PINK SHIRT DAY 2017: YOU WILL NEVER REGRET BEING KIND

Submitted by Mariann McLaughlin

'Make Nice' is this year's theme for Pink Shirt Day and the City of Leduc is looking to residents and the corporate community to join them in their stand against bullying on Feb. 22, 2017.

"We know bullying happens at home, in school yards, at work and on the Internet, and as a community we need to come together to bring it to an end," says Deputy Mayor Dana Smith. "It begins with kindness; being kind doesn't cost anything and it will help change attitudes and behaviours to stop the presence of bullying in our community."

On Feb. 22, the City of Leduc encourages local businesses, organizations, schools and residents to take a stand by wearing pink. Pink Shirt Day (pinkshirt-day.ca) originated in Eastern Canada in 2007 when a group of teenagers organized a protest at their high school to support a Grade 9 boy who was bullied for wearing pink. Since that time, Pink Shirt Day grew to receive national and global recognition and fundraising to support anti-bullying programs.

"No one entity can combat the issue of bullying on its own, hence the importance of community partnerships to raise awareness and provide education on the issues and dangers associated with bullying in our society," says Smith. "Leduc is a caring and inclusive community and we want to do what we can, where we can for our citizens."

If you and/or your business or place of work would like to participate in this year's Pink Shirt Day, please email info@leduc.ca or call 780-980-7177.

RCMP DOGS JOIN IN BATTLE AGAINST FENTANYL

Submitted by RCMP Depot Division

INNISFAIL, Alberta – February 2, 2017, 9:00 am CST – To counter the presence of illicit fentanyl in Canada and to keep Canadians safe, the RCMP is currently training its Police Service Dogs to detect fentanyl.

The training is paying off. One of the three RCMP dog teams presently trained to detect fentanyl has already intercepted 12,000 tablets in B.C. “I do believe the Canadian population is safer because of our new fentanyl dog training. By keeping more fentanyl off the street, we save Canadian lives,” says Inspector Akrum Ghadban, Officer in Charge of the RCMP Police

Dog Service Training Centre (PDSTC) in Innisfail, Alberta.

The RCMP leads the way in dog training to detect fentanyl. “Our specialists have transformed pure fentanyl into a diluted liquid form, enabling our dogs to train with the real smell of fentanyl with no risk of inhaling it. It is particularly efficient, making the dogs in the field extremely productive,” says Staff Sergeant Eric Stebenne, Senior Trainer at the RCMP PDSTC.

The training of all 139 RCMP narcotics-profile dogs and their handlers across Canada is expected to be completed by mid-July 2017.

Fentanyl is an opioid about 100 times more toxic than morphine which can cause serious harm, including death. It has been used in tablets made to look like prescription drugs.

FAMILY DAY UNPLUGGED FEB. 20: LEDUC, IT'S TIME TO RECONNECT

Submitted by Mariann McLaughlin

Disconnect to reconnect is the city's way of encouraging all citizens to put down their electronics and seek ways to connect with their surroundings, whether it's at home, school or work. Family Day Unplugged, Feb. 20, is recognized provincially as a means to encourage people and families to spend quality time together.

"This Family Day is an excellent time to make a year-long commitment, for either yourself or to your family, to set time aside each week to disconnect from technology so you can reconnect to the people and activities that matter in your life," says Leduc Mayor Greg Kruschke. "We want to help our citizens 'unplug' and connect to those around them through quality and meaningful activities that promote face-to-face social interaction."

In 2016, Family Day Unplugged yielding an overwhelming response with a total of 46,573.75 hours where people walked away from their devices and found other means to spend their day off. Suggested activities to help people disconnect include: cooking/baking, crafts, walking, cross country skiing, playing cards/board games, skating, sledding and reading.

How to participate:

1. Track the hours each person spends 'unplugged' from technology in your home on Family Day, Feb. 20, 2017.

2. Log the hours by using one of two methods, between Feb. 21 – 24, 2017, for a chance to win one of six $50 gift cards to Leduc businesses:

• Online: Leduc.ca/unplug

• In-person – fill out a ballot at the Leduc Public Library (2 Alexandra Park)

The City of Leduc is also hosting the annual 'unplugged' school challenge, open to all Leduc schools and their families. Ballots will be available at all participating schools.

For more information, visit Leduc.ca/unplug or call 780-980-7177.

MP JIM EGLINSKI PARTICIPATES IN THE TAKE-NOTE DEBATE ON JOB LOSSES IN THE ENERGY SECTOR

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: On February 8th, Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, participated in the take-note debate on 'Job Losses in the Energy Sector'. During debate MP Eglinski asked the Leader of the NDP, the Hon. Thomas Mulcair, the following:

"Mr. Chair, my riding of Yellowhead has not been affected as much as a lot of parts of Alberta, but some of the communities in my riding have. Two-thirds of the community of Grande Cache, a community of 4,500 people, have been without jobs for over two years. The communities of Hinton and Edson have been taking in residents from Grande Cache, assisting them in trying to find jobs. In fact, one chap worked for me for a couple of weeks until he could find some work. Yet the provincial government has not assisted them. Nor has the federal government.

Could the hon. member tell us where he sees roles for provincial and federal governments in these communities that are being devastated?"

UNDERGARMENTS CAN MAKE OR BREAK WEDDING LOOKS

As guests' eyes are trained on couples come their wedding days, it is no surprise that both the bride and groom want to look flawless on their big days. Men and women will spend thousands of dollars on clothing, hairstyling, makeup, teeth whitening, fitness classes, and more to ensure they look their best. While couples may be particularly concerned with their wedding day appearance, what they wear under their clothing - particularly for women - can impact how clothes fit and look.

Choosing the right bra or supportive undergarments can play a crucial role in how a gown fits and whether or not brides achieve that picture-perfect look. Wearing the wrong undergarments can negatively affect a bride's appearance and make her extremely uncomfortable. According to a study done by Swiss lingerie company Triumph, a large number of women are choosing their bras incorrectly. The international survey of 10,000 women found that 64 percent of them are wearing the wrong size bra. If women are wearing the wrong undergarments for everyday looks, it stands to reason that their wedding choices may not be spot on, either.

Undergarments should be purchased and brought to all fittings as soon as a gown is selected. In fact, it often is a good idea to ask the bridal store employees to suggest a bra or corset that will complement the gown and remain invisible beneath the dress. Some shops will make bras available when trying on gowns. Brides are not obligated to purchase undergarments where they purchase their gowns, but take note of the brand and style and find a similar one elsewhere that fits with your budget if you don't want to buy at the store.

Pay attention to the gown's fabric and how dense it is. Certain shapewear, including bras, that have a lot of boning in them to shape and support the body can show under bridal dresses without a lot of layers. Always try on the bra with the gown to gauge the finished look. You may opt for simpler and plain lingerie styles so that you will be guaranteed a seamless appearance. Nude-colored bras tend to be less noticeable than white. You always can purchase something with more pizzazz to change into for the wedding night. Some dresses with plunging necklines or backless designs may necessitate other options. Sew-in bra cups are another option that can lend invisible support.

Women with more ample busts may want to select gowns that will allow for bras with supportive straps to be worn. This way there is no worry about strapless bras or other style lingerie slipping down.

In addition to bras, other types of shapewear can enhance certain areas of the body or downplay perceived flaws. Shapewear can smooth and pull in stomachs. Choose boy shorts or thong-style cuts for a seamless finish. Shapers can smooth out bulges on the back, legs and hips, too. There also are special shorts that have some padding in the rear to create a more curvy look.

Bras and other shapewear can make a world of difference in how wedding attire looks and feels. Invest in some quality pieces that will highlight wardrobes to their fullest.

NOTLEY CALLS ALBERTANS UPSET ABOUT THE CARBON TAX 'CHICKEN LITTLE': WILDROSE

Submitted by Wildrose Official Opposition

EDMONTON, AB (February 9, 2017): Premier Rachel Notley is continuing her streak of making insensitive comments towards struggling Albertans by saying those expressing concerns about the carbon tax are doing a "chicken little routine," the Wildrose Official Opposition said today.

Households have seen their energy bills increase, businesses have had to close and charities and nonprofits, who are taking care of Alberta's most vulnerable, have said they don't know how they're going to absorb increased costs due to the carbon tax.

Wildrose Leader Brian Jean said Notley and the NDP should can the laughter.

"It's easy for the Premier and her MLAs to make light of Albertans who are worried about the carbon tax, but I assure you, families struggling to pay their bills every month and businesses trying to keep their doors open are taking this very seriously," Jean said. "This carbon tax is making life more difficult for Albertans and making our province less competitive. This is not a laugh-matter."

Wildrose Shadow Finance Minister Derek Fildebrandt said Wildrose is speaking for hundreds of thousands of working families who don't know how they're going to pay their increasing bills. He said the Premier owes these families an apology.

"The Premier's comments are disrespectful to and completely removed from the reality faced by the majority of everyday Albertans," Fildebrandt said. "Elites might look down upon those who don't want to pay the carbon tax, but those people have real and legitimate concerns. The Premier owes them an apology."

SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box.
