JOKE of the week

John was starving!! He was stuck in a small town, lost and hungry. He was happy when he saw a small restaurant coming up on his right. John quickly pulled over, parked his car, and walked inside. John noticed a blackboard with a sign written in yellow chalk, "Today's Special: Vegetable Soup with Fried Chicken and Grilled Vegetables." "I'll take the special", said John to the waiter when he came to take his order. A few minutes after receiving his order John called over the waiter, he was fuming mad. "IS THIS THE SPECIAL!? It says vegetable soup, BUT THERE ARE NO VEGETABLES! It says grilled vegetables, BUT THEY AREN'T GRILLED THEY ARE BAKED!?" And it says fried chicken, AND THE CHICKEN ISN'T FRIED!?" The waiter was not used to city folks and their attitudes and frankly he was not going to put up with this behavior. "My dear man," said the waiter looking down at John over his glasses, "that is what makes it so special!!!"

DID YOU KNOW?

Information on how LSAC establishes an Assessment:

The assessed value provided on your tax notice (land and improvements) is an estimate of what your property would have sold for on July 1st of the previous year. This means the assessed value on the tax notice reflects a market value already almost one year old.

The assessed value of each parcel is done from scratch every year. The prior year's assessment is not reused and does not influence a current year's assessment. When establishing values, the Assessment Department is legislated to use 12 - 36 months' worth of sales information and is required to assess property based on its condition as of December 31st. This year 36 months (3 years) of data was used.

To determine the assessed value of your property, the Assessment Department compares your property to similar properties that have sold in the County. The provincial government audits the assessed values to ensure proper valuation practices have been followed.

Please visit LSAC.ca/assessment for more information.

President's Message

A question that we get asked frequently is: Who qualifies as a "Veteran"? For the Royal Canadian Legion, a Veteran means any person who is serving or who has honourably served:

- in the Canadian Armed Forces, or
- in the Commonwealth or its wartime allies, or

• as a regular member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, or

• as a Peace Officer in a special duty area or on a special duty operation, or

• in the Merchant Navy or Ferry Command during wartime. If you are a Veteran, or you know someone who is, we would like to hear from you. One of our key goals for this year is to contact every Veteran that we can identify in our Legion's area. We want to check in with each Veteran to make sure that they are receiving all of the benefits that they are entitled to, to assist them with obtaining those benefits, and to offer them comradeship and respect in this busy and increasingly isolated world.

If you have any questions or concerns about our

SAFETY IN NUMBERS: WHY IT PAYS TO REPLACE HEADLIGHT BULBS IN PAIRS

When it comes to vehicle maintenance, the rule of two has long reigned among professional automotive technicians and driving safety advocates. In accordance to this rule, drivers replacing important parts in their cars and trucks, such as tires, brakes, shocks and wiper blades, should always do so in pairs.

Replacing parts in pairs can ensure vehicles are properly balanced and functioning safely. But it's not just tires, brakes and other big-ticket components that should be replaced in pairs. Vehicle lighting plays an integral role in keeping drivers and their passengers safe, and motorists should exercise the same caution regarding their vehicles' headlights, taillights and turn signals that they do when maintaining the rest of their cars and trucks.

Why replace aging headlight bulbs?

Few drivers include headlight bulb replacement in their vehicle maintenance routines. But old headlight bulbs can drastically compromise visibility at night, when drivers' visual acuity is naturally reduced by as much as 70 percent. As headlight bulbs age, the effects of exposure to sunlight, ozone and pollution can significantly reduce their light output. According to Philips Automotive, a leading manufacturer of vehicle lighting components, headlight bulbs begin to project significantly less light within two to three years of their initial usage, producing dimmer light outputs that compromise the safety of drivers and their passengers. For example, new headlight bulbs capable of projecting 240-foot beams in front of a vehicle may see that projection dwindle to just 160 feet within two to three years.

Why replace bulbs two at a time?

In an effort to promote the importance of changing headlight bulbs two at a time, Philips developed the "Change In Pairs" safety campaign, which aims to educate motorists about the dangers of dimming lights while promoting the many reasons that changing bulbs in pairs makes the road safer for all travelers. To support this safety initiative, Philips also packages its Upgrade Headlight Bulbs in pairs.

Though replacing two headlight bulbs when only one is dimming may seem unwarranted, maintaining a consistent light output in both headlights makes the road safer for drivers, their passengers and oncoming motorists. When only one bulb is replaced, the resulting light output can be both unbalanced and unpredictable, providing inadequate lighting that can compromise driver visibility. In addition, oncoming motorists may experience difficulty seeing vehicles with just one headlight operating at full capacity, and some may even mistake oncoming cars and trucks for motorcycles, creating positioning issues for drivers on both sides of the yellow line.

How else can drivers improve visibility?

In addition to replacing headlight bulbs in pairs every two to three years, drivers can take the following proactive measures to reduce the likelihood that their vision will be compromised while on the road.

· Replace worn out wiper blades. Wiper blades need to be changed each season or in three-month intervals. Rubber wiper blades can grow brittle rather quickly, potentially compromising driver visibility at times when they need their vision to be as strong as possible, such as when rain or snow is falling.

· Clean interior glass and mirrors. Over time, interior glass can develop a film-like buildup that reduces vision and creates hazy reflections from the sun. Smokers may notice such buildup is especially thick in their vehicles. Periodically clean interior glass and mirrors to prevent this film from compromising your vision.

· Don't hang accessories in your vehicle. Fuzzy dice, photos and other items hung on rearview mirrors can prove distracting and block you from seeing the road.

FOLLOW THESE CHILD SAFETY SEAT REGULATIONS

Protecting young children in automobiles should be of the utmost importance for parents when on the road. Studies have shown that children who are seated in age- and size-appropriate vehicle restraint systems may be at a significantly lower risk of sustaining serious or fatal injuries during motor vehicle crashes, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Traffic crashes account for the leading cause of death among children in the United States. Because of their diminutive statures, kids who suffer injuries in motor vehicle accidents may fair far worse than adults who suffer similar injuries.

While many parents understand the need for proper child safety seats, keeping up-to-date on regulations can be challenging. However, infant seats, convertible seats and booster seats can mean the difference between minor injuries and fatality in the event of accidents.

Canadian regulations

By law, Canadian children must be secured in a car seat made for their weight and height. As regulations vary in the provinces and territories, it is essential that drivers read the provincial/territorial regulations for laws in their areas.

According to Transport Canada, there are four stages of safety seat usage for children. Stage 1 begins with rear-facing seats placed at a 45-degree angle so that the baby's head is supported. When the child outgrows the car seat's weight and height limits, he or she can move on to a forward-facing seat (Stage 2). However, it is best to leave the child rear-facing as long as possible to prevent head injury.

Forward-facing seats have harness straps that are more narrow than vehicle seat belts and fit children's small shoulders. Children should be snugly harnessed. The seat also should be attached to the vehicle's Universal Anchorage System (UAS) so that the seat cannot move more than one inch (25 centimeters) in any direction.

Booster seats are the next stage (3). High-backed booster seats provide more support than backless seats. Booster seats should be used as long as possible, until children outgrow the height and weight for the seat. Even then, another booster seat may be necessary before straight seatbelt use; which is Stage 4.

Proper safety seat use reduces the propensity for child injuries.

OUR LOCAL SCHOOLS THE HEART OF THE COMMUNITY SPECIAL PLACES WORTH SAVING

Submitted by MLA Shane Getson

As the MLA in our area, I unfortunately attended the discussion for a school closure over in Seba Beach. Prior to adulthood, the last time I was in that gymnasium I was just a kid on the high school basketball team playing there in a tournament. That gym, and that school, had seemed so big to me. As an adult, the Seba Beach school gymnasium, like my own home gymnasium in Niton Junction had mysteriously shrunk in size. What once looked so big to me had somehow become so small, but the recognition of what these schools mean to their communities and the surrounding area had never been so apparent.

There was recently a meeting held in Sangudo to discuss the future of that K-9 school; unfortunately, I was not given a formal invitation but was forwarded a note by a concerned constituent. I was unable to attend in person as I was tied up in Edmonton reviewing the provincial budget on the Resource Stewardship Committee, and I had my office manager attend on my behalf. Based on the information she provided me, my position has not wavered on the importance of our small schools; they indeed need to be viewed as beneficial to the community for so many reasons, not just in the narrow view that a school division number cruncher may take.

When I look at the school as the MLA, it's not just from an education standpoint, but from an economic perspective that goes outside of the line of sight that the school division may have. I look at not only the emotional attachment, the history, and the school pride as it were, but at the impact on the community and the region. If a community is to remain viable, a school is high on the list of priorities. In addition, if the last couple of years have taught us anything, the delivery of education is far more flexible, we have access to online learning through digital resources which mitigates the need for extended bus-sing time or pooling into the larger centers. In short, we don't need to hollow out our communities because we have a narrow view on a ledger sheet.

Equally, when faced with decision making, there is no reason to try and throw those who were not invited to be in the room under the bus when it comes to the topic of funding. There are several models for education delivery, alternate funding, and yes even looking at the "big picture" of what a school means to a community, and how that community is indeed a part of a larger economic corridor, worthy of consideration for growth and development.

I was fortunate enough to lead a Career Education Task Force for the Minister of Education, and we are now just wrapping up a final report for her. Contained within those pages are several recommendations that I believe can be implemented to alleviate the conventional "decision-making" process that is being thrown about. I look forward to engaging with those who want to discuss the reasons why we should keep the little hearts of our communities beating and not allow lack of imagination or tunnel vision to hollow them out.

Being from Alberta, growing up on a small farm, and attending a small school certainly created challenges for me along the way, but it has also given me a number of skill sets that have served me well over my different careers. As the MLA, this background has certainly provided me with perspective to, perhaps, help correct a course of action that would be to the detriment of a community, and to our region. These little places are worth our attention, worth taking a second look, worth the effort to come up with an alternate plan; perhaps along the way using some non-conventional thinking to solve the problem, and to help save that beating heart.

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
