Just before 5 a.m., Leduc Fire and RCMP were called to the Leduc Hospital as a result of a suspicious fire being set in an emergency room washroom. A female suspect was identified as being seen in the emergency ward at the hospital then later bringing material into the washroom.

Nadine Breau, 45-years-old was arrested near the hospital a short time after the fire was discovered. She has been charged with arson, two counts of mischief causing property damage, possession of stolen property and possession of a weapon dangerous to public peace. A bail hearing was held and she will remain in custody pending her first appearance court date on April 5.

EDMONTON-AREA CO-WORKERS CELEBRATE $1 MILLION LOTTO 6/49 WIN!

Submitted by Western Canada Lottery Corporation

A group of 48 co-workers is celebrating after discovering they won $1 million on their long-time LOTTO 6/49 subscription.

"Some of the people in our group have been playing together since 1997," said Chelsey Volkman, one of the members and a spokesperson for the group.

"I think that's what made this so exciting. We really weren't expecting to win, but we knew that we could win one day if we kept playing."

The group won their million-dollar prize on the February 7 draw – the first of their recently renewed subscription.

"A few people in our group didn't believe me when I sent out the email saying we won," said Volkman. "I think some people thought I was joking because we had just renewed."

"It didn't take anyone too long to realize it was true, though," she said with a laugh. "And after six years, it was really nice to be able to give everyone the good news."

The members of the winning group include Edmonton residents Volkman, Terrilee Reid, Darren Gillett, Jennifer Southcombe, Donna Lynn Kumpula, Richard Sparrow, Michelle Unchulenko, Elaine Burkholder and Rebecca Aiken; and Leduc residents Jaime Woinaroski, Crystal Braaten, Claire Davis, Corinne Schneider, Andrea Ryll, Bruce Buss, Leahann Sigurdson, Daniel Borys, Kelly

Tremblay, Camen Pezderic, Robert Harrington, Antonia Hansen, Barry Scheelar, Stephanie Vantanajal, Cindy Villeneuve, Diane Miles, Deborah Ponich, Lorraine Kirkpatrick, Laurel Varnberg, Dakota Williams, Esther Rockey, Ann Gibbons and Calvin Monty.

Rounding out the group are: Janet Swift, Jacqueline Larson, Norman Dargis and Mary Vasek of Beaumont; William Romanchuk, Norman Yanitski and Marilyn Andres of Sherwood Park; Gail Vervaeke, Theodore Dykstra, Anna Bennett and Robert Kahn of Millet; Gordon Engberg and Scott Mantai of Thorsby; Dianne Butler and Sandra Fownes of Devon; and Carol Pruneau of Calmar.

"Most of us have been talking about putting our winnings into savings," she said. "I think a few people are going to plan a vacation as well."

The group won their $1 million prize on the February 7 guaranteed prize draw. Their winning number was 26972491-01.

Last week, the Liberals introduced new firearms legislation, Bill C-71. I was scheduled to speak during the debate on Monday, but the Liberals stalled and used their majority to shut down debate before many Members, including myself, had the opportunity to represent our constituents' concerns. Justin Trudeau claims to listen to Canadians, but shoving legislation through the House without allowing for proper debate is the exact opposite of listening to Canadians.

Also on Monday, the Prime Minister exonerated six Tsilhqot'in chiefs who were unjustly hanged in British Columbia in 1864. The current chiefs of Tsilhqot'in First Nation were present on the floor of the House of Commons during the exoneration, and a drumming ceremony also took place.

On Wednesday evening, I had the pleasure of attending the screening of the film, Myth, and a reception at the Embassy of Ukraine.

You can read comments, speeches, and debates in the House on the corresponding day's Hansard at www.ourcommons.ca/en.

In the Standing Committee on Canadian Heritage (CHPC), we began a study on cultural hubs and cultural districts in Canada. For more information on these meetings, visit the CHPC Committee website at www.ourcommons.ca/Committees/en/CHPC.

This week, I attended six meetings and two events, and I taped one video message. I will return to the riding on Thursday evening as the House will not sit on Friday due to the Easter holiday. I will remain in the riding over the weekend and the next two weeks while the House is on recess. My next update will be on my travels throughout our beautiful constituency of Yellowhead.

Spring 2018 HomeRENO

The Businesses in the following Guide can be your One Stop Solution to all your Renovation Needs!

HomeRENO

SURVIVING A HOME RENOVATION

Homeowners invest large sums into improving their homes to make them more comfortable living spaces or to increase their odds of selling quickly. The Remodeling Futures Program at the Joint Center for Housing Studies of Harvard University predicted U.S. spending on home renovations and repairs to peak at $327 billion in 2017.

Whether one is doing a large renovation or a small remodel, life may be turned upside down during the project. Furniture may be moved out of the room, walls may be demolished, water or electricity may be turned off, and appliances may be missing or not hooked up. Home improvements often drum up dust and disarray. Such projects can try the patience of any homeowner, and things may get worse before they get better.

Even though remodeling can be taxing, the end result is often worth it. Here's how to look forward to the silver lining and come out unscathed.

Discuss the project before it starts.

All family members should be in agreement before the first hammer is swung. Decide on as many details as you can ahead of time and have a firm plan in place. Establish back-up choices for tiles or color schemes in case the items you want are out of stock. Trying to make decisions under duress may result in bad choices.

Do one project at a time.

It's tempting to want to improve as much as possible at once to maximize motivation and renovation materials. However, having no place in which to escape the mess can elevate stress levels. Do not think about renovating kitchens and bathrooms all at once, or you will not have any working fixtures for tasks like washing up.

Have everything in place.

Before demolition even begins, have building materials bought and stored, contractors and subcontractors lined up, and see what you can do to minimize the time workers need to spend in your home.

In a world where things move at lightning speeds, renovations have not gotten the memo. Home projects take lots of time and will likely take longer if you are doing the work yourself in your free time. Build lots of extra time into the project so you are not disappointed when delays happen - even when you've done your best to avoid them.

Plan an escape zone

Construction environments can be messy, loud, smelly, and a host of other unsavory adjectives. The chaos that ensues when life is turned upside down can be overwhelming, particularly for the person who spends the most time in the home while work is being done. Build escape moments into the plan and make sure everyone else at home is on board. During the real grind of the project, a night or two at a hotel may be a welcome respite.

Family run, local business, we care!

PREPARE HVAC SYSTEMS FOR WARMER DAYS AHEAD

The arrival of a new season can be an exciting time. Homeowners may have renewed vigor to start home renovation projects or even tackle some cleaning and organization tasks. Before the weather starts to warm up too much, homeowners may want to evaluate their home cooling needs and ensure that all equipment is in good working order.

Spring air conditioning inspections and tuneups are essential steps in system performance. Homeowners should not take for granted that a system that performed optimally last year will do so this year when temperatures climb. Various factors, including weather damage, dust and grime, mechanical wear and tear, and even rodent or insect infestations, can compromise HVAC systems. Since HVAC systems have so many moving parts, a thorough inspection of such systems can save headaches and money down the road.

According to Heating Ontario, the extreme weather conditions that come along with fall and winter can be especially taxing on homes and the systems that keep them comfortable. During a spring visit, an HVAC technician will perform maintenance on the air conditioner and make sure it is ready for the heat of summertime. This maintenance may include cleaning the unit, checking controls, calibrating the thermostat, lubricating moving parts, checking refrigerant levels, tightening electrical connections, and clearing any clogs. Homeowners are urged to also change the filter at the start of the cooling season.

Correcting any issues in the HVAC system well in advance of the arrival of warm weather can help ensure comfort when air conditioning is needed. As an added advantage, homeowners should install programmable thermostats if they do not already have them to keep cooling as cost- and energy-efficient as possible.

MEDIA ROOMS NOW EDGE OUT HOME THEATERS

Not so long ago many homeowners were racing to outfit their homes with home theater spaces. If spaces allowed, homeowners would transform rooms into dark, theater-like retreats, complete with large screens, surround sound and reclined seating. Interest in such spaces has waned in recent years, with many homeowners opting for media rooms instead. So what is the difference between these spaces?

According to HGTV, a home theater is a room designed to replicate the experience of the cinema. A media room is a multipurpose space where people can gather to enjoy any type of media, from TV to music to gaming systems. Home theaters tend to limit activity to watching movies. However, homeowners interested in more versatile paces may find media rooms are much more practical.

A media room is an option for families who want a theater experience in common areas or open-concept living spaces, says Digitech Custom Audio and Video System Integration Specialists. Media rooms frequently feature comfortable, customizable seating, rather than rows of seats facing the screen that are standard in home theaters. Guests can converse in media rooms while enjoying a show, streaming music or gaming. Various design layouts are possible, including furniture that conceals electronics so the media room can be an entertainment lounge one minute and a theater the next.

Because media rooms are not as isolated as home theaters, the acoustics in such rooms may be compromised. That's a disadvantage for homeowners who have invested heavily in sound systems for their media devices. Sound from media rooms also may filter out and disturb others in different rooms of the house. However, fluffy sofas, drapery and carpeting can absorb sound and keep it in the room.

Homeowners who like to entertain while watching or listening to media may prefer the flexibility of media rooms, which make it easy to stream movies and music and play games.

ALBERTA RCMP REMIND RESIDENTS TO CHECK THEIR MAILBOXES

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

The newly operating Call Back Unit in the RCMP K Division headquarters building is reporting that several calls have been received in relation to rural mailboxes which have been the target of thefts. While there is no one community that these thefts are associated with – citizens across the province are being reminded to check on their mailboxes daily.

Criminals who steal mail are targeting pre-paid credit cards, gift cards, cheques and documents that will make it easy for them to access your banking and other personal information. This time of year, thieves are especially targeting the pre-paid credit cards used by tax companies to deliver tax refunds to their clients, or refunds otherwise directed distributed.

RCMP urge citizens in the province to take steps every day to protect themselves from mailbox theft, and ultimately, identity theft:

- Check your mailbox daily and remove the accumulated mail.

• If you are expecting a parcel – consider having that parcel sent either registered mail, or to a business address where someone can accept the delivery.

• Consider picking up your on-line purchases at the stores you ordered from.

If your mailbox has been broken into, or tampered with, call your local RCMP Detachment and report the situation to Canada Post. If you believe that mail has been stolen from your mailbox:

- Contact the business or agency

who you were expecting mail from including utility companies, banking organizations and credit card companies. This type of mail contains information that may lead to identity theft.

If you observe suspicious activity in progress at a mailbox, call your local RCMP Detachment. If you wish to remain anonymous, call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 or report it online at www.tipsubmit.com. If your information leads to an arrest, you could be eligible for a cash reward up to $2,000.

COMPANY, DIRECTORS FACE ENVIRONMENTAL CHARGES

Submitted by Jamie Hanlon, Communications, Alberta Environment and Parks | Government of Alberta

The Alberta government has laid two charges against a Drayton Valley used oil storage and recycling facility and its directors for failing to comply with provincial environmental legislation. Incident details: Jonah and Cathy Tryon and Tryon's Auto Body Ltd. have each been charged with two counts under the Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act. The charges relate to a continuing set of events that occurred between July 7, 2016 and Aug. 30, 2016. The charges consist of two separate counts of: Interfering with an inspector or investigator exercising or carrying out duties or attempting to do so, an offence contrary to section 227(j) of the Environmental Protection and Enhancement Act. The first court appearance is set for April 17 in Drayton Valley Provincial Court. Alberta Environment and Parks focuses on education, prevention and enforcement to ensure all Albertans continue to enjoy a clean and healthy environment. When individuals or companies fail to comply with legislation, Environment and Parks has a range of options, depending on the offence, to ensure compliance with environmental regulations.

HOMELESSNESS ACROSS CANADA

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

On March 12, Employment and Social Development Canada announced the launch of Everyone Counts: the second nationally-coordinated Point-in-Time (PiT) Count of homelessness. Between March 1 and April 30, 2018, communities in every province and territory across Canada will conduct a PiT count. "Even though there aren't any large cities in Yellowhead, we are not immune to homelessness. Every community, large and small, has people in need. This data will help develop effective strategies that respond to homelessness at the local level," stated MP Eglinski. The PiT counts will provide vital information to participating communities about individuals experiencing homelessness, helping to identify their needs and plan community resources accordingly.

The information collected will also contribute to a national portrait of homelessness and support the Government of Canada's work in preventing and reducing homelessness. Communities can also choose to implement a joint PiT count and registry week, which helps the community to create a by-name list of individuals experiencing homelessness. This list can be used to link individuals to housing supports as part of the 20,000 Homes Campaign of the Canadian Alliance to End Homelessness. "All Canadians should have access to safe and affordable housing. Through initiatives such as this, we can help address homelessness at the community level," concluded MP Eglinski. # CALL FOR APPLICATIONS – RENEWABLE POWER

Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is pleased to inform constituents of a call for applications for funding under Natural Resource Canada's Emerging Renewable Power Program (ERPP). The ERPP provides up to $200 million to expand the portfolio of commercially viable renewable energy sources available to provinces and territories.

"Yellowhead is a leader in developing new renewable power technologies. Just look at Hinton's geothermal project that is exploring the use of geothermal heat from oil and gas wells to heat the town's public buildings," stated MP Eglinski. The ERPP will reduce the risks associated with these technologies, help reduce their cost, and allow the sector to more easily navigate through regulatory issues. Over time, this will help Canada's electricity system draw on a more diverse set of technologies. Eligible projects are large size, utility-scale electricity generation projects from renewable energy resources that have not yet been commercially deployed in Canada. Eligible technologies include offshore wind, geothermal power, concentrated photovoltaic, and instream tidal. To help community members, businesses and other interested Canadians find information on federal programming to support the deployment of emerging renewable power projects, a new webpage has been established, which includes a comprehensive guide to funding for eligible projects: <https://www.nrcan.gc.ca/energy/funding/20502>. The deadline to apply is April 20, 2018. "I encourage all eligible organizations with an interest in exploring renewable power to consider applying to this program," concluded MP Eglinski.

CRTC DECISION AND CONSULTATION ON WIRELESS SERVICES

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is pleased to inform residents of a decision by the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission (CRTC) that will make new low-cost data-only wireless plans available to Canadians across the country. The CRTC examined whether wireless offerings based on different business models and technologies, such as Wi-Fi access, could be leveraged to improve the affordability of wireless services for Canadians. The CRTC concluded that there is a gap in the market for lower-cost data-only plans. If these plans were more prevalent, Canadians, including those with low household incomes, would have more options when it comes to innovative and affordable mobile wireless services. In an additional measure, the CRTC has reduced final wholesale roaming rates by 44% to 99%. The CRTC has also announced that it will launch a process which will include consideration on how mobile virtual network operators (MVNO) can be leveraged to further contribute to wireless affordability and competition. The purpose of the consultation will be to determine the specific attributes of lower-cost data-only plans. The CRTC is also seeking comments on what specific rules, if any, are needed to ensure they are widely available to Canadians. Bell Mobility, Rogers and Telus must provide their proposals for lower-cost data-only plans by April 23. The CRTC will then publish the proposals for public comment. "A 2017 government study found that regions with strong competition are the least expensive mobile wireless markets in Canada. I am pleased that the CRTC is encouraging competition to make wireless plans more affordable for all, including those in rural Canada," concluded MP Eglinski. More information on the decision can be found at: crtc.gc.ca/eng/archive/2018/2018-97.htm
