ONEIL CARLIER ACCLAIMED AS NDP CANDIDATE FOR LAC STE. ANNE – PARKLAND

Submitted by Renato Gandia | Lac Ste. Anne – Parkland

Members of Lac Ste. Anne – Parkland NDP are sending a clear signal of support to Oneil Carlier by acclaiming him as the association's official candidate in the next provincial election.

Oneil has served as the MLA for Whitecourt-St. Anne with honesty and integrity. Alongside Premier Rachel Notley, he stood for the marginalized, fought for the rights of Alberta workers ensured citizens have access to good-paying jobs as the province diversified its economy, one that works for everyone.

"I am proud to fight for the needs of Albertans in this region at the Legislature while serving in an NDP caucus that's on the side of everyday Albertans," said Carlier. "We are fighting for families by ensuring our kids learn in good classrooms while our loved ones and seniors have access to the care they need."

Carlier and the NDP have stood up to calls for deep cuts to vital public services and cleaned up years of PC waste and corruption, while making important investments to repair aging infrastructure and fighting rural crime.

"Jason Kenney's UCP doesn't have Albertans' backs. He and his members twice voted against funding for rural crime-fighting RCMP officers and have refused to support us in fixing the crumbling roads and bridges that are critical for keeping our rural communities moving.

RIDING UPDATE

– WEEK OF NOVEMBER 12, 2018

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

It has been a month since I was able to spend a full week in the riding. Much of the week was spent in the Edson office, meeting with constituents, returning phone calls and addressing important riding issues.

Last Saturday, while in Drayton Valley, I met the winner of my 2018 Christmas card contest, Abigail Mallory, a grade six student from St. Anthony School. I was so pleased to present her with a congratulatory certificate.

Last Sunday, I attended the Remembrance Day ceremony in Thorsby. I also dropped in at the legions in Winfield, Warburg, and for the “Ring of the Bells” at Pigeon Lake.

On Tuesday of this week, I attended the Jasper Chamber of Commerce AGM, and updated everyone on the happenings in Ottawa and on Thursday, I helped tally votes at the UCP vote in Edson.

On Friday, I met with constituents and later spent time shoveling snow. Isn't winter fun! Oh well, look at the bright side --- it is good exercise for me.

Saturday morning, I attended the Yellowhead EDA Director's Meeting, and then on to Drayton Valley for their 9th Annual Foundation Festival of Lights Gala Dinner that evening.

I will return to Ottawa on Sunday, as the House of Commons is scheduled to sit for the next four weeks before the Christmas break. Look for my update next Friday on the happenings of Parliament.

MAN CHARGED WITH SEXUAL ASSAULT; POLICE SEEK ADDITIONAL COMPLAINANTS

Submitted by Edmonton Police Service

MRU #: 18R124

The Edmonton Police Service has charged Vincent Noseworthy, 39, in connection to a sexual assault and believes there may be additional complainants.

On Sunday, Oct. 14, 2018, an adult female reported to police that she had been sexually assaulted by a male, identified as Vincent Nose-worthy, on Tuesday, Aug. 14, 2018.

The female reportedly met Noseworthy, who she became acquainted with through Tinder, for a date. The two then drove to a rural location outside of Edmonton in the female's vehicle where Noseworthy allegedly confined her and violently sexually and physically assaulted her.

Noseworthy was arrested on Wednesday, Oct. 31, 2018 and has been charged with aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault, choking with the intent to overcome resistance, assault and unlawful confinement. He has since been released on conditions.

Noseworthy is active on online dating websites and may use the name "Vinnie Worth." As a result, investigators believe there may be additional complainants and are concerned that he may commit another offence against someone while in the community.

In the interest of public safety, police are releasing a photo of Noseworthy and are encouraging any additional complainants to come forward.
