AHS Warns About Caller Advising Breast Self-Exam

The caller relays breast screening exam followup information and advises an immediate breast self-exam must be conducted while on the phone.

Although AHS representatives may call to discuss a mammography appointment, they will never ask a patient to conduct a breast self-exam over the phone.

If you receive a phone call from anyone requesting you complete a breast self-exam while on the phone, please hang up, note the time and any other call details, and immediately contact local police on their non-emergency line.

If you are uncomfortable with calling police directly or are uncertain whether the call is legitimate, you can call AHS' Screening Program Client Support Line at 1-866-727-3926.

AHS has informed law enforcement and encourages anyone who has experienced this issue to please work with their local police or RCMP.

Alberta Health Services is the provincial health authority responsible for planning and delivering health supports and services for more than four million adults and children living in Alberta. JOKE OF THE WEEK

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson decide to go on a camping trip. After dinner and a bottle of wine, they lay down for the night, and go to sleep. Some hours later, Holmes awoke and nudged his faithful friend. "Watson, look up at the sky and tell me what you see." Watson replied, "I see millions of stars." "What does that tell you?" Watson pondered for a minute. "Astronomically, it tells me that there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets." "Astrologically, I observe that Saturn is in Leo." "Horologically, I deduce that the time is approximately a quarter past three." "Theologically, I can see that God is all powerful and that we are small and insignificant." "Meteorologically, I suspect that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow." "What does it tell you, Holmes?" Holmes was silent for a minute, then spoke: "Watson, you idiot. Someone has stolen our tent!"

GREETINGS FROM THE ONOWAY LEGION

Submitted by Lorinda McCool | Onoway Royal Canadian Legion

Monday August 28, 2017

Bob's roast beef meal on August 18th was incredible with over seventy happy customers served. He was helped by Ron W., Jay K. and Marcelle J. Thanks to Doug J. and Glo J. for looking after much of the clean-up and all of the dishes. Without these wonderful volunteers the Legion would cease to function. Congratulations to Armand Cyca for winning the free meal voucher, Bob McConnell the meat draw and Cheryl Sadler the 50/50 winnings.

The handi-camp ramp is scheduled to be installed just after the long weekend in September. We have waited a long time for this and, thanks to our corporate meal sponsors, are looking forward to seeing the final renovation completed for the front entrance.

Nine members of the Onoway Legion competed in Stony Plain at their annual outdoor dart tournament. It was great fun (even with the wind) and hamburgers cooked by President Gord Morrison and Pat Hale, along with all of the extras, were delicious. The St. Albert team consisting of Trent Snider, Stacy Ledrow and Tom Weatherly took first place followed closely by the Onoway team Ged Brent, Bob Clark and Lorinda McCool in second.

LSARA Meeting Another Great Turnout!!

Please consider becoming a Councillor if you reside in Division 1 and have a sincere desire to work with the Ratepayers of LSAC.

LSARA has reached out to ALL current candidates (incumbents and new challengers) listed on the County Website. As biographies are provided, LSARA will publish an update.

One of the focus topics of discussion was how LSARA was able to provide comparisons directly from previous Activity Reports. These comparisons clearly display the lack of Transparency from LSAC County Council and Administration to the Ratepayers.

These comparisons between the Reports of 2011-2012 and the LSAC 2016 Activity Report clearly show that Transparency by LSAC has seriously eroded. We discussed what the changes were.

OVERDOSE PREVENTION AWARENESS

Submitted by Alberta Health Services

August 31 is International Overdose Awareness Day, a global event to raise awareness of overdose and reduce stigma of drug-related death.

In Alberta, opioid related overdoses are occurring at an alarming rate. Fortunately, many overdose deaths are preventable if medical help is given when you first begin to notice any symptoms.

Here are the signs of an opioid overdose:

- Their breathing is slow or they may not be breathing at all
- Body is very limp
- You can't wake them up
- Blue lips and nails
- Skin is cold and/or clammy
- Gurgling or snoring sounds
- Choking or throwing up
- Pupils are tiny
- Seizures

If you come across someone or are with someone who may be overdosing, call 911 and, stay with them until we arrive. They may need your help while the ambulance is on its way. Due to the Good Samaritan Drug Overdose Act people who experience or witness an overdose and who call 911 for help will receive some protection under the law.

While you wait for help, keep checking on them. Are they breathing? If not, begin rescue breathing. Are they responding or breathing on their own? If they are still unresponsive and you have naloxone – follow the step by step instructions and administer naloxone. Naloxone can temporarily reverse the symptoms of an opioid overdose.

For more information on opioid overdose, or how to get help for yourself or a loved one, including where to get naloxone, visit www.stopods.ca.

APPRENTICES AND TRADESPEOPLE – CALL FOR PROPOSALS NOW OPEN

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is pleased to advise that the call for proposals for new Union Training and Innovation Program launched today.

skills they need on the job site. Successful applicants will also receive funding to support approaches that will break down barriers facing women and Indigenous people who want to enter the skilled trades.

The program will include two streams of funding:

- Financial support for unions to purchase up-to-date training equipment and materials to help unions keep up with constant technological change and meet industry standards

- Funding for innovative approaches to break down barriers facing women and Indigenous people who want to enter the skilled trades.

"This will help apprentices and tradespeople in my Yellowhead riding to obtain the skills they need to pursue a career in a skilled trade. I encourage eligible organizations to apply for funding to support apprentices in completing their training," concluded MP Eglinski.

The deadline to apply is September 5, 2017. For more information on how to apply, visit: <https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/programs/union-training-innovation.html>

BUDGET 2017, FAILS OUR CANADIAN ARMED FORCES

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

National defence is clearly not a priority for this Liberal government. For the second year in a row, the budget contained nothing for our men and women in uniform. Instead, the Liberals cut $8.48 billion, which had been earmarked for military equipment purchases. Coupled with last year's cuts, the Department of National Defence now faces a $12 billion shortfall.

Canada needs the ability to defend itself and our allies. Recent examples, including the Liberals' decision to pull our CF-18s out of the fight against ISIS, their preference for fourth generation fighter jets, their lack of increased support for our Ukrainian allies, and their failure to advance important procurement projects, all suggest that the current Prime Minister expects other countries to do the heavy lifting.

Instead of ensuring that our men and women in uniform have the best equipment, training, and support available, it's looking more and more likely that Canada's military will be scaled back and asked to do more with less.

I will continue to fight for the resources that our Canadian Armed Forces deserve.

BACK TO SCHOOL HEALTH CHECKLIST

Submitted by Alberta Health Services – Public Health

It's that time of year again. Store shelves are stacked with back-to-school supplies and racks of summer clothes are being replaced with sweaters and long pants. Getting your child ready for the new school year includes stocking up on notebooks, binders and pencils, but there's more to making the most of the year ahead: taking care of your child's health. As the most important head-start you can give your child, beginning the year with good health is also simple with this back-to-school health check-list:

- Immunization: Ensure your child's immunizations are up-to-date for his or her age. This is especially important for kids entering kindergarten or elementary school. If your son or daughter is in Grade 5 and/or Grade 9, also watch for immunization consent forms coming home early in the school year. Remember: your signature on these forms is needed for your child to get his or her important grade 5 and/or grade 9 immunizations.

- Vision screening: Have your child's vision tested before he or she starts kindergarten (ideally by age three) and again every year, until 18 years of age. It's estimated that up to 80 per cent of learning is visual, so keeping your kid's eyes healthy goes a long way in encouraging their full learning potential. Eye exams for children up to 18 years of age are free of charge, covered by Alberta Health.

- Hearing/speech screening: If you suspect your child may have a hearing or speech problem, ask your family doctor for a referral to an audiologist and/or speech specialist. Left untreated, these problems could interfere with your child's learning.

- Dental checkup: Regular dental checkups start early! If your child hasn't had his or her teeth examined prior to starting school, now is a good time to start. Remember: good oral health is essential to good overall health. Regular checkups and cleanings help detect dental problems early, and ensure your child's teeth stay healthy for life.

- Emergency contacts: Make sure the school has up-to-date emergency numbers for each of your children, including contact information for parents, physicians, etc.

- Health conditions: Ensure the school has up-to-date information about any health conditions, allergies or physical impairments your child may have. Also inform the school about any medications your child takes.

- Backpack basics: Your child's backpack should fit properly and shouldn't be too heavy for him or her to carry, which means it should weigh no more than 10 to 15 per cent of your child's body weight. The backpack should have broad shoulder straps and a waist strap that keeps the bag firmly on the spine. Watch for warning signs that the bag may be too heavy, including sore shoulders or changes in posture. For more information visit: <https://myhealth.alberta.ca/health/pages/conditions.aspx>

?Hwid=abk0958

- Nutrition plan: Ensure your child has a healthy breakfast before heading to school in the mornings, and help him or her pack a nutritious lunch. Planning meals ahead of time and involving children in planning and preparation can make this task more manageable and fun. For more information visit: <http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/assets/info/nutrition/if-nfs-whats-for-lunch.pdf>

MAYERTHORPE RCMP ARREST MALE AFTER PURSUIT

Submitted by Mayerthorpe RCMP

On Aug. 24, 2017 at approximately 3:00 p.m., Mayerthorpe RCMP responded to a report of a stolen SUV with an alleged impaired driver near Duffield, Alberta.

Police were able to locate the SUV near the Alexis First Nation which was driving erratically and a road block was set up. After a short pursuit the SUV being driven by a lone male occupant ran over spike belts that were deployed nearly hitting officers and police vehicles set up at the road block.

The SUV with blown front tires then continued through the First Nation and the pursuit was called off a short time later due to public safety.

The SUV was later located on Highway 43 driving westbound towards a police vehicle and oncoming traffic. Police were able to stop traffic on the highway and the SUV then swerved into the ditch and headed down a dead end road for several kilometers before stopping. The male occupant jumped out and headed into a wooded area where he was arrested without incident a short time later with assistance from the Police Dog Unit (PDS).

PASTURE WALK AND TALK - FROM UPLANDS TO LOWLANDS A FIELD DAY WITH COWS AND FISH

Submitted by Lorraine Taylor | Conservation Coordinator | Lac Ste. Anne County

Now is a good time for landowners to walk their property and evaluate their management practices. On Wednesday, September 6th Riparian Specialists Kerri O'Shaughnessy and Jennifer Caudron are bringing their expertise in the assessment and management of that vital green zone of plants that protects our creeks, rivers, and lakes.

Cows and Fish works with landowners to foster a better understanding of how improvements in grazing and other management of riparian areas can enhance landscape health and productivity. While this field day has a focus on livestock producers, anyone with an interest in how riparian areas function are welcome to attend.

Lac Ste. Anne County's Conservation Coordinator Lorraine Taylor says "The workshop site south of Mayerthorpe is a working farm on the Paddle River. A number of management practices such as exclusion fencing and off-stream watering systems have been set up and their influence on shoreline health can be seen." The day includes a mix of indoor conversation and hands-on assessment in the field. Learn to identify common riparian plants, tune your eyes to what "health" looks like in a riparian area, see how nest boxes and wildlife friendly fences can enhance habitat, and take home ideas for management strategies that will work on your land.

Dr. Barry Irving will also be on hand with his pipeline plough, used to bury pipelines in pasture for off-site watering systems.

Through Lac Ste. Anne County's ALUS program, agricultural producers may be eligible for funding to implement conservation projects, this field day is an excellent opportunity to start thinking about project potential.

The field day runs from 11am to 4pm. The $10.00 registration fee includes lunch and everyone takes home a copy of the plant identification book Northern Range Plants. Please pre-register, preferably by August 30. Contact Lorraine Taylor at 1-866-880-5722 or by email LTaylor@LSAC.ca . Visit the County website at www.LSAC.ca for details on more events coming up.

HOW TO PREVENT MOLD GROWTH IN YOUR HOME

Mold plays an important role in nature. Mold breaks down dead organic matter, including fallen leaves, and speeds up the decomposition process so nutrients can return to the soil as quickly as possible. But mold inside a home can be a formidable foe, triggering allergic reactions and increasing a person's risk of developing respiratory problems. Mold can even cause damage to a home by attaching itself to wood and breaking down that wood.

Because the consequences of mold growth inside a home can be so dire, it's important that men and women take steps to prevent mold growth in their homes and apartments. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency notes that controlling moisture levels in a home or apartment is the key to controlling mold as well.

- Address spills quickly and properly. Many instances of mold infestations can be traced to leaks or spills that were not quickly or properly addressed. The EPA advises that wet or damp materials or areas should be dried within 24 to 48 hours to prevent the growth of mold. Make sure spills are thoroughly cleaned as opposed to a cursory cleanup of only the areas visible to the naked eye. Inspect nearby crevices when spills occur to ensure the area where the spill happened and all surrounding areas vulnerable to mold growth are dry. In addition, fix leaky plumbing fixtures immediately, hiring a professional if necessary.

- Inspect the ground surrounding your home. Factors outside a home can sometimes contribute to mold growth within a home. Make sure the ground outside your home slopes away from the foundation. If the ground slopes toward your home, rainwater or run-off from sprinkler systems may direct water into your home, creating conditions favorable to mold growth inside. Gutters and downspouts also should be inspected to ensure they are working optimally. If not, they can contribute to water damage on the roof that can ultimately lead to mold growth.

- Monitor indoor humidity. The EPA advises that homeowners keep indoor humidity below 60 percent relative humidity, which can be measured with humidity meters available at many hardware stores. Homeowners who can keep indoor humidity at levels 30 to 50 percent below relative humidity might be even more successful at keeping indoor mold growth at bay.

- Dry wet surfaces immediately.

Surfaces can become wet even if a home has no leaky fixtures and no spills have occurred. For example, the surfaces of bathroom walls, ceilings and floors get wet when a home's inhabitants take hot baths or showers. That condensation is natural, but such surfaces are also susceptible to mold growth. Make sure to dry wet surfaces immediately, and keep exhaust fans on or windows open when bathing to decrease the likelihood of mold growth.

Mold growth can be detrimental to human beings and their homes. But many mold infestations are easily prevented.

FINISHED BASEMENTS SAVE ENERGY AND DELIVER MORE LIVING SPACE

By finishing your basement, you can gain more living space while reducing the amount of energy loss from downstairs. Basements that are not fully finished typically do not have insulated walls or covered flooring. This can result in heat loss and cause your furnace to work overtime.

A remodeled basement offers more than additional storage space. It can provide a lot of extra room for a growing family, such as space for a gym, home theatre, office, guest suite, or a playroom for the kids.

To ensure a comfortable and inviting basement, there are a few project components to consider:

- Insulation will make sure your space warm and comfortable. For the best results, install a stone wool insulation product, a measure that can be done easily with the ROXUL ComfortBoard IS. This product is mechanically fastened or adhered to the concrete foundation wall, offering you a higher R-value and better acoustics.

- Drywall will help define the space and make it feel like a part of your home. If you haven't tackled drywall before, consider hiring a pro to ensure your walls are seamless.

- Flooring should be water sealed and covered with an insulated material. There are many products on the market, but consider laying padding before carpet or in-floor heating before tiles.

- Personalize it with finishing touches. Select furniture that can fit down a typically steep staircase and choose items that complement the rest of your home's décor.

HOW BUILDING PERMITS PROTECT HOMEOWNERS

You are thinking of making a major renovation to your home. Perhaps it's time to create that master bedroom suite you long have admired or install that wrap-around porch? What is the first thing that should be done before getting down to business?

The correct way to begin a home remodeling project is to obtain the necessary permits for the job. Many municipalities request individuals obtain permits for a range of work on homes or other structures, such as office buildings. Permits are generally required for all new construction as well as specific modifications that will affect structural, plumbing, mechanical, and electrical systems. It's important to check with the local building office prior to beginning work to see which permits you will need before the project can begin. Permits are necessary whether a homeowner is doing the work or hiring an outside contractor.

Due to the cost and time involved with securing permits, some homeowners skip this step so they can begin a project promptly. However, this can end up being a costly mistake. Permits might seem like a nuisance, but they actually protect homeowners in various ways.

Permits ensure safe workmanship

Permits provide a blueprint by which contractors and do-it-yourselfers must complete renovations. Because inspections will take place, there is no wiggle room. Shortcuts often translate into subpar work that may lead to malfunction and injury in the long run. Safeguarding against poor workmanship means homeowners can feel confident in the work being done.

Permits reduce the likelihood of costly mistakes

As inspectors go through their checklists, they may notice things that were done incorrectly and will offer advice about how to mend the problem before it becomes a larger headache. If left unchecked, an electrical error could lead to a fire or another dangerous situation. Repairs that are not structurally sound may pose problems or deteriorate more quickly than structures that are constructed correctly. Furthermore, catching improper technique early on eliminates having to tear down and redo work, which can be a costly and time-consuming endeavor.

Permits protect against fines

Sometimes work goes as planned even for homeowners who did not obtain the necessary permits. However, er, years later, when other work needs to be done, inspectors may discover homeowners never secured proper permits and inspections years earlier, leading to fines.

Furthermore, if work is done without a permit and an accident occurs, any damages or injuries may not be covered by a homeowner's insurance policy.

Permits are an important part of the home improvement process. Homeowners should not skirt the responsibility because the permit and inspection process is in place to provide protection to occupants.

HOW TO SOUNDPROOF YOUR HOME

(MS) - What's the first step in sound proofing your home? Finding which rooms have the least amount of sound resistance.

To do this, make sure everyone is out of the house, unplug all electronics and close all doors and windows. Take a quick walk through your house and pause for a few moments in each room to evaluate which ones are the noisiest. Now consider if you're installing a media room or teenage recreational room where volumes will be blasting on TV's and stereos.

With this information, you should have a good idea of where you need to soundproof and create barriers against noise. Here are some tips to help you achieve the optimal result of peace and quiet:

- Plant trees and hedges along the exterior of your home, perhaps along a fence. Not only do trees and hedges help with the environment and provide a good amount of privacy, they also slow down the travel of noise from the neighborhood into your home.

- Insulate your walls and ceilings. Better insulation in your interiors and exteriors won't just drive away excess noise, it will also reduce your heating and cooling bills during the hot and cold months. For the best sound proofing and easy installation quality, a professional-grade product by ROXUL called Safe'n'Sound is very popular.

- Seal up all cracks and holes around windows and doors, and add double glazed windows to your current glass panes.

Once you've selected the best soundproofing method, implement it and enjoy the bliss of silence throughout your home.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR DURING ROOF INSPECTIONS

Cold weather can be tough on a home, and perhaps no part of a home is more vulnerable to harsh winter weather than its roof.

Fallen snow can equate to several pounds of pressure placed on a residential roof. Roofs do not often collapse under heavy snowfall. But adverse winter weather conditions can compromise roofs in other ways. Water leakage and damage to the roof's interior are just two of the potentially problematic issues that can arise when roofs are battered by cold, blustery weather. That's why many home improvement specialists advise homeowners to conduct roof inspections prior to the start of winter.

Many homeowners can conduct their own cursory roof inspections, but they may not know exactly what to look for. The National Roofing Contractors Association says that there are certain key areas to inspect that may reveal some telltale signs of roof damage.

- Curled, cracked or missing shingles may prove troublesome. Inclement weather can test the strength of even the most durable roofs. Even though many roofs are designed to last up to 30 years, some may need to be replaced early, particularly when they have been exposed to harsh weather over a period of years. Individual shingles can be replaced as spot treatments, but if the damage is widespread, a new roof may be necessary.

- Attic leaks or water elsewhere might signal issues with the roof. Figure out if water inside the home is coming from the roof. Water stains do not always indicate problems with the roofing, but it's better to be safe than sorry.

- Look for protective granules wearing off. If gutters are filled with the sandy granular material that coats roofing shingles, that may be a sign of an aging or damaged roof.

- Inspect flashing. Professional roofers can recognize properly installed flashing, the material that connects the roof to other parts of the house that adjoin the roof, like skylights or a chimneys. Poorly installed flashing can cause leaks. Stains that appear below chimneys or near attic windows may indicate new flashing, and not new shingles, is needed.

- Gutters and downspouts should be in good condition. A roof is the sum of its parts, and that includes downspouts and gutters. If the gutters are clogged or damaged, they cannot direct water away from the house properly. Snow, leaves and other debris needs to be cleared from gutters to help them function at optimal capacity.

- Animals and insects can cause damage, too. It's not just poor weather that homeowners need to consider with regard to roof damage. Boring insects and animals may cause problems with roofs as well. A roof inspection may shed light on potential pest problems. Holes or nesting materials may indicate that an animal or animals are using the attic as a shelter from the elements.

Get to the root of issues with your home's roof before they become bigger problems once winter arrives. A thorough inspection can reveal problems that may prove costly if ignored.

CREATE DRAMA WITH BOLD PAINT COLORS

Painting is one of the easiest and least expensive ways to transform the look of a space. Paint colors can dramatically change the mood and the design of a home. And depending on a homeowner's goals, paint can make a statement or blend into the background.

Many people are now looking to bold colors to make spaces stand out. But choosing a paint color can be challenging. Homeowners looking to update walls and complement decor may want to look at some of the more impactful colors that Pantone indicates will be popular for the 2017 season. Primrose Yellow, Lapis Blue, Flame, Pink Yarrow, and Greenery are some of the more eye-catching selections. Once colors are selected, consider these guidelines for using bolder colors in room designs.

- Decide how big an impact you want to make. Are you looking for color overload or just a small focal point of vivid color? Remember, using bold color doesn't mean every wall must be lathered in that hue. Instead, select one wall to serve as an accent point and use that spot as your bold color display. Otherwise, rely on bold colors to dress up otherwise mundane areas, such as the back wall of a cupboard or moldings and trim.

- Try bold in a small space. Many people are surprised at how well bold colors work in small spaces. Powder rooms can be an ideal spot to experiment with paint colors. Try deep colors that can make the area seem intimate and even exotic. Dark, bold hues can be toned down by different accents, such as neutral colored fixtures and towels.

- Go bold in the kitchen. Incorporate a splash of color in the kitchen without going overboard. Try an appliance or design fixture in a bright shade. Or paint the inside of the cabinets in your favorite color and install glass inserts in the cabinet doors so that everyone gets a peek of the color beyond. A neutral kitchen also can be brightened up with the use of silverware, dishes, pots and pans, and other kitchen items featured in bold hues.

- Stick to boldness on interchangeable items. Those who like to experiment with color may find that they like to switch out the colors now and again. Instead of having to repaint every few months, use decorative items in bright shades to make swapping out color that much easier. For example, replace area rugs, throw pillows and draperies. Paint over terra cotta flower pots when the mood strikes.

- Establish balance. Rely on neutral furniture, rugs, moldings and baseboards if you decide to take bold colors up a notch. This will help create a sense of balance in the room.

Painting is a fun way to experiment with color. Many homeowners are not hesitant to use bold shades of color when they learn the right techniques. And because paint is an inexpensive option for making over a room, homeowners who find they do not like a particular color can easily paint over it with a new color.

LSAC NOW WANTS TO “STRAIGHT TALK”?

Submitted by Lac Ste. Anne Ratepayers Association (LSARA)

Lac Ste. Anne Ratepayers Association has been seeking Open and Transparent discussions and Information regarding LSAC Finances since our formation in 2016. We have been told if we ‘WANT IT’ we must ‘FOIP IT’. So FOIP it we did and we are still waiting for it.

Now LSAC has decided to Publish a “Paid for Article” in the LSA Bulletin in which they called “Straight Talk About County Finances”.

They referred to “Misleading Information” that has been spread about LSAC Fiscal Government and “Misunderstandings” about the County’s Financial position.

In the LSA Bulletin Paid for Article (Paid For By The Ratepayers) LSAC States:

“To address these misunderstandings, the following comparison chart has been prepared. This chart provides various financial information about Lac Ste. Anne County (per the County’s audited financial statements) compared against the same numbers from its municipal neighbours.”

Well folks, the only source of information the Ratepayers have regarding “County Finances” is what the “LSAC RELEASES” to the public. Unfortunately they continue to “Limit” and “Obfuscate” the Information that the Ratepayers have been requesting.

Yes people, “OBFUSCATE”!

1. to confuse, bewilder, or stupefy.

2. to make obscure or unclear: to obfuscate a problem with extraneous information.

3. to darken.

How you ask?

Well let’s look at the “Chart” prepared by LSAC to “Address” these “Misunderstandings”.

Some of the data from this chart comes from a reputable source being Alberta Municipal Affairs who collect and make public “Audited Financial Statements” which compare the same numbers from municipalities throughout Alberta.

This data is available to the public at the following Link: http://municipalaffairs.alberta.ca/municipal_financial_statistical_data

At this link you can find many Financial Spreadsheets. The one which relates to the LSAC Chart shows the “2015 Long Term Debt”. It is that Spreadsheet and the LSAC Comparison Chart that tells a story.

The full Chart can Viewed here: 2015 AMA LTD (<https://drive.google.com/file/d/0B69V6QH-Va1ArZDc3SnVMYtZmSJA/view>) and when you view it you need to scroll in both directions.

It is a very large spreadsheet and the only column we need to compare is the “LONG TERM DEPT” and the “Municipalities” that LSAC used in their comparison, so here it is. We have provided it to you in a nutshell!

You see folks, the Long Term Debt Amounts in the “LSAC Comparison Chart” all correspond exactly with what the Alberta Municipal Affairs has in their records. The only Long Term Debt amount which is INCORRECT is Lac Ste. Anne County’s.

They seem to be off a little. To be exact they are $2,487,177.00 SHORT of what Alberta Municipal Affairs has in their records which is

LSAC Now Wants to "STRAIGHT TALK"?

$4,843,323.00 NOT $2,356,146.00 as stated in the LSAC Chart!

How could this be you may ask.

The County told us in their Publication "Straight Talk About County Finances":

"The provision of accurate information is always the County's goal, as this is the best way to combat rumour, conspiracy theories and mistrust. Quoting a lump sum or stand-alone figure devoid of any context provides a misleading snapshot of the County's financial situation."

Well folks, as with all the other information regarding LSAC, the only source of information available is what "LSAC Publishes" and what they PROVIDE!

This is why it is imperative that LSAC is "OPEN and TRANSPARENT" with the Ratepayers.

So what Happened?? Is this just another mistake? Could it be as stated in their "Publication" another "Rumor" or more "Conspiracy Theories"?

Well for it to be a "Rumor" it would have to come from another source rather than LSAC, so that can't be it.

"A Conspiracy Theory" possibly? Why would LSAC create such a meaningless dialogue after all as the LSAC Publication said it "must be based on factual information".

Ah, it must be a another way of "Calculating LONG TERM DEBT"!

No that can't be it either. If we look at the "Factual Information", which is in this case is, "As Per" the County's "Audited Financial Statements".

We can Clearly see that the Long Term Debt in the "2015 LSAC Financial Statement" was $4,843,323 NOT $2,356,146 as stated in the LSAC Comparison Chart!

In the "2016 LSAC Financial Statement" the Long Term Debt was $3,751,107 NOT $1,370,470 as stated in the LSAC Comparison Chart!

So now you can clearly see that in the Published Post on the LSAC Web Site and also Published in the LSA Bulletin, the article they called "Straight Talk About County Finances" and their "Comparison Chart" again provides a "misleading snapshot of the County's financial situation".

Exactly opposite of what LSAC was trying to provide!

Lac Ste. Anne County does not have the "Right" to conveniently

"Omit, Change or Distort" Long Term Debt when they choose and seem fit.

The Long Term Debt Values that LSAC used in their Comparison Chart is Contrary to the LSAC Long Term Debt Values that can be found on the "Alberta Municipal Affairs Web Site" and in the "Audited LSAC 2016 and 2015 Financial Statements".

If LSAC really wanted the Ratepayers to know "How much each Ratepayer owe because of the LSAC DEBT" they should show us a "CHART" with "ALL the DEBT" not just some of it.

If LSAC truly believes as they said "The provision of accurate information is always the County's goal" it is imperative that LSAC provides the Ratepayers with not just the "Long Term Debt" but "All" the Debt Incurred to Date including Short Term Loans.

Only then can we have an "Accurate" amount of "DEBT PER RESIDENT" as they attempted to "Provide" in their Comparison Chart!

We now know from experience that if it is too "Difficult" to borrow money on a "Long Term" basis we can just "Short Term" borrow it without a Borrowing Bylaw or be "Stopped by a Petition"!

That Folks is why LSARA has requested the Information from LSAC regarding the Status of the Administration Building and all of the "Borrowing that LSAC" has made to date. Short Term, Long Term and Whatever Other Term they may have Borrowed on.

We do want to know what our "DEBT PER RESIDENT" really is! Is that a Bad Thing to Know? We don't think so.
