Frozen Culverts

Maintenance scheduled

Lac Ste. Anne County is experiencing an unprecedented amount of frozen culverts and ditch glaciation.

This was precipitated by arctic temperatures, minimal insulating snow cover and ground water continuing to run during the winter.

Public Works employees are actively thawing culverts throughout the area on numerous roads and approaches within our borders.

ALBERTA BEACH MUSEUM

Submitted by Alberta Beach Museum

The Alberta Beach Museum is looking to expand on our activities this year. To succeed we are going to require some help from as many people living in the village as possible of all ages. This request includes residents from all surrounding communities who are willing to donate their time.

There are many tasks to fulfill and not enough hands. Your participation in anything from watering flowers to maintaining the grounds to picking up a paint brush would really make a big difference.

And.....any student who volunteers nine hours in any capacity will receive a letter of reference from the museum for their resume.

Part of our plan includes opening our doors on the weekends beginning in May through June.

Alberta Beach Museum

The regular hours will begin as always on July 1st. Open from Wednesday to Monday between 1 and 6 p.m. Closed Tuesdays.

Currently we are looking for teenagers to role play the 1920 to 1950 era in costume while mingling with our guests. Outgoing adults and youths with an adventurous side are also very welcome to take part.

The Museum only requires that you are personable, enthusiastic, and reliable. Of course, there will be sample scripts to go off of but you will have a certain amount of freedom to make the part your own. For those who are interested in drama, the history of our village or contributing to the growth of our exceptional museum your time would be greatly appreciated.

But still, in order to make this work we are also reaching out to the communities for any clothing donations that correspond with the era. i.e. Klondike clothing or something your mother, father or grandparents may have sported. Any contributions would really help this get off the ground running.

In addition, we are looking to borrow wedding dresses from the 1920's to 50's for a future display. As part of our showcase we would like to include a picture of the bride and groom on their special day as well as a family photo taken in their later years. Please contact Connie at 780-924-3051 for more information.

We are also calling on all youths from junior high to high school with a creative side to help build stations for a Penny Carnival and then help run them. Adult participation to help oversee the different projects would also be a huge benefit for this special event.

As you can see we are trying to move the bar up but we can't do it alone. We need volunteers, as many as possible to join us in reaching our goals to achieve a higher level of success. We are already Alberta Beach's NUMBER ONE tourist attraction. Let's build on that reputation and really WOW our visitors.

WHAT MATTERS TO YOU – I GOT IT HONEST

Submitted by MLA Shane Getson

When I was on the campaign trail for the first time, my wife told me I should get in touch with Aaron Tippin and see if I could get permission to use one of his songs as my "Theme" song. She said that when she heard that song, she thought of me. I thought she may be pulling my leg a little and teasing me, but I thought I'd play along, ask the name of the song, then get the punch line. She told me the name of the song was "I Got It Honest". I must admit, country isn't typically my first genre on the play list, and I had not heard the song, so I was still waiting for the punch line. Apparently, there wasn't one. She found me the song and played it for me.

I was honestly moved that she saw me in that light. She respected me for the morals I had and that I had demonstrated them over the years. I knew money could buy a lot of things, that it couldn't buy integrity, a person's word is worth something, and although we may not have had all the shiny things out there, but what we had we worked for on our own, and the best thing I could pass onto my kids was a legacy of hard work and integrity. Be proud of who you are, what you have, because you earned it, your word is worth something, and you got it honest. She gave me the nod to run, because she said we needed at least one person in the legislature that she, and others in our area could trust to do the right things, when it was going to be tough to do, and I wouldn't forget who I was.

I've maintained that the problem with Politics is that there are too many professional politicians involved. There is a machine that is running in behind them to keep the status quo, where that murky world does not come into the light of day. I believe the way that real changes can be made is not only at the general election, but at the party level, the grass roots as it were.

I'm going to stray a little here now and write as a UCP member, not as the MLA, simply because my office phone, and emails have been swamped by folks who have concerns with the decision that the UCP Party Provincial Board made regarding the format and venue of the leadership review in Red Deer on April 09. Please note, as a party member, I did not have any input into that decision. As a party member, I voted at the AGM in the fall for members who ran for those positions. I like many were encouraging folks to be part of the process, and we had a high degree of interest in rural Alberta Specifically, where I have heard that the majority of members who registered for the SGM were indeed from Rural Alberta. I'd like to thank everyone for renewing, or buying your memberships, and in light of the recent developments, I'd 100% encourage you to still vote, ....

... and encourage others to purchase their memberships if they haven't. I'd like to still have a live vote, complete with voting stations in our constituency for all members, and certified elections representatives, to know for sure, regardless of the official mail in ballots, of how the people out here in Lac Ste. Anne – Parkland feel about the leadership. It would be a great time to catch up, talk about what matters to you, and to find out what direction we are heading together.

I believe what we have seen demonstrated recently is an Ottawa style of politics being played out right here in Alberta, and the only way we get back to our values, is to make sure that we have a very strong representation in the party, as well as at the voting booths not only at Leadership Reviews, but at the Annual General Meetings, as well as at the general election. If we don't continue to participate in the process, we leave it for those who like to stay in the swamp, where the best interests of the people may not be best represented.

At the end of the day, for the folks out in our area, win loose or draw, we know that "We Got it Honest" and working together, that swamp is going to get a heck of a lot more shallow over the next few years if we keep working together, and not let others divide us, even if they want to change the rules of the game while it is still being played. Let's continue to be Strong and Free, and keep doing the right things for the right reasons, with honor and integrity.

Submitted by Gerald Soroka MP for Yellowhead

Gerald Soroka, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, wishes to inform his constituents that although the Liberals acknowledged our natural gas is vital to our security and Europe's, they voted against our Conservative motion condemning Putin's illegal invasion of Ukraine and calling on the government to undertake measures to allow Canadian natural gas to be exported to Europe to displace Russian gas.

Russia supplies 40 per cent of Europe's natural gas and uses this to intimidate Europe and Ukraine. If Russia cuts energy supplies to Europe, people will freeze, factories will shutter, and Europe's economy will grind to a halt.

We Conservatives are urging the Trudeau government to work more closely with NATO allies, particularly on energy security. Canada is the fifth-largest natural gas producer in the world, but we cannot get gas to tidewater to assist European democracies because we cannot get pipelines built.

HOW TO MAKE SPRING PROJECTS MORE ECO-FRIENDLY

The arrival of warmer weather means different things to different people. Some anticipate opportunities for outdoor fun, while others may be considering redecorating or remodeling their homes. For the latter group, home improvement season provides a great opportunity to make homes more eco-friendly.

When planning home improvement projects, it's best to first choose a project and then look for ways to make the project more environmentally friendly. Such an approach may not only benefit the environment, but it also may benefit homeowners' bottom lines.

Interior decorating

Longer days and warmer temperatures often translate into wanting to freshen up the interior of a home. Heavy draperies and comforters are put away, and lighter fabrics are taken out of storage. Whenever possible, reuse or repurpose items you already have rather than purchasing new items. Longer drapes can be cut and hemmed to be used as window treatments in other rooms. Making a patchwork blanket out of old T-shirts is a crafty project that makes use of items that would otherwise be destined for landfills.

When laundering linens, skip the energy-using dryer and let items line dry in the sun and fresh air.

If you decide to purchase some new items, look for products made from sustainable or organic fabrics. Hemp and bamboo textiles have grown in popularity. Hemp and bamboo plants grow quickly, and their durability makes these materials smart choices.

When replacing items around the house, donate older items to a charitable organization.

Flowers and plants

Spring and summer call to mind beautiful blooming plants. Relying on native, sustainable plants is practical, environmentally friendly and cost-effective.

According to the National Wildlife Federation, sustainable plants are native plants.

How To Make Spring Projects More Eco-Friendly

Native plants sustain local wildlife more effectively than non-native alternatives, so include native plants in your sustainable garden. Native plants also are less reliant on pesticides and herbicides to keep them healthy and viable. Don't forget to bring plants indoors as well. Even though you may be opening the windows more, indoor plants can filter and purify indoor air. The NASA Clean Air Study, led in association with the Associated Landscape Contractors of America, found that certain common indoor plants naturally remove toxic agents such as benzene, formaldehyde and trichloroethylene from the air. Efficient air cleaning is accomplished with at least one plant per 100 square feet of home or office space.

Proper disposal
Spring cleaning is another tradition for many families come the end of winter and dawn of spring. Many people use spring as a time to go through closets and garages to remove items they no longer use or need. In an effort to clean up fast, some people may dispose of chemical products, paints, treated lumber, and many other items in ways that can be damaging to the environment. Always learn local municipal guidelines for proper disposal of potentially harmful products. Area recycling centers may have drop-off areas for stains and paints, used motor oil and other potentially harmful products.

Before discarding something, see if it can be donated or sold. This will result in fewer items ending up in landfills.

Exercise caution outdoors as well. Runoff from cleaning products used on home siding or driveways can leach into the surrounding soil or find its way into sewage drains that ultimately direct fluids to public waterways. Choose environmentally responsible products whenever possible.

Springtime renovation and cleaning projects provide the perfect opportunity to adopt eco-friendly practices that pay dividends for years to come.

SAFEGUARD YOUR HOME FROM INSECT INFESTATIONS

The dawn of spring marks the return of many things, including long hours of sunlight and warm temperatures in which to enjoy that sunshine. But homeowners know spring also marks the return of insects, unwelcome guests that can be difficult or expensive to control once they have entered a home.

As problematic as insect infestations can be, preventing such problems can be simple, especially when homeowners are proactive. The following are a handful of ways to keep insects out this spring and summer.

- Consider potential food supplies and cut those supplies off. Insects often enter a home in search of food, so cutting off potential food supplies is a great way to prevent insects from coming inside. Give dining areas a thorough cleaning after meals, vacuuming or sweeping the floors beneath dining tables each night before going to bed. (Parents of young children may want to sweep floors after each meal.) In addition, clean pets' bowls each night to be sure there are no food scraps left that may entice insects, and make sure pet food containers are tightly sealed after each serving. Sinks are another potential food source, so empty food traps after using the sink and run the garbage disposal as well to remove any food that might be lingering.

- Address potential shelters. Insects also seek shelter inside homes, and there are many areas in a home that can provide adequate shelter. Cracks around windows and doors and in the foundation provide both entry points and potential shelters for insects. Seal such cracks with caulk, testing the areas by feeling for any incoming air. If you still feel air coming in, there is still some sealing to do.

Safeguard Your Home From Insect Infestations

Cracks in cabinets or counters also may provide shelter to insects, so address these areas as well.

· Reconsider exterior lighting. Exterior lighting may be inviting insects into your home. Insects tend to congregate around lights at nighttime, so avoid placing lights right outside entryways. Once doors are opened, insects can then fly right into your home. Keep exterior lights as far away from entryways as possible. If you need lights right outside your doors, install motion-sensing lights that only turn on when you come within a few feet of the door. This reduces the volume of insects that congregate outside your entryways, and lowers the risk that insects will follow you in when you arrive home at night.

· React quickly upon seeing insects. Insect infestations happen gradually, so homeowners should react quickly when seeing a single insect or a handful of insects inside their homes. The slower your response, the more likely one or two intruders is likely to turn into a large infestation. Immediately clean any areas where you see insects, and take more substantial measures if your initial efforts were not enough to prevent more insects from coming in.

The presence of insects inside a home can be a nuisance, but there are many ways to prevent such infestations and keep unwelcome guests at bay.

BOLD COLORS ADD VITALITY TO HOMES

Whether it's Independence Day, St. Patrick's Day or the holiday season, the bold hues that are synonymous with these events add a splash of color to rooms that can use a little design lift.

While some colors may be synonymous with certain times of year, homeowners can employ bold colors in their homes all year long. By embracing bold painting and decorating styles, homeowners can use fresh color palettes to make rooms more inviting and colorful. These popular color combinations can provide inspiration.

Green and pink

Colors on opposite ends of the color wheel will always complement each other. Green paired with pink (a lighter shade of green's opposite, red) calls to mind the great outdoors. These hues can add a touch of floral spring sunshine even when that season has long since passed. Opt for a deep green and a carnation pink for maximum impact. And don't forget a vase full of fresh blooms as the finishing factor.

Lavender and deep blue

Analogous colors are three colors that sit side-by-side on the color wheel and share a common denominator in terms of shade. Lavender, blue and an orchid pink are examples of such hues. This cool, regal combination can add femininity to a bedroom or even drama to another space in the house. If painting the walls dark blue or lavender seems scary, opt for a neutral shade on walls and then dress up the space with inky and violet accents.

Turquoise and brick red

Enhance the 'wow' factor with these bold colors. Although they are striking, when they work together, they also can impart a soothing feel, particularly since they are often inspired by Asian influences. Feature a light turquoise sofa with red throw pillows. Or dress up meals with a red tablecloth on the dining table and turquoise, white and red, patterned place mats.

Gray and yellow

Yellow is a pick-me-up color any time of the year, but, when combined with a gray, it's toned down to be soothing instead of startling. This color combination is popular in kitchens, nurseries and entryways. Have fun in the kitchen with mottled gray stone countertops, pale yellow walls and canary cafe curtains.

Color can affect mood and transform spaces with just a small investment of time and money. Homeowners can experiment with color palettes so rooms remain vibrant all year long.

ITEMS TO INCLUDE IN YOUR AUTOMOTIVE EMERGENCY KIT

Road trips can make for great weekend getaways or even more lengthy vacations for those who can't get enough of the open road. But before embarking on any road trips, motorists should replenish their automotive emergency kits with the following items so they are fully prepared in the event of an accident or an injury.

•First-aid kit: A first-aid kit can treat cuts and abrasions suffered while you are out of the car and even some minor injuries that may result if you are in a car accident. Include essential items like adhesive tape, antibiotic ointment, antiseptic wipes, aspirin, bandages, a cold compress, gauze, and scissors. Visit www.redcross.org for a more extensive list of items to include in your first-aid kit, which should be kept in your car at all times.

•Tools: It's important to include tools in your automotive emergency kit. While a full toolbox might be unnecessary, bring along an adjustable wrench, a flat head and Phillips screwdriver, a pair of pliers, a tire jack and crow bar, an ice scraper, and a flashlight.

Items To Include In Your Automotive Emergency Kit

Extra roadside flares and reflectors also should be packed should you need to pull over and address an automotive problem, such as a flat tire. Keep a tire pressure gauge in your glove compartment or with your other tools so you can check tire pressure if you feel your car is not operating as smoothly as it normally does.

•Fluids: While it's best to check all of your vehicle's fluids before beginning a road trip, it does not hurt to bring along some extra fluids just in case you start to run low while out on the road. Fluids to pack include motor oil, antifreeze, brake fluid, and windshield washer fluid. Include a funnel with these items so you can easily pour them in should you be running low. Pack an empty spray bottle as well so you have something to spray washer fluid from if a problem arises with your wiper blades.

•Wiper blades: Include an extra set of wiper blades in your automotive emergency kit. Maintaining wiper blades is an oft-overlooked component of vehicle maintenance, so bring along an extra set of blades should your existing blades succumb to wear and tear while you're on the road.

•Miscellaneous items: Some items that may not seem synonymous with road trips can come in handy should you find yourself in an emergency. Pack a blanket so you and your passengers can stay warm should your car break down at night. In addition, pack some energy bars and bottled water so no one gets too hungry or thirsty while waiting for help to arrive. It's also good to keep a pair of work gloves in your car so you can still use your tools or change a tire when the temperatures dip or your hands get sweaty on hot days.
