YELLOWHEAD COUNTY GARDEN PRIDE SHOWCASE TOUR

Submitted by Stefan Felsing

“The very popular County Pride Tour provides a look at some outstanding examples of the beautiful landscaping that can be done with the plants that flourish in this climate,” says Yellowhead County Agricultural Services Supervisor Jennifer Benson.

“Although our local climate presents some big challenges for gardeners, it is inspiring to see the clever and creative ways that gardens have been adapted to flourish here.”

NEW GROUCH CANDIDATES SHARPENING THEIR SKILLS!

Submitted by Al Hagman

July has arrived and so has the new slate of candidates vying for the esteemed title of “Evansburg Grouch.” Jennifer Yakimchuk has done a wonderful job for the past year spreading her venom across both sides of the river. Her last appearance was just at the Entwistle Rodeo where she received a big kiss from some clown—actually the rodeo’s clown, Earl! Alas, all good things must end, and her grouchiness is at the all-time low ebb. Fortunately, the newbies are a class of a couple of top performers and it looks like we are set for a dilly of a race.

Take a look at our first candidate, Don (The Incredible Sulk) Gibbs. Don resides in the Evansburg Lodge with his wife Sharon. Don has 6 children and is well known by residents there. Don has had a storied past serving as a mechanic in the military and was stationed in Germany, New Brunswick, and Ontario. He spent time working for Flint in High Level and lived in Sanguo before Evansburg. Do not be fooled by his calm, relaxed appearance—Don is no rookie in the “grouching” department. He is cat-like in his ability to pounce on unsuspecting prey, before they have had a chance to defend themselves. His motivation comes from living in the communal environment that is the Evansburg Lodge. He is especially irritable in the morning until he has had his breakfast.

New Grouch Candidates Sharpening Their Skills!

Don, but he said 43 years with his wife is "just like it!" He did work as a trucker, a heavy equipment operator, and more recently as a stucco contractor. His pet peeve is the people who think they know everything—because he believes he is the only one who knows everything! His motto in life is "Liver to the Fullest!" or was it "Live'er to the Fullest!"

So you can see that, if either Don or Randy is elected we will be in good hands. Coffee cans have been placed throughout the businesses in Evansburg and Entwistle with pictures of these grumblers on the front. Put your cash in the slot above the picture of the grouser that you wish to see carry the torch for 2016. That

Our second candidate is Randy (The Rottweiler) Trydal. Randy resides in Evansburg and lives along with his wife Cathy. He met Cathy while she worked in the Voyageur restaurant in Edson. Randy and Cathy have 3 children, 4 grandchildren, and have lived in both Entwistle and Evansburg. If living in Entwistle wouldn't put you in a bad enough mood, moving to Evansburg across from the ball diamonds was enough to make him look like he does in this picture. He didn't work in the military like money will go into the PV Daze coffers to help pay the considerable costs associated with putting on PV Daze. The moaner with the largest total on Friday, August 5th will be crowned at the pancake breakfast on Saturday, August 6th. The crowning ceremony will begin @ 9:00 a.m.

THE EVANSBURG FARMERS' MARKET IS A GREAT PLACE TO BE!

Submitted by Rena Traxel, Museum and Farmers' Market Manager

The Evansburg Farmers' Market is in full swing. The market is averaging between 150-250 shoppers per week with weekly regulars dropping in for coffee and a chat. If you have already been to the market, thank you for your support. If you still need some convincing here is a glimpse into a day at the Evansburg Farmers' Market.

At 8 am the manager arrives to let the vendors in. For the next two hours, Tipple Park Museum is transformed into a marketplace with the majority of vendors inside the reception building. At least 80% of products are handmade, homegrown or baked by local farmers and artisans.

The smell of juicy hamburgers and hot dogs wafts from the kitchen concession. By the kitchen, there is a table for enjoying coffee and a bite to eat. Or if patrons prefer they can wander out to the park and snatch up a picnic table to enjoy the summer sun. Out on the back pad Museum staff set up a table for that week's craft such as puppet making, rain sticks or necklaces. There are also games such as jacks, hopscotch and bocce. Many kids take part in this free drop-in program.

After shopping and eating, patrons are welcome to a tour of the Holly Springs School, the Mazeppa Log House and the A-Frame. After the market, the temporary exhibit space, currently hosting the Communication exhibit, is opened.

Too soon the market is over, and vendors are packing up for the day. Luckily regular offerings such as Specialty Meats, baking, Ukrainian food, leather work, wood work, art, Watkins, handmade cards and stamped candles and knitting return every Saturday and vegetables are now in season! Other vendors attending some Saturdays include offerings such as stained glass, handmade jewellery, handcrafted barrettes and more, leggings, doll clothes, blankets, aromatherapy magic bags, signs, clothes and much, much more. There will be other vendors later in the season providing Taber corn, homemade soap and variety of vegetables.

Of course, new vendors and patrons are welcome!

Please pop in, grab a newspaper, chat with staff and vendors and see what this great market has to offer. The market runs every Saturday from 10-2 until the end of September with two special markets November 19th and December 3rd.

ALMOST JOHNNY CASH!

Submitted by Al Hagman

David James and Big River are often described as one of the most authentic Johnny Cash tribute shows touring today. Thousands of fans agree with those reviews, as they routinely sell out shows across Canada and the States.

James and his band—Todd Sacerty on bass, Duncan Symonds on guitar and pedal steel, and Colin Stevenson on drums—look and sound like the legacy of the Man in Black, and when they step on stage, they live it.

If he had to say just when he started, James would say it was probably back when Joaquin Phoenix was singing Johnny Cash's songs in Walk the Line. "I fell in love with what he did," James recalls. "It inspired me how this guy could live this way and come around and get it all back and make great music throughout."

James is an Alberta native but his deep voice takes on a southern twang from time to time, like when he says "fella" or guitar ("gee-tar"). Still, he might not have paid the moment much mind if his girlfriend hadn't taken notice. "She was absolutely blown away when I started to sing along. She's like, 'You sound better than Joaquin!'" he recalls. About one year later James looked out at a crowd and said, "Hello, I'm almost Johnny Cash."

David James and Big River are scheduled to play on Friday, August 5th at the Legion Hall in Evansburg as a part of their Pembina Valley Daze Festival. Tickets are $25 and available at Claire's V & S Dept. store in Evansburg (780-727-3868). Tickets sold out two weeks prior to the show the last time this group performed here. We hope you will come out and support this show this year. "We will sell you a whole seat---but you will only need the edge!"

MARIJUANA

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

The Liberals have created a task force to study the legalization of marijuana. Within five months this task force will have to assess the potential legal, financial, moral and medical ramifications of legalizing the drug.

At the recent Conservative Policy Convention, we passed a resolution stating, "...in order to expand the means which law enforcement authorities have at their disposal to combat drugs and their negative impacts, particularly among young people, and to reduce the volume of judicial proceedings, we recommend that peace officers be enabled to issue tickets for simple possession of small quantities of marijuana."

Our policy resolution is in line with recommendations from the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police on the marijuana file. They support providing front-line officers the ability to ticket individuals found with 30 grams of marijuana or less. The Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police do not recommend the legalization of marijuana.

As a former RCMP officer, I have serious concerns about a number of issues regarding the Liberal's promise to legalize marijuana. How are the Liberals going to address the current proliferation of illegal, unregulated marijuana dispensaries (in Vancouver, there are currently more illegal marijuana dispensaries than Starbucks locations)? How will they address the public safety issue of people driving and operating heavy equipment while high, or ensure that marijuana is kept out of the hands of children? Will they balance our international obligations regarding the legality of marijuana?

I do not have confidence in the Liberals to put forward a plan to legalize marijuana that will adequately address all of these serious concerns. Justin Trudeau and the Liberals have made a complete mess of the marijuana issue by their failure to provide any policy coherence whatsoever.
