2017 BLOOM COMPETITION RESULTS ARE IN

Submitted by Tara Galant, Legislative Manager | Town of Whitecourt

The 2017 Bloom Competition wrapped up at last night's annual Communities in Bloom BBQ and Awards Ceremony. The Town of Whitecourt and the Communities in Bloom Committee thank the community for making this year's competition a success.

"Every year it is an absolute delight to be able to view all our nominees' gardens," said Helen Schutte, Whitecourt Communities in Bloom Committee Member. "Our nominees work hard to create beauty in their little corner of the world. I think their efforts may also encourage their neighbours to do a little something extra. Being a long time gardener myself, I know the pleasure we all derive from planning, digging, planting, nurturing and watching our gardens grow – despite what challenges the weather may bring us. I thank everyone for participating and helping to make our town beautiful."

A total of 37 nominations were received from across the community, and awards were presented as follows:

- Residential Front & Back Yard
- Florence & Gerald Fluney
- Residential Front Yard Only
- Jeannine & Dan Steinke
- Mobile Home
- Bill and Laurie Locke
- Non-Profit Agency:
- Spruceview Lodge
- Commercial/Industrial: *Two first place winners

2017 Bloom Competition Results Are In

The four winners in the Residential and Non-Profit Agency categories received stepping stones crafted by artists who are members of the Society of Whitecourt Arts Council. There was a draw for the fifth stepping stone between the 6 second place winners. The Commercial/Industrial category had two first place winners this year; each receiving an etched glass trophy.

All participants were presented with a colour print of some of the pictures taken during judging to say thank you for all their hard work.

Two special "Honour Awards" were also presented last night. These awards honoured the commitment of local volunteers who spearheaded beautification initiatives for two organizations, and the work they did to create spaces that welcome the community. These awards were given to the Friends of Whitecourt for the hospital grounds, and to the Community Lunch Box for enhancements made to its property located on the corner of 49 Street and 52 Avenue.

"It's the combined contributions of individual residents and property owners in Whitecourt that make our community so beautiful. This competition recognizes these efforts, and helps to showcase the hard work and time so many put into their garden and landscape," remarked Whitecourt Mayor Maryann Chichak. "Thank you to all of the volunteers on the Whitecourt Communities in Bloom Committee for their dedication throughout the year implementing this program and other initiatives throughout our community!"

If you would like to volunteer on the Communities in Bloom Committee, contact the Whitecourt Recreation Manager at 780-778-3637 ext. 407. Information on the Committee and local initiatives can be found on www.whitecourt.ca.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A sales rep, an administration clerk, and the manager are walking to lunch when they find an antique oil lamp. They rub it and a Genie comes out. The Genie says, "I'll give each of you just one wish." "Me first! Me first!" says the admin clerk. "I want to be in the Bahamas, driving a speedboat, without a care in the world." Puff! She's gone. "Me next! Me next!" says the sales rep. "I want to be in Hawaii, relaxing on the beach with my personal masseuse, an endless supply of Pina Colodas and the love of my life." Puff! He's gone. "OK, you're up," the Genie says to the manager. The manager says, "I want those two back in the office after lunch."

RCMP REMIND RESIDENTS TO PROTECT PETS FROM COYOTES

Submitted by St Albert RCMP

St. Albert, AB - For several years now, St. Albert RCMP have periodically received reports of cats found dead and cut open. In 2015 and again in 2016, St. Albert RCMP sent two different cat remains for a necropsy at the University of Alberta by the Chief Veterinarian. A necropsy is a postmortem exam or autopsy on an animal or non-human body. These cats appeared to be cleanly cut open as if by a knife. In both cases, the necropsy showed that cats were killed by coyotes and not be any person.

Coyotes will hunt cats, especially when they are training their pups how to hunt. They will leave the cat looking like it was "cut open" as a way to interest their pups in eating prey. According to the internet, "coyotes usually eat wild species, but they are known to eat pet food, garbage, garden crops, livestock, poultry, rodents, rabbits and pets including small dogs and mostly cats".

This is a peak time for coyote hunting as it takes both coyote parents hunting full time to feed a litter of pups. St. Albert RCMP are recommending that pet owners take precautions with their pets during this prime hunting time. The internet recommends that pet owners "Keep dogs and cats indoors, especially from dusk to dawn. If left outside at night in an unprotected area, cats and small to mid-size dogs may be killed by coyotes."

Coyotes though, are a positive part of the ecosystem, and are very effective in keeping the rodent population in check. It is important to learn how to share our neighbourhoods with coyotes while discouraging them from negatively impacting our backyards. Garbage, meat scraps, pet food left outside, rotting fruit under trees and even suet or birdseed that increase the number of birds in your yards attract coyotes. It is important to keep your property cleaned of these attractants and to keep your landscaping trimmed. Coyotes are attracted to bush and treed areas as they provide cover for them while hunting.

"With an active coyote population in the city and surrounding areas, the RCMP recommends that residents protect small pets particularly if they are in or near city green spaces. Keeping them indoors during this peak coyote hunting and pup training time is something that pet owners may have to consider.", says Cpl. Laurel Kading with the St. Albert RCMP.

GREETINGS FROM THE ONOWAY LEGION

Submitted by Lorinda McCool | Onoway Royal Canadian Legion

Monday July 31, 2017

During the summer months the Legion does not hold regular meetings but everyone is invited to join us on Tuesdays after 6:30 PM for Pub and Games Night and Fridays after 2:00 PM. It's hard to believe we are already into August but the lessening daylight hours are certainly hard to miss!

Scott Sadler's Steak Night on August 4th is always well attended and you are urged to call Bob at 780-967-3640 to reserve your plate. Due to the price of meat, the cost of the steak supper is $17.00 and the burger supper is $12.00. Our meals are always accompanied by salad, pickles, the main course, dessert and tea or coffee. No one ever leaves the Legion hungry.

Our thanks to Bernie Dupperron and Val O'Toole for their generous donation and delivery of a 15 cu. ft. upright freezer for the bar. The extra space is quite a bonus with ample room for food now that pool tournament meals are sold from the bar and not the kitchen.

Submitted by Larry Villneff: "Good morning everyone. A special thank you goes out to the thirteen individuals who participated in the Fun 8-Ball Tournament held on July 22 at Onoway Legion 132. In addition we would like to thank the volunteers who supported the tournament, with food preparation and clean up (Glo Jahelka, Patricia St. Hilaire, Carol Villneff and Broley Huxley) and with the always supportive and friendly bar service (Liane Wenckowski). Over the day (9:30 am to 4:30 pm) our players completed 156 games, on our new set up of three tables, with the following top 5 players all finishing within 11 points of each other and sharing the cash payouts. 1. Bob Badry with 214 points; 2. Bill Buhr with 210 points; Lou Giroux with 209 points (Lou also won the 50/50 draw); Karl Wichowski with 205 points and Dave Klause with 203 points. Remember our next tournament is August 26th."

Friday Night's Meatloaf Supper on July 21 was fairly quiet but those customers attending were very complimentary with some people commenting "Best Meatloaf Ever". Bob C., Ron W., Marcelle J., Doug J., Glo J. and Meila S. were responsible for the tasty meal and also stayed to help with the dishes and cleanup. Marge Chieduch won the free meal voucher, Cheryl Sadler the meat draw (same as last week!) and Bernie Dupperron the 50/50 draw.

There are going to be some changes in the kitchen after the end of August. Kitchen Co-ordinator and Head Cook Bob Clark is resigning to pursue the position of Division 2 Councillor in the upcoming Lac Ste. Anne County municipal election. At that time the kitchen staff will consist of several "teams" complete with a leader and his or her volunteers who will determine the meal selections, buy the groceries, prepare the supper, serve the food and clean up, including dishes. More details will be forthcoming but if you see yourself in any of these positions, please call the Legion @ 780-967-5361 or visit us on Tuesday or Friday evenings.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

August 1 – Tuesday Pub and Games Night – Cards, Darts, Pool and Socializing

August 4 – Friday Night Supper – Scott Sadler's Steak and Burger Night

August 8 – Tuesday Pub and Games Night

August 11 – Friday Night Supper – Ukrainian Platter

The Legion phone number is 780-967-5361. ## SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ANSWER:

2	6	1	9	8	4	5	3	7
8	3	4	1	5	7	6	2	9
9	5	7	6	3	2	4	8	1

7	8	5	3	6	9	1	4	2
4	9	2	7	1	5	3	6	8

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
