TRINUS HELPS YOUNG CANCER PATIENT THROUGH MAKE-A-WISH

Submitted by TRINUS

I don't like to talk-up the activities of TRINUS in these weekly articles; I'm sure you receive enough corporate advertisements, self-promotion, and flag-waving during your day. But we were honoured to be part of a special event that we held in our office last week - and I want to make an exception and tell you about it.

Through happenstance, we were put in touch with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Northern Alberta. I'm sure most of you know that Make-A-Wish grants "wishes" to children with serious ailments, who are receiving treatment. Some of their stories are heart-wrenching; often involving invasive surgeries and years of treatments with chemotherapy and radiation. If anyone deserves a break from this nightmare, it's these kids - and their parents.

EX-RCMP MEMBER ARRESTED BY ASIRT

Submitted by Alberta Serious Incident Response Team

On Sept. 28, 2018, as a result of ASIRT investigations and a subsequent prosecution, Aaron Lee Sayler, a former member of the RCMP, was convicted of multiple criminal offences.

That same date, Mr. Sayler was released pending sentencing on his own recognizance on multiple conditions including that he surrender his passport to the court, which he did.

On Feb. 7, 2019, Aaron Sayler was arrested pursuant to the provisions of S. 524 (2) of the Criminal Code on the basis that there were reasonable grounds to believe that the accused was about to contravene his bail conditions. The matter was brought back before the court to seek bail revocation.

Subsequent investigation provided reasonable grounds to believe that Mr. Sayler had committed additional criminal offences and, as a result, on Feb. 11, 2019, in consultation with the Alberta Crown Prosecution Service, four additional charges were laid. Mr. Sayler has been charged with criminal offences of making a false statement to procure a passport, fraud under $5000, obstruction of justice and failure to comply with a condition of a recognizance.

As these new charges are now before the court and the proceedings in relation to Mr. Sayler's bail are the subject of a publication ban pursuant to S.517 of the Criminal Code, no further information will be released at this time.

ASIRT's mandate is to effectively, independently and objectively investigate incidents involving police that have resulted in serious injury or death to any person, as well as serious or sensitive allegations of police misconduct.

ENHANCING STUDENT LEARNING: NEW JUNIOR KINDERGARTEN PROGRAMS

Submitted by Nikki Gilks, Manager, Communications Services | Grande Yellowhead Public School Division

February 6, 2018

The Board of Trustees is pleased to move forward with the implementation of a junior kindergarten program in all elementary schools, where viable, within Grande Yellowhead Public School Division (GYPSD), effective the 2019-20 school year. The division has been investigating the establishment of a junior kindergarten program division-wide over the last year after inquiries from the community. The first junior kindergarten program opened in the Jasper community in December 2018.

The Board of Trustees discussed at today's Public Board Meeting about the many advantages of offering junior kindergarten programs within GYPSD schools. She notes that early learning opportunities for young children are important to their developmental milestones and provide increased academic readiness through a play-based experience. We would ensure that all junior kindergarten programs within our schools follow the guidelines under the Play, Participation, And Possibilities: An Early Learning And Child Care Curriculum Framework For Alberta which promotes developmental learning through play. Though our investigation, over the past several months, many school divisions in Alberta have successfully established preschool learning programs in their schools.

One of the board's priorities continues to be student learning. The first six years of a child's life are important to their development and future education. In 2007, GYPSD's board made a decision to provide additional funding to support full-day kindergarten in our schools because of the overwhelming benefits for our students to gain this important learning foundation. This year, the board wishes to expand the opportunities they can offer for these critical early learning years.

Currently, in the initial planning stages, local administration is looking forward to engaging local community playschools to look for collaborative opportunities. The Board of Trustees believes that parents will see many benefits to the new early learning program. Our new programs will follow the annual calendar, as well as align with the school day in the community. For many of our families, this is ideal as they already have older children coming to the elementary school. Children will receive full access to the learning opportunities and facility resources in our elementary schools.

Now that the Board has officially made the decision to move forward with the new junior kindergarten programming for the 2019-20 school year, conversations with local playschools societies may begin.

Make-A-Wish are very diligent in discovering the true desires of these young patients and go out of their way to grant them.

One of their recipients - Logan - wanted a gaming computer and Make-a-Wish contacted us to see if we could help. Logan is an unassuming, quiet 17-year-old, who loves snowboarding, drawing, and computer gaming. But according to his mom Lisa, he's also a fighter and is determined that cancer will not get the better of him. He is coming to the end of his 2-year treatment ordeal.

What an opportunity for us. Without delving into the technical details, we were able to evaluate Logan's Tech specifications, add a little expertise of our own, and gather together all of the required parts. It would have been a simple matter to assemble the components and test the computer; delivering a finished product to Logan with a handshake and a brief photo-op. DONE DEAL.

But, some minds at TRINUS thought we could do more. Our Marketing Supervisor Chris - working with the Directors - put together a full TRINUS Day for Logan. We thought we could have Logan assist with building the computer from the various components, install the software and his favourite games, and optimize the computer for maximum performance; a true Gaming Powerhouse. The proof would be in playing some computer games.

We wanted to add some special touches, so we had Sheri from NWT Promotions - our promotional products' supplier - arrange for a special graphic design based on Logan's favourite game, Overwatch. Darrel and Cheryl from Fine Line Industries - who wrap our vans - agreed to wrap the case with the graphic. Finally, we alerted Robert Bailey from Stony Plain about the project. For those not familiar with Robert, he is a world-class artist, who has worked with George Lucas and Disney on Star Wars, and is licensed by Marvel to draw their characters. Specializing in pencil drawings, Robert would do a specially-commissioned artwork for Logan. Devon and Andrew from SAVIAN - our website developers and social media consultants - arranged to record the event in time-lapse video, and Emily - a former marketing employee - agreed to take some pictures of the event.

Well, it all came together last Wednesday, when Logan and his mom Lisa, accompanied by Jen and Aissa from Make-a-Wish, visited TRINUS. Kevin - our Director of Operations - spent the day with Logan, leading him through the computer-building process; Kevin is a long-time gaming computer Guru. All of our staff had pizza with Logan and we were able to make a few special presentations of Steam gift cards (to download his favourite games) and personally-branded TRINUS shirts. Robert's pencil drawing of Batman (Logan's favourite comic-book character) and the Joker was a huge hit. My wife Lena was at the office and she spent time with Lisa, Jen, and Aissa.

It's not often that we find an opportunity to make an impact in someone's life that doesn't involve a corporate computer network or someone engaging our professional services for a fee. Like most companies, we make charitable donations when and where we can. But aside from handing over some money or a gift, we're often detached from the event and not sure if we actually made a difference. Make-a-Wish afforded us the opportunity to gather together the expertise from our staff and valued vendor-partners, to provide something to Logan that he wished for. We hope he has years of enjoyment from it, especially knowing he had a hand in building it. There were certainly some smiles when he started playing Overwatch on his new computer.

And we did take a few pictures. I'll break one of my rules and provide a link to our Facebook page so you can see for yourself.

Why am I telling you all this? Twenty three years ago, Kevin was a recipient from Make-a-Wish. Lena and I know what a difference it made to our family.

Submitted by Katrina Lingrell, Communications Advisor | Covenant Health

The Misericordia Community Hospital will open five Compassion Rooms on February 19, 2019 to enhance care for patients who would benefit from having loved ones nearby continuously during their hospital stay.

“Compassion Rooms allow us to ensure that our patients can be with

The Associates of Caritas provided $160,000 to fund the Compassion Rooms. The organization operates businesses in Edmonton Covenant Health sites and donates profits back to the hospitals to enhance patient care and comfort.

ALBERTA – AN ENERGY PROVINCE

Submitted by MLA Mark Smith | Drayton Valley – Devon Constituency

A while back I met with an oilfield engineer and she said something that made me think. She said, “Alberta is not only an oil and gas province it is an energy province.”

Now Alberta is and will remain for many, many years an oil and gas province.

There is no doubt that we need to be ensuring the prosperity of the oil, gas and coal energy sectors that have been so foundational to our economy.

But we are also an energy province and the Drayton Valley-Devon Constituency is ground zero of Alberta energy.

We are oil, we are gas, we are coal and we are electricity but we can and should be adding to this list.

Many communities across this constituency are actively taking steps to pursue opportunities to diversify their economies and build up their tax bases.

Some have been making headway into becoming an industrial hemp cluster attracting businesses that uses the stalk from industrial hemp.

Soon, in Drayton Valley, a company will be putting shovels in the ground to produce not only recreational cannabis but it will also produce CBD’s from industrial hemp.

Thorsby is looking to work with a company that will introduce world leading technology that will be used to clean up waste treatment ponds.

A proposed project North of Devon is looking at a char, organic biomass digester combined with algae to create heat, electricity and healthy soils.

The other day at the pipeline rally in Drayton Valley constituents heard a presentation from Mr. Stephen Lindop of EAVOR Technologies Inc. on the production of emissions free, base load energy from a new Geothermal technology developed right here in Alberta.

To accomplish this all of the world leading skills, technology and businesses that we have developed to access oil and gas will be needed.

We could use the existing infrastructure of wells, roads and electricity to produce not only geothermal electricity but also use the geothermal heat in combination with other opportunities like greenhouse food production.

All of these various initiatives speak to the entrepreneurial skills of our people, the forward looking, solve-a-problem attitude that exists in abundance here.

As these projects move forward we can be proud of our efforts, we can be proud of the fact that we are an energy province.

YELLOWHEAD COUNTY HOSTING RENT SMART BASICS WORKSHOP

The Rent Smart Basics Workshop provides education and support to tenants and landlords with one goal: Successful tenancies.

Submitted by Dan Ivanov, Communications Department | Yellowhead County

(February 13, 2019) – If you’re just starting to rent, or starting to rent in Alberta—or want more information about how to be a good tenant, this workshop will guide you through the basics, and more. You and your landlord both want the same thing: A peaceful, stable tenancy that ends in a security deposit being returned and a great reference to take to your next landlord. Being a good tenant requires knowledge, skills and confidence in your rights as a renter.

The Rent Smart Basics Workshop will provide you with a quick overview of the three things you need to know to find and keep your rental: Paying your rent in full and on time, not disturbing your neighbours, and looking after the home. Successful tenancies are key to building strong communities, increasing housing stability and preventing homelessness. The workshop will be held on February 21 from 6:30 to 9:30 PM at the Evansburg Heritage House. Please call 780-325-3782 or 1-800-814-3935 to register. Light refreshments will be provided.

RCMP WARN PUBLIC ABOUT CANADIAN COUNTERFEIT BILLS

Submitted by Stony Plain/Spruce Grove/Enoch RCMP

Spruce Grove, Alta. - On Jan. 15, 2019 the Spruce Grove RCMP were alerted to counterfeit Canadian currency in circulation from local businesses. The currency in question was missing several security features and was printed on regular paper instead of the new polymer material. Further to the counterfeit currency one legitimate bill was discovered to have been altered. RCMP are advising businesses to be cautious when accepting any denominations of cash and to familiarize themselves with Canadian currency security features by reading the Bank of Canada website. <https://www.bankofcanada.ca/banknotes/vertical10/security-features/>

If you suspect someone is attempting to pass you a counterfeit bill, the Bank of Canada advises: “Politely refuse the note and explain that you suspect that it may be counterfeit. Ask for another note (and check it too). Advise the person to check the note with the local police. Inform your local police of a possible attempt to pass suspected counterfeit money.”

If you have any information regarding counterfeit bills, please call the Stony Plain RCMP at 780-968-7267 or call your local police. If you want to remain anonymous, you can contact Crime Stoppers by phone at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS), online at www.P3Tips.com or by using the “P3 Tips” app available through the Apple App or Google Play Store.

CONSULTATIONS ON AIR PASSENGER PROTECTION REGULATIONS

Submitted by Jim Eglinski, MP – Yellowhead

OTTAWA: Jim Eglinski, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, is pleased to advise that the Canadian Transportation Agency’s proposed air passenger protection regulations will be published in the Canada Gazette Part I for public comment this weekend.

The Transportation Modernization Act mandated the Agency to develop regulations for air travellers that would be clear, consistent, transparent and fair. After months of public and stakeholder consultations, Canadians will have 60 days to comment.

Air passengers who are bumped from overbooked flights or forced to sit through long delays could receive up to $2,400 in compensation -- under proposed regulations for the government’s long-promised Passenger Bill of Rights.

Draft regulations, which will apply to all flights to and from Canada, and those within Canada include:

- Airlines would be required to provide passengers with food, drink and free Wi-Fi after delays of two hours, and accommodation if the delay stretches overnight.

- Compensation of up to $1,000 for lengthy flight delays and cancellations. This will vary depending on the length of delay and the cause and whether it was in the airline’s control.

- Compensation of up to $2,400 if a passenger is denied boarding and is delayed reaching their destination because an airline overbooked the flight.

The final regulations will be published in Part II of the Canada Gazette. Regulations are expected to come into force next summer.

Comments can be submitted to: consultations@otc-cta.gc.ca until February 20, 2019. For further information on the proposed passenger regulations go to: <https://otc-cta.gc.ca/eng/consultation/>

WILDWOOD SENIORS 6TH ANNUAL FANCY TEA

Submitted by Connie Gatzke

Despite the wickedly cold temperatures, the 6th Annual Fancy Tea sponsored by the Wildwood Grandparent program was a warm success.

Each year the program uses the luncheon to pay tribute to one of its components. We are super thankful to the FCSS for the yearly continued financial support to operate the program. We were pleased to have Wendy Robinson from Yellowhead County and Karla Boswell, FCSS board member attend. Just as we had honoured the FCSS last year we chose this year to honour the School. We are very aware how important the cooperation between the Wildwood School and the Wildwood Seniors is. Mr. Randal, the principal, was able to attend and expressed his praise of the program noting how expectant the grade fours are to attend. A highlight of the afternoon was to have Ms Gunderman, the grade 4 teacher, bring her recently awarded medal along with an explanatory chart and tell about the program that she and a teaching partner were involved in that led to the nomination and the awarding of a Governor General

Medal in History. She thanked the Wildwood Grandparents for their small part in her program when we accompanied the children to Stone's Fish Pond last year. She commended the Chip Lake History Society for creating the two volumes of Where the River Lobstick Flows citing these books are valuable references in her program. Wildwood School is truly blessed to have teachers of such calibre.

The Seniors in the Grandparent program met at ten o'clock in the morning and did the prep work for the fancy tea. Grandma Anna Hutchison and Grandma Pat Foisy appeared to be the driving force in the kitchen. Grandma Pat baked sugar cookies at home that were decorated with strawberries and blueberries creating a dessert that has become a signature confection for our fancy tea. Caroline Pudlo took pictures. Elizabeth Bobelik, Rebecca Lindsay Connie Fahrion, Nancy Johnson, Jean Riehl, Germain Spink, Joan Brown, Amber Anderson and Grandpa Barry Fahrion all participated in other forms of the prep work. We had a special guest worker Great Grandma Marjorie Russell. Many of the Grandmas brought trays of squares from home that complimented our dessert array. When the children came from school at noon, they arranged the tables and chairs, set out the table cloths, flowers, napkins and plates, silverware and fancy tea cups. They created fancy sandwiches, devilled eggs, cracker snacks and were ready to greet guests.

At 2 o'clock when the guests began to arrive the children greeted them, requested they sign the guest book, arranged for them to be seated and served coffee and tea. Children in the program this year are Shyanne Ogleby-Brown, Lauren Ice, Morgan Pudlo, Wyatt Boswell, Rhianna Riehl, Jacob W, Amy Lee, Deacon Raymond and Makayla Morrison. After we heard from Mr. Randal and Ms Gunderman lunch was served by the children.

We were fortunate to have more dignitaries attend. Jim Eglinski, MP for Yellowhead and his wife Nancy attended as they have for many years. Mr. Eglinski expressed his thoughts about a program he had been involved in, pairing Senior High School students with Seniors. He praised our program, stressing that seniors have much knowledge to share with children. Mr. Eglinski honoured me by giving me a Challenge Medal, "In Recognition of Your Service" a medal possessed by service members inscribed with his name and his RCMP regiment number. I feel honoured to receive such a token.

Gerald Soroka, Mayor of Yellowhead County thanked the seniors for their volunteer time to make the program possible.

Anthony Giezen, Councillor of Ward 2, and his wife Scarlet were also able to attend. He brought personal praise of the program knowing first hand many of the children who have participated over the years citing their pleasure in attending the weekly sessions at the seniors.

As coordinator of the Grandparent Program, I basked in more than my share of praise for the program. I continue though, to stress that we are so successful because of the great rapport we have with Wildwood School, because of the financial support of FCSS and because of the remarkable senior members who attend the program every week from October til May each year. We are in our 21st year and some seniors have been attending nearly that long. Remarkable.

GET THE MOST OUT OF BRIDAL SHOWS AND WEDDING EVENTS

Recently engaged couples may be excited to get a jump on wedding planning. Bridal shows can be a great way for couples to meet and familiarize themselves with local wedding professionals, all the while introducing themselves to the terminology of wedding planning.

Though they're a great source of information, contacts and samples, bridal shows also can be a bit overwhelming. Learning how to maximize time spent at shows can help couples plan their weddings as efficiently as possible.

- Start small. If the idea of large crowds is unappealing, attend the more intimate, boutique shows that are often held at local reception halls and restaurants instead of the larger installations at convention centers and hotels.

- Scout out vendors. Check the bridal show's website for lists of exhibitors and see if your desired vendors are on the list. But even if they're not, keep an open mind and use the show as a chance to compare offerings. If an event map is available, marking off must-visit booths can help save time.

- Pre-register. Pre-registering for bridal events saves time at check-in, and doing so may make you eligible for discounted tickets.

- Come prepared. Chances are each vendor is going to ask couples for information so that they can follow up with a phone call or email with more detailed offerings and estimates. Couples attending the show can expediate the process by coming equipped with labels that feature their names, contact information and wedding date. They can then stick the labels on sign-in sheets or use them like business cards.

- Dress comfortably. Bridal expos involve a lot of walking and roaming around. Wear comfortable clothing and shoes. Consider a backpack or hands-free bag so you are not weighed down when collecting the swag and other handouts throughout the day.

- Ask questions. When face-to-face with vendors, rely on their expertise but don't hesitate to ask questions concerning themes, colors, recommendations for honeymoon locations, invitation paper suggestions, and much more.

- Stay for the fashion show. Many shows will offer a runway experience to present the latest gown and tuxedo offerings. This can be an entertaining way for couples to formulate their wedding styles.

Wedding shows introduce couples to vendors and set them on the path to making decisions regarding the planning of their weddings.

ALTERNATIVES TO ENGAGEMENT RINGS

Engagement rings are often sizable investments. Money magazine reports the average engagement ring costs around $5,800. An engagement ring symbolizes the start of a lifelong commitment and may even set the tone for a couple's wedding day.

Jewelry styles are personal, and grooms-to-be should carefully research their significant others' preferences in terms of precious metals, colors and gemstones. Even though tradition holds that a diamond gemstone is classic for engagement rings, these precious stones are not the only options. In fact, before World War II, just 10 percent of proposals involved diamond engagement rings. That number jumped to 80 percent by 1990. However, many modern couples now lean toward other offerings not only for the uniqueness they provide, but also for the potential cost savings.

Those seeking something unique can embrace these engagement ring options.

• Amethyst: This vibrant, lavender-hued stone can be breathtaking when cut the correct way. Purple shades have long been associated with royalty, making an amethyst fitting for such an occasion as special as an engagement. Because amethysts, which are less expensive than diamonds, are a seven on the Mohs scale for gemstone hardness, they can be very durable.

• Knot rings: These rings do not have a center stone. Rather, they're designed to be a tied knot or infinity symbol. These rings can be particularly sentimental as they represent true, unbroken love.

• Opal: Gemstones, like flowers, have been assigned certain meanings. Tying the engagement ring to one of them can infuse more symbolism into the relationship. Opal, for example, represents love, passion, creativity, spontaneity, and inspiration. Those traits seem tailor-made for surprise proposals.

• Sapphire: While sapphire stones often are blue, they can also be yellow, green, pink, and white. Sapphires are the third hardest mineral. A white sapphire can be the perfect diamond replacement.

• Garnet or ruby: Red is the definitive color of love. A Valentine's Day proposal can be made even more special by presenting an engagement ring with a red gemstone.

• Moissanite: The jewelry source Brilliant Earth says moissanite is a gemstone first discovered in 1893 by Henri Moissan in a meteorite that fell to earth. It is remarkably similar to a diamond in appearance and strength. Moissanite also has heightened brilliance, with a refractive index higher than that of a diamond.

Couples have many beautiful alternatives to diamonds that they can explore when shopping for engagement rings.

FACTORS THAT CAN AFFECT THE LENGTH OF YOUR ENGAGEMENT

Each year, millions of couples around the world tie the knot. But before couples walk down the aisle, the proposal to get married must take place. Many couples mutually agree to get engaged, while the experience may be a surprise for others who have thought about it, but may not have been sure when one partner or another would "pop the question."

Upon getting engaged, couples may ponder how long their engagement should last. There is no perfect answer, and engagement length typically depends on personal preference and the needs of the couple. In fact, according to The Knot 2017 Real Weddings Study, the average length of an engagement is 14.5 months.

A number of factors affect the length of a couple's engagement, and couples should not feel as if they need to hurry down the aisle. For example, couples who will be financing their own weddings may need a longer engagement than those whose parents will be chipping in. In such instances, longer engagements give couples more time to save and may help them ensure their weddings are everything they hoped for.

Others may prefer a shorter engagement if they are financially stable and prepared to tie the knot. Couples in their late 30s may feel the tug of a biological clock and want to ensure there is ample time to get married and have children. A shorter engagement can facilitate that.

Some couples may have little choice in the matter, as the length of their engagements may be dictated by the availability of their favorite venues.

Military deployment, work commitments, medical issues, or travel responsibilities also may affect the length of an engagement.

Some couples may feel that an especially lengthy engagement diminishes their excitement about getting married. That "new engagement shine" can wear off as family and friends wait months or years for the wedding to take place.

Couples generally are advised to stick with what feels right to them regarding the length of their engagements. Just like all aspects of the wedding, couples can weigh the opinions of others but follow through with what works best for them.

TYPES OF WEDDING OFFICIANTS

Many people play a role in a wedding. The bride and groom, bridesmaids, groomsmen, ring bearers, and flower girls are front and center on the day a couple ties the knot.

Another central, and very important, figure on a couple's wedding day is the officiant. Officiants perform the wedding ceremony and are the first to introduce the newlyweds to their guests as an officially married couple.

Various types of officiants can officiate a wedding, and understanding each type can help couples find the right one for them.

Religious officiant

Couples who want traditional religious ceremonies often choose a religious officiant, such as a parish priest or rabbi, with whom they're familiar. For example, couples who grew up attending a particular church might choose the priest who's been preaching to them since they were children, while others might choose the priest at their current place of worship.

Religious officiants may be governed by certain rules that restrict them to performing ceremonies in a house of worship, which might rule them out for couples who want outdoor or destination weddings. Couples should inquire about such restrictions as early as possible in the planning process so they aren't caught off guard.

Civil officiant

Civil officiants are officers of the court, such as a judge or justice of the peace. Many couples who are planning destination weddings abroad still choose to have a civil officiant perform a wedding ceremony at home. This is because some overseas officiants may not be authorized to marry couples in their home countries, meaning their marriages won't be recognized once they return home. Civil officiants make sure marriages are legal, and they also make great options for couples who just want to get hitched without a grand ceremony.

Professional officiant

Professional officiants are not affiliated with a particular religious organization. That makes them great choices for couples who aren't religious as well as those who come from different religious backgrounds and won't be converting to the same faith. Professional officiants typically meet with a couple once or twice to get to know them before writing the speech they will give during the ceremony. Many will share the speech with the couple in advance of the big day, and some even allow couples to write the speech.

Loved ones

Many couples ask a friend or family member to officiate their weddings, which can add a fun and very personal component to the ceremony. Couples who want to take this route should research local laws to determine the steps loved ones must take to become ordained ministers who will be recognized by the state or country where the ceremony will take place.

Officiants play a significant role during a wedding, and couples can choose one who best fits their personalities and ceremony preferences.
