Submitted by Betty Lalonde, Wabamun Public Library

The Alberta Foundation for the Arts Travelling Exhibition Program and Wabamun Public Library proudly present the exhibition "Winter on the Wapiti"

Winter on the Wapiti can be seen as Robert Guest's visual journal, created during a four-year project (1984-1989) along the river banks of the Wapiti River, far from urban life. Sketches were made day and night, and then finished in Robert's studio-cabin near the river. This exhibit is just a sampling of the work he produced, which in total amount to 67 alkyde paintings.

Winter on the Wapiti was curated by Todd Schaber and was first displayed at the Art Gallery of Grande Prairie.

This exhibition will be at the Wabamun Public Library from April 13-May 11, 2016. The Library will be hosting an Opening Reception on Friday, April 22 from 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Make It Wednesdays will start in April. Children of all ages are invited to join us on Wednesdays from 3:30-4:30 to use snap circuits, lego, rainbow loom, spirograph and more to create fun things. We will meet on April 6 and 20 and May 4 and 8. Children under 7 must be with a parent/guardian.

Library Book Club meets on the third Wednesday of each month. Join this lively group as they discuss the books they have read and enjoy each other's company over tea and refreshments.

MAN-tastic Day for Boys returns this year. May 14 is the day for boys aged 8-12 years to join us for a fun-filled day of awesome activities. This program runs from 9:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. and will be at the Wabamun & Area Senior's Centre. Cost is $20.00. Registration deadline is Friday, April 29.

APRIL IS NATIONAL ORAL HEALTH MONTH

Do you have gum disease? Statistics show that over 70% of the adult population has gum disease. You might be unaware that you have gum disease since it is painless. In its early and moderate stages, you may notice your gums bleeding and a bad smell in your mouth. Do not ignore these symptoms! In the severe stage of gum disease, you may notice your teeth moving or shifting. Unfortunately, some people lose their teeth to gum disease. Only regular oral examination can reveal if you have gum disease.

Gum disease is caused by bacteria that doesn't like oxygen. It hides in the depths of the gums and destroys the bone and gum that supports your teeth. Since the bacteria in our mouth enters the blood circulation and spreads in the body, gum disease has been identified as a risk factor for various health problems like heart attack, diabetes, pneumonia, cancer, Alzheimer's, osteoporosis, rheumatoid arthritis and low weight or premature babies. Yes, the health of your mouth impacts the rest of your body! Having your teeth cleaned regularly can help you control your blood pressure and your blood sugar.

At Karo Dental Care, we screen all our adult new patients for oral cancer with the help of a fluorescent light. Even people who wear dentures can benefit from having their soft tissue checked yearly for oral cancer.

Karo Dental is on the top floor of Karo Centre which is right next to Sobeys in Spruce Grove. We have 3 general dentists and 4 registered dental hygienists who would be happy to have the opportunity to meet you and help you along the road to oral health. Our office is also wheelchair accessible. If you would like to know more about us, please feel free to give us a call, or visit us on our website at www.karodental.ca

GRANDE YELLOWHEAD PUBLIC SCHOOL DIVISION APRIL SCHOOL NEWS

Submitted by Nikki Gilks

LOBSTICK ZONE

Grand Trunk High School, Evansburg

Congratulations to the Senior Boys and Girls Basketball teams on a very successful season. Both the boys and girls teams won the North Central 1A Zone playoff for the third year in a row and both teams went to provincials once again with the boys playing in Pincher Creek and the girls in Trochu. Although the teams were unable to come home with a provincial banner, both groups played hard and represented their school and zone admirably. Now the students are quickly gearing up for badminton season.

Students once again held a "Taste of GT" event on March 24th. The groups came together to create and display different food samples for the staff, students and public to try. This event is an example of how each group has to work together and take on different responsibilities to make sure that all aspects of the event are looked after. Thank you for supporting this great student activity!

The school is pleased to be offering a mental health presentation for all staff and students on Monday, April 11th. Lee Thomas was born and raised in Whitecourt and has recently graduated from the University of New Brunswick and is now a speaker, writer, and mental health advocate. More information can be found at Lee's website which is <https://www.leethomas.ca>.

Evansview School, Evansburg

The students at Evansview School are taught the importance of being a respectful citizen in and out of the classroom. Students respect their environment by participating in school wide garbage clean-up of their playground and surrounding property. They also understand the importance of having a recycle bin in their classrooms. Evansview School also develops respectful citizens in everyday peer to peer interactions. One way this is done is students are rewarded "Gotchas" that go above and beyond normal expectations in creating a respectful and caring community of learners. The grade 3/4 classroom carries this respectful citizenship into their classroom. They learn how to respect one another by breaking their room into sectioned pods. Each student listens and respects the opinion of their pod in order to achieve a common goal or each having a required job to fulfill in their classroom community. The grade 2 class sees their room as a family in that each student has an important role to play and all need to be treated respectfully. Through these learning experiences, Evans-view students learn the importance of what a respectful citizen looks like and acts like in and out of the classroom.

Niton Central School is a small building filled with adults that have open minds and big hearts. This atmosphere is very helpful when an upper elementary teacher wants to run a restaurant with her hard-working class for a week!

How does this work? The grade 5/6 teacher and her class do a lot of planning and preparation for this intense project.

It starts with consensus on an overall theme, confirmation of the menu, creating art projects for decorations, practicing money skills (especially during mental math activities), marketing within the school and community, preparation for the jobs required, ordering of food and supplies, and much more. The project seems to affect everyone in the school in one way or another: the Science and Home Economics Labs are taken over to become the working restaurant, students can bring money to eat in the school at lunchtime, numerous community members come into the school to support the class, Educational Assistants who help in the regular class have very different assignments, etc. The grade 5/6 students themselves get a good idea of jobs such as marketing manager, decorator, short-order cook, waiter/waitress, cashier, and host/hostess, which is certainly much different than their normal school routine. They can also see the power and satisfaction of working together in a cooperative way. While this project gives students an idea of what running a business is like, it also shows them how what they're learning in school relates to what they will need in real life. Thanks to the tremendous support of the school and community over the years, it has also become a fundraiser for the class. This year's class ran "Granny's Precious Diner", using the "Ice Age" movie series as an inspiration. Thanks to their great efforts, they are now planning a 3-day camping trip to the mountains later on this year. They also donated 10% of their profit to the Canadian Breast Cancer Society, in support of a local community resident.

Congratulations to the Wildwood girls junior high basketball team! Wildwood won gold at the 1A Grande Yellowhead Athletic Conference Division tournament held in Edson on February 26th and 27th. The girls battled against Pine Grove in the gold medal match. The game was tied at half time, but it ended with the girls' scoring taking off in the second half. The team was coached by staff members Jayne Schadeck and Lesley Malanchuk. Volunteer mom Jayne Walker also assisted all season. While the boys did not finish as strongly, they had an enjoyable season. Jacey Bura and Melissa Saken volunteered as co-coaches for the boys. Badminton season is now underway.

ZAP! The Electricity Show came to Ms. Bahrynowski's Grade 4-5 classroom on March 7th. Keith and Jeannette from Fortis Alberta used a buzzing hazzard board display to teach students that respecting electricity safety rules can save your life and prevent serious injury. Students were reminded that electricity originates from beyond the switches in our homes, electricity in Alberta mainly starts with coal. The students work on the challenging electricity houses science project to meet many of the outcomes of their electricity units. The 4-5's build miniature houses out of cardboard that they wire to have working lights, doorbells, burglar alarms and ceiling fans.

HOW TO PREPARE A HOME FOR ELDERLY RESIDENTS

Upon reaching retirement age, new retirees may face decisions regarding their living arrangements. Some seniors may opt to stay put, while others may want to downsize their homes to save money and relieve themselves of the burdens of maintaining larger homes.

But those are not the only situations seniors find themselves in. Some seniors realize they can no longer care for themselves without assistance. In such instances, seniors may opt for assisted living facilities or choose to move in with a relative, such as a grown son or daughter. While assisted living facilities are designed to meet the needs of the elderly, young men and women welcoming seniors into their homes may need to take on some home improvement projects to ensure their homes are as safe as possible for elderly residents.

· Convert a room on the first floor into a bedroom. While this may not apply to all seniors, some men and women struggle with stairs as they age, and that can make it difficult for them to fully participate in a household. Homeowners with an extra room to spare can convert a room on the first floor of their homes into a bedroom so seniors won't have to climb up and down stairs throughout the day. That ease of accessibility to the primary floor of the house encourages seniors to be active participants in a household. If possible, choose an area that is close to a first-floor bathroom.

· Take steps to make bathrooms safer. The National Institute on Aging says that more than one in three seniors over age 65 fall each year, and 80 percent of those falls take place in the bathroom. Slippery tile floors can make it difficult for seniors to navigate bathrooms safely, and bathtubs and shower stalls present additional challenges. Install grab bars on bathroom walls and next to toilets to provide support. In addition, consider installing a shower chair or bench and removable shower nozzle in the shower or tub so seniors can sit down while they bathe and rinse without having to stand up on slippery surfaces. Make sure any mats around bathtubs and sinks are nonskid to reduce the risk of falls even further.

· Install an extra phone line or two. While kids and adults between the ages of 18 and 50 may never use the landlines in their homes, many seniors still rely on traditional telephones as their primary means of communicating with the outside world. Install extra landlines in your home, including in seniors' bedrooms, so they can more readily access the phone should they fall and need to call for emergency help. Phones in seniors' bedrooms may also provide some additional privacy to seniors who don't want to carry on phone conversations in busy areas of the home, such as the kitchen or living room. Such lines may also reduce feelings of isolation.

· Prioritize accessibility when storing items. When storing groceries, books, magazines, or other items seniors are likely to use, choose locations that are accessible to seniors. Avoid storing items on the top shelf of pantries, bookcases or entertainment centers, as seniors with limited mobility may not be able to reach them.

Many seniors move in with their adult children to make their golden years safer and more enjoyable and manageable. Such a change in living arrangements may necessitate some changes on the part of homeowners so they can ensure their homes are safe for seniors.

HOW FAMILIES CAN MANAGE CRAMPED QUARTERS

Young parents living in cities face difficult decisions regarding their living arrangements. The suburbs versus city debate is one many young married couples have had, and that discussion is often prompted by the arrival of children.

Data from the U.S. Census Bureau suggests that more people are choosing cities over the suburbs in the 21st century. While that data indicates 53 of the 81 cities in the United States with populations exceeding a quarter million people experienced reduced growth in 2013-2014, the most recent year for which statistics are available, during that time such cities still exhibited growth well above their averages from 2000 to 2010.

There are many reasons why city life might make more sense than living in the suburbs for young married couples. Living in the city may lead to far shorter commutes for working parents, and the availability of public transportation in cities may save parents the costly expense of purchasing their own vehicles.

But city life may force families to cope with cramped quarters. Even the most spacious apartments may not provide the same square footage as single-family suburban homes. Parents who are committed to city living may need to get creative in order to live comfortably in apartments.

· Actively police clutter. Few things can make apartments seem more cramped than clutter. Unsolicited mailings, old magazines and unused kitchenware are just a few of the items that can make small apartments seem even smaller. Discard junk mail the moment you walk through the door, making a daily effort to keep kitchen counters and tables, coffee tables and other areas that tend to accumulate clutter clear of clutter. Reducing clutter also makes homes safer for young children, making it easier for them to navigate a home while reducing choking hazards.

· Keep hosting duties to a minimum. Many men and women love to host friends and family, and that desire to host won't subside simply because you live in a city. But even if you love to host, host more intimate gatherings so you are not forced to use your already limited storage space to store items, such as extra plates, utensils and drinking glasses, that you will only use every so often. Fewer guests means fewer items you need to store year-round.

· Go easy on the tots' toys. Parents of young children know that kids' toys take up a lot of space, and that's space that many city dwellers simply don't have. Rather than adding to youngsters' toy stash each month, explain to them that space is limited and that some older toys will have to go before new ones can be purchased. Donate old toys and let kids know their items will be given to less fortunate youngsters, as that may make kids feel better about parting ways with their toys. Set a good example by showing kids when you discard or donate older items before replacing them with new ones.

· Think vertically. Single-family home owners may not need to make much use of the vertical space in their homes, but such is not often the case with apartment dwellers. Utilizing vertical space in an apartment can be as simple as buying some shelving units or bookcases. To be safe, keep items the kids will use on lower shelves so they are not tempted to do some climbing to reach their toys or books.

Parents who choose the big city over the suburbs may need to make some sacrifices to make better use of cramped quarters.

HOME TRENDS TO EXPECT IN THE YEAR AHEAD

Trends in home remodeling and decor tend to come and go. Something that is popular for a little while can fall out of favor when the next new idea comes along. New trends are always on the horizon, and 2016 may encourage homeowners to try something new.

- Metallics and metals are back. Although stainless steel accents in the kitchen have long been popular, the glistening look of metal and metallic shades are back in a big way. Inspired by the 1950s and 1970s, brass, gold and metallic finishes are popular right now.

- Texture: Texture is a big component of interior design. Furniture and accessories featuring faux fur and natural fibers are becoming popular. Pieces adorned with cozy materials can seem more inviting. Organic shapes, such as tables looking like the tree trunk they were cut from, also are expected to become more popular.

- Artisanal touches in accessories: It's all about getting back to basics, with homeowners desiring pieces that are one-of-a-kind and handmade rather than mass-produced. Expect to see more accessories that are made by hand or in small batches, like pottery or handwoven textiles, as homeowners are increasingly turning to independent artists and artisans when decorating their homes. Homeowners can even support independent artists when choosing art for their homes. For example, YourArtGallery.com provides an online marketplace for artists to showcase and sell their work, and buyers looking to support independent artists can rest easy knowing that 90 percent of all image royalties go directly to the artist, a stark contrast to the roughly 50 percent offered by more traditional galleries.

- Fabric on the walls: Walls also will be covered in texture and pattern. Textiles will increasingly turn up on walls and in places they haven't traditionally been seen. Patterns may lean toward floral, tropical and indigenous artisan weaving designs.

- Pinks and blues: Expect to see pale pink and blue in various design applications. The Pantone Color Institute® released a blending of two colors, Rose Quartz and Serenity, as their 2016 Color of the Year. This has impacted color trends through all areas of design - including home touches. These colors pair well with mid-tones, like browns and greens, as well as the increasingly popular metallics.

- Smart homes: Technology is changing the way people look at their homes. Water-resistant music systems for the bathroom, wirelessly operated Bluetooth devices that turn on lights or appliances from a smartphone and even fixtures that use technology to self-clean are turning up more and more.

Home decor trends are always changing, adding new life to homes and keeping armchair interior decorators on their toes.

HOW TO CREATE EXTRA SPACE FOR GUESTS

Homeowners who enjoy entertaining frequently sometimes host overnight guests. While many hosts and hostesses have spare bedrooms for overnight or long-term guests, many others do not. But those among the latter group willing to get a little creative can find more places for overnight guests to rest their heads.

· Sofa: Living room or den sofas can double as bedding for overnight guests. As a short-term solution, a night or two on the couch can be comfortable enough. Be sure to cover the sofa with freshly laundered sheets and provide those amenities one would expect in a guest space. Access to a television, a reading lamp, a fan for some white noise and a table on which to place a phone or alarm clock are helpful to have. Such items will make guests more comfortable. If your living room or family room has a door that can be closed, this will help create more privacy for guests.

· Convertible bed: Marketed frequently under the brand name Murphy Bed, convertible beds can incorporate sleeping options into rooms with limited space. This furniture essentially is a bed that folds vertically or horizontally into a frame. When closed, the bed can look like a decorative storage closet or armoire. Some convertible beds come with bookcase accessories to expand storage space and also make the piece look like a more cohesive unit. Designers also have experimented with these beds, and some transform from a desk or even from a low-lying bookshelf or bench into a bed.

· Sofa bed or chair: Sofa beds and chairs have a fold-out bed nestled beneath their cushions. Depending on the size of the couch, a twin, full or queen-sized bed may be housed within. Sofa beds vary in regard to their comfort levels, so prospective hosts should investigate their options to ensure guests have the most comfortable sleeping situations possible. A bed in a couch can turn an office or living space into a guest sanctuary in a matter of minutes. In addition, some sofa beds also have extra space built within for storing blankets and pillows. Many popular furniture retailers offer couch brands that can be equipped with a bed. And if space is especially tight, consider a convertible chair that has a twin-sized bed tucked away.

· Bunk beds: Bunk beds may seem like child's play, but they make great use of vertical space. Share a kid's room with your son or daughter and let the guest take your own bedroom. Otherwise, equip a home office with bunk beds and have two more sleeping spaces available.

Accommodating guests when you don't have a guest bedroom can take some creativity, but those willing to think outside the box can find options that don't compromise guests' comfort.

PREPARE COOLING SYSTEMS FOR WARM WEATHER

One springtime task on homeowners' to-do lists is checking cooling systems to ensure they are ready for summer. Proper maintenance of cooling systems is essential to saving energy and keeping utility costs down. Fortunately, homeowners need not be certified HVAC technicians to maintain their cooling units.

- Clean filters. Whether a home is kept cool by a whole-house central air conditioning system or window units, clean filters are necessary to keep the units working efficiently. Routinely replacing or cleaning filters is one of the most important maintenance tasks to improve airflow and increase efficiency. The U.S. Office of Energy Efficiency & Renewable Energy says replacing a dirty, clogged filter with a clean one can lower an air conditioner's energy consumption by anywhere from 5 to 15 percent.

- Know the square footage. When replacing a cooling system, have an understanding of the size of your home (or room if installing an window unit). Determine the area of the home so you buy a unit that suits your needs. Air conditioners use BTUs (British Thermal Units) to define cooling power. The more BTUs, the larger the space that can be cooled. However, homeowners do not want to exceed the necessary cooling power. This leads to energy waste. EnergyStar.gov can help homeowners find the right cooling system for their needs.

- Inspect system coils. The evaporator and condenser coils on air conditioners can collect dirt, even when filters are maintained. Dirty coils are less efficient at absorbing heat, so periodically remove the dirt. Outdoor coils can be kept cleaner by cutting back foliage from the unit to allow better air flow.

- Inspect condensate drains. Energy.gov also suggests making sure condensate drains, which take moisture pulled from the air away, are functioning properly. If they're clogged, they may not be effective at reducing humidity in a home, and they may even leak.

- Clear debris. Remove fallen leaves or other plant material from condenser units and fan blades. Obstructed components can cause the system to retain heat, compromising its ability to work effectively. Some homeowners prefer to cover their condensers at the end of the cooling season to keep leaves and dirt out of the unit.

- Check window unit seals. When installing window units, make sure all seals around the air conditioner are in place to prevent cool-air loss.

- Hire a technician. Air conditioner technicians can be very helpful and will know how to prepare a system for hot weather. Technicians typically conduct multipoint inspections and measure such things as refrigerant levels and duct leakage. Airflow through the evaporator coil also may be checked. If a homeowner suspects the thermostat is not working properly, a technician can verify if that is true and even install a new one if necessary.

As summer approaches, homeowners should prepare their air conditioning units for the busy months ahead.

SAFEGUARD YOUR HOME FROM INSECT INFESTATIONS

The dawn of spring marks the return of many things, including long hours of sunlight and warm temperatures in which to enjoy that sunshine. But homeowners know spring also marks the return of insects, unwelcome guests that can be difficult or expensive to control once they have entered a home.

As problematic as insect infestations can be, preventing such problems can be simple, especially when homeowners are proactive. The following are a handful of ways to keep insects out this spring and summer.

- Consider potential food supplies and cut those supplies off. Insects often enter a home in search of food, so cutting off potential food supplies is a great way to prevent insects from coming inside. Give dining areas a thorough cleaning after meals, vacuuming or sweeping the floors beneath dining tables each night before going to bed. (Parents of young children may want to sweep floors after each meal.) In addition, clean pets' bowls each night to be sure there are no food scraps left that may entice insects, and make sure pet food containers are tightly sealed after each serving. Sinks are another potential food source, so empty food traps after using the sink and run the garbage disposal as well to remove any food that might be lingering.

- Address potential shelters. Insects also seek shelter inside homes, and there are many areas in a home that can provide adequate shelter. Cracks around windows and doors and in the foundation provide both entry points and potential shelters for insects. Seal such cracks with caulk, testing the areas by feeling for any incoming air. If you still feel air coming in, there is still some sealing to do. Cracks in cabinets or counters also may provide shelter to insects, so address these areas as well.

- Reconsider exterior lighting. Exterior lighting may be inviting insects into your home. Insects tend to congregate around lights at nighttime, so avoid placing lights right outside entryways. Once doors are opened, insects can then fly right into your home. Keep exterior lights as far away from entryways as possible. If you need lights right outside your doors, install motion-sensing lights that only turn on when you come within a few feet of the door. This reduces the volume of insects that congregate outside your entryways, and lowers the risk that insects will follow you in when you arrive home at night.

- React quickly upon seeing insects. Insect infestations happen gradually, so homeowners should react quickly when seeing a single insect or a handful of insects inside their homes. The slower your response, the more likely one or two intruders is likely to turn into a large infestation. Immediately clean any areas where you see insects, and take more substantial measures if your initial efforts were not enough to prevent more insects from coming in.

The presence of insects inside a home can be a nuisance, but there are many ways to prevent such infestations and keep unwelcome guests at bay.

Obituaries

Joan Shaw, 1935 - 2016

It is with sadness that we announce that our Mom, Grandma and Great Grandma passed away on March 23, 2016. She had lived in Entwistle since the 70's and had recently moved to the Shangri-La Lodge. Mom was a strong, independent woman who loved a good laugh and took pride in her children. She loved being a Grandma to her 11 grandkids and 17 great-grandkids. She was born on a farm outside of North Battleford, SK and as a young girl moved to Alberta with her parents and siblings. Mom was an awesome cook and we were lucky to grow up eating her homemade bread and desserts. In her later years she took up knitting to keep her hands busy and managed to knit many blankets for her family and friends. She was a member of the Legion for more than 50 years. Joan will be lovingly remembered by her children, William, Donald (Joy), June (John), Cheryl (Frank), Elizabeth (Sid), Heather (Randy), Lloyd (Annie) and George (Debbie); all her Grandkids as well as a very wonderful friend, Kathy who always made time for mom, for which we thank her. She is also survived by her sister, Inez and her nieces and nephews from the Tinney side of the family. She was predeceased by her parents, Ethel and George Back, her brother Bobby and her husband, Lloyd in 2005. A Memorial Service will be held at Entwistle Seniors Drop-In Centre on Saturday, May 21, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. For those who desire, memorial contributions in Joan's name may be made directly to Drayton Valley Health Services Foundation - CT4DV, 4550 Madsen Avenue, Drayton Valley, Alberta T7A 1N8. Condolences may be sent to www.serenity.ca Arrangements in care of Joelle Valliere, Funeral Director at: SERENITY FUNERAL SERVICE DRAYTON VALLEY 780.542.3338 www.serenity.ca (1) 05-04

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
