ALBERTA RCMP WELCOMES PROVINCIAL FUNDING TO HELP ADDRESS RURAL CRIME

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

On March 9, 2018, the Government of Alberta announced an investment of $8 million that will enable Alberta RCMP to place more employees where they can make the most impact: on the streets and in communities across the province.

This investment demonstrates the province's confidence in the Alberta RCMP's systematic and evidence-led Crime Reduction Strategy – a collaborative policing approach designed to address the root causes of crime and breaking the cycle of criminal activity in a community.

In partnership with the province, Alberta RCMP has developed an action plan that will enable the Force to address rural crime by adding 39 new officer positions and 40 civilian employees in areas that will ultimately lead to more RCMP officers on the road.

The investment represents additional support for Crime Reduction Units in communities that need it the most, six new intelligence-focused officers, four additional crime analysts and more civilian staff to cut down on paperwork so that officers can focus on investigations, patrols, and engaging with their communities.

"Rural Crime Reduction Units are designed to act fast to target repeat offenders who commit the vast majority of crimes in an area," said Deputy Commissioner Todd Shean. "I can assure you, if you are committing crime in Alberta, we will identify you and we will stop you."

YELLOWHEAD COUNTY CELEBRATES 50 YEARS OF 9-1-1

Submitted by Dan Ivanov, Communications Department | Yellowhead County

(March 14, 2018) – Did you know that this past February marks the 50th anniversary of 9-1-1 dispatching worldwide? Yellowhead Regional Emergency Communication Center (YRECC), is proud to be taking part in the prolific history of the "Thin Gold Line"—an apt moniker for the men and women who literally answer our community's call for help daily.

Here's a brief history of the evolution of emergency dispatching in North America:

- In 1957, the United States'

National Association of Fire Chiefs recommended that a single three-digit standard be used to report fires.

- In March of 1964, 28-year-old New Yorker Kitty Genovese was murdered before 38 witnesses. None reported the incident to emergency responders, though her tragic death spurred an interest in a simple and immediate emergency line: the 9-1-1 call system.

- In the late '60s, the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice, the Federal Communications Commission, and AT&T would recommend the implementation of 9-1-1 nationwide.

- In 1973, the U.S. officially began promoting 9-1-1 as the nation-wide, standardized emergency number.

- In 1972, Canada adopted 9-1-1 as the official emergency number, though its first use would come in 1974, in London, Ontario.

Today, it's estimated that 98% of Canadians have access to this vital protective service. Undoubtedly, you or someone you know may have been affected by the dedication and professionalism of our YRECC dispatchers.

"Rural police officers are part of their communities," said Kathleen Ganley, Minister of Justice and Solicitor General. "They do difficult and extremely important work every day. I want to thank the RCMP for the work they do to protect Albertans. I'm confident this plan will give our rural police officers more tools in their toolbox to fight crime."

The RCMP is proud to be the rural police force of Alberta. With the cooperation and support of the Government of Alberta and other community partners, Albertans can be certain that the RCMP's crime reduction strategies in rural communities will be innovative, sophisticated and successful.

YELLOWHEAD COUNTY COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

Submitted by Stefan Felsing, Communications Department | Yellowhead County

March 13, 2018

Bylaw 06.18 Public Hearing – A Public Hearing was held for Bylaw 6.18 that will remove the current municipal reserve designation for the new Brule Community Hall. Property owners adjacent to the Brule Hall brought forward concerns about the nearness of the proposed hall to their home and the impact it may have on their quality of life. Council will consider all input from residents before Bylaw 6.18 is brought forward for second and third readings.

Acres Theatre Presentation – The Arts Centre for Edson Society (ACES) gave a presentation to Council on a concept for a local theatre and arts centre. They asked for support for their project and asked to be involved as a stakeholder as Yellowhead County and Edson move forward in the development of a new community facility for the area residents.

County Paid RCMP Position Transition – Yellowhead County has given notice to terminate the contract for the two RCMP positions paid for by Yellowhead County for as the local RCMP detachments cannot fill the two enhanced RCMP positions. In order to maintain the protective services that these two positions are intended to provide, Yellowhead County will add two additional County Peace Officers to their ranks, bringing the total number of County Peace Officers to eight members across Yellowhead County.

Gravel Tender – Council award the 2018 Summer Gravel Program to Jones Trucking and Backhoe Service Ltd. in the amount of $930,911.09 and the additional $170,320.09 be added to the 2018 final budget. Jones Trucking provided the lowest bid for the contract and has done work for the County in the past.

New Landfill Bylaw Passed – Council passed the new Landfill and Composting (LC) District stipulates where and what type of landfill can be built in Yellowhead County. This new zoning type encourages these new landfills to be on Crown land away from residential settlements and will allow concerns from residents to be heard for any proposed landfills. Class 1A/1B waste removal sites were removed from the final bylaw based on input from County residents at the March 13, 2018 Public Hearing.

The next Council Meeting is March 27, 2018. The next Governance & Priorities Committee Meeting is April 17, 2018. All meetings start at 9:30 a.m. in the Council Chambers.

AWNINGS CAN MAKE OUTDOOR SPACES MORE COMFORTABLE

Outdoor entertaining areas can be great, but such spaces may go unused when summer sun makes it uncomfortable to spend time outdoors. But a retractable awning can change all that. Homeowners often find awnings can be worthwhile investments that can be beneficial both inside and outside of the home.

Increase usable yard space

Awnings can create privacy and establish boundaries for outdoor living areas. Place an awning over a deck, tables and chairs, or an entire patio area. Some people like to install awnings over a portion of their pools to provide shade for those who want to escape the sun's rays. Motorized awnings can be retracted with the push of a button, which can help homeowners with physical limitations.

Protect against sun damage

Awnings provide excellent protection against sun damage, as they can shield outdoor furniture from direct sunlight, helping to reduce the chances for discoloration or fading.

Reduce air conditioning costs

In addition to shading outdoor living areas, smaller awnings can be placed over southern- and western-facing windows, shielding interiors against the sun's rays. In turn, this may reduce reliance on air conditioners.

Expand gardening possibilities

Some plants require very specific light conditions to grow. Awnings can protect shade-loving plants from harsh sunlight and filter the sun for plants that require indirect light. They can be placed over a patio container garden or permanent garden structure.

Add value for buyers

For those who may be selling their homes soon, awning may help them receive top dollar. Today's buyers want houses that have attractive and functional exteriors, and an awning can provide that competitive advantage over similar homes in the neighborhood.

When renovating outdoor areas, homeowners should not overlook awnings that can make outdoor living spaces more livable.

SURVIVING A HOME RENOVATION

Homeowners invest large sums into improving their homes to make them more comfortable living spaces or to increase their odds of selling quickly. The Remodeling Futures Program at the Joint Center for Housing Studies of Harvard University predicted U.S. spending on home renovations and repairs to peak at $327 billion in 2017.

Whether one is doing a large renovation or a small remodel, life may be turned upside down during the project. Furniture may be moved out of the room, walls may be demolished, water or electricity may be turned off, and appliances may be missing or not hooked up. Home improvements often drum up dust and disarray. Such projects can try the patience of any homeowner, and things may get worse before they get better.

Even though remodeling can be taxing, the end result is often worth it. Here's how to look forward to the silver lining and come out unscathed.

Discuss the project before it starts.

All family members should be in agreement before the first hammer is swung. Decide on as many details as you can ahead of time and have a firm plan in place. Establish back-up choices for tiles or color schemes in case the items you want are out of stock. Trying to make decisions under duress may result in bad choices.

Do one project at a time.

It's tempting to want to improve as much as possible at once to maximize motivation and renovation materials. However, having no place in which to escape the mess can elevate stress levels. Do not think about renovating kitchens and bathrooms all at once, or you will not have any working fixtures for tasks like washing up.

Have everything in place.

Before demolition even begins, have building materials bought and stored, contractors and subcontractors lined up, and see what you can do to minimize the time workers need to spend in your home.

but expect delays.

In a world where things move at lightning speeds, renovations have not gotten the memo. Home projects take lots of time and will likely take longer if you are doing the work yourself in your free time. Build lots of extra time into the project so you are not disappointed when delays happen - even when you've done your best to avoid them.

Plan an escape zone

Construction environments can be messy, loud, smelly, and a host of other unsavory adjectives. The chaos that ensues when life is turned upside down can be overwhelming, particularly for the person who spends the most time in the home while work is being done. Build escape moments into the plan and make sure everyone else at home is on board. During the real grind of the project, a night or two at a hotel may be a welcome respite.

PREPARE HVAC SYSTEMS FOR WARMER DAYS AHEAD

Before the weather starts to warm up too much, homeowners may want to evaluate their home cooling needs and ensure that all equipment is in good working order.

Spring air conditioning inspections and tuneups are essential steps in system performance. Homeowners should not take for granted that a system that performed optimally last year will do so this year when temperatures climb. Various factors, including weather damage, dust and grime, mechanical wear and tear, and even rodent or insect infestations, can compromise HVAC systems. Since HVAC systems have so many moving parts, a thorough inspection of such systems can save headaches and money down the road.

According to Heating Ontario, the extreme weather conditions that come along with fall and winter can be especially taxing on homes and the systems that keep them comfortable. During a spring visit, an HVAC technician will perform maintenance on the air conditioner and make sure it is ready for the heat of summertime. This maintenance may include cleaning the unit, checking controls, calibrating the thermostat, lubricating moving parts, checking refrigerant levels, tightening electrical connections, and clearing any clogs. Homeowners are urged to also change the filter at the start of the cooling season.

Correcting any issues in the HVAC system well in advance of the arrival of warm weather can help ensure comfort when air conditioning is needed. As an added advantage, homeowners should install programmable thermostats if they do not already have them to keep cooling as cost- and energy-efficient as possible.

RIDING UPDATE – WEEK OF MARCH 12, 2018

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

As stated at the end of my last update, I took a week off in lieu of a winter vacation. Upon my return to the riding, I got right back to work. Over the week, I met with several constituents throughout the riding, returned emails and phone calls, and participated in meetings.

I spent Monday in my Edson office, where I answered emails and met with constituents concerning issues in the riding.

On Tuesday, I had a meeting in Edson regarding Kinder Morgan's Trans Mountain Pipeline Project. After my meeting, I drove to Jasper where I participated in the Jasper National Park

Annual Forum, a public forum where the Park's yearly report is discussed. This year, it was also an opportunity to ask Park staff about Jasper's wildfire preparedness and the spread of the mountain pine beetle.

On Wednesday, I stopped in Nordegg to meet with a constituent while on my way to Rocky Mountain House, where I spent some time in the office. After meeting with residents the following day, I drove to Drayton Valley for more meetings with constituents and business leaders, and later returned to Edson.

On Friday, I attended the Peers Play School Ukrainian Supper and Dessert Auction.

I will spend Saturday celebrating St. Patrick's Day with friends and family before heading back to Ottawa on Sunday. The House of Commons will sit for two weeks before the Easter holiday. Look for my update next Friday on the happenings of Parliament.

PROTECT VEHICLE PAINT FINISH

Perhaps nothing ages a car or truck more than a lackluster exterior finish. Even if vehicles are only a few years old, failure to maintain the paint, tires and chrome accents can make them look worn beyond their years, potentially affecting resale value.

The environment can be a vehicle's worst enemy. Protecting a car means being mindful of substances and habits that can compromise the exterior finish.

Seek shade

Over time, the sun can damage a vehicle's paint job through oxidation and premature fading. People who live in areas with especially warm climates may see the paint on their vehicles suffer considerable damage thanks to the sun.

One of the easiest ways to protect a vehicle from the sun is to use sheltered parking or park in the shade whenever possible. This can help protect the paint, headlights and trim. Drivers should store their cars in their garages overnight and during daylight hours when they are home.

Wash and dry

It's important to routinely wash vehicles to protect their exterior finish. Use a mild cleanser designed for automobiles and a clean rag or sponge so as not to cause scratches that can cause further damage. Because minerals in tap water can be left behind through evaporation and may oxidize and damage the paint, it's best to wipe away as much residual moisture as possible with a chamois.

Paint protection

Waxing can prevent bird droppings, berries, splattered bugs, and more from sticking to the paint and wearing down the finish. Waxes come in paste, liquid and spray. Each type has a different reapplication schedule, so drivers should consult the product instructions.

Vehicle owners also can invest in spray films to further protect painted surfaces. Do-it-yourself products are applied like a spray and then dry to an invisible, durable film. This helps protect against insects, gravel, sand, winter salt, and even road grime. Different manufacturers offer protection films.

It is important to safeguard the exterior of a vehicle to help it look newer longer, protecting the value of the car or truck while also protecting it against the elements.

WHAT TO DO WHEN A TIRE BLOWS OUT WHILE DRIVING

Many frightening scenarios can unfold while driving. Inclement weather can affect visibility and the safety of roads, while distracted driving can put anyone on the road in harm's way.

One situation that can suddenly turn a Sunday drive into something scary is a blown out tire. No drivers or vehicles are immune to blown out tires. But savvy drivers who know what to do in such situations can greatly reduce their risk of a blown out tire turning into something far worse.

Recognizing a blown out tire

The movies might make blown out tires seem as though drivers suddenly find themselves in wholly uncontrollable situations. But blown out tires won't immediately send cars into the nearest roadside ditch. When a tire blows, the vehicle will immediately slow down and then begin pulling to the right or left, depending on which side of the car suffered the blowout. The automotive retailer Pep Boys notes that, if a front tire blows out, drivers will feel the force in their steering wheels, while a rear tire blowout will be felt more in the seat and/or body of the vehicle.

Driving through a blowout

Plenty of drivers have safely navigated their way through tire blowouts. When such a situation arises, drivers should avoid slamming on their brakes, instead allowing their vehicles to gradually decelerate, making sure to turn on their emergency flashing lights once they are certain they have control of the vehicle. As the vehicle slows down, pull to the side of the road, calling for help if necessary.

When on the side of the road

Drivers who do not have a spare tire or cannot change the tire themselves should wait patiently for assistance to arrive after they have called for help. Drivers who can change their tires should place reflective cones or triangles behind their vehicles before they begin working. Such devices warn oncoming drivers of stranded vehicles. If replacing the tire with a donut, remember that such replacement tires are not designed to travel long distances and will need to be replaced shortly after they are put on the vehicle.

RCMP SEIZE 1.25KG OF SUSPECTED COCAINE DURING TRAFFIC STOP

Submitted by RCMP Alberta

Edson, Alberta - As a result of pro-active police enforcement, RCMP have removed a large amount of suspected cocaine from the streets following a traffic stop on Highway 16.

On March 2nd, 2018 Police conducted a traffic stop with a vehicle on Highway 16 near the Town of Edson, Alberta. As a result of the traffic stop, the officer entered in to a drug investigation which resulted in 1.25 kilograms of suspected cocaine, a small amount of cannabis marihuana, and a large sum of Canadian currency being seized from the vehicle.

"The RCMP across Alberta are engaged in strategies to reduce crime by utilizing a targeted, evidence based approach to policing," states S/Sgt John Spaans of RCMP K-Division. "Part of this strategy includes conducting targeted enforcement on known drug trafficking in an effort to remove these dangerous substances from the streets".

Two adults and a youth were located inside the vehicle. The adults were arrested and the investigation is continuing at this time. Police will not be naming the adults as to protect the identity of the youth.

SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ANSWER:

|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 8 | 2 | 6 | 3 | 1 | 9 | 5 | 4 | 7 |
| 9 | 5 | 3 | 8 | 7 | 4 | 1 | 6 | 2 |
| 4 | 1 | 7 | 6 | 5 | 2 | 8 | 3 | 9 |
| 1 | 3 | 9 | 4 | 2 | 8 | 6 | 7 | 5 |
| 5 | 4 | 8 | 7 | 6 | 3 | 9 | 2 | 1 |
| 7 | 6 | 2 | 5 | 9 | 1 | 4 | 8 | 3 |
| 6 | 8 | 1 | 2 | 3 | 5 | 7 | 9 | 4 |
| 2 | 7 | 5 | 9 | 4 | 6 | 3 | 1 | 8 |
| 3 | 9 | 4 | 1 | 8 | 7 | 2 | 5 | 6 |

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku.

This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
