“BROADWAY ON ICE” COMES TO ONOWAY

Submitted by Terri McDermott, VP | Onoway Skating Club

Another year of skating is quickly coming to an end for the Onoway Skating Club! With our Winter Carnival just around the corner, our Pre-Can skaters, Can-Skaters and Junior/Senior Figure Skaters will showcase their skills with a Broadway themed show on March 16, 2018 at 7pm. The OSC would like to formally invite you to join us for an evening of family and friendship as we support our young skaters. Under the direction of our superb and talented coaches, Corinna & Danielle, our skaters will put on a show you won't forget!

KINDER MORGAN'S PIPELINE

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Oil is being sold at up to 50% discount to the United States because we do not have anywhere else to sell it. The U.S. sells it back to Canada through New Brunswick refineries at the full market price.

The regulation of interprovincial pipelines falls under federal jurisdiction. The Trans Mountain Pipeline has passed environmental reviews and regulatory hurdles. It was approved by this federal Liberal Government.

The project is under serious threat as the dispute between British Columbia and Alberta continues to escalate - putting Canadian jobs across the country at risk. British Columbia's celebrated vineyards and wineries will lose business as Alberta restricts imports, and the deteriorating relationship between the two provinces threatens a deal that would give Alberta access to clean, renewable BC energy. This cannot continue.

The Trans Mountain expansion is in the national interest. It will create tens of thousands of jobs, add billions to the economy, and help fund important social programs.

Where is the Prime Minister on this? He should be championing this federally approved pipeline. Due to a lack of federal leadership, this dispute continues to escalate, putting Canadian jobs across the country at risk.

Although the Minister of Natural Resources claims he will not accept any unusual or unnecessary delays, construction should have started in November 2017.

Kinder Morgan's Pipeline

Every day is a delay worth millions of dollars. Every day is a delay for thousands of jobs.

Last week, Conservatives requested an emergency debate on the Trans Mountain pipeline project. This request was denied.

On Monday, February 12, our 'Opposition Day Motion' called on the Prime Minister to prioritize the construction of the Trans Mountain Expansion Project and use all tools at his disposal to mitigate damage from the current interprovincial trade dispute. If this motion is adopted, the Liberals will have until noon on February 15th to table their plan in the House.

Conservatives believe that the independent, scientific, evidenced-based decision-making process that the Trans Mountain Expansion project went through clearly showed that the pipeline could be expanded safely.

It is unacceptable that instead of championing the Trans Mountain pipeline project and promoting the benefits that it would bring to communities across Canada, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau chose to pile on new regulations, creating additional obstacles for Canadian energy projects.

The dispute between Alberta and British Columbia has escalated solely because Justin Trudeau has failed to show leadership and stand up for Canada's natural resource industry and the jobs that depend on it.

It is time for the Prime Minister to show leadership and take action to resolve this situation before we pay the price in lost jobs and opportunity.

Our Conservative Party will continue to call on the Prime Minister to show leadership and take action to resolve this situation. He must start taking this seriously, return to Canada, and get control of the situation.

“Broadway On Ice” Comes To Onoway

Corinna & Danielle have worked hard this year to teach our young skaters the basics of this great Canadian pastime as well as mentor and guide our older skaters to become great figure skaters! The Pre-Can and

Can-Skaters work hard on developing their skills up to twice a week through circuit training and small group work with the coaches and older skaters. It is amazing to watch them learn and grow throughout the year! Once they complete all the levels of our certified Can-Skate program they can move up to the figure skating program or take their skills into other areas of skating such as Minor Hockey. We have a truly exceptional program and a terrific bunch of children and families that are a part of the OSC!

The OSC figure skaters brought home all gold in a December competition that took place in St. Albert. They also recently represented Onoway in Drayton Valley where they all performed solos that exhibited their exceptional skills and talents. We are very proud of our girls and the hard work they put in with after school and early morning practices as well as helping out with the younger skaters twice a week. Their commitment and dedication to the sport of figure skating is remarkable!

Under the direction of all new board members this year, the OSC would like to remind you that new members are always welcomed and registrations are taken throughout the year. Our sessions run from late Sept/Early Oct to the end of Dec and from Jan to mid/end March. We are always looking for new members and volunteers to help keep this great club running!

MASTER THE WEDDING SAVE-THE-DATE

Many couples' weddings take more than a year to plan. Couples want all of the special people in their lives to witness their vows, and giving guests advance notice can ensure as many loved ones as possible attend the ceremony.

To be certain that guests have ample notice to clear their schedules, many couples now turn to save-the-date cards, which announce weddings well in advance of the actual wedding day.

Save-the-date cards once were reserved only for weddings that required travel or special circumstances, such as destination weddings. But such cards have now become commonplace for all weddings. That's because many people plan vacations or business trips anywhere from four to six months in advance. Busy people require plenty of notice to include this important date on their calendars, particularly when wedding dates fall during popular travel seasons or around the holidays.

Kleinfeld Bridal, a premiere New York bridal boutique, says that save-the-date cards are typically mailed six to eight months prior to the wedding, though some are sent as early as a year before the big day. Once a date and a location is secured, save-the-dates can be ordered and mailed.

Save-the-date cards require couples to assemble their guest lists well in advance of the wedding. The leading bridal resource The Knot notes that everyone who will get a wedding invitation should also receive a save-the-date card. There's no turning back once cards are sent, so couples will need to be certain everyone they want to attend is getting advanced notice.

It's acceptable to mail save-the-date cards even if some wedding day details are still up in the air. Guests really only need to know the date and location of the wedding. Couples also can use the save-the-date card to direct invitees to a wedding website where guests can learn the details of the wedding as they unfold.

RSVP information does not need to be included on the save-the-date card.

Save-the-date cards are much less formal than invitations, so couples can have fun with them. They can showcase couples' clever personalities or funny quirks. Keep in mind it is in poor taste to mention gifts or registries on save-the-date cards. There will be plenty of time to direct guests to registries later on.

Couples are increasingly turning to save-the-date cards when planning their weddings to make sure busy friends and family will have enough time to make plans to attend their weddings.

MAKE PROPOSALS SPECIAL AND SUCCESSFUL

A marriage proposals is a couple's first official step toward the altar. Tradition dictates that men pop the question, with their surprised - and hopefully soon-to-be-fiancées - ultimately deciding if wedding bells will be on the horizon.

Proposing marriage can be nerve-racking. However, if the time seems right and love is in the air, popping the question can be exciting. Regardless of who is proposing marriage, the following strategies can help make proposals memorable and successful.

Turn the tides

An old Irish tradition known as "The Lady's Privilege" was established in the fifth century by a nun named St. Brigid. She decided to create an opportunity for women to propose marriage. This day fell on every leap year, February 29. Centuries later, women can still use this tradition as the impetus to take the marriage reins into their own hands. But women need not wait for the next leap year to propose.

Many women view proposing as an empowering action that is tied to the evolving view of independent women. Couples are negotiating more in the marriage process, and the dissolution of commonly held practices is occurring more often.

Choose a sentimental location

Couples will remember the proposal for the rest of their lives. So choose a proposal location that has sentimental connections. Think about where the first "I love you" was uttered or where a first date occurred. These can be prime locations to pop the question.

Note her style

Engagement rings play a big role in many couples' proposals. One person's style is not necessarily what his partner will like. Bigger isn't always better. Rather, choose a ring that reflects your partner's preferences and personality. Take your partner jewelry shopping and see which types of jewelry he or she is most drawn to. Certain preferences can serve as a jumping off point for ring designs.

Ask for the family's blessing

Men no longer need to ask their girlfriends' fathers for "permission" to wed their daughters. However, asking your partner's family for their blessing is a sign of respect and can add a romantic and heartfelt touch to the proposal.

Capture the moment

Though we live in an age when every moment of people's lives is documented with videos and photographs posted to social media, proposals still stand out as extra special moments. Hire a professional photographer to discreetly capture the proposal and your partner's reaction so it can be cherished for years to come.

SELECT A COMFORTABLE WEDDING GOWN

Many brides-to-be visit bridal shops with specific goals in mind regarding the style of their wedding gowns. Some women come equipped with magazine tear-outs or pull up ideas on their mobile phones. Others may have an entire scrapbook filled with various ideas they've been compiling for years.

Much consideration is given to wedding gowns. The cost and silhouette of the dress may garner the bulk of that consideration, but brides might want to spend more time considering comfort.

Depending on the time of day their weddings take place, brides can spend 12 hours or more in their wedding gowns on their wedding day. However, when shopping for their gowns, brides may prioritize beauty over comfort, even though it's entirely possible to find a gown that's both stunning and comfortable. When staff and friends or family who have come along to offer advice start to blush over wedding gowns, brides-to-be may feel pressured to downplay any discomfort they feel.

To make sure brides look flawless and elegant but are still comfortable in their wedding gowns, consider the following tips.

- Know what to highlight and what to cover up. No two body types are the same, and many women feel certain parts of their bodies are their best assets while they want to downplay others. Try on gowns that play up your best features. If you have shapely legs, consider a dramatic gown with a slit to show them off. Certain gowns can enhance the décolleté or show off an hourglass shape. Remember, many gowns can be modified so that you feel secure and confident. Sleeves can be added or fabric placed to cover up any perceived flaws. Confidence and pride are important parts of the comfort factor.

- Get sized correctly. Bridal gown sizes do not coincide with street sizes. Depending on the manufacturer, brides may have to select gowns that are several sizes larger than they would normally wear. This should not be a cause for alarm. Brides should go by their measurements. Attempting to squeeze into a dress that is too small will only lead to discomfort on the wedding day.

- Purchase the right undergarments. Improperly fitting bras, shapewear and other undergarments can lead to discomfort as well. Some seamstresses can sew in supportive cups to remove the need for separate bras. Brides can explore various options to reduce the visibility of certain accoutrements.

- Move around in the gown. Brides should not just stand in front of the mirror and smile when trying on gowns. Put them through their paces. Try sitting, bending and even a little dancing. Make sure the dress is comfortable to move around in.

- Try different options. The gown brides have in mind may not be the one they ultimately go home with. Explore different styles and materials. Choose cooler, breezier fabrics and lightweight gowns, like crêpe, georgette or organza, for summer weddings. Heavier fabrics, such as brocade, may be more comfortable in the winter.

Wedding gowns can be both beautiful and comfortable for those who know how to shop.

HOW TO HANDLE SEATING WEDDING GUESTS

Receptions may be big or small, lavish or casual. But regardless of their size or style, receptions all share a common element: They will require couples set up seating arrangement for guests. Even though assigned seating isn't mandatory, selecting seats for a sit-down dinner makes things simpler and reduces confusion. Some reception venues may even require assigned seating so that catering staff can service tables accordingly.

Seating guests can be tricky, but employing a few strategies can make the process go quickly and smoothly.

- Use a seating chart. A seating chart, whether it's venue-specific or one couples make themselves, is essential. If you using a self-made chart, inquire with the venue about the shape of tables, how many guests each table can seat, and the location of tables around the space.

- Start with the wedding party table. Couples can ease themselves into the task of seating by doing the easy tables first. The primary one is the wedding party table. This traditionally can be a dais or a sweetheart table flanked by the wedding party. According to Martha Stewart Weddings, the table should be centrally located and the wedding couple should sit in the middle. A male-female pattern follows on either side of the couple, consisting of the ushers, bridesmaids, best man, and maid of honor. If much of the wedding party is already married, couples may opt to have the wedding party sit with their spouses instead of at the dais.

- Organize family tables. Tables for parents, grandparents and immediate family members of the bride and groom also are high priority. Both families can be combined at one table, or they can be separated into two tables. These tables should be the closest to the bride and groom.

- Consider mobility issues. Next seat guests who have specific needs at tables. Elderly guests may want to be away from the band, deejay or speakers. Guests in wheelchairs may need an accessible seat near the exit.

- Get some help. Enlist the help of parents to seat their friends and extended family members. Parents may know best who gets along and who should be separated.

- Seat dancers near the dance floor. To encourage dancing, place guests who tend to be lively close to the dance floor so others can see them getting up to dance and join in.

Couples can use apps, lists or self-made charts to plot their reception seating arrangements. Create place cards or a central chart so guests can find their seats promptly and easily.

FACTORS TO CONSIDER BEFORE CHOOSING A WEDDING VENUE

Once couples become engaged and share the good news with their friends and families, the next step is to begin planning their weddings. While couples must make a myriad of decisions during the wedding planning process, perhaps none is more significant than where to tie the knot.

According to The Knot 2016 Real Weddings Study, the average cost of a wedding for couples who married in 2016 was $35,329. That's a sizable amount, and a big portion of that was spent on the wedding venue. The Real Weddings Study found that couples spent an average of $16,107 on their wedding venues in 2016. That figure easily dwarfs the next biggest expense ($6,163 for the engagement ring) for couples tying the knot.

Because the wedding venue comes with such a potentially high sticker price, couples should give ample consideration to a host of factors before choosing where to get married.

Size - Until they can agree on a guest list, couples might want to delay even looking for venues. However, some couples might want to first look at some venues so they can determine just how many guests they can afford to invite. Whether they're hosting small affairs or large parties, couples should choose venues that can comfortably accommodate all of their guests. If possible, look for venues with multiple reception areas, which might allow for some wiggle room if the guest list grows or dwindles during the planning process.

Availability - Some couples might have an ideal time of year they hope to get married. Some even know the exact date they hope to get married. While that can help with the planning, it can also limit couples with regard to their venue options. Some venues may be booked for as much as a year or more in advance during peak wedding season. The Real Weddings Study found that the most popular months to get married in 2016 were October and September. Couples who hope to follow in the footsteps of many 2016 brides and grooms may need to book their wedding venues well in advance. Those who can be more flexible regarding their wedding dates may find it easier to book their dream venues.

Insurance - Ask about the venue's insurance policies, including the policies the venue has to protect itself. In addition, ask if the venue requires couples to have their own wedding liability insurance for protection in the event of injury, property damage or incidents related to alcohol.

Couples may also want to make the investment in cancellation/postponement insurance, and some venues may even require it.

Financials - It's easy for couples to be focused on the bottom line when choosing wedding venues, but it's also important that they get a complete grasp of the financials before choosing a wedding venue. Ask about the amount of the initial deposit and if that deposit is refundable. In addition, ask when the deposit is due and when each subsequent payment is due until the balance is paid in full. This can make budgeting easier and planning less stressful.

Couples should have fun choosing their wedding venues while recognizing that certain factors must be given ample consideration before signing any contracts.

NOTES FROM THE ONOWAY LEGION

Olivia, Ryleigh, Rebecca and Athena show off their moves at the Legion's Family Supper.

Submitted by Richard Moses | Onoway Royal Canadian Legion

Legion suppers

Every Friday, volunteers take turns cooking for the community. On Friday, February 16, we dug into a delicious steak and grilled shrimp dinner, cooked by the usual barbecue crew.

Family Dinner a success

On Friday, Feb. 2, the family dinner was a hit, well-attended and with great food for all ages. The Valentine crafts and cookie decorating for the kids were a hit, and there was even dancing. It couldn't have happened without the volunteer help of Pat S., Carol V., Glo J., Joanne G., Lisa J., Broley H., Leanne & Randy W., Scott S., and cadets Harvey and Colby.

A luau in Onoway?

If you can't go to Hawaii, let Hawaii come to you! No, not with a luau, but with a tropical-themed meal prepared by the social committee. Mark your calendars for Hawaiian Night on February 23. And don't forget to get into the spirit – dress like an islander or a tourist to enjoy this taste of Hawaii.

Support the Onoway Heritage Trail

Mark March 16 on your calendars, and don't miss the silent auction and dinner at the Legion. There'll be a silent auction with proceeds going toward the Onoway Heritage Trail. We've begun collecting items – Terry & Yvonne Slemko have already donated some Oiler tickets. Also, Onoway Councillor Wade Neilson vows to let Lisa Johnson give him a buzz cut if donations are $300 or more. Watch for more details.

Have Fun at an Old-fashioned Box Social

You've heard about box socials – our homesteading grandparents talked about them. Now's your chance to experience it. On Sunday, March 18, there'll be a special Spring Box Social Luncheon! People attend in pairs – friends or couples, it doesn't matter. One person from each pair provides a boxed lunch in a bag (so no identification is possible) and the boxes will be sold by auctioneer Nick Gelych. Adding to the fun, everyone is encouraged to wear his or her fanciest spring bonnet – and that includes the men! Another attraction will be indoor horse races. You can bet on the winner just like at a real race, with proceeds from both auction and races going to the Onoway Legion. Watch for details. Darts, anyone?

Want to play a friendly game of darts each week, or even just once in awhile? Every Tuesday, dart enthusiasts gather at the Legion to throw and enjoy the camaraderie. Games begin at 7, but please arrive a bit early so you can be assigned to a team. Cost is just $3 each week, plus some kind of snack whenever you can. The bar is always open.

Provincial darts winners

The team of Kyle and Matt Hofel, Kurt and Chris Zolmer had a very respectful showin at the provincial tournament, coming in fifth out of 18 teams. However, they were deemed the "most up and coming team", so we'll see more victories for them in the future.

Pool Tournament

At last weekend's tournament, 17 players registered for our 8-Ball round robin, with a total of 272 very competitive games of 8-Ball pool.

Our top 4 players were Joe Tourand (1st), Peter Menzel (2nd), Lou Giroux (3rd) and Karl Kowolski (4th). Lou and Karl tied for third, so had to complete a two-set playoff to determine the final order. Special thanks to Glo Jahelka, Louise Bambrick, Carol Villneff and Cheryl Mellon for volunteering their time in the kitchen and bar and for their exceptional service throughout the day.

Rack 'em up

Each Wednesday, drop-ins are welcome for a friendly game of pool. It's round-robin play for 8-ball, with Legion rules, not bar rules. Registration is at 7, and play begins at 7:30, every week from September to May.

Want to play more? Don't miss next fun pool tournament on Saturday, February 24. Everyone is welcome. Contact Larry Villneff at 780-967-0607 to enter.

VE Day Celebrations

The Legion will celebrate the 72nd Anniversary of the victory of Europe in World War II, with a special event on Saturday, May 12. Watch for details.

Did You Know?

The Onoway Legion has existed for 84 years. It started small, but today boasts just under 200 members.

It's a strong and vibrant Legion, at a time when Legion branches are closing because of financial considerations or through loss of membership.

Did You Know?

Any adult can become a legion member – you don't need to have served in the military to join. General meetings are the first Monday of each month. Interested? Contact Cheryl Sadler at 780-780-967-4146 for details about membership.

Did You Know?

Each year, the Onoway Legion and local cadets sell poppies to commemorate those lost in conflict. Those proceeds support local veterans in many ways – providing necessary living aids like stair tracks, wheelchairs and scooters, and help with accessing needed help.

SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
