FACTS ON LAC STE. ANNE MEDIATION

Submitted by Mayor Kate Patrick, Mayor Jim Benedict, Mayor Dale Krasnow, and Mayor Bernie Poulin

For several years now the relationship between Lac Ste. Anne County and the urban municipalities within the County's boundaries has been deteriorating to the point where we believe there are detrimental and negative impacts, including but not limited to, safety and emergency response. This includes over two years of trying to negotiate on fire services itself, and over a year since mediation was first mentioned by Alberta Municipal Affairs.

Our relationship has deteriorated to the point where Alberta Municipal Affairs recognized these municipalities needed some intervention and assistance through mediation. The Minister of Alberta Municipal Affairs has provided $50,000 in funding to cover the costs of two mediators to work with all 16 municipalities within Lac Ste. Anne County boundaries, including Lac Ste. Anne County.

These two mediators had phone discussions with these municipalities, and then had a meeting with each individual municipality's Council and Administration (the Summer Villages were a combined meeting as opposed to 12 individual meetings). From these discussions, a meeting was scheduled for Monday, April 4th, 2016 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., whereby a quorum of Council from each municipality and each CAO would be participating to review key protocols and agree to the immediate and long term mediation process going forward.

On Wednesday, March 30th, 2016 our municipalities received an email from one of the mediators advising that they had received notice on Tuesday, March 29, 2016 that Lac Ste. Anne County had passed a motion to postpone their involvement in the mediation process. This postponement was to allow involved parties to sort out issues relating to fire services. As a result, this April 4th, 2016 mediation meeting was cancelled by the mediators. As a matter of process, the tentative meeting dates of April 19th and 20th were also cancelled.

As April 4th, 2016 was a date already in the calendars of elected officials from each municipality, the elected officials of the 15 urban municipalities decided to go forth with a meeting and assess this latest development and the mediation process itself.

At this April 4th, 2016 Special meeting, 11 of the urban municipality Mayors signed, on behalf of their respective municipalities, a letter to the Minister of Alberta Municipal Affairs stating as follows: "Upon reflecting on discussions held during meetings with selected mediators, and now their March 30th, 2016 email cancelling upcoming meeting dates because of Lac Ste. Anne County's participation postponement, our communities respectfully request a full withdrawal from this mediation process. Our communities' further request that Alberta Municipal Affairs conduct a corporate and governance review of Lac Ste. Anne County, and we suggest the unspent funds from this mediation process could be redirected to this corporate and governance review".

It is important to note that it was in fact Lac Ste. Anne County who initially pulled out of mediation, and while their words were "postponed" this "postponement" resulted in the cancelling of 3 scheduled mediation meetings. Given Lac Ste. Anne County's reason for postponement, the reality is that their postponement was indefinite - if not a complete withdrawal - as one of the core issues for many municipalities is the topic of fire services.

Would Lac Ste. Anne County come back to the mediation table, perhaps, who is to know?

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A lady was walking down the street when she was approached by a lady beggar asking for money. The lady took a $20 bill out of her purse, and asked "if I give you this money will you spend it on chocolate." "Don't be ridiculous" the beggar replied "does it look like I have nothing better to spend money on?". "How about shopping?" she asked. "No," the beggar said, "don't you understand I need money just to stay alive." "Will you spend it on your hair?" the lady asked. Annoyed the beggar replied, "No, I just need money for food, and shelter. "In that case" the lady said "I don't want to just give you money I would like you to eat out with me and my husband tonight." "Why?" The beggar asked. "Well," the lady said "I think it's important for him to see what a lady looks like after she gives up chocolate, shopping, and hair appointments."

SPRUCE GROVE SAINTS PLAYOFF HOCKEY

Submitted by Gord Montgomery

As we are sure you're aware, there is only one team left in the Capital Region playing hockey that matters - the Spruce Grove Saints.

The Saints will enter the Alberta Junior Hockey League's Gas Drive Cup Championship round for the seventh straight year starting this Friday evening, when they play host to the Brooks Bandits in the league finals.

The Saints have advanced to this point suffering only one loss in nine games on the playoff highway while the Bandits have yet to lose a contest through two rounds, meaning they're on an 8-game unbeaten streak.

These were the top two teams in the AJHL this past season so this series should provide playoff hungry hockey fans with lots of speed and scoring, along with some great physical play. The action all gets underway on Friday, April 15 at 7 p.m. at the Grant Fuhr Arena in the Grove.

Game Two will go the next night, same time, same place before the series shifts to Brooks for the third and fourth contests. If a fifth game is needed, it will be back in the Grove on Friday, April 22 and if the series goes the limit, that game will also take place in the Grove on Tuesday, April 26.

For the fans' convenience, the entire seating area and lounge at the Grant Fuhr Arena are licensed for alcohol consumption. And even better yet, parking is free!

For any further inquiries, please contact Shaun Collard at the Saints office during business hours at 780-960-6326.

MLA HONOURS WHITECOURT – STE. ANNE IN LEGISLATURE

Submitted by Honorable Oneil Carlier, MLA, Whitecourt – Ste. Anne

On April 5th, 2016 I had the honour of delivering my Maiden Speech in the Legislature before my colleagues. This speech has also been made publically available to rest of Alberta. In this speech I was able to introduce my constituency of Whitecourt – Ste. Anne, and give recognition to its success, beauty and people. I spoke of the hard working, generous men and women who make this beautiful area what it is, and how well positioned it is for the future of Alberta's economy. I am extremely proud to represent Whitecourt – Ste. Anne as your Member of the Legislative Assembly.

"Thank you Mr. Speaker.

On May 5th 2015, like many Albertans, I watched the results of the provincial election on television. Surrounded by family and friends at the home I share with my beautiful wife Michele I came to realize that I would be successful and would become the 3rd Member of the Legislative Assembly for Whitecourt-Ste. Anne since its creation in 1993.

I couldn't be more honoured to serve the wonderful people of this district. This amazing constituency is rich in diversity in not only in its people and communities but also its natural wonders. The hardworking people of Whitecourt-Ste. Anne are farmers, ranchers, foresters, machinists, plumbers, electricians, welders, truckers. They serve meals, clean hotel rooms, work in stores, provide financial and legal advice, teach and guide our young.

We can't forget the many men and women who serve the public good as nurses, peace officers and firefighters. Some work in or near their town while others commute to Whitecourt or Edmonton, but all contribute to the prosperity of Alberta. Much has been said about the need to diversify our economy, especially in light of the current downturn in the price of oil and gas.

Whitecourt-Ste. Anne with its abundant resources is well positioned to take advantage of that diversification. Oil and gas for sure will become more diversified but so will the other two major industries in Alberta, Agriculture and Forestry. As the largest of our renewable sectors, both have a lot to contribute by way of value added products. Research in forestry and agriculture will allow us to continue being world leaders in new wood and agriculture products. Our Climate Change Leadership Plan will allow for increased innovation in the use of bio-fuels and green electricity generation. There are already some exciting things happening in the district that demonstrate to the world that we take climate change seriously and will do something about it.

Whitecourt-Ste. Anne will have a large role to play in the new green economy. As we continue to invest in the future of this great province, we will strive to diversify our economy, so as to ensure that those in Whitecourt-Ste. Anne finding the current economic times tough will be able to look forward to a bright future. That future is in large part possible because of the good people of Whitecourt-Ste. Anne who spend some of their free time helping others.

The single greatest asset to the social well-being of our community is its volunteers. You might be a member of a service club or a leader with a youth group such as Scouts Canada or coach a hockey team. You might help out with the Community Lunch Box in Whitecourt or the Legion in Evansburg. Perhaps you spend some of your free time with the Agricultural Societies and 4H clubs that not only contribute to the prosperity of our rural district, but also play a huge part in maintaining that rural life style we all love and cherish. Whatever you volunteer for, I am very grateful for your contribution. Your efforts are what make Whitecourt-Ste. Anne the great place to live and raise a family that it is.

WEST COVE COMMUNITY LEAGUE and WEST COVE DAYS

For years, the Summer Village of West Cove has had a dedicated volunteer group who have committed their time to the West Cove Community League. # LIVESTOCK FOR ACREAGES: HANDS-ON WORKSHOP IN DARWELL

Submitted by Lorraine Taylor, Darwell & District Agricultural Society

For many acreage owners having animals is one of the best parts of rural life. The Darwell and District Agricultural Society is hosting an evening with Dr. Tammy Nay from the Onoway Veterinary Clinic to talk about livestock for acreages. This workshop will help you make the best choice about which ones are right for you and answer questions about the animals you already have.

Are you looking for a pet, a live-in lawn mower, or an animal that will provide milk, fibre, or meat? What kinds of fencing works for different animals? How many goats can you keep on 3 acres? Will predators be a problem? Are there animals that don't make good pets? Dr. Nay will cover these questions and more.

We'll have live animals in the Darwell Cow Palace, on Friday April 22, 6:30-9pm. Because caring for animals is often a shared responsibility we have a special registration fee to encourage all family members to attend. Call Lorraine to pre-register at 780-892-2967, $8.00/person or $20 for a family (immediate members). For more information visit www.DarwellAg.com

Would we as a group of 16 municipalities and 2 mediators book another round of 3 meetings, just to have Lac Ste. Anne County back out at the 11th hour again, perhaps? Would Lac Ste. Anne County have shown up at future mediation meetings, perhaps? Can we still have mediation meetings, perhaps? If all 16 municipalities are willing to participate.

Interesting thing about this mediation process: there is nothing binding motions or recorded minutes at any of these mediation meetings. The mediators do not take notes or minutes, there is no report that goes back to the Minister, and as a result there is no assurance for transparency or clear directives to emerge from this process.

The $50,000 in funding is to cover the mediator's costs only. There is no coverage for hall rental or municipal representative expenses to participate, these costs are borne by each municipality. At the initial meetings it was noted by the mediators that this process could take several months, so obviously that would come with a fairly significant cost to each municipality to participate. While costs for all services must be a consideration of every municipality, we believe we all recognize the urgency and severity of our regional crisis. Unfortunately, the costs to participate in this mediation process when there is no guarantee that the Lac Ste. Anne County will even participate, or that a binding or measurable outcome will result, become inhibitive and are a factor we had to consider.

Also of note, the participating municipalities were advised by the mediators that key municipal representatives from Lac Ste. Anne County may not be participating in the process.

On April 12 the Mayors of the municipalities participated in a conference call with the Minister of Alberta Municipal Affairs whereby we heard that there is a public safety issue and a critical need for consensus on fire services for the region and that as municipalities we must reach an interim understanding of fire services. The Minister is appointing an Assistant Deputy Minister and the Fire Commissioner to work with us and participate in upcoming meetings which are anticipated to commence within the next 10 days.

While the fire situation is urgent, there are many more issues between Lac Ste. Anne County and its urban neighbors that are detrimental to all our communities including but not limited to: policing, emergency management/disaster services, Family & Community Support Service, recreation, library, physician recruitment, economic development, and Inter-Municipal Development Plan. Lac Ste. Anne County ratepayers themselves have concerns with their Council and Administration as they have collected and submitted several petitions in the past year or so. It is all of these factors and considerations combined that lead the 11 Mayors to sign this letter requesting a corporate and governance review of Lac Ste. Anne County.

APRIL IS NATIONAL ORAL HEALTH MONTH

Do you have gum disease? Statistics show that over 70% of the adult population has gum disease. You might be unaware that you have gum disease since it is painless. In its early and moderate stages, you may notice your gums bleeding and a bad smell in your mouth. Do not ignore these symptoms! In the severe stage of gum disease, you may notice your teeth moving or shifting. Unfortunately, some people lose their teeth to gum disease. Only regular oral examination can reveal if you have gum disease.

Gum disease is caused by bacteria that doesn't like oxygen. It hides in the depths of the gums and destroys the bone and gum that supports your teeth. Since the bacteria in our mouth enters the blood circulation and spreads in the body, gum disease has been identified as a risk factor for various health problems like heart attack, diabetes, pneumonia, cancer, Alzheimer's, osteoporosis, rheumatoid arthritis and low weight or premature babies. Yes, the health of your mouth impacts the rest of your body! Having your teeth cleaned regularly can help you control your blood pressure and your blood sugar.

At Karo Dental Care, we screen all our adult new patients for oral cancer with the help of a fluorescent light. Even people who wear dentures can benefit from having their soft tissue checked yearly for oral cancer.

Karo Dental is on the top floor of Karo Centre which is right next to Sobeys in Spruce Grove. We have 4 general dentists and 4 registered dental hygienists who would be happy to have the opportunity to meet you and help you along the road to oral health. Our office is also wheelchair accessible. If you would like to know more about us, please feel free to give us a call, or visit us on our website at www.karodental.ca

SANGUDO HORTICULTURAL CLUB NEWS

Submitted by Brenda Ogden

I had never heard of a pondless waterfall until Lloyd Giebelhaus was talking about his. He has a 60 foot (approx) long waterfall course on his property. The pump brings the water up from a covered hole in the ground. Lloyd wanted this system to protect any visiting children from falling into a pond. Lloyd also has a bubbler, which is a large rock with a hole drilled through the middle. The water flows upward and over this rock creating a relaxing area in his yard. The other thing that Lloyd talked about and which was shared with all three of the speakers was rock hauling. All of the ponds had rocks featured in their structures. Also all the speakers showed pictures of their ponds. Bev Kippers who is a member of our horticultural club had very nice pictures of her pond. Bev has had her pond for over 10 years and gave the listeners some great information. Bev mentioned that pond owners should put in as large of a pond as they can, as a lot of pond owners wish their ponds were bigger once they are completed. Bev was the only speaker of the group who had fish in her pond. Bev spoke a little on how to overwinter the plants and fish of ponds. Brenda Ogden, also a member of the club, was the third speaker of the night. She had a slide presentation on how beauty could be found in ponds when the snow has settled in. Using features like bridges and planters and fences provide something to focus on in the winter time. Also she gave a great website to go to if you are wanting to install a pond. The Greengate Garden Center in Calgary has information on how to choose your site and how to lay down pond liner etc.

For our April 25th meeting our speaker of the night will be Mike Desmarais who is the superintendent of the Trestle Creek Golf Resort. He has been in the turf business for 26 years. During his presentation he will ask people to decide what they want to use their lawn for. This is not a technical talk, he'll bring tips for general maintenance. Easy things to do to drastically improve your lawn. He suggests people measure the area of their lawn before they come; to do the math for our yards and teach us some easy math for calculating how much fertilizer to apply. He also will talk about how to attend to weak patches in your lawns. He mentioned that consistency wins every time. He also hopes people will come with lots of questions. Non members are welcome for a $5.00 drop in fee which includes the speaker and a light lunch.

From the vistas of the Pembina River to the amazing trails of Carson - Pegasus Provincial Park, the constituency of Whitecourt-St. Anne is one of the most beautiful areas of the province. Many of us enjoy spending time near the many small lakes that dot the landscape.

We are blessed with wonderful farm land and an abundance of forested area. Tourists come to Whitecourt-St. Anne to hunt and fish, ski, snowmobile, camp and hike. The district is large, with over 70 villages, hamlets, towns and summer villages. It spans from Onoway, Alberta Beach and Alexis First Nations in the East, to Whitecourt, Blue Ridge and Mayerthorpe in the North West, to Peers and Wildwood in the South West.

Michele and I moved to Lac Ste. Anne over six years ago and it was one of the best decisions we've ever made. We got married on our property and celebrated in the Darwell Hall. We have met so many wonderful people, especially over the past year or so. It seems everyone has a passion for their hometown or their family farm.

Like many Albertans I grew up on the family farm; a farm that my brother now runs as a fourth generation farmer. He is 10 years older than I, so I knew early on that he was more likely to continue the family tradition. I instead found work as a Geotechnical Technician with Agriculture Canada. That job saw me working on many different irrigation projects across the prairies, mostly in Alberta. Little did I know that those 20 years as a public servant with Agriculture Canada would serve me so well in my future job as a public servant for the province of Alberta.

As the Member of the Legislative Assembly for Whitecourt-St. Anne I am a public servant. As a public servant I feel my role is to represent the citizens of the district the best I can. It does not matter whether you supported me in the election or not. I am here to represent all.

After so many years with only one party ruling, we all had to learn to transition. That transition has had its bumps, but I am proud of what we have been able to accomplish in 10 short months. We have shown that we put people first. Whether it is maintaining funding for education or health care or implementing a stimulus plan that will put many Albertans back to work, we continue to show that people are our greatest resource and our first priority.

A few days after we all realized that after 43 years there would finally be a change in the government in Alberta, the Premier asked me to meet with her. I was not sure what I could have possibly done wrong in so short a time; we had not even been sworn in yet! To my great relief, I was not in trouble; instead the Premier asked me if I would like to be the Minister of Agriculture and Forestry.

I was absolutely overjoyed and immediately said yes. I also told her that if I had had my choice of ministry, it would have been Agriculture, as I know how important farming is in my district. I have to admit that I did not know a lot about forestry at first, but I always knew that forestry is also an important industry in Whitecourt-St. Anne.

The people in the industry have been fantastic at bringing me up to speed with respect to the challenges and opportunities in Forestry. In fact only three days after the election, I was asked by Alberta Newsprint Corporation and Millar Western to tour their facilities in Whitecourt. I eagerly accepted their invitation and then proceeded to visit as many mills across the province as I possibly could.

The people of Whitecourt-St. Anne, like the rest of Alberta face some challenges but I believe that the opportunities outweigh those challenges. I have vowed that I will work with all of Albertans to do what I can to face those challenges and to explore those opportunities. The good people of Whitecourt-St. Anne should expect no less."

Sincerely,
Honorable Oneil Carlier

RIDING UPDATE: WEEKS OF MARCH 28 AND APRIL 4

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Parliament was down for two weeks, allowing me the opportunity to meet with local mayors, business leaders, stakeholders, and constituents.

On Monday of the first week, I met with a representative from the energy sector in Edmonton. On Tuesday, I recorded a radio message for the upcoming Volunteer Week, which runs from April 10-16.

I spent the latter half of the week in Lethbridge attending the funeral service for my former colleague, MP Jim Hillyer. Mr. Hillyer passed away in Ottawa on March 23, and he leaves behind a wife and four children.

During the second week, I met with several key leaders of communities and industries. In Edson, I had the opportunity to speak with a company working on a renewable energy storage project in the riding. I also met with Edson Mayor, Greg Pasychny, as well as several representatives of the community concerning the viability and future of the Edson Air Cadets squadron. I believe this is a fantastic opportunity for youth and I would highly recommend it to anyone looking to get their children involved in the community.

While in Jasper, I attended two meetings, one with Town Council and the other with the Chamber of Commerce. The following day, I met with Hinton Mayor Rob Mackin and various stakeholders regarding a new enterprise opportunity moving into the Hinton area.

To end the week, I travelled to the south end of the riding to attend the Rocky Mountain House and Clearwater County Annual Agriculture Banquet. I flew back to Ottawa on April 10, and am looking forward to representing the residents of Yellowhead as we debate the Liberal Government's budget.

HERITAGE VEGETABLES, SAVING SEEDS, AND ANNUAL MEETING

Submitted by Lorraine Taylor, Lac Ste. Anne County Horticulturist

Spring has arrived at the George Pegg Botanic Garden!

Our first event of the year is Thursday, April 21 and everyone with an interest in gardening is invited to attend. Cherhill's A'Bunadh Seeds is launching a vegetable seed saving cooperative program and Pegg Garden is participating this summer. Come out to hear about the project.

Join us at 6:00pm for a light supper. The Annual Meeting at 7:00pm includes an overview of the 2015 season and a look toward our plans for 2016.

This year's guest speaker practically lives in our backyard, Denise O'Reilly farms near Cherhill and runs A'Bunadh Seeds, specializing in short season open-pollinated and heritage seeds. At 7:45pm learn from Denise about heritage vegetable varieties and how home gardeners can grow and save their own seed.

Throughout the evening there is an opportunity to buy or renew a Garden membership and to find out about the interesting volunteer opportunities at Pegg. Denise will have a selection of seeds and garlic for sale. If you'd like to try some of her interesting potatoes visit A'Bunadh's website and order them to pick up on April 21st.

All of this is happening at the Glenevis Community Hall, 20 minutes west of Onoway on highway 43. Admission is by donation. For more information about the Garden and our coming events visit www.PeggGarden.org or call the Garden at 780-203-0331.

Next event: Sunday, June 5, Annual Bird Count + Perennial Plant Sale and Swap. Whether you are new to bird watching or are honing your skills, join our keen bird enthusiasts Peggy and John Folinsbee. Pick up some new perennials for your garden.

EXTERIOR PAINTING POINTERS

A fresh coat of paint on a home's exterior can give a property a vibrant new look. Whether you decide to go with a bold new color or repaint a house in an existing color, new paint can add some life to the exterior of your home.

Summer has long been considered the ideal season to paint home exteriors, but advancements in technology have made it easier to paint home exteriors later in the year. According to paint manufacturer Sherwin-Williams, traditional latex-based paints need temperatures above 60 F to cure properly. Sherwin-Williams also notes that one of the more common mistakes homeowners make when painting their homes' exteriors is to paint during times of the year when temperatures fluctuate greatly between the days and nights. When nighttime temperatures dip considerably lower than they were in the afternoon, dew will form and the paint can stop coalescing. When that happens, moisture gets into the uncured paint and surface staining and adhesion problems may result. So even if the temperature is a comfortable 60 F during the day, homeowners should avoid painting if the nighttime temperatures figure to drop considerably.

In addition to choosing the right time of year to paint, consider the following painting pointers to ensure your home's exterior gets the fresh look you are aiming for.

· Monitor weather reports. It's not just the temperature at night after you paint that should be monitored. Sherwin-Williams advises that the temperature should be in the suggested range and above the dew point for at least 48 hours after application so the paint film can form properly. So applying a fresh coat of paint on a beautiful autumn Saturday is not ideal if Sunday figures to bring the first hints of winter.

· Don't skimp on quality. Some paints are cost more than others, and homeowners working on a budget may be tempted to choose the least expensive option available. While price and quality are two different things, it's important that homeowners avoid choosing a paint solely because it is the least expensive option. Research paints before buying a particular one, emphasizing quality over cost. Today's paints last longer than the paints of yesteryear, so you likely won't need to paint your home's exterior again for a long time. A budget-friendly yet low-quality paint will not only make your home less appealing, but you will likely need to paint again sooner than you will if you go with a higher quality paint.

· Don't paint to cover up a problem. Rotting wood or siding is unsightly, and some homeowners think paint can cover up such a problem. But paint will not stick to rotten wood and siding, and the problem will still be noticeable after you paint. A fresh coat of paint is not the solution to rotten wood or siding. Consult a professional contractor if your home is experiencing such a problem.

A fresh coat of paint on your home's exterior can be a great way to improve your home's curb appeal. But it's important homeowners follow some of the same rules the pros adhere to when painting the exteriors of their homes.

TACKLE HOME MAINTENANCE PROJECTS TO SAVE MONEY

(MS) - Much like the upkeep on your car, tackling home maintenance on a regular basis will prevent problems from developing and save you from larger repair costs down the road. Some projects should be left to the professionals, but there are plenty of weekend jobs that any homeowner can easily handle, like these:

Inspect your roof and make minor repairs. Winter can be especially hard on a roof. Look for ice, hail or water damage. Replace any cracked or missing shingles and clear any debris.

Clean your gutters. It's not glamorous work, but your home's gutters play an essential role in moving water away from your home and preventing damage. Consider installing gutter guards to ensure your gutters remain functional and free from debris.

Inspect windows and doors and re-caulk where necessary. Because a proper seal is essential in both heating and cooling seasons, this job should be performed twice a year to protect against drafts and moisture, and to keep insects out. Worn weather stripping should also be replaced.

Check your insulation. Attics should be insulated to R50, which can usually be achieved with an insulation depth of at least 16 inches. Top up with an insulation product that is water repellant and fire resistant, like Roxul Comfortbatt. Don't forget to ensure that your basement headers are insulated properly to prevent overworking your furnace and air conditioner.

Other simple jobs include fixing leaky faucets, repairing and resealing decks, inspecting the foundation and scheduling a check-up for your HVAC system. The key is being honest about what you can handle and, when in doubt, call in the pros.

GUIDE TO REPLACING HOME SIDING

Few home improvements can transform a home more than the installation of new siding. Replacing siding can be a costly venture, but the right siding will maintain its appeal for years to come.

Updated siding can improve home's energy value by enabling owners to save on heating and cooling costs. A new design and color also can improve a home's property value and set it apart from neighboring properties. According to the Professional Builder's Home Exteriors Survey, exterior design and materials used are a top priority for new home buyers.

Project costs depend on the size of the home as well as which siding material homeowners choose. Considering new siding is a major renovation, it pays to get the job done right.

Choose a qualified contractor

It is important for consumers to do their research when it comes to siding materials and contractors. A contractor who takes shortcuts or improperly installs the siding may void a manufacturer's warranty. Always ask family members and friends for recommendations before choosing a contractor, and check out each prospective contractor's work for yourself. Interview more than one contractor and compare both their costs and what they offer. Ask plenty of questions of the contractors, and avoid those who try hard-sell methods. Questionable contractors may try strategies like a promise of a considerable discount if you "act now" or scare tactics that your home is unsafe in its present condition.

Be sure the contractor carries general liability insurance as well as workers' compensation insurance for their subcontractors. Ask for a license number as well and verify its accuracy.

Guide To Replacing Home Siding

Select a durable material
Siding comes in all types of materials - from wood to plastic to fiber cement - but vinyl is among the most popular due to cost and availability. Research how well particular brands of siding stand up to conditions and which are the least likely to crack, warp or discolor. Find this information from online reviews or through consumer advocacy groups. Also remember, vinyl and other synthetic materials have improved and can now mimic the look of many other materials for a fraction of the cost.

Calculate how much you need
Before you price out siding with contractors, estimate how much you will need for your house. Consumer Reports suggests multiplying the height times the width of each rectangular section of your house in feet, going by what you can measure from the ground, to determine their areas. Multiply the approximate height and width of gables and other triangular surfaces and divide each total by two. Then add all the totals. To allow for waste, don't subtract for doors, windows or other areas that won't be covered. Finally, divide the total square footage by 100 to estimate how many squares of siding you will need. A square represents 100 square feet. Knowing how much you need can save you money.

Vinyl siding can completely transform the look of a home and make it more energy efficient. Consumers who do their homework will get the best value for their investments.

FACTORS TO CONSIDER WHEN PLANNING A HOME OFFICE

As technology has made working remotely easier, more and more professionals are working from home. Working from home can help working parents save money on childcare costs and help all workers avoid rush hour traffic jams and the costs of commuting to and from the office.

The right working environment is essential for men and women who work from home. An environment that's conducive to work can help people increase their productivity and make their employers more likely to allow more employees to work from home. Professionals who are new to working from home may find it takes some time before they can create the perfect working environment, but the following are a few factors to consider when planning a home office.

in the main office, such as color copiers or scanners. If you want to include even scaled-down versions of such equipment in your office, you will need ample space. In addition, less spacious home offices can feel too tight and enclosed, making workers uncomfortable and less enthusiastic about working every day. Pick a spot in your home that affords room for your equipment and the ability to move around so you don't feel cramped throughout the workday.

Space

One of the disadvantages of working from home is that remote workers don't have access to the same level of equipment as

Lighting

Lighting is another factor remote workers must consider when they're planning their home offices.

Factors To Consider When Planning A Home Office

Natural light can provide an energetic boost and improve your mood, so choose a room in your home that gets lots of sunlight during the day. Many professionals who work remotely do so from the basements of their homes, which can make it difficult to rely on natural light. If the basement is the only location in your home that can fit a home office, look for lighting sources that replicate daylight so you are not working in dark quarters. Speak with your physician about how to arrange lighting to reduce eyestrain caused by staring at a computer.

Connectivity

Connectivity also must be considered when planning a home office. While wireless Internet has made Internet dead zones less problematic, certain areas or rooms in your home may still be touch-and-go with regard to Internet connectivity. Such areas should be avoided when choosing a room for your home office, as it can be difficult to remain productive if your connection to your office's external server is routinely compromised. Find an area where the wireless connection is always strong.

Distractions

While your home might be empty for much of the day, you don't want to be distracted when the kids come home from school or when your spouse or roommate arrives home from work.

Avoid putting your home office too close to popular hangout areas in your home, such as the kitchen and the living room. Instead, choose a room where you have lots of privacy so you can focus on your work and won't be routinely interrupted.

Working from home can pay numerous dividends, but professionals who telework must put careful thought into the rooms or areas of their homes where they plan to work.

PAINT AND RENOVATE CORRECTLY

Changing paint colors is one of the easiest and least expensive ways to add a fresh new look to the interior or exterior of a home.

Both exterior and interior paint can be used to protect homes and make strong impressions. Painting projects are fun and can be easy, but not all projects are so simple. Homeowners may need to exercise patience and devote an ample amount of time to get the job done right. One errand drip is all it takes to turn a perfect paint job into a colorful mess.

While paints are much safer now than in years past, they still need to be handled with caution and disposed of with care after the job is done. Painting can be a tricky project because the fumes and chemicals found in many paints make these products more difficult to dispose of.

The Environmental Protection Agency says homeowners in the United States throw out 64 million gallons of paint per year.

While latex paints are not considered hazardous waste, they should be recycled. Oil-based paints, however, are considered hazardous household waste (HHW) and must be disposed of properly.

All homeowners should check with their trash and recycling collection centers regarding the proper way to dispose of paints, stains and varnishes. It's also possible to visit Earth911.com and find a disposal facility online.

GROUPS REQUEST PROVINCE OF ALBERTA TO CONDUCT CORPORATE AND GOVERNANCE REVIEW OF LAC STE. ANNE COUNTY

Submitted by Ian McInnes from The McLeod River Post

Long simmering resentments with the municipality of Lac Ste. Anne County came to a head on April 4 when an official request for the Province of Alberta to conduct Corporate and Governance Review.

This is not a step to be taken lightly and we have posted the statement requesting the review below.

“Mayor Kate Patrick, Mayor Jim Benedict, Mayor Dale Krasnow, and Mayor Bernie Poulin Alberta Beach, Town of Mayerthorpe, Town of Onoway, Summer Village of Castle Island, Summer Village of Nakamun Park, Summer Village of Silver Sands, Summer Village of South View, Summer Village of Sunset Point, Summer Village of Val Quentin, Summer Village of West Cove, and Summer Village of Yellowstone have requested an audience with Minister Larivee, Minister of Municipal Affairs to discuss matters of great importance and having detrimental impacts on these communities.

These communities have respectfully requested that Minister Larivee conduct a corporate and governance review of Lac Ste. Anne County.

Jim Benedict, Mayor Alberta Beach, Kate Patrick, Mayor Town of Mayerthorpe, Dale Krasnow, Town of Onoway and Bernie Poulin Mayor S.V. of Silver Sands (S.V.’s Representative).”

We have a further statement from the above named group:

“The municipalities have requested Minister Larivee, Alberta Municipal Affairs to conduct a corporate and governance review as a result of concerns with Lac Ste. Anne County having an impact within our communities. It is anticipated that the specific municipal concerns will be raised during the review process. Upon completion of a corporate and governance review a report is usually published. A report of this nature will generally provide a number of recommendations. At this point in time, the signatory communities will not be addressing specific concerns in public; however, we will address these concerns during the review process.”

Representing a citizens group we received the following statement too: Myself (Christine Yeoman), along with Alice Szybunka are officially titled representatives of the Petitioners in the County of Lac Ste. Anne. We have petitioned our council and administration three times in the past three years that I am aware of. Our council and the administration have lost the confidence of the ratepayers of the county. Quite simply stated, they don’t listen to the electorate forcing us to go to extreme measures the likes of petitioning the Minister of Municipal Affairs under 254 of the Municipal Government Act. Our proposed budget for 2016 is comprised of allocations of loans and MSI (Municipal Sustainability Initiatives) non guaranteed funding. Our governing body is out of step with what the ratepayers want and need, which is primarily fiscal responsibility in these economic times. As a group, we have attempted to have discussions on behalf of the ratepayers of the county and it has all fallen on deaf ears. They are not interested in what we have to say. In fact, the Reeve (Mayor as he refers to himself) stated in the Barrhead Leader that none of the council ran and were elected thinking they were going to run again. We are headed into some very real, very large deficits and we are not, “open for business” commercially as we have one of the highest mill rates in the province. Not very welcoming!”

We approached Lac Ste. Anne County and received the following statement from County Mayor Bill Hegy: “On Monday, April 4, 2016, representatives from 11 communities within Lac Ste. Anne County submitted a letter to the Alberta’s Minister of Municipal Affairs requesting a withdrawal of the mediation process between Lac Ste. Anne County and these communities. Additionally, this group has requested that a governance review of Lac Ste. Anne be initiated.

While disappointed in the inability of this group to work toward achieving measured, mediated consensus on a number of matters vital to ratepayers, the County has no concerns with the group’s proposal that a governance review be performed. Further, the County would support the governance review of all sixteen municipalities within the region.

It is not realistic to expect the consistent alignment of goals between groups with different needs and priorities. However, Staff, Management and Council are responsible, first and foremost, for stewarding Lac Ste. Anne County in alignment with ratepayer endorsed objectives. We wish to continue to fulfill these responsibilities without undue pressure or interference from other municipalities.

Council is confident that the governance and administration of Lac Ste. Anne County is in line with the requirements of the Municipal Government Act. Should a government review be deemed appropriate by the Minister of Municipal Affairs, the County will cooperate fully throughout the process. Information will be shared on this matter via the County website lac.ca, and via facebook.com/lac-steanne.”

While it has not been mentioned specifically in any of the statements it is highly likely that one but certainly not all of the major issues causing this dispute is the building of the new County administration building in Sangudo at a cost of around eight million dollars; a borrowing bylaw had to be passed to finance the project.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
