the community. Zumba is offered on Tuesday and Thursday mornings in the hall and provides a fun and energetic way to keep fit through the winter months. Pickleball is played Monday and Saturday mornings 9-12 and Thursday evenings 6-9. Anyone interested in either activity is encouraged to come out and see what it is all about.

The DDRA is a volunteer, community organization working on behalf of the residents of Darwell and area. The board of directors readily encourages participation of all those who wish to contribute to making Darwell a great place to live. DDRA meetings are held the second Monday of each month in the Darwell Centennial Hall at 7:00 PM.

SANGUDO HORTICULTURAL CLUB NEWS

Submitted by Brenda Ogden

January, the time of year to yearn for the new buds, and shouts to appear on the landscape. While we are waiting, we can get prepared for the season a bit. The Sanqudo Horticultrual Club is having its 9th Annual Garden Club Day on January 23, 2016 at the Sanqudo Community Hall from 930am until 400pm. Guest speaker Master Gardener Maggie Neilson will be presenting three different topics, with the emphasis on how to create your landscape with less effort. And how can you go wrong in listening to advise from someone with over 70 years of experience with his specialty, as our other speaker is Jim Kastelic a local garlic grower. This day is an event for the whole community. We are pleased to have one of Sanqudo's wonderful restaurants the Connections Coffee House with their fresh, tantalizing, & delicious home cooked lunch and snacks. Also we will be featuring some local businesses at the mini trade show. So shake off winters lethargy and join us, and perhaps win a door prize as well. Registration deadline is January 21,2016. Contact information for this event is Brenda at 780-237-4771 or Gloria at 780-785-3193 and for e-mails hpthompson0703@gmail.

During our Christmas event at the Greenland Garden Center I found out about the tradition of hanging a pickle on the Christmas tree. The origin of why this started is unknown, so I challenged you readers to give me some reason for this strange practice. Here are some responses:

My theory as to why the dill pickle was hung in the Christmas tree was that it was an early form of air freshener in the pioneer American Midwest. Christmas guests were expected and a house-proud but impoverished settler's wife, anxious to overcome odors of dampness or hanging baby diapers, settled on nestling some dill pickles into the tree. The vinegary, dill aroma somewhat overpowered the other smells. (Donna)

The dill pickle in the Christmas tree may have originated in the late 1890's US when small newsletters and small rural newspapers were looking for material. An early version of "Hints by Heloise" may have included the advice to sharpen the Christmas aromas by hanging the pickle. (Donna)

I am here to share with you the actual beginning of this tradition, and don't worry I'm not gherkin your chain. It was December 24, 1928 and István Bethlen, the Prime Minister of Hungary, was putting up the last decorations for his annual Christmas eve party. The holly was hung, the tree was decorated, and finger foods were being set out on the dining room table. István wife, Countess Margit Bethlen de Bethlen was overseeing everything. She was rushing around so much directing the servants, she hardly had time to appreciate the decorations. Finally, she took a moment and stepped back to admire everything; unfortunately she bumped the tree. Now there was no electric Christmas lights back then, the tree was lit with candles. So when one of them fell down and caught a branch on fire, pandemonium erupted. Countess Margit screamed, slapped the branch with her dress, which put out the fire in the tree; but lit her gown in the process. Then she really freaked out running around in circles shrieking like a mad woman as all her servants were yelling, "Stop Drop and Roll!" Finally, István came rushing into the room, took one look at the situation, and tackled his wife to the floor. The servants could finally douse her with water and everything was fine, or so they thought. As Margit ran up to towel off, change, and redo her make-up István noticed that there was one burnt branch on the tree. And that's when the first guest arrived. "What am I going to do?" he asked. "You!" István said as he turned to his closest servant, "I'm really in a pickle, take care of this. I've got to run off and greet the guests." Unfortunately, the closest servant was hard of hearing and only caught parts of the conversation. You can guess what happened, she covered up the black spot with a large pickle from a food tray and the Bethlen's didn't realize what happened until the guests started inquiring about the pungent dill smell over by the Christmas tree. Their pride stopped them from admitting it was a mistake so Margit took credit for the idea, and being the prominent couple of the time, everyone followed suit. A tradition was born. (Colin)

Two old men by the Christmas tree
Were toasting the year that was to be
When one called his granddaughter to his knee

And with a wink and in conspiratorial glee,

He hooked a pickle onto his key,

And hung the lot on the Christmas tree.

This way you'll always remember me.

Hang up the pickled one yearly see,

For your pickled grandfather and your love for me. (Brenda)

You could still submit your version of how the tradition started. I'd love to hear it. albertabrendaogden@gmail.com.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
