A MESSAGE FROM MLA MARK SMITH

Submitted by MLA Mark Smith | Drayton Valley – Devon Constituency

When the COVID-19 pandemic started over a year ago, no one knew what the future held. Looking at some of the headlines from a year ago, we were less than optimistic. In the Guardian on May 22, 2020, one headline read: "Why we might not get a coronavirus vaccine." On May 7, 2020, the news channel CNBC reported: "guaranteeing the safety and efficacy of a COVID-19 vaccine, and ramping up production and distribution, will most likely push the time frame to the end of 2021, says Dale Fisher, chair of the World Health Organization's Global Outbreak Alert and Response Network."

But thanks to the tireless efforts of innovative medical experts, we are now rolling out vaccines to protect Albertans. We have been able to distribute these vaccines en masse and distribution started at the end of 2020, a year earlier than our previous best estimates.

As of today, Alberta's government has administered more than two million vaccines. This is good news, and I am encouraged that these numbers will be far higher by the time this article is published.

Over the past year, Alberta has confirmed a total of 211,836 COVID-19 cases (as of May 10, 2021), with 184,719 people recovering (May 10, 2021). As daunting as that total case numbers may be, the total recovery means that 87.2 per cent of total cases have recovered at this point.

Alberta's vaccine rollout prioritized protecting seniors and our most vulnerable. This strategy has worked overall as 76 per cent of seniors aged 75 and older are fully immunized. We began our rollout targeting health-care workers, respiratory therapists and staff in long-term care homes. We planned to protect those who can help our most vulnerable before quickly transitioning to first-responders and seniors aged 75 and up.

As a result, on May 10, 2021, some visiting restrictions in congregate living facilities across Alberta were eased. This means that each resident can identify up to four designated family or support people as visitors. Supporting our seniors is important and I am happy that we can ease these restrictions and I am looking forward to the near future when we can ease restrictions more substantially.

Additionally, we are seeing record enrollment in our vaccine program now that we have opened up appointments for everyone age 12 and older. Our province opened vaccines to young people faster than any other province, all while protecting seniors and our most vulnerable. This is something we can all be proud of.

We have come so far over the past year, and while the sacrifices we have had to make have been hard, we are light-years beyond where we thought we would be in early 2020. Alberta's vaccine rollout has been highly effective in protecting our most vulnerable and is now available to nearly every Albertan that wants a vaccine. We have consistently been in the top ranks for vaccinations administered since they became available last December. We are almost at the end of this and I am encouraged to see how far we have come and that soon the sacrifices we have had to make in order to protect the vulnerable and our health care capacity will soon be behind us.

PALLIATIVE CARE SUPPORT EXPANDED

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Beginning June 1, the government-sponsored Palliative Coverage program will cover the costs associated with pre-filling syringes, making it easier for people receiving palliative care and their caregivers to administer important medications, such as pain medication, and reducing costs for Albertans in palliative care.

"Albertans in palliative care often face intense, unrelenting pain and other symptoms over the course of their illness. Eliminating the cost of pre-filling syringes with medication is a significant way in which we can support these Albertans during this difficult time." - Tyler Shandro, Minister of

Health

The Palliative Coverage program provides supplementary health benefits to Albertans in palliative care who choose to stay in their home or a hospice. The program covers the cost of eligible prescription drugs, diabetic supplies and ambulance services. When this change comes into effect, the program will also cover the cost of syringes for injectable medication and the pharmacy's cost for filling the syringes.

In 2019-2020, 5,200 Albertans received supplementary health benefits through the Palliative Coverage program. Almost 2,000 of these Albertans used injectable medications for pain management. On average, a patient receiving palliative care may require 10 to 12 syringes of pain medication each day.

"This program expands palliative care services for Albertans with life-limiting illnesses so they can receive the treatment they need in the places they call home. Appropriate and timely palliative and end-of-life care is essential and we are moving in the right direction to support palliative care patients with dignity and comfort." - Dan Williams, MLA for Peace River

Quick facts

- Alberta's government has committed $20 million over four years for improving palliative care and caregiver support.
- Effective March 1, 2020, prescription drug co-payments were eliminated for Albertans receiving their medications through the Palliative Coverage program.
- Enhancing palliative care in Alberta is a government priority and the government is looking at ways to:
  - support raising awareness of how and when to access palliative and end-of-life care
  - develop effective caregiver supports
  - shift from hospital to community-based home and hospice care
  - establish education, training and standards for health professionals

Lawn & Garden

HOW ERGONOMIC TOOLS CAN HELP GARDENERS

Gardening is a rewarding activity that has been found to provide a host of benefits beyond ensuring readily available access to fresh fruits, vegetables and awe-inspiring blooms.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says many gardening tasks qualify as light to moderate exercise, which means raking the leaves and cutting the grass can be just as beneficial as cardiovascular activities like brisk walking or jogging. In addition, a 2017 study published in the journal Preventive Medicine Reports found that gardening can help aging men and women offset age-related weight gain. And the health benefits of gardening go beyond the physical. In 2014, a systematic review of randomized controlled trials published in Complementary Therapies in Medicine concluded that horticultural therapy may be an effective treatment for people with dementia.

Gardeners have a host of tools at their disposal to help turn their lawns and gardens into awe-inspiring landscapes. Among those options are ergonomic tools. Ergonomic tools can benefit gardeners of all ages, but they may prove especially valuable for aging men and women.

How ergonomic tools differ from traditional gardening tools

Ergonomic gardening tools are designed to ensure that using them has as little effect on the body as possible. Ergonomic tools align with how a person naturally moves his or her body, which can reduce the likelihood that gardeners will suffer any strains or sprains while gardening or experience any aches and pains after a day spent tending to their landscapes.

Choosing the right tools

ities notes that gardeners will know they have chosen the right ergonomic gardening tool for the job when they do not have to adapt the tool. Ergonomic tools should match gardeners' heights, fit their grip and feel comfortable when in use.

Specific benefits of ergonomic tools

Ergonomic gardening tools are designed in a way that can reduce stress on the body while performing various tasks. Gardeners know that aches and pains can add up after a day spent kneeling in the garden, raking soil and carrying supplies from a shed or garage around the property. But the WVUCED notes that ergonomic tools do more than just reduce gardeners' risk of injury.

Ergonomic tools increase efficiency. Wasted motions are less likely when using ergonomic tools. That can improve efficiency in the garden, allowing gardeners to get more done in the same amount of time. And because ergonomic tools are designed to work with the body, gardeners likely won't need to take breaks due to aches and pains, which also makes it easier to be more efficient when working in the garden.

Ergonomic tools increase gardeners' capabilities. The WVUCED notes that principles behind ergonomics keep gardeners using the tools in natural positions. That means gardeners won't lose power to bending and twisting, enabling them to do more in the garden than they might be able to do when using non-ergonomic tools.

Gardening is a rewarding and beneficial activity. The right ergonomic tools for the job can enhance those benefits and make gardening even more enjoyable.

EMILYS WAGS COOKIES ARE COMING TO YOU!!!

Submitted by Alison Ainsworth, Wags Cookies Ltd.

Wags Handmade Cookies by Emily is a social enterprise built by Miss Emily despite complex medical and developmental disabilities and her vision to access meaningful, inclusive opportunities in the community through her very own handmade dog cookies. She was a big feature in the recent Grammy gift bags in 2021 and now is able to bring her very own truck to free Covid safe public outdoor spaces and dogs parks to areas in and around the Edmonton area with a message of inclusion to everyone thanks to the generous support of sponsors and friends of her vision. Her truck is stocked with free, no strings attached giveaways to celebrate everybody and offers a chance to purchase dog cookies on site too from herself or one of several other young adults with disabilities that we have been able to hire, with their support staff at Wags. Covid has reminded us that isolation is hard and can be lonely, a feat that most with disabilities endure daily regardless. Her truck is an opportunity to reconnect and inspire community despite her disability and make our four legged friends happy along the way. We look forward to connecting for this homemade, feel good story. Please visit her at wagscookies on facebook and www.wagscookies.com.

DARWELL WOMEN'S INSTITUTE... 75 YEARS & MORE

Submitted by Marilee Kosik, president

Darwell Women's Institute, like all of you, has struggled with COVID. We have missed the opportunity to mingle with friends and supporters in the community and have had very few meetings with our own members. We are, however, still dedicated to assist and support our community and those who need our help. Please contact us if there is anything we can do.

This past year (2020) we missed having a big celebration of our 75th year of involvement in Darwell. We had hoped to throw a community party with stories of accomplishments, and memories of past members, thanking all those, past and present, who have helped. AND...when we can again gather, we WILL celebrate this important achievement and the wonderful people who made it possible. We will let you know when we start planning.... keep us in mind.... ideas appreciated.

One of the activities we undertake every year is the organizing of the Darwell Cemetery cleanup. Our very busy member, Edie Richardson, puts up posters announcing the date of the cleanup and she and her husband, Richie, help ensure that it runs smoothly.

In years past it was a day to go to the cemetery to cut the grass and make it look well-cared for. Now, fortunately, there is the wonderful Kathy McDonald who keeps it looking great all summer. The Cemetery Cleanup will still be held this year on Saturday, May 29th (rain date June 4th) from 10:00 am until noon to do any extra jobs needed. Please keep in mind the COVID restrictions such as masks and physical distancing.

For more information on meetings and activities, ideas for activities or requests for assistance please contact Marilee at 780-892-2217 or marileek@telusplanet.net

SUDOKU

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
