The County continues to promote a "Door Knocking" Program to make contact with land owners before a weed inspection takes place. We inform the property owners of the approximate date and time of when an inspection will take place, and the Weed Inspectors can then address any questions or concerns the landowner may have at that time. If land owners are not home during the time of the "Door Knocking" Program they will find a placard on their door or gate letting them know that an inspector was there and that they can call the inspector for more information.

The results of the inspection(s) and weed information sheets will then be mailed out to the land owners within a couple weeks of the inspection(s) taking place.

BULLYING Tips for Dealing With Bullying

1) Take complaints of bullying seriously. Do not dismiss your child or expect your child to work through the situation alone.

 Praise your child for reporting bullying situations to you and assure your child you will take action.

3) Talk to your child's teacher, counselor, or other caregiver about reports of bullying.

4) Work together to address the bullying situation. Don't confront the parents of the bully directly.

5) Ask your child specific questions about how your child is treated by peers, who he or she eats lunch with, and how other children are treated.

6) Teach your child to be assertive. Your child should be able to express feelings and needs clearly, without shouting or other aggressive behavior.

7) Provide opportunities for your child to make friends. Identify some of your child's interests and encourage your child to pursue them through sports, clubs, or other group activities.

8) Teach your child to identify bullying behaviors. These include hitting, damaging possessions, threatening, name calling, & excluding someone

Drivers who are impaired by fatigue, drugs, alcohol or other distractions such as cell phones, are a danger not only to themselves, but also to the innocent drivers around them. If you witness any of the behaviors below, call 911 and tell the operator that you are calling to report an impaired driver. Be prepared to describe the make, model, color and license plate number of the vehicle, and provide its exact location.

• Failure to turn on headlights at night. • Illegal or sudden turning. • Turning within an unusually wide radius. • Nearly striking other cars or objects. • Sudden or erratic braking. • Drifting, swerving or weaving. • Driving with the face close to the windshield. • Drinking alcohol in the vehicle. • Driving much slower than the posted speed limit. • Rapidly accelerating. • Tailgating. • Driving in the middle of the road, or with the left tires on the center line. • Responding slowly to traffic signals

STONY PLAIN REPLACEMENT SCHOOL ON THE WAY

MLA Babcock takes questions from a Grade 6 class at Stony Plain Central School about the replacement project.

Submitted by Lindsay Harvey, Press Secretary, Alberta Education | Government of Alberta

As part of Budget 2018, the government will replace Stony Plain Central School to meet growing student enrolment in the community.

The existing kindergarten to Grade 9 school, built in 1971, has numerous structural issues and outdated mechanical systems, and is currently over capacity. The replacement is expected to be complete in 2022-23.

"Crumbling infrastructure has been one of the biggest problems facing Albertans, and we are committed to ensuring future generations have high-quality schools to learn in. This new school will help the people of Stony Plain for years to come." - Erin Babcock, MLA, Stony Plain

In addition to the condition of the building itself, the growth in enrolment is putting pressure on the instructional areas. Nearly 700 students attend the school, which was designed to accommodate 633, meaning non-classroom spaces like gyms and learning commons are being used for core instruction.

"This is such welcome news with the announcement of the approval for a replacement school for Stony Plain Central School. We are appreciative of our government's commitment to school capital projects in the province. Our Stony Plain public has been very patient in anticipation of the replacement of the aging Stony Plain Central School. We are most eager to begin design plans and hope to work closely with the Town of Stony Plain in their area structure plans." - Eric Cameron, board chair, Parkland School Division

The new school reflects Alberta's continued investment in the infrastructure and services needed by families. Investing in 20 new school projects, as well as hospitals and roads, will help the province move forward with economic recovery.

The new Stony Plain Central will have capacity for 900 students and will be eligible for solar panel funding, which will reduce the school's energy costs and contribute to Alberta's commitment to help the environment.

SPRUCE GROVE GETS MORE AFFORDABLE CHILD CARE SPACES

Submitted by Doug Neuman, Communications Officer | Alberta NDP Caucus

SPRUCE GROVE - More families in Spruce Grove will have access to affordable child care, thanks to a provincial funding announcement for 64 newly affordable spaces.

The YMCA Beaverbrook Child Care Centre will be able to provide 64 newly affordable high-quality child care spaces. These licensed spaces currently exist, but will now be available to parents for no more than $25 per day.

Spruce Grove-St. Albert MLA

Trevor Horne has advocated for more of these affordable spaces in this community, and is happy with the results.

"I have heard from many of my constituents in Spruce Grove how tough it can be to find quality child care that doesn't break the bank. The newly affordable spaces are going to give many families more options and make life better for them." - Trevor Horne, MLA for Spruce Grove-St. Albert

This week Premier Rachel Notley and Children's Services Minister Danielle Larivee announced that 100 new Early Learning and Child Care Centres across the province would be added to the existing 22 centres that opened last year as part of a province-wide pilot project.

With a total of 7,300 spaces now across the province, this program is expected to create 450 child-care jobs, empower more than 1,400 parents to enter or re-enter the workforce, and put big smiles on thousands of little faces.

TIPS TO STOP SCHOOLYARD BULLYING

• Take it seriously. It's easy to say, "Kids will be kids" and assume it will pass. But if your child is coming home upset and is suddenly anxious about school because of the way a kid (or kids) are treating him, you should pay attention.

Drop your kid off at school or stand on the sidelines during recess.
 Bullying tends to occur when adult supervision is lacking, so before school or on the playground at recess.

Talk to other parents. Young kids are talkers. If you're friendly with a parent in your kid's class, ask them if their child has mentioned anything about kids being picked on at school.

• Tell the teacher. It's really important to let your child's teacher know what your kid is telling you -- especially if someone is getting hit.

• Empower your children. Let your kids know that it's not their fault that they are being bullied. Teach your kids to focus on their own behavior.

INDICATORS O

With regard to home repairs, homeowners may be able to delay some projects until the weather permits or they find room in their budgets. But other areas, including the roof, may demand immediate action.

Few homeowners give the roofs of their homes much thought until a problem arises. But learning to recognize potential indicators of roof trouble can help homeowners prevent potentially drastic situations down the road.

· Light: Homeowners with attics in their homes can inspect the ceilings inside the attic for signs of holes or leaks. Light peering through the top of the house indicates a hole or leak, as does stains or streaks on the ceiling.

· Worn shingles: Shingles should lie flat against the roof, so any that appear to be buckling or turning up are damaged and in need of repair. A single damaged shingle does not require a full roof replacement, but inspect all the shingles nonetheless. Another indicator of shingle problems can be found when cleaning downspouts or gutters. If the gutters and downspouts contain lots of shingle granules, the roof may soon need to be replaced.

· Moss: Moss on a rooftop may give a home character, but that added character is costly. Shady areas of a roof can be susceptible to the growth of moss and fungi because moisture can be trapped in such areas. If possible, remove moss or fungi from a roof with a stiff brush or hire a professional to do the job instead. Moss may come back even after brushing it off, so homeowners should keep an eye on areas of their roofs that get little sunlight. In addition, trapped moisture can be very harmful to a roof, so it may be wise to exercise caution and have roofs with mold or fungi growths inspected.

• Age: Another indicator of roof trouble may be the age of the roof. Even if there are no visible signs of damage, homeowners whose roofs have some years under their belt may want to consider replacing them. Asphalt shingle roofs typically have life expectancies of 20 to 25 years, while roofs installed over existing layers of shingles may need to be replaced after 20 years.

Recognizing minor roof damage before it escalates into a larger problem can save homeowners substantial amounts of money.

HomeRENO

PAINT YOUR HOME'S EXTERIOR LIKE A PRO

Painting is an inexpensive way to transform just about any space. Many people paint the interiors of their homes, but home exteriors also can undergo dramatic makeovers with fresh coats of paint. Timing the job right and heeding some tips from professionals and do-it-yourselfers who have tread the painting path before you can make the job go smoothly.

Consider the time of year

Consider local weather patterns and forecasts when planning an exterior painting project. Choose a time of year when there is little rain and low humidity, such as autumn. Keep in mind that the paint will require a couple of days to dry completely and cure, and that can be difficult in damp weather. Don't hamper the final outcome with poor timing.

Prepare the painting surfaces Resist the temptation to start painting straight away. Paint may not adhere to unprepared surfaces, and dirt and other debris may show through and mar the finished product. Repainting a home's exterior will likely involve removing peeling or chipping paint prior to making your first strokes. Wear protective gear when scraping, sanding or brushing old paint, as such tasks can generate dust that can be dangerous to inhale, particularly if the old paint contains lead.

Employ a chlorine bleach solution to kill any mildew and to scrub any dirt from the house. In addition, repair any cracks or imperfections. For example, if you're painting stucco, you may have to fill in any pitting or holes. Use this opportunity to inspect caulking around windows and doors. Recaulk as needed to seal up drafty areas or those that may cause water infiltration prior to painting.

Prime and cover stains

It may be a little extra work, but apply a quality primer as the first coat to hide any imperfections, such as wood knots or discoloration from weathering. Primer provides a smooth, even surface upon which to put your paint color. Once you have applied the primer, test your paint color in a small, inconspicuous spot to see how the color looks in the daylight. You do not want to paint the entire home only to find out you dislike the color.

Try these painting techniques

Rent a paint sprayer for large surface areas. The sprayer will produce a more uniform application and is less time-consuming than painting everything with a brush or roller. Make sure you've chosen a high-quality paint, as the added expense is worth it if the paint lasts longer and coats more evenly. Also, if you have purchased multiple cans of paint, mix them all in one large bucket to ensure the same color; otherwise, the colors may not match perfectly.

The experts at HGTV recommend working your way from top to bottom in a smooth, controlled manner, overlapping each stroke by eight inches. Trim and hard-to-reach areas should be left for brush work so you can maintain control over your tools.

If you are painting areas like steps or staircases, consider adding a little fine-grain sand to the paint to improve traction, as paint can be slippery when wet.

If painting your home's exterior is beyond your capabilities, hire a professional. He or she will get the work done in a timely manner, and you can rest assured that the job will be done correctly.

HOW TO SOUND

(MS) - What's the first step in sound proofing your home? Finding which rooms have the least amount of sound resistance.

To do this, make sure everyone is out of the house, unplug all electronics and close all doors and windows. Take a quick walk through your house and pause for a few moments in each room to evaluate which ones are the noisiest. Now consider if you're installing a media room or teenage recreational room where volumes will be blasting on TV's and stereos.

With this information, you should have a good idea of where you need to soundproof and create barriers against noise. Here are some tips to help you achieve the optimal result of peace and quiet:

· Plant trees and hedges along the exterior of your home, perhaps along a fence. Not only do trees and hedges help with the environment and provide a good amount of privacy, they also slow down the travel of noise from the neighborhood into

- · Insulate your walls and ceilings. Better insulation in your interiors and exteriors won't just drive away excess noise, it will also reduce your heating and cooling bills during the hot and cold months. For the best sound proofing and easy installation quality, a professional-grade product by ROXUL called Safe'n'Sound is very popular.
- · Seal up all cracks and holes around windows and doors, and add double glazed windows to your current glass panes.

Once you've selected the best soundproofing method, implement it and enjoy the bliss of silence throughout your home.

Homeowners looking to renovate often see room for improvement in their kitchens and bathrooms. The National Association of Home Builder's Remodeling Market Index Survey, which measures conditions in the remodeling market, indicates that, in 2015, the two most common remodeling jobs were bathroom remodels (81 percent) and kitchen remodels (79 percent). According to HGTV and Statistics Brain, a new kitchen remodel for a kitchen measuring 12 by 12 feet may cost homeowners anywhere from $17,000 to $37,000.

Before investing so much into their remodeling projects, homeowners should think carefully about the features that will improve their time spent at home. When planning a kitchen renovation, homeowners may want to consider the following upgrades to make the room more enjoyable while improving its functionality.

Oversized sink

Although high-efficiency dishwashers are popular, deep sinks to soak soup pots or woks are still useful. Deep sinks may be preferable to double sinks, especially for homeowners who use lots of kitchen tools when preparing meals.

Soft-closing hinges

When replacing cabinets (or just the hardware), consider installing soft-closing hinges and slides on doors and drawers. These devices eliminate slamming and caught fingers, reducing noise and injuries in the kitchen.

Foot-pedal water operation

When outfitting a sink, think about foot controls, which are popular in doctors' offices and hospitals. Turning on the water with the tap of a foot can reduce the transfer of pathogens to faucets from hands during food preparation. These pedals also free up hands for other tasks.

Bottom's up

People likely spend more time raiding the refrigerator than the freezer on any given day. Rather than having to bend down to seek out that favorite flavor of Greek yogurt, choose a model with the fridge on top and freezer on the bottom, especially if anyone in the household has mobility issues. When shopping for refrigerators, French-door style units may offer even more access, making it easy for homeowners to slide fruit trays, sheet cakes and other large items into the fridge.

Extra lighting

A kitchen should be a balance of form and function. A combination of overhead lighting, decorative lighting and task lighting can illuminate all areas of the space effec-

Appliance garages

Architectural and design resource Houzz says that appliance garages are popular kitchen additions, too.

Set at countertop level, these cabinets allow people to keep small appliances plugged in but tucked neatly behind closed doors.

Kitchen remodels are a sizable investment, and renovations can be customized to make the kitchen more hospitable for all in residence.

COUNTY HOSTS LIVING WITH WILDLIFE WORKSHOP

Submitted by Stefan Felsing, Communications Coordinator | Yellowhead County

Thirty people attended and received practical, real-world advice from the officers and wildlife biologists who were there to answer attendees' questions. They covered bears, cougars and other problem wildlife and the things you can do to mitigate wildlife conflict.

Provincial Fish and Wildlife officers and wildlife biologists were on hand to answer questions, share stories, and give tips on how to prevent human-wildlife conflict at Yellowhead County's Living with Wildlife workshop that took place on April 22, 2018, in Peers. Topics included understanding bears, cougars and other wildlife; techniques and tools to reduce risks; what to do in an encounter; bear-proof bins, electric fences and other deterrents, and more.

Following the presentation, everyone went outside where attendees could practice using inert bear spray during a hands-on bear spray demonstration.

"Having this training will help bring more confidence and give a better awareness to all the wildlife in our area when we're out working on our acreages and farms, or out in the in green zones hunting or hiking," says Yellowhead County agricultural services coordinator, Melissa Marquis.

The Living with Wildlife workshop, hosted by Yellowhead County, was for acreage owners, agricultural operators, hobby farmers, honey producers, hunters, fishers, campers, hikers and other recreationists to learn how to prevent human-wild-life conflict.

ABDUCTION IS NOT

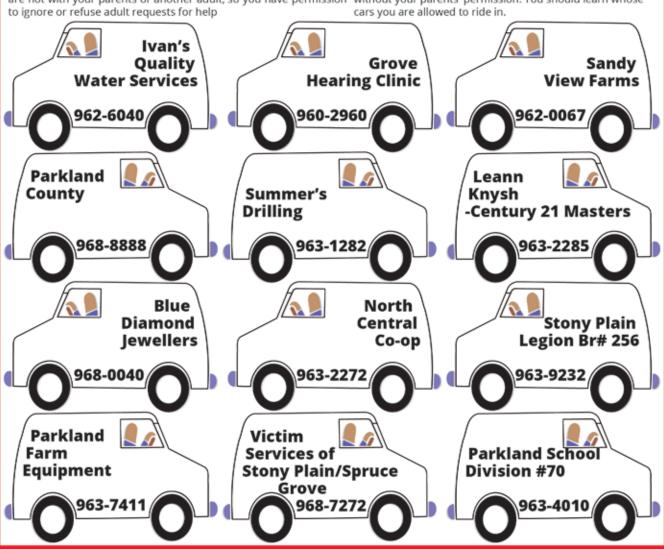

Tips about Strangers

A stranger is anyone you don't know. There is no way to tell by the way a person looks if they are dangerous or not. A dangerous person does not always look mean or scary, so judging by the way people look is a mistake. It's not so easy to tell who is okay and who is not. Just because someone looks nasty doesn't mean that they would hurt you and just because someone looks nice, doesn't mean that they are a nice person.

There is only one person that is with you all the time and can be responsible for keeping you safe at all times. THAT PERSON IS YOU! Safety rules need to apply ALL THE TIME, not just when someone who looks bad or scary is around. One of the most common ways that kids get hurt by strangers is when being friendly and helpful to adults who pretend to need help. When you are without your parents or other adult you know, it is your job to protect yourself. It is not your job to offer help to any adults, even if they ask! A grownup who needs help should get help from another adult, not a child. So remember, looking out for yourself is your biggest job when you are not with your parents or another adult, so you have permission without your parents' permission. You should learn whose to ignore or refuse adult requests for help

Stranger Tips:

- · Walk and play with others and use the buddy system. If you walk somewhere, walk with other children.
- · Adults do not usually ask children for directions or help, they should be asking other adults. If someone in a car should stop to ask for directions, you should not go near the car.
- Stay an arms reach or more away from strangers. Stand up, back up and run to someone who can help you if you feel afraid.
- · If someone is following you on foot or in a car, go to a place where there are other people--to a neighbor's home or into a store, a police station or even a library for instance--and ask for help.
- No one should ask you to look for lost items such as a "lost puppy" or tell you that either of your parents is in trouble and that he or she will take you to mom or dad. If someone tells you this, run the other way immediately and find help with an adult you know or run into a safe place you know.
- Never go near a car with someone in it or get into a car

SUDOKU # WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

		6		3		5	41 - 1	9
	3		1		2	4
		3		8			5
1			4	5	9	3	6
9	5	4	3				2
	7					8
				4				5
2		8		1				3

ANSWER:

3	1	9	6	4	8	2	7	5	ı

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku.

This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
