SERENITY FAMILY SERVICE SOCIETY - YOUR NOT-FOR-PROFIT SOCIETY

ARTICLE BY MLA SMITH

Submitted by Mark Smith, MLA for Drayton Valley

This past week, your United Conservative government wrapped up the spring sitting of the Legislature. This session saw the passage of several important pieces of legislation and many long hours of work. It also saw several new measures adopted to get Albertans back to work, diversify the economy, and make life more affordable for families. Here are some of the highlights!

We began the spring sitting by passing the first balanced budget Alberta has seen in nearly a decade. With this, we delivered on a key commitment to inspire investor confidence, control spending, and get our province's finances back on track.

We passed the Utility Commodity Rebate Act, which provides $150 in electricity rebates for two million households, farms, and small businesses – amounting to nearly $300 million in relief on high electricity bills. We also cut the provincial fuel tax for gasoline, diesel, and marked farm fuel. This has resulted in Albertans paying the lowest prices in the country for fuel.

We passed the Traffic Safety Amendment Act, which protects roadside workers by requiring all motorists travelling in the same direction to slow down to 60 kilometres per hour when vehicles with flashing lights – an important safety initiative.

And we passed the Continuing Care Act, which expands and modernizes continuing care at the same time as we provide funding for more than 1,500 new continuing care beds in the province.

Further, we continued making strategic investments in high-demand education programs to meet labour needs through the Alberta at Work initiative, ensuring post-secondary students have more opportunities to train close to home in the programs they choose, and supplying industry with the highly skilled and talented workforce they need for the future.

And we passed a critical private members' bill from Highwood MLA RJ Sigurdson – Bill 205, the Human Organ and Tissue Donation (Mandatory Referral) Amendment Act. The passage of this bill is incredibly important as organ failure and organ donation impacts the lives of so many Albertans. Organ donation is truly the ultimate gift of life, but changes were needed to improve the process. With this bill passing, there will be several amendments to the organ and tissue donation process, including the implementation of a mandatory referral process, improving agency guidelines, and improving education and awareness surrounding the process and importance of organ and tissue donation. Bill 205 will literally be a life saver.

The 2022 highway construction season is underway with nearly $1.4 billion being invested in 300 capital and highway improvement projects employing 12,000 Albertans. Budget 2022 invests $789.4 million in this year's Capital Plan for roads and bridges. Several major capital projects will be completed this year, including Highway 19 twinning, west segment, Highway 15 twinning and new bridge, and the Peace River bridge deck replacement project. We are building and maintaining the important infrastructure that makes Alberta a strong and vibrant place to live, raise a family and grow a business.

As we move into the summer season, our United Conservative team will remain laser focused on the priorities that matter to you and your family. I hope you have a great summer, and I look forward to reporting more good news soon.

WHAT MATTERS TO YOU

Submitted by MLA
Shane Getson

Early in my career I was told by a Senior Project Manager by the name of Keith Hanson that the two most important words in any language were a person's first and last name. Pronounce them correctly, spell them correctly and remember them. He also had another mantra that he drilled into me which was the Economy of words. Seems Ironic now that I ended up here, but in my former career, it was vital. The economy of words was to ensure we didn't waste time of the reader.

On projects, everything is time sensitive, and is scheduled. The most valuable thing you have is time, and it is continually managed.

Flying an aircraft, altitude, and fuel give you time in the air. The fuel is obvious, without it, you are a glider, and that is where the altitude comes in, the higher you are above terra firma, the more time you have to find a safe spot to land, what goes up, must come down, it's just a matter of time.

To me the most valuable thing that we possess and can give others is our time. We are born, and we die. We don't know how long we have, we should be cognizant that our time is finite, as are those around us. The less time we have, the more precious it becomes, not only to us, but what we give of it to others. I imparted this lesson on my kids. Back then I was away from home for weeks at a time, for years at a time, the days we had together were precious, and it was the most valuable thing that we had.

I was recently at a celebration of life for Mrs. Lori Florkeewich that took place out at the Carvel Hall, hearing how much she gave of herself to others, her community, her family, local not for profits, and to a number of political boards was simply awe inspiring. I had a chance to speak and thank Lori, and her family for the time she gave up to help me on my own board.

Time is precious and I hope that we can remember that here. We only have a limited amount before the next election, and Albertans expect us to make the most of it. Let's ensure we get the work done in the time we have left that will mean the most to them and park the "Partisan Politics" until next spring.

Canadian Author Visits Evansview

Submitted by GYPSD
Evansview School recognized Canadian Author's

Day on Wednesday, April 19, 2022. Teachers switched classes, chose their favourite Canadian author, and read a story to their 'new class'.

Students heard new stories and had the chance to interact with a different teacher than they normally see in their classroom. The teachers were excited to work with a different age group, and students learned some new facts about Canadian authors and now recognize the significant impact Canadian authors have on literacy around the world.

As a follow-up to Canadian Author's Day, Evansview had Canadian Author, Mike

Boldt, come to the school on Tuesday, May 3, 2022, as part of their Education Week activities. Mr. Boldt talked to each of the classes and led them through writing and illustration workshops. Mr. Boldt signed some books that were added to classroom libraries and each class had one student win a book that had been signed by Mr. Boldt.

Mr. Boldt's books include Bloop, Good Night Alligator, How to Grow A Dinosaur and many more titles that have been printed and distributed across North America.

Lawn & Garden

HELPFUL AND HARMFUL INSECTS

Although it's virtually impossible to count them, insects are the most diverse group of organisms on the planet. Nine hundred thousand different kinds of insects are known to exist. At any given time, it is estimated that there are around 10 quintillion individual insects living.

Gardeners grow frustrated when seeing their gardens infested with insects. In an effort to restore their gardens, homeowners might be tempted to eradicate any bug that moves in their yards. But gardeners would be wise to first learn which insects are hurting their gardens and which can actually help gardens in the long run.

Harmful

Certain insects can be dangerous to animals and plants. The following are a handful of insects that can threaten the vitality of gardens.

Aphids: These insects suck on the juice needed to sustain plants, particularly when they congregate.

Bald-faced hornet: Hornets tend to be an aggressive species that can sting repeatedly. Should you find a nest near an entertaining space or garden, it can cause trouble.

Carpenter ants: These ants will burrow into wood causing damage. They may compromise any wooden structure in and around a home.

Locusts: Various species of locust can damage plants and crops due to their voracious appetites. Treehoppers: These small, green insects mimic the look of leaves, and their appetites can affect crops and gardens.

Red pavement ant: As they feed on all manner of human food, these ants can quickly overtake areas with their staggering numbers and deliver painful bites.

Grasshoppers: Certain grasshoppers, like the red-legged grasshopper, can decimate food crops and transfer parasites to birds when eaten as prey.

Caterpillars: Many caterpillars, the precursor to adult moths, will feed constantly on leaves, stems and other parts of plants. The tobacco hornworm moth caterpillar can damage potato and tomato plants.

Helpful

Plants depend on insects to transfer pollen as they forage, and many insects are quite beneficial to have around. While some pollinate, others are predators of other pests.

Antlion: A foe of ants, they'll help eat and control ant populations and pollinate flowers. They pose no threat to humans, either.

Big dipper firefly: These colorful insects feast on earthworms, slugs and snails during the larval stage. Fireflies add drama to evening gardens with their twinkling lights.

Garden spiders: Although some spiders can be venomous, many are quite handy to have around the garden. They'll help control pest populations that can damage plants and crops.

Dragonflies: These aerial artists that zip around the yard are consuming smaller insects that would otherwise pester plants and humans.

Blue-winged wasp: This wasp attacks the larvae of Japanese beetles, helping to control beetle populations.

Bees and butterflies: Butterflies and bees are some of the best pollinators out there, and each can add whimsy to gardens.

GOLFER'S GUIDE

GOLF COURSES MANAGE PESTS TO PROTECT THEIR TURF

Golf courses are valuable green spaces in many communities, and the sport is enjoyed by Canadians of all ages.

We want our favourite course to be healthy, but this requires a lot of attention. Despite best efforts, sometimes golf courses are affected by pests. These can include turf diseases like dollar spot and snow mould, which affect normal growth of grass and can cause significant turf loss, according to experts. Turf insects feed on the grass and can inflict severe damage. Weeds are also a threat, because they compete with grass for moisture and affect the playability of a course.

To control pests, golf courses practice integrated pest management, using the right tool at the right time to treat an infestation. This includes pesticides, which are regulated by Health Canada to ensure they are safe and effective in controlling the pests they are designed to target. They help maintain healthy vegetation and playing surfaces, and also offer many environmental benefits.

Golf courses are often located in urbanized areas and can be valuable green spaces that help preserve habitats for wildlife and waterfowl. Data show that healthy turf and trees act as natural air conditioners by producing large amounts of oxygen, while removing carbon dioxide. Did you know that healthy turf grass can sequester almost 900 kilograms of carbon per hectare each year?

WARNING BUSINESSES OF BITCOIN SCAM

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

Alberta RCMP have received a number of complaints from businesses who have fallen victim to the Head Office Bitcoin scam. Over the past several months, fraudsters have been targeting businesses throughout the province in a sophisticated scam in order to receive Bitcoin currency, defrauding both employees and businesses out of thousands of dollars.

Staff would receive a call from a person claiming to be a regional or district manager. In many cases the fraudster has researched the names of staff and managers. The fraudster had detailed information about the operations of the businesses, including the names and roles of various staff persons and store policies. This familiarity with the stores convinces the employee that the fraudsters were who they claimed to be. The staff are told that an important shipment is imminent and receiving it is vital.

The staff are then advised that there has been a problem with the payment for the shipment and the only way to not delay it is an immediate payment in bitcoin.

A second caller claiming to be an employee of the shipping company then calls to confirm the shipment and provide a tracking number and advises that payment is required before delivery.

In some of the incidents, employees took money from the store to the bitcoin ATM. In the others incident, the employee took both funds from the store and from their own personal account to the bitcoin ATM to make the payment.

The first caller would stay on the line with each employee until they completed the bitcoin transaction.

It was only after completing the transaction that the employee realized they had fallen victim to professional fraudsters.

Alberta RCMP are encouraging businesses to protect themselves by providing in-house fraud awareness training and sharing warnings like this alert with their staff. Institute clear, two-step approval processes, using a code word or id number for financial transactions, and empower your employees to say "no" to potential frauds.

COMMUNITYVOICE
YOUR LOCAL NEWSPAPER

Submitted by Gerald Soroka, MP for Yellowhead

Gerald Soroka, Member of Parliament for Yellowhead, asked the following question in the House:

"Last week I questioned the minister about Kristen from Hinton, who, after waiting over two months, ended up having to pay express service to get her three sons' passports. The minister replied that if a person submits all required passport documents and Service Canada is outside service standards, the client should not be paying extra fees.

Will the minister confirm that Kristen and others who paid extra fees will receive a refund and no Canadian would pay extra fees due to this minister's incompetence?"

Reply:

Hon. Karina Gould (Minister of Families, Children and Social Development, Lib.):

Madam Speaker, as I said last week, that is correct. No Canadian should be paying extra fees if, in fact, they have submitted all the correct documents and everything is in order with their application, and if their application is not processed within the processing times.

If that is in fact the case, there is a refund process. I would be happy to follow up with the member opposite to share with him how he could share that with his constituents, but it is also available on the Government of Canada website.

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
