CONSULTATION – TAXATION OF CANNABIS

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, would like to inform residents that the Department of Finance has launched a consultation on a set of technical draft regulatory and legislative proposals under the Excise Act, 2001 that would provide for the additional excise duty rates for each province or territory that has signed a CCTA with the Government of Canada. These rates would come into effect when cannabis for non-medical purposes becomes available for legal retail sale.

In keeping with the agreement reached by Finance Ministers, under the CCTAs, revenues from the excise duties on cannabis products will be shared on the following basis: 75 per cent to provincial and territorial governments, and 25 per cent to the federal government. Provinces and territories will work with municipalities according to shared responsibilities towards legalization.

In addition, federal revenues from the excise duty on cannabis will be capped at $100 million per year for the 24 months that follow the legalization of non-medical cannabis. Excess federal revenues over the $100 million cap will be provided to provinces and territories that have concluded a CCTA with the federal government.

GRANTS FOR CRIME REDUCTION PROGRAMS AVAILABLE

Submitted by Annalise Klingbeil, Press Secretary, Justice and Solicitor General | Government of Alberta

Organizations can now apply for Government of Alberta grants that support local crime-prevention initiatives.

The Victims Restitution and Compensation Payment Act allows authorities to seize cash and property used in or obtained through criminal activity. This process of civil forfeiture makes crime unprofitable and deprives offenders of the money and tools necessary to commit further illegal acts. The Civil Forfeiture Grant program then redirects the forfeited cash and the proceeds from the sale of forfeited property towards programs that reduce crime and assist victims of crime.

“The Civil Forfeiture Grants are an effective way to deter criminal activity while making communities across Alberta safer. These funds help organizations maintain their existing programs and extend their reach to improve the lives of even more

Albertans.” - Kathleen Ganley, Minister of Justice and Solicitor General

Funding this year will go to proposals with innovative, promising or proven practices, with a focus on:

- services that directly prevent at-risk youth from becoming involved in criminal activity, and/or
- crime-prevention planning initiatives, such as co-ordination plans to deter rural crime

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A new pastor was visiting the homes of his parishioners. At one house it seemed obvious that someone was at home, but no answer came to his repeated knocks at the door. Therefore, he took out a card and wrote "Revelation 3:20" on the back of it and stuck it in the door. When the offering was processed the following Sunday, he found that his card had been returned. Added to it was this cryptic message, Genesis 3:10." Reaching for his Bible to check out the citation, he broke up in gales of laughter. Revelation 3:20 begins "Behold, I stand at the door and knock." Genesis 3:10 reads, "I heard your voice in the garden and I was afraid, for I was naked."

RIDING UPDATE SEPTEMBER 1 – 14, 2018

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

The end of the summer break has been very busy with meetings and events as I prepare to head back to Ottawa for the Fall Session.

I enjoyed the long weekend at home with my family before getting back to work. I spent a lot of time in the Edson office making phone calls and meeting with constituents. I also made a few home visits to meet with constituents.

On September 7, I attended the grand opening of the Ukrainian Consulate in Edmonton, and I was back in Edson the following day to participate in the rededication of the CT-133 jet in RCMP Centennial Park.

On September 11, I attended a lunch with the Edson Rotary Club to provide updates on current issues. On the following day, I participated in Impact Day with the Edson District Learning Center.

On September 13, I attended the 15th anniversary of the Good Sam and Evergreen Foundation in Evansburg and later met with constituents.

On September 14th I flew back to Ottawa as Parliament resumes on September 17.

The entire summer break was full of meetings with constituents and attending events across our beautiful riding of Yellowhead.

My updates will resume on a weekly basis and I look forward to bringing all of the concerns I have heard this summer to the House of Commons.

CONSULTATION – POLITICAL ACTIVITIES OF CHARITIES

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, would like to inform residents that the Department of Finance has launched a 30-day public consultation period on draft legislative proposals to remove the quantitative limits on political activities from the Income Tax Act. Under these draft legislative proposals, charities would still be required to be constituted and operated for exclusively charitable purposes, meaning they cannot have a political purpose, and restrictions against partisan political activities would remain.

The draft legislative proposals would apply retroactively to related audits and objections that are currently suspended. As announced on August 15, 2018, the Canada Revenue Agency will soon issue supporting administrative guidance for consultation with the charitable sector on how it would implement the legislative proposals released today.

Canadians are invited to provide comments on the draft legislative proposals below by October 13, 2018. You can send your comments to fin.charity-bienfaisance.fin@canada.ca. # DARWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWS

Submitted by Sandra Stepaniuk, Library Manager | Darwell Public Library

It has been a very busy summer with the Summer Reading Club, Westjet Fundraiser at the Barnburner and Ag Drag, and Used Book Sale. A huge Thank You goes out to all our volunteers for their tireless efforts and commitment to the Library, and thanks to everyone who came out to support us; we couldn't do it without you.

Wondering what to do with all those items you have no use for anymore? We continue our fundraising efforts to complete the library expansion. We are currently doing another Value Village Donation Drive and are looking for your used clothing, shoes, accessories, books, linens and small household items (small items only no furniture). You can pick up a list of acceptable items at the library or find the complete list on our website or Facebook page. You can drop off your donations at the library expansion during regular library hours until October 31, 2018. Should these times not work for you please contact the library @ 780-892-3746 to make alternate arrangements.

Are you aware that the library has passive programming available during regular hours? Passive programs are self-directed by patrons and available anytime at the library. We have a few things available in the library for families and individuals to do when they come to visit. The colouring club, family games and Lego are examples of passive programming. The great thing about passive programming is that it always fits into your schedule, no specific dates and times to remember, just come down during regular library hours. We encourage you to ask about our programming and provide ideas for what you would like to see in the library.

Family Movie Night, at the Lake Isle Community Hall, will be held on Friday, September 28, 2018. We will be showing the "G" rated title "A Wrinkle in Time". The doors will open at 6:30pm and the movie starts at 7:00 pm. Admission is $2.50, and a concession will be available. See you there!

The Book Club will be meeting on Monday, October 1, 2018 at 7:00p.m. to review "E Squared: Nine Do It Yourself Experiments that Prove Your Thoughts Create Your Reality" by Pam Grout. Do you love to read? Do you like to discuss what you have read with others? We are always interested in a new perspective to add to our conversation. If you are interested in participating, you can register and make arrangement for loan of the current title by calling the library @ 780-892-3746. All our programs are sponsored by The Darwell Public Library Society, Darwell Library Friend Society, FCSS and the CLSA Library Grant.

Looking for the perfect unique gift idea for any occasion? This may be the program for you, join us on Saturday, November 10, 2018 from 10 AM to 2PM as Signature Silk will be here to lead you through this project. The day will be broken down into ½ hour sessions for participants and each scarf takes about ½ hour to make. The cost will be $ 39.00 per scarf and each one will be unique, it's your own, it's your "Signature Design". You must pre-register for this session by calling the library @ 780-892-3746.

The Darwell Public Library Society will be holding their next regular meeting on Monday, October 29, 2018 starting at 7 pm. All meetings are open to the public and everyone is welcome to attend. The Library is open 11:00 am to 4:00 pm on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday and from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm Wednesday and Friday, closed Saturdays, Sundays and Holidays. You can also find out what is happening at the library by checking our Website www.darwellpubliclibrary.ab.ca or like us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/DarwellPublicLibrary

EALT SECURES OLD GROWTH FOREST WEST OF EDMONTON

Submitted by Kory de-Groot, Conservation Outreach Coordinator | Edmonton and Area Land Trust

PARKLAND COUNTY AND EDMONTON, AB | September 21, 2018 – The Edmonton and Area Land Trust (EALT) is proud to announce it has secured 100 acres of old growth forest just west of Edmonton, in Parkland County.

This is the 11th conservation area secured by EALT in this, their 10th Anniversary Year.

The Land

This natural area is located a few kilometres west of Edmonton and a short distance from the North Saskatchewan River, and is adjacent to many other conserved natural areas. It is almost entirely undisturbed old growth forest and native understory shrubs, with patches of conifers nestled inside the mixed woods, and some of the spruce trees are around 100 years old, according to the Northern Forestry Centre of Resources Canada.

The land is within one of Parkland County’s Ecologically Significant Areas, and is adjacent to other protected areas with contiguous habitat, so it forms part of an important conservation corridor. There are several dugouts on the property, which have enriched the habitat even further. It provides excellent habitat for wetland and upland birds, mammals and other wildlife. Such wildlife include: moose, deer, great blue heron, great horned owl, Cooper’s hawks, ruffed grouse, yellow bellied sapsucker, muskrat, and several songbirds including red-eyed vireos, purple martins and black-capped chickadees.

The land is part of a geologically significant post-glacial dune field, and has permeable sandy surface soils, so is part of a sensitive groundwater recharge area, which is important to Parkland County.

Conservation Easement

The landowner wanted to preserve the land’s conservation values. So they did this by working with EALT to place a protective notation (a Conservation Easement) on Provincial Title. This restricts future activities which they knew would damage the native habitat, such as subdivision, development, logging, or drainage.

The EALT will now be monitoring the land in perpetuity, to uphold the conservation values, and to ensure that future owners don’t engage in prohibited activities. Thus the Conservation Easement helps conserve and sustain Alberta’s important biodiversity.

Quote:

“Conserving this land is important, as Edmonton’s region is one of the fastest-growing areas in Canada, and our natural areas are disappearing far faster than we can conserve them. EALT is proud to contribute to the conservation of some of the last unspoiled forest in the Edmonton Region. This special landscape is part of the half percent of Alberta left in native aspen parkland. And besides being important in its own right, with trees over 100 years old and habitat for a large variety of wildlife, it’s also part of a series of protected areas which form an important conservation corridor”.

- Pam Wight, Executive Director, Edmonton and Area Land Trust

About: The Edmonton and Area Land Trust is the only non-profit conservancy to focus entirely on conserving natural areas in and around the City of Edmonton. EALT has conserved 2,170 acres in 11 conservation lands over the last decade, and is working to secure more.

The Government of Alberta created the Alberta Land Trust Grant program which assisted with this securement.

DESIGN A MORE FUNCTIONAL PANTRY

Many homeowners wish they had more storage space, and kitchens are one area where people seemingly can always use more storage.

Despite a desire for more kitchen space, until recently, kitchen pantries fell out of favor. Builders and architects may have thought that close proximity to supermarkets as well as multi-use cabinets in kitchens would offset the need for pantries. But according to a recent survey from the National Association of Home Builders, a kitchen pantry is the most desirable kitchen feature for buyers in the market for a new home.

According to a 2016 survey from ReportLinker, 98 percent of Americans say cooking at home is their preferred way to prepare a meal. And despite the wide array of restaurants, prepared meals and fast food options nearby, more than one-third of people cook at home daily, with nearly 50 percent cooking between three and six days a week.

In order to accommodate for spending more time in the kitchen, homeowners are directing additional attention to kitchen preparation and storage features. In fact, one recent trend in kitchen renovations is creating custom-designed pantries.

Locate the appropriate space
Ideally, pantries should be in or adjacent to the kitchen. But not every home layout allows for this setup. Some homeowners need to move storage pantries into the garage, the basement or a mud/laundry room.

Various factors should be considered before placing a pantry outside a kitchen. What is the climate? Will food spoil? Is there a possibility that vermin or insects can infiltrate the room and access food? These factors will dictate whether to have closed cabinets, air-tight bins or open shelves or if other modifications must be made to the room prior to building.

Choose the type of pantry
Accessibility is essential in a pantry. Everything should be easily reached and grabbed as needed without having to move too many things. Ideally, foods should be arranged in a single layer so that all items can be viewed at a glance. Shelves of various depths and heights can accommodate items of different sizes. Adjustable shelves are ideal because they can be modified as foods change. Sliding drawers can improve reach in cabinets.

In smaller spaces, French door-style reach-in cabinets are convenient and flexible. In complete kitchen remodels or new constructions, walk-in pantries offer the most space and flexibility.

Must-have features

Pantries serve different functions in different homes. For the bulk shopper, a pantry with plenty of room for large items will be needed.

Lighting can be beneficial in all pantries. Lights can improve visibility when trying to locate items. Others prefer an outlet for charging hand-held vacuums or other small appliances. Counter space in the pantry enables homeowners to unload groceries directly onto pantry shelves.

For pantries located outside of the kitchen, built-in freezers can maximize storage possibilities, especially for those who freeze-and-eat after bulk shopping ventures.

Pantries are popular features that homeowners can customize depending on their storage needs and the amount of time they spend in their kitchens.

WHAT TO DO WHEN A PROJECT STALLS

Upon embarking on a home improvement project, homeowners who have never before lived through such undertakings are often told to expect their projects to take more time than initial estimates suggested. Unforeseen complications can compromise project timelines, and some homeowners may find their projects stuck in neutral.

Stalled projects can make life at home difficult, and homeowners may feel helpless with regard to getting a project back on course. But there are ways for homeowners to get stalled projects back on course.

• Start off on solid financial footing. It's important that homeowners who want to upgrade their homes enter the home improvement process with a realistic grasp of their finances. Many home improvement projects stall when homeowners run out of money. Homeowners can avoid such unfortunate situations by only beginning a project they know they can afford. Whether funding a project with a loan or savings or a combination of both, homeowners should make an honest assessment of what they can afford to commit to a given project. If the amount of money available does not add up to the estimated cost of the project, delay the project now or you might be facing a stalled project down the road.

• Honestly assess whether or not you can finish the job. Do-it-yourselfers may have the abilities to complete a project, but they should not let their pride get in the way of their ultimate goal, which is the completion of the project. In addition to money, time or lack thereof, is often the culprit behind stalled projects. Homeowners with full-time jobs, families or both may not be able to find the time to complete a job in a timely fashion. If the project has been stuck in neutral and no sudden wind-fall of free time is on the horizon, start contacting contractors to finish the job for you.

- Ask for help. There's no shame in asking for help to complete a project. Some homeowners may underestimate the scope of a project until it's too late. Asking family, friends or neighbors for help might be the only way to get a stalled project back on track. Certain home improvement projects may not require advanced skills, and even friends or family with little or no home improvement experience can pitch in to complete such projects. When more advanced projects stall, homeowners may want to hire contractors to complete the work. If budgets have not left much room for hiring a contractor, homeowners can perform some of the labor on their own.

- Be mindful of permits. Some home improvement projects require permits, and these permits often have expiration dates. Homeowners must keep permits in mind when projects start to stall, recognizing that they may need to reapply for permits if projects go unfinished for especially long periods of time. Stalled home improvement projects can be a nightmare. But homeowners can address such delays in various ways to get projects back on track.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR HOME IMPROVEMENT DOLLARS

Home improvement projects provide homeowners with a chance to put their own stamp on their homes. In addition, many such projects make homes safer and, in some instances, more eco-friendly.

The opportunity to make a home more comfortable, safer and/or more eco-friendly entices many homeowners to open their wallets. In fact, the Home Improvement Research Institute estimates that the home improvement products market will grow by more than 5 percent in 2018.

Homeowners might experience some sticker shock when researching home improvement projects or receiving estimates from contractors. But there are ways for budget-conscious homeowners to transform their homes and still make the most of their home improvement dollars.

- Do your homework. Each year, Remodeling magazine publishes its “Cost vs. Value Report,” a comprehensive study of 21 popular remodeling projects in 149 United States markets. The report notes the value each project retains at resale in 100 markets across the country. Homeowners who want to get the strongest return on investment can access the “Cost vs. Value Report” (www.remodeling.how.net) to see which home improvement projects are best suited for them.

- Do some of the labor yourself. Homeowners willing to swing a hammer also can stretch their home improvement dollars. For example, the home improvement resource This Old House® notes that homeowners willing to do their own demolition before the contractors arrive can save substantial amounts of money. A professional contractor may charge $1,000 to demo a 200-square-foot deck, but This Old House estimates that homeowners who demo their own decks may spend only $450 (for the dumpster rental and parking permit).

- Hire a consultant. The DIY movement is incredibly popular, no doubt thanks to television channels such as HGTV and the DIY Network. Homeowners with DIY experience may be able to complete projects on their own with little consultation from professional contractors. Some contractors may not offer consulting services, however. The consultation route, which typically requires paying licensed contractors hourly fees to offer guidance, should only be considered by homeowners with legitimate DIY skills, for whom this option can be a great way to save money.

- Schedule renovations during homeowner-friendly times of year. Summer and fall tend to be contractors’ busy seasons, and homeowners will likely pay more for projects during this time of year. If possible, delay starting projects until right after the new year, when contractors aren’t so busy and might be more flexible with pricing.

ACHIEVE THE IDEAL SOUND EXPERIENCE AT HOME

Advancements in digital technology over the years mean that almost anyone can own a home theatre or music room or build a recording studio in their home. When you're planning your project, there are a number of elements that will make the difference between good and great sound.

Just like in real estate, location is crucial, so finding the best space within your home will be vital. You want to find a place that will provide ample room, comfortable temperatures and easy access. A room with windows is fine, as long as they are double glazed, sealed correctly and don't open. Be sure to install a heavy, well-insulated door to prevent sound leakage.

Insulation is among the most critical steps in creating an ideal sound experience. Many professionals recommend Safe'n'Sound insulation produced by Roxul. Specially designed for your home's interior walls, ceilings and floors to reduce the transfer of noise from one room to another, this high-density stone wool insulation provides an excellent acoustic barrier that effectively absorbs sound. Its nondirectional fiber structure composition, density and friction-fit prevent any gaps and combat airborne noise such as music, speech and traffic sounds.

Sound can often echo and reverberate. Sound dampening measures such as carpeting can help alleviate the problem or you can purchase acoustic panels that prevent sound reflections throughout your room. With basic DIY skills, you can also simply and affordably construct your own acoustic panels, using stone wool rigid board called Comfortboard IS, which is effective at reducing the intensity and propagation of noise.

Insulating properly will help achieve optimal sound quality. It will also allow you to get the most of your space without disturbing the rest of your family or neighbors. All that's left is to turn up your tunes and enjoy.

IMPROVE PRIVACY & SECURITY AT HOME

Living in close proximity to one's neighbors has its benefits. But many homeowners would no doubt admit that privacy at home is a good thing.

Whether homeowners are enjoying their yard in spring or summer or simply want their in-home activities to be less obvious to neighbors, their privacy is a year-round concern. If privacy is a concern, homeowners can take certain steps to ensure their homes stay or become the sanctuaries they were designed to be.

Window treatments and frosting Windows allow natural light to enter a home, but windows also enable neighbors and others to see into a home. If thieves are the ones looking inside, wide open windows present a security issue. Window treatments are an effective way to add privacy to a home. Closing curtains or blinds limits others' ability to see inside the house. Switch to more opaque window treatments when using interior lighting more often, as gossamer draperies may still make it possible for outsiders to understand what's going on inside the home if people and items are backlit.

For those who do not want to compromise natural light, frosted windows can satisfy a desire for privacy. Windows can be purchased with frosting in place, and home improvement retailers sell various products that can create a frosted look.

Fencing and perimeter plantings Privet hedge, arborvitae or Italian cypress are fast-growing evergreens that provide privacy around a home for homeowners who do not want to install traditional fencing. These trees also provide a natural habitat for various yard animals. Layering various plants of different heights and textures also can create a more natural and less imposing look.

Fencing remains a viable option to create privacy and stop noise pollution. Privacy fences come in various materials, colors and sizes, enabling homeowners to choose styles that fit their landscapes.

Pergolas and enclosed patios Homeowners who like to entertain outdoors may want to make their outdoor living spaces more private. Pergolas allow light to filter through but obstruct direct view of patio activity, especially when combined with some gauzy draperies hanging on the sides. An enclosed patio or three-season room can be a worthwhile addition for homeowners who like to enjoy the great outdoors without being in the elements or on display for neighbors. Structures vary from screened-in porches to greenhouses to removable gazebos. Potted plants or trailing vines can soften the structural edges and help the privacy devices blend in with the natural surroundings.

Personal tactics Homeowners who do not want their neighbors or others knowing what they're up to in their free time can limit what they share through photos and descriptions on social media. Doing so also cuts down on neighbors' curiosity.

MAKE FLOORS SHINE LIKE NEW

Flooring should last for years. The online home improvement resource HomeAdvisor estimates that the average cost of a flooring project ranges from $357 for vinyl or linoleum flooring to $4,240 for wood flooring. Homeowners investing in new flooring do not want to replace floors too frequently, and keeping floors looking like new takes effort and maintenance.

Sweep and clean

Restoring shine to flooring involves making sure the floor is clean. Dirt and grime can diminish the color and look of flooring. Homeowners are urged to use products designed for their particular flooring material, such as wood, laminate, stone, or vinyl. Products oftentimes are not interchangeable.

Begin by thoroughly sweeping or vacuuming the floor. Clean along all surfaces of the floor, including under furniture where dust and dirt tends to accumulate. Use the hard-floor setting on a vacuum to avoid having the brush rolls scratch or damage the flooring. Laminate can scratch easily and hardwood flooring is not impervious to dings and scratches. Quite often a dry mop or a static-charged mopping cloth effectively picks up debris left behind on many flooring surfaces.

Although many commercial cleaners can clean flooring, homemade mopping solutions are sometimes just as effective. Keep in mind that wood, laminate and vinyl should not be soaked in water. A little liquid can go a long way on these surfaces. Water and other liquids can seep between laminate and wood boards, potentially contributing to swelling and damage over time. Also, resist the urge to use too much soap. Soap can leave behind a residue that dulls the finish of the floor.

Vinegar-based solutions can work well on a wide variety of flooring types and help cut through any sticky residue left behind from cooking, cleaning and the activities of daily life. Many wood-flooring cleaners and polishes are oil-based to condition the wood in the process. Whenever making one's own solution, test a small amount in an inconspicuous spot to make sure it will not damage the flooring.

Protection

Another way to prolong the life of flooring is to protect it from wear and tear. Removing shoes before walking indoors can help. Avoid high heels and athletic cleats, which can create divots in hardwood and some other types of flooring.

Place indoor and outdoor mats at the entrances of the home to catch any dirt that would be ground into the flooring. Furniture protectors will help prevent scratches from furniture feet while moving pieces around a room.

Remember to wipe up spills when they occur to prevent the formation of stains.

These steps can keep floors in top form and prevent premature aging or damage. Floors that are in especially bad shape may need professional restoration or replacement.

STOLEN VEHICLES RECOVERED

Submitted by Stony Plain/Spruce Grove/Enoch RCMP

On September 17 at approximately 12:50 am RCMP were contacted by Onstar to report that they had located a Chevrolet Silverado that had been stolen on September 16, 2018. Onstar advised that they had performed an ignition block and the vehicle was no longer driveable. RCMP attended and located the vehicle parked on the side of Highway 770 near Highway 16. While on scene, members located a Ford F150 with a boat trailer and a Ford Escape with a stolen licence plate that had also been stolen earlier in the day.

RCMP utilized the Police Dog Service (PDS) and a track was picked up from one of vehicles, a male was located a short distance away laying in the bush.

Blaine ELESKO, a 47-year-old male from Yellowhead County was charged with:

- Sec. 335(b) Criminal Code-Possession of Property Under $5000
- Sec. 733.1 Criminal Code-Fail to Comply with Probation Order

ELESKO was released from custody with conditions and will appear in Stony Plain Provincial Court on September 26, 2018.

Both the Silverado and the F150 had been left with the keys in the vehicle. "We want to encourage people to take precautions and lock their vehicles," says Constable Megan Purton from Stony Plain detachment. "A lot of these are crimes of opportunity and are preventable."

MP JIM EGLINSKI NAMED TO NEW COMMITTEES

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

MP Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, has officially been named to two new committees: the Standing Committee on Public Safety and National Security (SECU) and the Standing Joint Committee on the Library of Parliament (BILI).

SECU reviews the policies, programs and expenditure plans of government departments and agencies responsible for public safety and national security, policing and law enforcement, corrections and conditional release of federal offenders, emergency management, crime prevention and the protection of Canada's borders.

BILI consists of Members from both the House of Commons and Senate, and it assists the Speakers of both Chambers in reviewing the effectiveness, management, and operation of the Library. The Speakers of both chambers, assisted by the Joint Committee, direct the day-to-day functioning of the Library, and, with the approval of both Houses, may make orders and regulations to govern how the Library is managed and how moneys are expended. The Joint Committee, under this arrangement, plays a role in the direction of the Library of Parliament by supporting the Speakers as they provide direction to the Library.

"Given my 35 years of experience as an RCMP member, I am excited to bring my practical knowledge to the table. The Liberals have been failing Canada on matters of national security, including border security and increased crime and gang activity. I look forward to playing an active role in keeping this Liberal Government to account for their failures," concluded MP Eglinski.

SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

	8	2	7	6			5	4
7	1			4		9	6
		4				3	2
		8
	3			5				6
	9		2		1	5
					3		4	2
8	4		1				3
6		3	8	9			1	5

ANSWER:

3	8	2	7	6	9	1	5	4
7	1	5	3	4	2	9	6	8
9	6	4	5	1	8	3	2	7
5	7	8	4	3	6	2	9	1
2	3	1	9	5	7	4	8	6
4	9	6	2	8	1	5	7	3
1	5	9	6	7	3	8	4	2
8	4	7	1	2	5	6	3	9
6	2	3	8	9	4	7	1	5

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
