on the big yellow bus along with their parents. Not only did the participants receive a stuffed Buddy to take home, they also met some new friends.

Presentations were held in Edson and Hinton.

Director Van Neck also plans to visit all the kinder classes across the Division over the next couple of months with an in-class only introduction to the program.

The bus ride to and from school is an important part of a child's school day. Even children who do not use the bus to get to or from school will probably ride a school bus at some point throughout the school year. Whether they are on a ride to school or a field trip, all children should be familiar with the safety rules relating to school buses.

BOARD MEETING BRIEF

Trustees attended the Canadian School Boards

Superintendent Lewis and members of the senior team attended the five graduation events in the Division, acknowledging the resilience of this particular cohort of graduates; they began high school in a pandemic and ended grade 12 in wildfire evacuations and floods. Despite these challenges, the students remained committed to their learning and career goals and will be starting their post-secondary plans in the next few weeks!

The Board approved both the Superintendent and Board goals for 2023/24. As per Board Policy 2 and 12, the Board and Superintendent participate in a facilitated review of their work every June and set goals for the next school year.

The Board recognized Harry Collinge High School Principal Glen Allen for receiving the Alberta Distinguished Leadership Award from the Alberta Teachers' Association's Council for School Leadership.

Superintendent Lewis, ATA Local President Jessica Smeall, and Crescent Valley School Principal Ryan Maghun shared their appreciation for Mr. Allen for his successful career, mentorship, and educational leadership in Hinton.

Members of the Board spent the summer learning,

POPULAR GOLF COURSES AROUND THE WORLD

The Masters Tournament is the first of golf's four major championships in the calendar year. Competitors tee off at the Augusta National Golf Club in Augusta, GA, in April 2020. Americans Tiger Woods and Patrick Reed are the two most recent Masters champions, and fans are already eager to see who earns the fabled green jacket this year.

Televised golf competitions often inspire people to hit the links. People with a passion for golf may want to check out some of the top courses in the world, as ranked by leading golf resources and experts.

- Ballybunion: This Irish course was touted as "nothing less than the finest seaside course" by famed golf writer Herbert Warren Wind. The course hosted the 2000 Irish Open, but lack of other tournaments can be attributed to its remote, albeit beautiful, location

- Cypress Point: This club sits at the foothills of the Santa Lucia Mountains at the tip of the Monterey Peninsula in California. Located in coastal dunes and on rocky coastlines, Cypress Point is often noted for its dramatic holes along the Pacific Ocean.

- Pine Valley: Located in Pine Valley, NJ, this course, which is more than 100 years old, boasts some formidable hazards with sophisticated green expanses.

- St. Andrew's: This historic course in Scotland has hosted the Open Championship (once known as The British Open) a record 29 times. Historians believe golf originated in Scotland, and people have been playing on this course since the 15th century. Massive greens, cavernous bunkers and a brilliant layout contribute to its distinguished history.

- Shinnecock Hills: This course in Southampton, NY, is a very old club built in the tradition of Scottish courses. This was likely the inaugural American golf course design, and the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club was one of the five founding members of the United States Golf Association.

- Augusta National: Home to the Masters, Augusta is considered a golf paradise by many. The sheer beauty of Augusta has made it a staple on many golfers' bucket lists, even if only a few may get to walk its fairways with club in hand.

Golf has a storied history, and that history is on display at various jaw-dropping courses across the globe.

TIPS ON SHOPPING FOR NEW APPLIANCES

Now may be the right time to make large appliance purchases. Know the product before visiting the store.

As the weather turns cooler, outdoor improvements become less practical. Homeowners' thoughts may turn to projects they can tackle inside of the home. Now may be the time to consider the purchase of new appliances that can be the finishing touches to renovated spaces.

Fall is prime time to purchase new large appliances. Manufacturers typically unveil their latest models during September and October. At this point, prices on older models will be reduced to make room for new ones. By the end of the year, any older models that have not yet been cleared out will be discounted further. Even though the end-of-the year deals will be better, the selection may be limited the longer you wait.

It is best never to wait until an appliance is on its last leg for repair or replacement. Then consumers do not have the luxury to price shop nor find items that include the features they desire most. Here are some other buying tips.

Research

Shoppers should begin their research at home before they even enter a store. Make a list of features you want in the appliance, which helps narrow down the playing field and better focus your purchasing decisions.

Once you have a list handy, speak with friends or family members about their experiences with brands and/or retailers. Ask about which features they like the most and how often they have had to call for repairs. If they could do things differently, what would those things be?

Know your space
Perhaps you are familiar with the adage to measure twice and cut once. The same can be said for measuring prior to purchasing an appliance. Be sure you know the exact measurements of the space that will house the new appliance. Take into consideration the clearance needed to open doors, such as with a refrigerator or front-loading washing machine. It can be a waste of time and money to have an appliance delivered only to find it doesn't fit at the time of installation.

Energy savings Consider appliances that reduce energy usage. Energy Star® appliances are produced in adherence to international standards for energy efficiency. The program was started more than 20 years ago by the EPA and the Department of Energy. Since then, other countries have adopted the program. Appliances that feature the Energy Star® logo use 20 to 30 percent less energy than required by typical federal standards. Homeowners who purchase qualifying appliances may be eligible for tax breaks and other incentives.

Consider your lifestyle

It is easy to be overwhelmed and awestruck by the number of appliances available. You may desire the biggest and best there is, but if you are not a superstar in the kitchen, you may not need the commercial stove. A bachelor may not require an oversized washing machine.

Do your research and comparison shop so you won't have any regrets later on.

fall HOME RENO GUIDE

HOW TO PREPARE A HOME FOR ELDERLY RESIDENTS

Upon reaching retirement age, new retirees may face decisions regarding their living arrangements. Some seniors may opt to stay put, while others may want to downsize their homes to save money and relieve themselves of the burdens of maintaining larger homes.

But those are not the only situations seniors find themselves in. Some seniors realize they can no longer care for themselves without assistance. In such instances, seniors may opt for assisted living facilities or choose to move in with a relative, such as a grown son or daughter. While assisted living facilities are designed to meet the needs of the elderly, young men and women welcoming seniors into their homes may need to take on some home improvement projects to ensure their homes are as safe as possible for elderly residents.

· Convert a room on the first floor into a bedroom. While this may not apply to all seniors, some men and women struggle with stairs as they age, and that can make it difficult for them to fully participate in a household. Homeowners with an extra room to spare can convert a room on the first floor of their homes into a bedroom so seniors won't have to climb up and down stairs throughout the day. That ease of accessibility to the primary floor of the house encourages seniors to be active participants in a household. If possible, choose an area that is close to a first-floor bathroom.

· Take steps to make bathrooms safer. The National Institute on Aging says that more than one in three seniors over age 65 fall each year, and 80 percent of those falls take place in the bathroom. Slippery tile floors can make it difficult for seniors to navigate bathrooms safely, and bathtubs and shower stalls present additional challenges. Install grab bars on bathroom walls and next to toilets to provide support. In addition, consider installing a shower chair or bench and removable shower nozzle in the shower or tub so seniors can sit down while they bathe and rinse without having to stand up on slippery surfaces. Make sure any mats around bathtubs and sinks are nonskid to reduce the risk of falls even further.

· Install an extra phone line or two. While kids and adults between the ages of 18 and 50 may never use the landlines in their homes, many seniors still rely on traditional telephones as their primary means of communicating with the outside world. Install extra landlines in your home, including in seniors' bedrooms, so they can more readily access the phone should they fall and need to call for emergency help. Phones in seniors' bedrooms may also provide some additional privacy to seniors who don't want to carry on phone conversations in busy areas of the home, such as the kitchen or living room. Such lines may also reduce feelings of isolation.

· Prioritize accessibility when storing items. When storing groceries, books, magazines, or other items seniors are likely to use, choose locations that are accessible to seniors. Avoid storing items on the top shelf of pantries, bookcases or entertainment centers, as seniors with limited mobility may not be able to reach them.

Many seniors move in with their adult children to make their golden years safer and more enjoyable and manageable. Such a change in living arrangements may necessitate some changes on the part of homeowners so they can ensure their homes are safe for seniors.

Association Congress in July, the focus of which was Indigenous Education. In August, Trustees attended the Public School Board Council professional learning event in Medicine Hat, where they participated in the Blanket Exercise and visited the Saamis Tepee.

Superintendent Lewis shared highlights from her summer work, including her and members of GYPSD's Division Leadership Team attendance at the College of Alberta School Superintendent's Summer Learning Conference. Superintendent Lewis spoke about her appreciation for the principals across GYPSD for their work in their schools to support student growth and achievement.

All GYPSD staff will be coming together for Kick-Off 2023 on August 30th. The annual professional learning event will begin with a relevant and practical Keynote address from Dr. Shimi Kang, after which staff will spend the rest of the day in specific, targeted learning sessions created/facilitated by their team leaders to address their contextual professional development needs.

Department Heads from central services shared a few of their summer projects, including the final work done in preparation for the roll-out of the Digital Reporting platform being introduced across GYPSD's elementary schools beginning this fall and the launch of GYPSD's First Rider Program - Buddy's Grande Yellow Adventure!

Board Chair Karpluk acknowledged the date for the National Recognition of Treaty Six, pointing out the importance of treaty recognition within Truth and Reconciliation. In September, GYPSD schools will recognize Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day to ensure past trauma and the rich histories of Indigenous peoples are taught and understood, and that Indigenous culture, language, and teachings are valued and embedded in education.

The Board Chair also acknowledged the theme for this year's Kick Off Event: We've Got Your Back. The theme reflects the Division's pride for GYPSD employees' commitment to their communities over the past year of wildfires and floods - so many GYPSD staff stepped forward to help within their communities.

GYPSD high schools will be welcoming a new member to their staff this fall - their Wellness Navigator. Wellness navigators will be working alongside administration, Family School Liaison Counselors, and other student support specialists to ensure every high school student is supported through their academic and social/emotional journey.

The initiative is possible through the Mental Health in Schools Grant the Division received last spring and is a welcome addition to the Division's Pyramid of Supports.

Through their advocacy focus, the Board continues to urge the province to address gaps in services and supports for rural students and their families.

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
