JOKE OF THE WEEK

Bob was in trouble. He forgot his wedding anniversary. His wife was really pissed. She told him, "Tomorrow morning, I want to see a gift in the driveway that goes from 0 to 200 in 6 seconds AND IT BETTER BE THERE!" The next morning he got up early and left for work. When his wife woke up, she looked out the window and sure enough there was a box gift-wrapped in the middle of the driveway. Confused, the wife put on her robe and ran out to the driveway, brought the box back in the house. She opened it and found a brand new bathroom scale.

PARIS AGREEMENT RATIFIED

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

On October 5, Parliament voted to ratify the Paris Agreement on climate change, which the Liberal Government signed earlier this year. In this agreement, governments from around the world committed to keeping the increase of global temperatures to below 2°C.

As part of the Liberal’s plan to achieve this, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau announced earlier this week that the federal government will impose a “floor price” on carbon pollution of $10 a tonne in 2018, rising to $50 a tonne by 2022. While provinces and territories can choose between a carbon price or a cap-and-trade system, failure to implement a system by 2018 will result in the federal government imposing a price.

While there was bipartisan support for the climate targets first proposed by our previous Conservative Government, a massive carbon tax grab on Canadians will not achieve our climate change goals. Our party had said we would not support the motion without an amendment, which was defeated, that would have had the Liberal Government abandon its costly carbon-pricing plan.

The Prime Minister promised a new-era of cooperative federalism. Instead he’s using a sledge hammer to force provinces and territories to impose a massive tax grab against their will, not to mention that this would go on top of the Alberta NDP’s carbon tax.

Imposing a new tax while holding back approval on job-creating pipeline projects shows how misplaced this government’s priorities are when it comes to jobs and economic growth.

From day one we promised that the Conservative Party would be the voice of the taxpayer. This is a tax increase that I will fight. Albertans should stand together to ensure that we oppose in any way possible, this unfair, massive tax grab by this federal government.

RAIL SAFETY IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is pleased to inform residents of the Rail Safety Improvement Program (RSIP) through Transport Canada. This program provides grant and contribution funding to improve rail safety and reduce injuries and fatalities related to rail transportation.

Provinces, municipalities and other local authorities will be able to request funding for projects, with construction to begin in 2017. Projects eligible for funding include the installation of flashing lights and bells at railway crossings, the construction of full pedestrian overpasses, and public-education campaigns. There are two components:

- The Infrastructure, Technology and Research (ITR) Component funds projects that address the immediate rail safety needs of communities. The deadline for the ITR component is December 23, 2016.
- The Public Education and Awareness (E&A) Component

funds public education projects aimed at reducing railway-grade crossing collisions and trespassing incidents on railway property, particularly in high-risk areas. The deadline for the E&A component is January 31, 2017.

Information on the application process can be found at www.tc.gc.ca/eng/rail-safety-improvement-program.html

"We're recommended the MOST as the company that knows the MOST"

On October 5, Parliament voted 198 to 84 against Bill C-246, the 'Modernizing Animal Protections Act'. This was a private member's bill put forward by MP Erskine-Smith.

While I understand that there was support to update legislation in this regard, there was a great deal of concern regarding the impact this bill would have on residents in the riding. As it was written, the wording of Bill C-246 was such that a judge could potentially criminalize some commonly accepted activities such as fishing, hunting, trapping, and medical research.

While I was unable to support this bill, I am pleased to inform residents of MP Earl Dreeshen's private members' motion, M-76 (www.parl.gc.ca/Parliamentarians/en/members/Earl-Dreeshen\(59226\)/Motions?sessionId=152&documentId=8463416/Motions?sessionId=152&documentId=8463416)). This motion was introduced on October 3, and would instruct the Standing Committee on Justice and Human Rights to undertake a study to prepare a bill on many of the concerns of Bill C-246, while ensuring that law-abiding hunters and farmers are not adversely impacted. Specifically, this proposed bill would clarify the Criminal Code definition of bestiality, prohibit the importation of shark fins, and require labelling of any cat or dog fur products.

I support M-76 as I believe this would address the concerns of those concerned with the protection of animals, while safeguarding our hunters, farmers, anglers, and medical researchers.

YELLOWHEAD COUNTY COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

Submitted by Stefan Felsing

October 25, 2016

Bickerdike Speed Reduction – Council gave second reading to Bylaw 16.16 that would reduce the speed limit to all of Bickerdike Road to 60 km/hour, down from the current 80 km/hour. Since receiving first reading, Administration has received signed letters from the area residents supporting a speed reduction for the entire Bickerdike road. The bylaw to reduce the speed limit will be voted on at an upcoming council meeting.

Rosevear Ferry Operation 2017 – Council suspended the operation of the Rosevear Ferry for the 2017 season due to lack of access to proper insurance options, as well as legislated environmental issues that would affect operations for the upcoming year. The new Rosevear Bridge is scheduled to be opened in the fall of 2017, limiting the inconvenience of residents.

Ag Services Bursary Awarded – Council approved the Yellowhead County Agricultural Services Board’s recommendation for an Agricultural Services Bursary of $500 to both Nicole Fossheim and Courtney Stanley. Both Yellowhead County residents are currently taking agricultural related programs at the post-secondary institutions they are attending.

Bylaw 13.16 – Council passed Bylaw 13.16 that rezones a section of land located south of Edson to Country Residential. The surrounding areas are residential based lands, and the proposed zoning would be a better fit for this particular property and allow for the property owner to subdivide the property separating the house and the shop. No concerns were brought forward during the hearing.

Bylaw 02.15 – Council passed Bylaw 2.15 that rezones a property adjacent to Hwy 16 in Niton Junction from Rural District to Rural Industrial District that – a requirement needed to expand the businesses currently operating on the property. A Public Hearing was held on May 12, 2015.

CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS LAUNCHES ALBERTA JOBS TASKFORCE TO ADDRESS GROWING JOBS CRISIS

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: MP Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is pleased to advise his constituents of the announcement made today by MP for Calgary-Nose Hill Michelle Rempel and MP for Edmonton Riverbend Matt Jeneroux, of the launching of the Alberta Jobs Taskforce in response to the growing jobs crisis in the province of Alberta. Unemployment is quickly reaching a crisis situation in Alberta. Since the beginning of 2015, the number of Albertans out of work has nearly doubled to 200,000. For a province that was until recently the economic engine of Canada, this situation affects the whole country and demands swift and dedicated action. "The people of Alberta have worked hard for generations, and the entire nation has benefitted from Alberta's economic strength," said MP Rempel. "As the jobs crisis in Alberta gets worse, families need the Liberal government to come up with solutions. Yet so far, the Liberals have failed to put forward a jobs plan. We need to work together and take a collaborative approach in finding real solutions to the very real jobs crisis in Alberta." Over the coming weeks, the Taskforce will collect information from everyday Albertans, employers, small businesses, social assistance organizations, workers and other stakeholders – all of whom are affected by the current jobs crisis and have valuable insight and ideas to share. The Taskforce will produce a report containing tangible policy solutions and budget requests, all while drawing attention to an unemployment problem that is of growing national concern. "Calgary, Edmonton and other places across Alberta now have some of the highest jobless rates in the country," said MP Jeneroux. "Skilled workers across the province are struggling and it is our responsibility to ensure we are looking for every possible solution to get Albertans back to work so they can continue to provide for their families."

Albertans interested in participating in the Taskforce's work can visit: www.AlbertaJobsTaskforce.ca For additional information, please contact: Office of the Honourable Michelle Rempel, MP 613-992-4275 Michelle.Rempel.A1@parl.gc.ca Office of Matt Jeneroux, MP 613-992-3594 Matt.Jeneroux@parl.gc.ca BACKGROUNDER: Jobs crisis in Alberta

• The number of unemployed Albertans has nearly doubled since the start of 2015 (from 112,500 in Jan 2015 to 206,900 in Aug 2016 – up 84.9%)

• Since the beginning of 2015, the overall unemployment rate in Alberta is up from 4.8% percent to 8.4% in August -- 15.9% for those aged 15-24.

• Calgary tops all major Canadian cities with an unemployment rate of 9% in August, while Edmonton is also among the highest at 8%.

• This isn't just an oil & gas problem. Since the start of 2015, the province has lost one in five natural resource jobs (170,900 to 137,600 – down 19.5%), one in five agriculture jobs (from 64,000 to 51,400 – down 19.7%) and one in four manufacturing jobs (from 149,500 to 112,500 – down 24.7%).

• It was Alberta that lifted Canada's economy following the 2008 recession. From 2010 to 2014, Alberta's economy grew twice as fast as the rest of Canada's (average annual GDP growth of 5.02% compared to 2.68%).

• The average Albertan gets 30% fewer federal dollars than the average Canadian (federal transfers to Alberta in 2016/17 are $1366 per capita, compared to $1961 country wide - 30.3% lower).

The Alberta Jobs Taskforce Mandate:

The Taskforce will aim to collect information from everyday Albertans, employers and small businesses, social assistance organizations, workers and other stakeholders, all who are affected by the unemployment crisis. The goal is to create and submit a report, with tangible policy solutions and budget requests, to the Federal Government.

Taskforce Outreach

There will be two primary ways for the Taskforce to conduct outreach into the community:

1. Community Outreach

The Alberta Conservative Caucus will consult with those in their communities who have been deeply affected by this crisis. These consultations could include roundtables, town halls or mail outs to stakeholders.

2. Website

The Taskforce website will include an option to provide feedback, ideas, and stories about the economic impact. This information will be collected and reviewed, in addition to the information collected from the MPs, when creating the final report.

YELLOWHEAD COUNTY FIRE DEPARTMENT HOSTS PROVINCIAL PILOT PROJECT FOR TANKER SHUTTLE OPERATIONS CERTIFICATION

Submitted by Stefan Felsing

(October 27, 2016) – YCFD (Yellowhead County Fire Department) recently hosted a provincial pilot program for tanker shuttle operations certification. The pilot program, done in conjunction with Alberta Fire Commissioner’s Office, was done to test the viability of the program so that Alberta fire departments can have a standard for certification at an international standard.

This new training level, currently not available in the province, is the NFPA’s (National Fire Protection Association) 1002 Chapter 10 Professional Fire Apparatus Driver Pump Operator standard. The Alberta Fire Commissioner’s Office has worked closely with YCFD on other pilot courses in the past to increase the certification available to fire departments across the province.

The course consisted of training for water shuttle operations - using large fire trucks that can transport large volumes of water to locations that are not serviced by a municipal fire hydrant system. During the pilot program, sixteen officers and pump operators from Brule to Evansburg participated and gained invaluable knowledge of the options and methods to increase efficiency on scenes. Shortly after the program, participants that took part in the training that increased the department’s effectiveness were able to employ their skills at a recent fire, showing the benefit of the training in action.

The YCFD training division has implemented this as a standard training program for all its stations now and will continue to train its apparatus operators and officers on implementing water shuttle operations. The 24-hour course occurred at Millers Lake and at one of the new dry hydrant water supplies in River Ridge from October 14th to 16th.

CANADA 150 COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is disappointed to hear of the Liberal government’s decision not to issue a commemorative medal to mark the 150th anniversary of Confederation. “Canada has had a long history of issuing medals to commemorate the Confederation of Canada and recognize deserving Canadians across the country. Commemorative medals are awarded to deserving Canadians who have demonstrated significant contributions to Canada, their community, or to their fellow Canadians,” stated MP Eglinski.

An e-petition and paper petition has been launched calling on the Government to reverse their decision and issue a commemorative medal for the 150th anniversary of Confederation.

“I encourage you to sign the petition to show your support for this established Canadian tradition and the importance of recognizing the achievements and contributions of Canadians,” concluded MP Eglinski.

DARWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWS

Submitted by Sandra Stepaniuk, Library Manager

The weather is turning and we continue our fundraising efforts to complete the new library expansion. We are currently doing a donation drive and are looking for your used clothing, shoes, accessories, books, linens and small household items (small items only no furniture). You can drop off your donations at the library expansion on Monday and Tuesday during regular library hours until November 8, 2016. Should these times not work for you please contact the library to make alternate arrangements.

Did you know that the library has passive programming available during regular hours? Passive programming is programs that are self-directed by patrons and available anytime at the library. We have a few things available in the library for families and individuals to do when they come to visit. The colouring club, family games and makerspaces are examples of passive programming. The great thing about passive programming is that it always fits into your schedule, no specific dates and times to remember, just come down when you want to. We encourage you to ask about our passive programming and provide ideas for what you would like to see in the library. We look forward to hearing you.

Our book club is growing, we have had 3 new people join in the last few months and we want to take this opportunity to thank them and all of our members for supporting the library and its programs. The next Book Club meeting will be on Monday, November 7, 2016 at 7:00p.m. to discuss "Bone & Bread" by Saleema Nawaz. Do you love to read? Do you like to discuss what you have read with others? We have a few open spots and are always interested in a new perspective to add to our conversation. If you are interested in participating you can register and make arrangements for loan of the current title by calling the library @ 780-892-3746.

The Christmas Family Movie Night, at the Lake Isle Community Hall, will be held on Friday, November 25, 2016. We will be showing the pre-release "G" rated title "BFG". The doors will open at 6:30pm and the movie starts at 7:00 pm. Admission will be free for children and each child will receive a grab bag at the end of the movie; the concession will also be available. See you there! All of our programs are sponsored by The Darwell Public Library Society, Darwell Library Friend Society, FCSS and the CLSA Library Grant.

The health benefits of Tai Chi, a gentle form of exercise can help maintain strength, flexibility and balance, and could be the perfect activity for the rest of your life. Tai chi is often described as "meditation in motion.". There is growing evidence that this mind-body practice, which originated in China, has value in treating or preventing many health problems. And you can get started even if you aren't in top shape or the best of health.

Tai chi differs from other types of exercise in several respects. The movements are usually circular and never forced, the muscles are relaxed rather than tensed, the joints are not fully extended or bent, and connective tissues are not stretched. Tai chi can be easily adapted for anyone, from the most fit to people confined to wheelchairs or recovering from surgery. We currently have a signup sheet in the library for a 4 month beginner Tai Chi class that will run 2 times a week, starting in February and ending in May, 2017. There will be a cost for this program which is yet to be determined based on facility cost and number of registrants. We need a minimum of 10 people to register to see the program go forward so if you are interested please stop by and add your name to the list along with your preference for daytime or evening sessions.

The Darwell Public Library Society will be holding their next regular meeting on Monday, September 26, 2016 starting at 7 pm. All meetings are open to the public and everyone is welcome to attend. The Library is open 11:00 am to 4:00 pm on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday and from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm Wednesday and Friday, closed Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays. You can also find out what is happening at the library by checking our Website www.darwell-publiclibrary.ab.ca or like us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/Darwell-PublicLibrary

4 REASONS FOR A CHECK ENGINE LIGHT

Vehicles rely on many components working harmoniously to function at optimal capacity. Any number of systems can go wrong, and oftentimes the first indication that something has gone awry is an illuminated dashboard signal.

One such signal is the “check engine” light. Many drivers have little idea what to do when this indicator lights up, and this light can cause some anxiety. According to Consumer Reports, a check engine light turning on does not usually require immediate action. However, it does mean that you should make an appointment to have the vehicle inspected for potential problems.

Check engine lights are part of a car’s onboard diagnostics. The light turning on may indicate something minor, such as a loose fuel cap, or something more serious like a misfiring engine. When the light turns on, drivers wondering why may want to see if the answer is related to one of the following issues.

1. Loose gas cap: Fuel vapors can leak out and air can get in when the fuel cap isn’t secured correctly. This can compromise the fuel system and make the check engine light come on. Take off the cap and then re-seal it to see if that alleviates the problem. Cracked caps will need to be replaced.

2. Dirty oxygen sensor: A faulty or clogged sensor may not provide the right information about unburned oxygen from the vehicle’s exhaust. This sensor monitors how much fuel is burned. Compromised data can cause a decrease in fuel efficiency. Some do-it-yourselfers can replace an oxygen sensor on their own, but those who can’t should have the issue addressed immediately by a professional.

3. Too much speed or load: Towing a trailer or another heavy item may put strain on the vehicle and cause the light to come on because of loss of power. Lightening the load and reducing speed can help fix the problem. Always consult with the owner’s manual to determine the towing capacity of your vehicle.

4. Short or faulty code: Computers aren’t always fool-proof, and sometimes an electrical short or another similar problem can cause a light to come on. Bring the vehicle to an automotive supply store. Such stores typically have diagnostics tools that can be hooked into the car’s computer and provide a more detailed understanding of what is triggering the check engine indicator.

In many cases, a steady check engine light is not a serious concern. However, when such a light comes on, drivers should try to find out why as soon as possible.

HOW TO PROTECT YOUR CAR'S RESALE VALUE

Few drivers start thinking about resale value when driving a new car off of the dealership lot for the first time. Still enamored with that new car smell, drivers can be excused for not thinking of resale value as they put the pedal to the metal and speed off in their brand new ride.

But it's never too early to start protecting a vehicle's resale value, especially if you hope to recoup as much of your vehicle investment as possible when the time comes to sell your car or trade it in for a newer model. The following are some ways motorists can protect the resale value of their vehicles from the moment the dealer tosses them the keys.

· Keep all maintenance records. New cars typically do not require much maintenance. But drivers should keep records of all work and maintenance done on their vehicles, even if that work does not extend beyond routine tuneups or oil changes. Keeping maintenance records shows prospective buyers you prioritized taking care of the vehicle over the years, and that makes the car or truck more attractive to preowned vehicle buyers who want to avoid buying a lemon or a car that has not been taken care of.

· Don't overlook looks. Looks can be deceiving, but new car buyers who eventually plan to sell their vehicles should do all they can to keep the car looking as new as it did the day it was first driven off the dealership lot. Much like homeowners benefit when selling a home with curb appeal, a car that looks good gives buyers the impression that it was well taken care of. But a dirty car or one with lots of dings and dents is a red flag to preowned car buyers.

· Keep a clean interior. New car owners typically maintain some strict rules with regard to food and beverages in their vehicles. After all, no one wants their brand new car to succumb to stains or spills. But the longer drivers have a car the more lax they tend to become with regard to allowing food and drinks into their cars, and that can ultimately hurt the resale value of the vehicle. Maintain a clean interior whether you just bought the car or have driven it for a few years. Much like an impressive exterior leaves a lasting impression, a clean interior that has not succumb to coffee stains or muddy boots is more likely to impress buyers than a car with an interior that has seen better, cleaner days.

· Drive defensively. It's not just what you do to a car but how you drive the car that can affect its resale value. Driving defensively reduces your risk of accident, and an accident-free preowned vehicle is a top priority for potential buyers. But driving defensively also reduces wear and tear on your vehicle, as over time constant stop-and-go, aggressive driving takes its toll on vehicle engines and other components.

· Periodically examine the vehicle history report. Today's preowned car buyers know to ask for a vehicle history report before buying a car. If your vehicle history report contains any suspicious or inaccurate information, you may be forced to sell the car for less than it's worth or delay selling until you can have any issues corrected. That won't necessarily happen overnight, but you can avoid dealing with a host of issues all at once by periodically examining the vehicle history report. Any discrepancies on the report can be brought to the attention of your insurance company, who can then work with you to correct the issues and restore your vehicle's reputation.

Resale value may not be foremost on the minds of new car owners, but the earlier buyers begin to factor resale value into their car-care routines, the more they will benefit down the road.

SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
