PARKLAND COUNTY LIBRARIES TIME CAPSULE

Submitted by Jakob Kubke – Entwistle Public Library

We are living through some historically significant times. I think it is fair to say that many of us will look back and think about our lives before Covid-19 and after Covid-19. Add to that many other world events, including large protests and questions to address in our society. And, of course, the economy might never be the same.

Because of all this change, down the road, we might forget how we felt, or what we did, or what was meaningful to us during this time. To remedy this, Parkland County Libraries is putting together a time capsule at each local library: Entwistle, Duffield, Tomahawk, and Keephills!

YELLOWHEAD COUNTY SUMMER PROGRAMMING RELAUNCH PLAN

Submitted by Yellowhead County

In the face of the COVID-19 pandemic, many children's programs were closed or canceled mid-March. As our province enters into the relaunch phase, FCSS looks to re-open some of our regular summer programming, with special considerations in place.

County Kids Awesome

Adventure Camps - Starting in July, FCSS will offer a modified summer program. While there are some significant changes from previous years, our goal remains the same: To keep children active and engaged throughout summer.

This program will run Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays (from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM) in various Yellowhead County facilities.

The program has a capacity for 8 children aged 7-11 and will cost $5 per day. Stay tuned for more information. Registration will be required.

Adventure Play Camps - This introductory Play Camp for ages 3-5 is canceled for 2020 due to safety considerations and staffing limitations.

SECOND CALL FOR PROPOSALS UNDER THE LOCAL FOOD INFRASTRUCTURE FUND

Submitted by Gerald Soroka, MP for Yellowhead

OTTAWA: Gerald Soroka, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, would like to inform constituents that the government has launched the second call for proposals under the Local Food Infrastructure Fund.

The Fund is aimed at strengthening food support organizations and to improving access to safe and nutritious food for Canadians at risk. Applications will be accepted on a continuous basis until funding has been allocated.

Projects valued at up to $250,000 will be accepted. This second call for proposals could also support a cluster of organizations who are ready to enhance their regional food systems.

UNDERSTANDING ELDER ABUSE

JOKE of the week

Two prisoners are about to break out of jail. The first one jumps off a wall into a trash container. Hearing something the guard shouts, "Who's there?" and the prisoner replies, "MEOOOOOOW!"

"Ah ok, just a cat" says the relieved guard.

Then the second prisoner jumps. The guard gets suspicious, "Hello, anybody there?" The second prisoner yells, "Nah, just the cat again!"

Submitted by Yellowhead County

June 15 was World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. During this time, we are asked to consider the older people in our lives, and recognize that some may be experiencing, or at risk of experiencing, elder abuse.

Elder abuse is violence, mistreatment, or neglect towards older adults. The abuse often comes from individuals in situations of power or trust. It can come from close company, such as spouses, children, other family members, caregivers, or other service providers. It can also come from more removed individuals. The abuse can occur in either private residences or outside the home.

Common signs of elder abuse can include:

- Confusion
- Depression or anxiety
- Unexplained injuries
- Changes in hygiene
- Seeming fearful around certain people
- Fear or worry when talking about money

If you suspect that an elderly person is at risk from a neglectful or overwhelmed caregiver, or being preyed upon financially, it's important to speak up. It is best to ask questions away from the place where you suspect the abuse is happening. The person may be afraid to speak up if there is a chance of being overheard by the abuser or someone who will relay the information.

If you or someone you know is being abused and you don't know how to help, please call 2-1-1. You'll receive confidential, prompt aid and referrals to help you deal with an abusive situation. If you believe someone is in immediate danger, do not hesitate to contact 9-1-1.

Everyone deserves to live in safety, and to be treated with dignity and respect. These guidelines can help you recognize the warning signs of elder abuse, understand what the risk factors are, and learn how to prevent and report the problem.

DAMAGING OR STEALING SASQUATCH SIGNS COULD PUT LIVES AT RISK

Every year someone gets stranded on our rivers, and these signs help our first responders find them.

Submitted by Yellow-head County

Each time a numbered Sasky river sign in Yellow-head County is stolen or damaged, it makes these river rescue signs ineffective in providing emergency assistance. Destroying or removing these signs can prevent a successful rescue and potentially put lives at risk.

Here's how the signs work:

1. Each sign is numbered.
2. Anyone needing help on a river can reference the last numerical sign they saw when they call 9-1-1.

3. That number will help first-responders get a better idea of where they're stranded on the river and help to reduce the time for first responders to locate the source of the distress call.

The signs serve as a rescue assistance tool—meaning that if they're damaged or stolen, those in an emergency won't have these additional safety precautions.

The County urges visitors and residents to respect these river rescue signs, which may be necessary to someone needing emergency aid or rescue.

A MESSAGE FROM MLA MARK SMITH

Submitted by MLA Mark Smith | Drayton Valley – Devon Constituency

I hope that you have all been able to enjoy the warmer weather and spend some time outdoors. At long last, playgrounds and parks across our community are reopening. I encourage you to explore these local places – while maintaining physical distancing, of course!

This week, our government continued its work to make life better for Albertans. New pieces of legislation were introduced to help tackle the issues that matter to our community, including creating an Alberta Parole Board, addressing the health harms of smoking and vaping in youth, and freeing up police and courts to make Alberta safer. All of these proposed laws live up to our promises to Albertans.

I am happy to share that our government is reducing red tape for Alberta businesses. These businesses can now incorporate and get their federal business number and federal tax program account number in one easy step, and it will be easier to access services at different levels of government. In addition to streamlining the incorporation application process, the federal business number enables Alberta businesses and non-profits to identify themselves by using a single identifier, instead of different registration numbers. By reducing red tape, our government is saving businesses and non-profit organizations valuable time and resources that have previously been spent on needless bureaucracy.

This week, our government introduced new legislation to help restore capacity in the justice system and make our roads safer. Bill 21, or the Provincial Administrative Penalties Act, proposes a simplified, accessible and swift system for resolving matters involving impaired driving, traffic tickets and other traffic safety offences. By removing these matters from the court system, our province will save thousands of hours of police and court time per year, ensuring Alberta's prosecutors and courts are able to focus on the most serious justice matters. The bill would also introduce a new Immediate Roadside Sanction program in late 2020, which would keep our roads safer by providing serious, immediate and escalating consequences for all impaired drivers. This new legislation will help take pressure off the legal system and ensure that impaired driving is taken seriously in our province.

Our government has also announced that it is investing $5 million to help build school playgrounds across the province. This funding will support 18 school divisions to build playgrounds, supplementing their fundraising efforts that are already taking place. Funding for playgrounds will address playgrounds at schools that were replaced on the same site as their original building, as well as new school projects announced between April and December 2013 where the playground has not been built. Playgrounds are a fundamental part of any school community, and our government is helping ensure that these important spaces are open to children across Alberta.

I am happy to see all of the hard work that members of our community are doing to help prevent the spread of COVID-19, even as our province reopens. For further information on how to protect yourself and your loved ones from COVID-19, visit alberta.ca/covid19.

TAKEOUT STILL CRUCIAL TO RESTAURANT SURVIVAL AMID RE-OPENINGS: ORDER WINGS ON THE NEXT #TAKEOUTDAY

Submitted by Canada Takeout

Spruce Grove has 20+ feature flavours.

Throughout the current pandemic, #TakeoutDay has become a mainstream movement, with Canadians ordering takeout or delivery on Wednesdays to support local restaurants. This has made a powerful impact on keeping restaurants in business, and according to Restaurants Canada, 95 per cent of revenue from restaurants go directly back into the economy, which means that when you treat yourself to wings this Wednesday, you'll be treating the country too.

Thousands of pounds of wings are expected to fly out of restaurants across the country in a show of support as Canadians order takeout or delivery on #TakeoutDay: Wing Edition on Wednesday, June 17.

Wing fans can look forward to unique wing flavours and styles as diverse as the country itself. For Caribbean cravings, Krazy Jerk, a family-owned hot spot in Calgary is serving up their famous jerk and barbecue-fried wings. The Beer Hunter Bar & Grill in

GOLFER'S GUIDE

ADJUSTING GOLF SWING GETS EASIER

Golfers rejoice! Those dreaded slices or hooks could become a thing of the distant past thanks to adjustable clubs and drivers. In addition to helping improve accuracy, adjustable clubs also lighten the load in your golf bag.

With a few twists of a wrench or even turning the shaft of the driver itself, golfers can adjust the face angle, loft and lie angle of the driver to hit the ball farther and straighter. Golfers can make small adjustments to create the right loft and improve distance without having to purchase a new club or visit a club fitter.

Many club manufacturers now offer adjustable drivers and other clubs. According to an informal poll on Golf.com, 34 percent of the 2,337 respondents owned an adjustable driver by the end of 2011. The ability to upgrade shafts has also become popular as golfers respond to what the pros are doing.

Adjustable golf clubs enable golfers to walk out onto the course with one driver and a few different shafts. With a couple of clicks from a wrench, a person can have an entirely new driver. That cuts down on the equipment that needs to be carried and can fine tune a golfer's accuracy. These high-tech clubs are corresponding to changes being made to golf balls. Engineers have reduced the spin on golf balls to help the balls travel farther. To do so, golf experts advise that the ball needs to be hit higher into the air. Adjustable drivers can give players the edge they need to produce the right height and trajectory.

According to data from golf club manufacturer TaylorMade, 70 percent of consumers who use the company's adjustable drivers adjust their club at least once to get the desired shot. Afterward, 10 to 15 percent of adjustable driver users report further adjustments as they become comfortable with the features.

Although golfers can now put adjustments into their own hands, it is still advisable to get a professional fitting regardless of which clubs are chosen. A certified club fitter can help a person sort through the myriad options available and make recommendations based on various factors, including the golf ball used.

Those who are not fans of adjustable drivers say that the adjustment mechanisms add weight to the drivers, which can compromise efficiency. However, that isn't stopping larger numbers of golf fans from taking adjustable drivers for a trial run in an effort to improve their game.

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
