Submitted by Stefan Felsing, Communications Coordinator, Yellowhead County

The new portable speed trailer will remind drivers to be aware of speed limits and will aid in enhancing safety on County roads. It will act as an education and deterrent tool rather than an enforcement tool. The sign will be deployed to various places around the county. Earlier this week it was deployed in the Wildwood school zone.

NEW PRINCIPAL ANNOUNCEMENT - WILDWOOD SCHOOL

Submitted by Nikki Gilks, Manager, Communications
Services | Grande Yellowhead Public School Division

Staff and students of Wildwood School will have a new face in administration, Principal Mike Gray, for the 2017-18 school year as their current principal has recently announced his retirement at the end of June. Although new to Wildwood, Mike is not new to Grande Yellowhead nor to administration ~ he has been a proud employee of the division for almost 30 years, and the Principal at Evansview School in Evansburg since 2007.

"Except for my first year of teaching in Hinton, I have lived and worked within the east end of the division in both Evansburg and Niton Junction. When the principalship came up at Wildwood, I thought this would be an opportune time to spend some quality time in the other community within our Lobstick zone," notes Mike.

Mike graduated from the University of Alberta in 1987 with a minor in Special Education, and received his Masters in Curriculum Instruction in 2014. In 1988, he started his teaching career with Grande Yellowhead at École Mountain View School in Hinton. In June of 1989, Mike moved to Niton Central School where he worked until 1991 when he transferred to Evansview. Mike was the Grade 3 teacher at Evansview for the next 16 years. He worked as assistant principal, under two different principals at Evansview until he accepted the Principal's position in 2007. Students enjoyed being in Mr. Gray's classroom because "he makes learning interesting and fun!" ~ now students at Wildwood will also become the lucky beneficiaries of Mike's engaging learning style.

Wildwood School is a Kindergarten to Grade 9 school located in Wildwood, AB and has a current population of 108 students.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A bill collector knocked on the door of a country debtor and asked the woman who answered the door, "Is Fred home?" "Sorry, Fred's gone for cotton." The next day the bill collector tried again, "Is Fred here today?" "No, sir, I'm afraid he has gone for cotton." When he returned the third day he humphed, "I suppose Fred is gone for cotton again,?" "No, Fred died yesterday." Suspicious that he was being avoided, the collector decided to wait a week and check the cemetery himself. But sure enough, there was poor Fred's tombstone, with the inscription, "Gone, But Not for Cotton."

ROSEN METHOD BODYWORK

Submitted by Maivis Engelhardt

This hands-on bodywork uses gentle sensitive touch to bring your awareness to muscular tension long held in your body. With the supporting touch, you can relax. With relaxation one's breathe can flow with more ease.

A young child expresses emotion easily and spontaneously. As parents and caregivers we respond from our own experiences and conditioning, teaching inadvertently that emotions must be controlled.

There is a time in life, especially in youth where we are unable to deal with negative responses to our instinctual feelings so we have to put them away. In most cases we lock them into our musculature and breathing patterns to control our behavior to meet the expected norm.

With Rosen Method Bodywork, change comes about not as a result of the Rosen Method worker doing something to the client in an intrusive way, but by providing a supporting and caring environment for something new to happen. With support, our body can remember old feelings with less fear and apprehension than facing these old feelings alone. Insight into the habits we created to protect ourselves in past situations may come into our awareness. Through the verbal exchange, observation of restricted breath and physical contact with tight muscle encouraged in a Rosen Method session, old patterns of holding tension can be recognized. With recognition past feelings around events can be released and this allows more freedom and spontaneity in our present living.

As an Intern of Rosen Method Bodywork, it is rewarding and exciting to witness of the relaxation my clients experience after a session. I continue to offer sessions at the discounted price of $45.00 for a one hour session or three sessions for $90.00. This work is unique and needs to be experienced to be understood. It is a great addition to your present medical and/or therapeutic self-care.

ALBERTA GOVERNMENT INVESTS IN LOCAL LIBRARIES: YELLOWHEAD REGIONAL LIBRARY SYSTEM RECEIVES FUNDING

Submitted by Maureen Mariampillai, Communications Officer | Alberta NDP Caucus

The Alberta government is providing more than $10 million this year to improve access and services at local libraries.

The funding includes increased operating grants to help libraries keep pace with the province's growing population and to ensure that all Albertans have a welcoming space to learn, play, share and research.

"More than four million people now call Alberta home and, with our population expected to jump by another million in the coming decade, it's important that we continue to invest in the infrastructure and services Albertans rely on – such as local libraries," said Minister of Municipal Affairs, Shaye Anderson.

Budget 2017 provides more than $4.2 million ($4,296,636) in total direct support to the libraries and library system in the Yellowhead area in operating grants and the system headquarters capital grant.

"Libraries are so much more than their books, they are integral community spaces," said Erin Babcock, MLA for Stony Plain. It is essential that all Albertans have equitable access to the programs and services these community hubs can offer," she added.

"So much has changed since we moved into our building back in 1990," said Kevin Dodds, Director of the Yellowhead Regional Library Board. "We greatly appreciate this investment that will allow us to make upgrades beyond our capacity, so we can continue to serve our member libraries well into the future."

RIDING UPDATE – WEEK OF MAY 22, 2017

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Parliament was on recess this week, allowing me to spend time in the riding.

Last Friday, I visited the new Northern Rockies Museum of Culture and Heritage in Hinton. On Saturday, I attended the Big Horn Rodeo breakfast and parade in Carleton Place. Later that day, I dropped in for a visit with veterans at the Edson Legion.

On Monday, I spent the day in my Edson office meeting with constituents, including an organization to discuss affordable housing in our riding.

On Tuesday, I had a meeting in Drayton Valley before attending an unveiling celebration for the Brazeau County Solar Project.

On Wednesday, I toured the facilities at Camp He Ho Ha at Lake Isle and met with staff. The camp provides safe and rewarding recreational opportunities to children and adults with physical and mental disabilities. I was quite impressed with the facilities.

After spending the first half of the week in the riding, I flew to Ottawa on Thursday to attend the Conservative Party of Canada's Leadership Convention over the weekend. Voting for the next leader of the party has been underway and the winner will be announced on Saturday.

I look forward to welcoming the new leader and returning to Parliament next week with a renewed caucus. My next update will be from Parliament as we return from recess for the next couple of weeks before the summer break.

Stony Plain, Alberta – On May 15th, 2017 at approximately 9:00pm three unknown males attempted to force their way into a residence in the Westerra subdivision in Stony Plain. FIVE GOOD REASONS TO GET OFF THE FENCE AND BUY

Are you looking to buy a home for the first time? With certain factors coming together in the housing market, now may be the time to take the plunge. Keep in mind though, that the "right" time to buy should be when you're personally and financially ready and not an attempt to "time" the market.

Here are five good reasons to buy your own "home sweet home" now:

1. FINANCING RATES AND TERMS ARE LOOKING GOOD

Not only are interest rates near the lowest they've been in decades, but also low rates are available over longer terms.

2. HOMES ARE MORE AFFORDABLE

Real estate prices have been levelling off in many places and for certain types of properties, making home ownership more accessible.

3. THE BUYING PROCESS IS LESS PRESSURED

A slower housing market means fewer bidding wars on homes. That's a huge relief to first-time buyers who find the process intimidating. It can mean more time to think about what you really want in a home, not to mention more opportunities to inspect properties, view data about properties or add conditions to an offer.

4. THERE IS A LONGER LIST TO CHOOSE FROM

For certain types of housing, there may be more listings to look at. This greater choice may up your chances of finding a property that has all the features you want in a location that suits you.

5. YOU FEEL READY

The ultimate trigger for taking the leap into homeownership should be your personal situation. Do you really want to put down roots, make space for a growing family or fulfill a life goal? If you've already set a down payment aside, are prepared to make a long-term financial commitment and know what you want, you may have enough reasons to find a house to call your own.

We can walk you through the mortgage and financing side of the home-buying process ahead of time so you'll know what you can afford and can search for a home with confidence.

Making the decision to purchase a home can be exciting. It can also be a little overwhelming, and we're here to help.

Contact us by email at contact_us@servus.ca, by phone at 1.877.378.8728 or by visiting your local Servus Credit Union branch to find out how you can achieve your dream of home ownership.

(May 25, 2017) – Several Yellowhead County Community Peace Officers (CPO's) were making sure they were seen during the May long weekend while talking to residents and visitors who were in Yellowhead County's backcountry participating in various recreational activities.

Here are a few highlights and statistics from their enforcement activities during the long weekend:

- Officers observed high rates of compliance with the new helmet requirements on OHV's.
- Only four warnings were issued for not wearing helmets on OHV's.
- Yellowhead County CPO's conducted joint check stops and quad patrols in the West end of the County with RCMP, Parks, and Fish and Wildlife officers.
- Officers also conducted general traffic patrols throughout the County.
- The highest speed encountered on county roads was a vehicle travelling 140 km/h in a 90 km/h zone.
- One suspended driver was found on county roads.
- County Peace Officers issued 46 warnings and 36 tickets for traffic and Gaming and Liquor Act offences.

Shown are a couple of pictures from joint west end quad patrols with the RCMP. One shows a routine check being conducted on OHV users in the backcountry.

County CPO's were also handing out Sasky Da Sasquatch waterproof license and registration holders to OHV riders over the weekend. Sasky Da Sasquatch is part of the Welcome To Our Backyard campaign that is part of a multi-municipal education and awareness

KEY MESSAGES FROM GYPSD'S PUBLIC BOARD MEETING

Submitted by Nikki Gilks, Manager, Communications Services | Grande Yellowhead Public School Division

May 3, 2017

Celebrating Education Week
"Learning is a Journey"

Student Voice: What Students Are Saying & Their Solutions to Succeed

Trustees received a detailed report from Learning Services on the recent results from the OurSchool Survey (formerly Tell Them From Me) completed by students in Grades 4 to 12 between January 16, 2017 and February 22, 2017. The survey forms part of the province's annual Accountability Pillar Survey and includes how students respond to:

- Social engagement measures such as sense of belonging & positive relationships;
- Institutional engagement measures such as value of school outcomes & positive behavior at school;
- Intellectual engagement measures such as interest & motivation;
- Emotional health measures such as anxiety & depression;
- Academic measures that reflect on achievement in English, Math and Science; and,
- Quality instruction measures such as effective learning time and relevance.

Carra Aschenmeier, District Lead of Assessment and Mentorship, spoke to the board about the three year trends and the work that schools are currently reviewing in order to assist planning decisions. To also guide the division in responding to the results, mini youth workshops were held at all five high schools with up to 30 students engaged in reviewing their schools' results and coming up with strategies to address students' concerns. On May 4th, a division wide Youth Symposium will bring together student representatives from all the high schools in GYPSD to complete a design challenge to plan for positive changes at their schools. Many of the division's elementary schools are also forming student focus groups to inform school decision-making at that level. Jasper Trustee Betsy DeClercq was very happy to note the high numbers of students across the division who indicated they felt a strong and positive relationship with someone at their school.

News in Brief

• Trustees approved a revision to Policy 17 – Student Transportation which included an increase to ineligible transportation fees from $200 to $300 per student for the 2017-18 school year to help offset some of the transportation costs. The current cost to transport ineligible students is approximately $600. Ineligible students are defined as students who reside less than 2.4kms from their designated school. The last time transportation fees for ineligible students were increased was in 2006.

• A new AP 290 - Research Studies has been developed to outline the procedures for external individuals or organizations to follow when conducting research opportunities with the division.

• Trustees approved a revision to AP400 – Personnel Selection which included updates to roles and responsibilities of personnel staff.

• Nine student teachers were placed at GYPSD schools during both semesters this school year for both introductory and advanced professional terms. Superintendent Gray offered his sincere appreciation to the mentor teachers who shared their leadership skills with the students. Deputy Superintendent Murray also proudly noted that seven of the ten students had also graduated from Grande Yellowhead high schools.

GOLFER'S GUIDE

DON'T LET GOLFING PAIN BE PAR FOR THE COURSE

(NC) A little know-how can help golfers avoid unnecessary injury. Considering the number of times a swing is repeated during a game, it's not surprising that the season often ends early for those who are not physically prepared.

Below are a few simple stretching techniques that can help prevent or reduce the impact of injuries:

Side bending stretch

1. Stand with feet shoulder-width apart.
2. Hold the golf club above your head with your arms straight.
3. Slowly bend to one side, without rotating, until you feel a stretch in the side of your back.

 4. Hold for 15 seconds and repeat twice for each side.

Shoulder stretch

1. Hold the shaft of a golf club vertically behind your back.
2. Gently pull the club up with your top hand until you feel a slight stretch in the shoulder of your lower arm. Hold for 15 seconds.
3. Gently pull the club down with your bottom hand until you feel a stretch in the top shoulder and arm.
4. Hold for 15 seconds.
5. Reverse hand positions and repeat.

GOLFER'S GUIDE

9 WAYS TO IMPROVE YOUR GOLF GAME

Warmer weather sends scores of golfers to their favorite courses each and every day. Golf is a challenging pastime, but a few pointers can help golfers hone their short games, long games and everything in between.

- Choose the right clubs. There is more to selecting clubs than pulling any old iron out of your golf bag and whacking away. Wind, hazards and obstructions in landing areas should influence your decision of which club to use. Novice golfers may want to rely on their caddies to make club recommendations, and as they become more confident in their abilities they can start to make their own choices.

- Anchor your feet. Anchor your foot behind the ball to drive the ball further. Right-handed players will keep the right foot anchored, and lefties will do the opposite. Do not lift your foot prematurely; otherwise, you can lose power and distance.

- Identify your weaknesses. As with any hobby, identifying those areas that need the most work can help you become a better golfer. Keep track of each shot you take, and then look at the results to see which areas of your game need the most work.

- Fix your alignment. Align your shots by assessing the target from behind the ball. Then set the clubface behind the golf ball and align it with the target before you enter your stance.

- Use your torso for power. The torso is essential to a solid swing. Practice rotating from your core to control your backswing and then maintain the same spine angle and posture on the downswing.

- Use the wind. Not every golf game will be played in perfect weather. A good player knows how to make adjustments for the wind depending on the shot. Use the wind to your advantage when you can, and adjust your swing when hitting into the wind.

- Become a better chipper. Many players put so much emphasis on their backswings and putt shots that they fail to devote any practice to chips. All shots are important for golfers trying to shed strokes off of their scores.

- Keep fit. Maintain or improving your physical strength and overall health can help your golf game. Exercise and eat right, and you will have more endurance on the links.

Lawn & Garden

HOW TO REPOT A PLANT

Gardening time is here, with people enjoying plants both inside and outside of their homes. Container gardening, which is a planting method in which flowers and other plants are grown in pots and other containers, is quite popular because of design versatility. Containers can be moved from location to location if plants are not thriving in a particular spot. They also make gardening possible when there isn't any available land space, which might be the case for apartment-dwellers.

Flower pots enable plant enthusiasts to enjoy foliage inside of the home as well. Houseplants can add beauty to interior spaces and help filter indoor air. In the late 1980s, NASA and the Associated Landscape Contractors of America actually studied houseplants as a way to purify the air in space facilities. They found several plants are particularly good at filtering out common volatile organic compounds (VOCs). Having plants around can create inviting spaces and improve healthy conditions inside and out.

Part of caring for plants in containers involves knowing when a potted plant might need a little tender loving care. As plants grow larger, they may outgrow their containers and require more roomy quarters. Without ample space, plants may not be able to adequately draw up water and nutrients to support top growth. Repotting may seem like it is easy, but it actually takes a little finesse so not to damage the plants.

Gardening experts like those from Fine Gardening, HGTV and Today's Homeowner suggest these repotting tips.

- Be sure the plant is well watered for a few days prior to the repotting process. Watering also will help loosen the root ball from inside of the smaller pot.

- A plant ready for repotting should slide out with most of the soil in one piece. If the soil is free-falling, it may not need to be repotted at this point because there's still room for the roots to expand. Other signs that plants may need repotting include roots poking out of the soil or plants that are straggly and pale.

- Consider repotting outside because the process can be messy. Have all of your materials, which include a trowel, gloves, scissors, and potting soil, handy so that you can tackle the process smoothly.

- Remove your plant from the pot carefully. Place the plant on its side, then support the main stem in one hand and use the other hand to gently pull the pot away. Be careful not to pull on the main stem or break the stem. Tread gently.

- Cut away any rotten or dead roots, and trim really long ends. Make three or four vertical cuts about a third of the way up the remaining root ball. This also will help with water and nutrient absorption once the plant is in its new pot.

- Gently untangle any remaining roots and prepare to place the plant in a new pot.

- Choose a new pot that is slightly larger than the root ball. Fill the pot with soil so that the root ball sits about an inch below the rim of the pot. Add more soil around the roots to fill the pot. Be sure to leave enough room so that with each watering the pot can hold water.

- Thoroughly water the plant after repotting to moisten the soil.

Watch your plant afterwards to be sure that it's taking to its new potted home. It can take around three to four weeks for the plant to recover from repotting. Water regularly, avoid fertilizing and keep the plant out of direct sunlight.

Lawn & Garden

HOW TO SPOT AN UNHEALTHY TREE

Perhaps because they can live for so many years, trees have a way of falling down homeowners' landscaping priority lists. Trees also tend to be big and strong, so it's no surprise that they often are overlooked in favor of other areas of a lawn and garden that don't seem so strong in the face of Mother Nature.

But trees are susceptible to damage and disease, and homeowners who learn to recognize symptoms of such problems can prevent them from escalating and reduce the risk that the trees will cause damage to their properties. The following are just some of the ways homeowners can determine if their trees are unhealthy. Homeowners who suspect they have a tree that poses a safety risk should contact a professional tree service for an immediate inspection and steer clear of the tree until an inspection has been performed.

- Check around the base of the tree. The base of a tree may offer some telltale signs that the tree is unhealthy. Soil that is cracked or raised at the base of the tree may be indicative of a tree that has started to uproot. If you recognize any cracking or if the soil is raised, look at the tree to see if it is leaning. If the soil is cracked or raised because it is uprooting, then the tree might have already started to lean in the opposite direction of the cracking or raised soil.

- Examine for fungus. The growth of fungus on the tree trunk or close to it may be a sign that the tree is rotting or decaying. Fungal growth, such as a sudden population of mushrooms, around the base of the tree is another sign of decay. If the wood behind fungal growth crumbles easily, then homeowners should call a professional tree service, as the fungal problem on the tree has likely already been festering for quite some time.

- Look for cavities on the trunk. Cracks and cavities on a tree may not be an emergency, but especially deep cracks and cavities may be indicative of a structural problem. Multiple cracks and cavities also serve as red flags.

- Look for dead wood. It may sound simple, but dead wood poses a threat to the tree and anyone who happens to spend time in its vicinity. Dead wood snaps easily, and falling dead wood can harm anyone unlucky enough to be beneath the tree when the dead wood snaps. Dead wood branches won't bend in the wind, and such branches frequently fall off of trees when strong gusts of wind come along. Dead branches either won't have leaves or the leaves will be brown (dead pine branches will have brown needles).

- Weak connections. Unhealthy trees often have weak connections between their branches and their trunks. If branches don't appear to be strongly connected to the tree bark, call a tree service to determine a solution. The tree might not be on its way out, but you may have to take steps to strengthen the connections so branches are not at risk of falling.

Unhealthy trees can pose a significant safety hazard on a property. Homeowners who learn to recognize the signs of unhealthy trees can do something to prevent dying trees from damaging their homes.

MOTORCYCLE SAFETY TIPS FROM THE ALBERTA RCMP

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

May is Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month in Alberta. As the summer months approach and temperatures get warmer, roads users can expect to see an increase of motorcycles on the road. Alberta RCMP reminds all motorists that keeping our roads safe is a shared responsibility.

"Collisions involving motorcycles are a significant concern because there is a greater risk that it will result in a serious or fatal injury to the motorcycle driver or passenger," said Inspector Steve Daley, Acting Officer-in-Charge, Alberta RCMP Traffic Services. "All road users have a role to play in motorcycle safety. For drivers, it means being extra vigilant, especially at intersections. Many collisions occur when a driver fails to see a motorcyclist and then turns left in front of the motorcycle. Motorcyclists should always try to position their bikes to avoid a driver's blind spot."

Below are safety tips for drivers and motorcycle riders.

- Staying safe means being visible. Motorcycles are smaller than most vehicles and can be difficult to see on roadways and in parking lots.

- Stay out of blind spots! Position yourself where other drivers can see you.

- Wear high visibility jackets and helmets. Colours such as orange, yellow and white instantly draws other motorists' eyes to you.

- In Alberta, wearing a helmet is the law. You're 37% less likely to get a fatal injury in a collision if you have a helmet on. (Alberta Transportation)

- Replace a helmet that has been damaged, and avoid buying a used one. A used helmet may have been involved in a crash and could be damaged in ways that are not obvious.

- Along with an approved motorcycle helmet, every rider should wear: shatter-proof eye, protection, a durable, brightly coloured jacket, Long pants, leather footwear that protects the ankles, full fingered, non-slip gloves, rain and cold weather riding clothes.

- Showing off and speeding do not pay off. Ride defensively and make every effort to enhance your visibility.

- Share the road – look twice for motorcyclists at intersections or when changing lanes.

- Never underestimate the speed of a motorcycle. Their size makes their speed deceptive.

To kick off motorcycle safety awareness month, Alberta RCMP Traffic Services attended the Alberta Motorcycle Safety Society's (AMSS) launch event May 2, 2017 at 11:45 a.m. at City Hall Plaza. The Alberta Motorcycle Safety Society is a non-profit society that partners with the motorcycle industry, municipal and provincial governments as well as the media to promote, educate, and bring awareness to motorcycle safety in Alberta.
