JOKE OF THE WEEK
The Santa Claus at the shopping mall was very surprised when Emily, a young lady aged about 20 years old walked up and sat on his lap. Now, we all know that Santa doesn't usually take requests from adults, but she smiled very nicely at him, so he asked her, 'What do you want for Christmas?' 'Something for my mother, please,' replied Emily sweetly. 'Something for your mother? Well, that's very loving and thoughtful of you,' smiled Santa. 'What do you would you like me to bring her?' Without turning a hair Emily answered quickly, 'A son-in-law.'

YCFD Members Receive Provincial and Federal Medals to protecting our county's communities.

We're proud to recognize the following members:

- Jeremy Clark, Awarded the 12 year Emergency Services Medal.
- Leslie Schatz, Awarded the 12 year Emergency Services Medal.
- John Frank, Awarded the 20 year Emergency Services Medal.
- Jay Lowe, Awarded the 20 year Emergency Services Medal.
- Alfred Adam, Awarded the 30 year Exemplary Service Medal.
- Thomas Heidler, Awarded the 30 year Exemplary Service Medal.

Albert Bahri, Director of Protective Services for Yellowhead County, was also among those recognized (awarded the 30 year Exemplary Service Medal), but he modestly quips, "Truthfully. It's just a testament to the fact that I'm getting old!"

Albert chuckles and reiterates that although positive recognition is good, he's not in it for the awards: "It's the greatest job in the world, and at its core, it's about protecting our communities—that's what matters most to me, to YCFD."

And Albert knows the score when it comes to protective services, having, as he puts it "caught the bug" early in his life. And it's gone around in his family: Albert's brother-in-law, sister, wife, son, and nephew all play a role in the field of protective services. His own skill and knowledge is borrowed from 30 years as a paramedic, 34 as a firefighter, and 34 in emergency management.

"I came to YCFD to be a part of a great team," Albert echoes, "And I couldn't have found a better home—from our state-of-the art apparatus and equipment, to our fantastic people."

So what is it that makes YCFD different? Albert looks to an honest adage from his past to answer that question: "My high school football coach used to say, 'Some of you are here to play football. Some of you are football players.'" Here, Albert pauses and proudly declares: "All of our members are football players."

The distinction rings true: It's selfless dedication and professionalism that sets YCFD apart, and we're proud to have our members recognized with Exemplary Service Medals.

Wondering how you can make a difference and train among the best? Apply to become a volunteer paid-on-call firefighter today. Hesitant or nervous? "It's easier than you think," notes Albert, "You'd be surprised what you can do when you remove 'can't' from your vocabulary!"

RCMP REMIND PUBLIC TO NOT LEAVE RUNNING VEHICLES UNATTENDED

Submitted by Stony Plain/ Spruce Grove/Enoch RCMP

Stony Plain, Alberta – Stony Plain/ Spruce Grove/ Enoch RCMP want to remind the public to not leave their vehicles unattended while they are running.

As the weather gets colder, the RCMP are urging citizens to be careful when warming up their vehicles. Vehicles that are left running and unlocked outside of homes, coffee shops, or even gas stations make easy targets for criminals. It takes less than 30 seconds for someone to sit in the driver's seat and take off. These vehicle thefts are crimes of opportunity and are often preventable.

The following advice is provided by the Stony Plain RCMP to help prevent vehicle theft and reduce crime:

1. Do not leave vehicles running. If you must leave it running, consider using a club-like device or a remote starter to deter thieves.

2. Lock your vehicle. Most vehicle thefts and thefts from vehicles occur to vehicles that are left unlocked.

3. Remove all valuables from your vehicle. Out of sight, out of mind approach.

4. Report any suspicious activity you might see in your neighbourhood. This is an excellent way to help reduce crime within the community.

5. Try to park your vehicle in well-lit areas. Turn on your residential exterior lights and help light up the area.

If you have information about any crime, please call the Stony Plain/ Spruce Grove/ Enoch RCMP at 780-968-7267 or call your local police. If you wish to remain anonymous, you can contact Crime Stoppers by phone at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS), by internet at www.tipsubmit.com, or by SMS (check your local Crime Stoppers www.crimestoppers.ab.ca for instructions).

Province Looking To Recognize Great Kids

"Every day, kids in Alberta take on challenges and accomplish incredible things in some of the most challenging circumstances. The Great Kids Award is an opportunity to showcase these accomplishments. Their hope is contagious, their passion infectious, and these awards give these kids the recognition they clearly deserve." - Danielle Larivee, Minister of Children's Services

Last year's winners challenged stigma around mental illness, raised thousands of dollars for charity, and even saved lives of family members during an accident.

For more information on the nomination process, visit great-kids.alberta.ca, call 780-644-2600 (toll-free by first dialing 310-0000) or email CS.great-kids@gov.ab.ca.

Award recipients will be recognized at an award ceremony sponsored by Fantasyland Hotel in the spring of 2019. Award winners and their families or caregivers will enjoy a night's stay and receive a West Edmonton Mall attractions pass.

Over the past 19 years, 290 young leaders have received the Great Kids Award. Nominations close at 4 p.m. on Nov. 30, 2018.

ANNOUNCING THE WINNER OF MP EGLINSKI'S 2018 CHRISTMAS CARD CONTEST

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is pleased to announce the winner of his 3rd annual Christmas Card Design Contest.

Miss Abigail Mallory, a grade six student from St. Anthony School in Drayton Valley, designed the cover of MP Eglinski's Christmas card this year. Her artwork, entitled Woodland Christmas, depicts a winter scene of animals and a young girl putting a star on top of an evergreen tree.

Usually, Parliamentarian Christmas cards display the family of the Parliamentarian and/or an Ottawa scene. However, given that there are many talented young individuals within the Yellowhead riding, MP Eglinski prefers to take this opportunity to recognize the talent of local artists.

"I really liked this one because the poplar trees and forest animals reminded me of Yellowhead. We have so many talented young artists in our riding! Each year it has become more and more difficult to decide which one to choose," said MP Eglinski.

Miss Mallory's design will also appear on MP Eglinski's Facebook page (www.facebook.com/jimeglinski.mp), website (www.jimeglinski.ca), and in his December householder.

"Thank you to all those who participated! I really enjoyed getting to see the many different ways young constituents in our riding portray the Christmas season in each of their own ways" concluded MP Eglinski.

Congratulations Abigail!

SUDOKU OF THE WEEK

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

ANSWER:

2	5	3	4	1	9	7	8	6
6	1	8	3	2	7	4	5	9
7	9	4	5	8	6	2	3	1
9	3	2	6	7	5	1	4	8
5	8	6	1	4	2	3	9	7
4	7	1	8	9	3	5	6	2
3	2	5	7	6	8	9	1	4
1	6	7	9	3	4	8	2	5
8	4	9	2	5	1	6	7	3

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
