COVID-19 UPDATE FOR WHITECOURT

Submitted by Town of Whitecourt

As of March 1, 2022, Albertans will be free to gather indoors and outdoors with no restrictions; large and entertainment facilities will be able to operate at full capacity; and the provincial mask mandate will be lifted except in high-risk settings. In addition:

- Any remaining school requirements will be removed (for example: Kindergarten to grade 6 cohorting).

- Youth screening activities for entertainment and sport activities will be removed.

- Mandatory work-from-home requirements will be lifted.

As announced by the Government of Alberta on February 26, limited measures will remain in effect to protect continuing care and acute care settings, and to offer additional safeguards.

- The Provincial mask mandate is still in place for high-risk settings, including on public transit, at Alberta Health Services operated and contracted facilities, and all continuing care settings.

JOKE of the week

A three-year old walks over to a pregnant lady while waiting with his mother in a doctor's surgery.

"Why is your stomach so big?" – he asks.

"I'm having a baby," – she replies.

"Is the baby in your stomach?" – he asks, with his big eyes.

"Yes, it is," – she says.

"Is it a good baby?" – he asks, with a puzzled look.

"Oh, yes. A really good baby," – the lady replies.

Shocked and surprised, he asks: "Then why did you eat him?"

WHITECOURT LAUNCHES 2022 ONLINE BUDGET INPUT INITIATIVE

Submitted by Town of Whitecourt

Whitecourt has launched its annual budget input campaign and community members are invited to share their thoughts on the 2022 budget.

The 2022 Interim Budget Report and a gallery of budget infographics are available online at www.whitecourt.ca/Government to provide community members with information on Council's plans for the year. Members of the public are asked to review the information, and forward questions and comments to administration@whitecourt.ca by Friday, February 4.

"Community members had a chance to let us know in the fall of 2021 what should be prioritized in 2022, and we are now checking in and asking residents to review the interim budget and share their comments," stated Whitecourt Mayor Tom Pickard. "Developing a budget is an ongoing process, and we want to make sure the community has an opportunity to take part and share their thoughts. This format is similar to last year's campaign, and Whitecourt Town Council is looking forward to hearing your feedback."

The interim budget was passed in late December 2021, and the comments received from community members will be reviewed and considered by Council during development of the final budget. The final budget is scheduled to be approved in April, once the Provincial budget has been announced and final assessment figures have been established.

MP SOROKA QUESTIONS THE MINISTER ON THE ECONOMY

Submitted by MLA Gerald Soroka MP for Yellowhead

Gerald Soroka, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, asked the following question in the House:

"Mr. Speaker, $400 billion in newly created cash has driven up consumer prices, and constituents in my riding, especially seniors, cannot afford their basic necessities. In addition to rising consumer prices, electricity and heating bills are increasing due to the carbon tax, which will increase again on April 1.

When will the Liberal government finally quit making false promises and create a real economic plan for all Canadians, especially those who are struggling to meet their basic needs?"

Reply:

Hon. Chrystia Freeland (Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance, Lib.):

"Mr. Speaker, the Conservative MP began his question talking about government spending, which he seems to deem excessive. I would like to remind him that he, ...

PARKLAND RCMP LAUNCHES NEW VIDEO CAMERA REGISTRY

Submitted by Parkland RCMP

The Parkland RCMP are excited to announce a new voluntary surveillance camera registry program, called Parkland CAPTURE (Community Assisted Policing Through the Use of Recorded Evidence). This program will cover communities within the Parkland RCMP detachment area in Parkland County and Lac Ste Anne County.

Residents and businesses who have video surveillance, and are willing to share video camera footage when requested, can sign up. This initiative won't replace officers from knocking on doors, but it will help officers track down video evidence in an ongoing criminal investigation in the area.

The program aims to reduce the time an officer needs to search for and gather video evidence when conducting an investigation. The Parkland CAPTURE program allows a person or business to upload a portion of the video requested. This allows the officer to evaluate the video footage before deciding to ask for a copy.

To get started, visit the website at www.parklandcapture.ca and create an account. From there you can enter your contact information and video cameras on the secure site. Your information is not available for anyone to see. If an officer needs to contact you, they will do so by the information provided.

Things to know about the program:

- This is completely voluntary and consent can be withdrawn at any time

- You can share your video footage through the website for an officer to view before they decide if the video will help in their investigation

- An officer can provide you with a USB thumb drive to copy the video onto

- An officer can not download the video, they can only view it
- Registering a camera and contact information allows the RCMP to see a list of security cameras so they can contact the owners during an investigation

This strategy is another way the Parkland RCMP are working with our communities to help solve crime faster, together. By providing video footage to police during an investigation, communities increase the chance of a successful prosecution.

TIRE MAINTENANCE A KEY COMPONENT OF SPRING CHECK-UP

When warm weather arrives, many people enjoy a collective sigh of relief. Just as people welcome the end of the cold, snow and ice, cars and trucks also can benefit from more moderate temperatures.

Salt, grime and pot holes can take a toll on tires over the course of a typical winter. Drivers will not get far this spring and summer without tires in good repair, which is why tire maintenance should be part of any seasonal repair checklist.

Inflation levels

Now is the time to use a tire pressure gauge to see if tires are at the ideal inflation levels. Many tires indicate the recommended PSI (pounds per square inch) on their sidewalls. Cold temperatures may cause tires to deflate a little. Esurance states that winter weather can cause tire pressure reduction at about one PSI for every 10 degrees the temperature drops. Driving on improperly inflated tires can be dangerous, potentially affecting handling and braking distances.

Check tires when they are cold for the most accurate reading. Properly inflated tires also will improve fuel economy, so drivers may even save a little money by inflating their tires.

Tire rotation/realignment

Examine the tires for tread wear. Any uneven or abnormal tread wear could indicate that the tires need to be rotated and the wheels realigned at the very least. Take the vehicle to a qualified mechanic to get their opinion on how to remedy the situation. Mechanics may recommend rotating tires every 6,000 to 8,000 miles, or about every six months for the average driver.

Wheel realignment may be necessary after a season of driving over potholes and other irregularities in the road. Misaligned wheels can cause handling problems, like the car 'pulling' to one side.

Tire replacement

Drivers may discover extreme tread wear, bulges or even cracks in the sidewall during a tire inspection. These signs indicate that it's time to replace the tires. Failing to replace old, worn down tires can increase the risk of automobile accidents.

Thorough cleaning

Once tires are inspected and possibly serviced or replaced, treat the car or truck to a washing and thorough detailing. This will help tires shine and get the vehicle road-ready for spring trips.

HOW TO MAINTAIN CAR VALUE OVER THE LONG-TERM

When shopping for a new car, savvy buyers know finding the right car involves more than just finding the most comfortable or flashy vehicle. Numerous factors, including resale value, determine what makes a car the right car for a particular buyer.

Various websites and automotive resources rank vehicles based on their potential resale value, and drivers can do much to ensure their cars and trucks maintain that resale value over the long-term.

•Pay attention to the exterior. Much like homes with strong curb appeal can help homeowners get the best price for their homes when those homes are on the market, vehicles that look good can make strong first impressions on prospective buyers. Address any dings or dents on the car before putting it on the market, and make sure the car gets a thorough washing and waxing prior to showcasing it for potential buyers.

Upon purchasing new vehicles, drivers with their minds on maintaining resale values can park their cars or trucks in garages as often as possible to protect them from the elements. In addition, when parking in public, avoid tight parking spaces that can increase the likelihood that other drivers will ding or dent the vehicle when entering or exiting their own cars.

•Protect the interior. A well-maintained interior will impress buyers on multiple levels. Preowned buyers may feel more comfortable buying cars with well-maintained interiors that still make them feel as if they're buying a new vehicle. Vehicles with well-maintained interiors also give buyers the impression that sellers care about the vehicle and prioritized maintenance.

Avoid eating in the car, and immediately address any spills or stains. When taking the vehicle to a car wash, spend the extra money to have the interior cleaned as well. Seat covers can help protect cloth and leather interiors from spills, stains and cracking.

•Keep maintenance receipts. Another way to maintain resale value is to keep all maintenance receipts from the moment the vehicle is purchased. Preowned vehicle buyers are making substantial investments when buying preowned cars, and many will want to be certain they're investing in the right cars and trucks. Documentation with regards to the vehicle's maintenance can assuage any fears buyers may have and help sellers get the most money possible when putting their cars on the market.

Maintaining resale value is a concern for new car buyers who want to get the best returns on their automotive investments.

SUDOKU

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
