BUILDING UP AGRICULTURAL SOCIETIES

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta's government is helping agricultural societies make major facility repairs and upgrades that will improve the quality of life for rural communities.

Agricultural societies play a significant role in the social life of Alberta towns, villages and rural communities. Throughout the year, they can be counted on to host community events from farmers markets and craft fairs to children's programs and summer rodeos.

The 2023 Agricultural Societies Infrastructure Revitalization Program is granting $2.5 million to 34 ag societies to update existing facilities like community halls, arenas and rodeo grounds. Modern buildings and amenities encourage community involvement and growth.

"Agricultural societies play a key role in improving rural communities and well-maintained facilities support their continued success. With these funds, ag societies across Alberta will be able to expand programs and keep their spaces safe, modern and accessible. These facilities play an essential role in rural communities, offering residents and visitors opportunities to gather, build connections and engage with their neighbours."

RJ Sigurdson, Minister of Agriculture and Irrigation

Each year, Alberta's government supports the work of agricultural societies through the Agricultural Societies Infrastructure Revitalization Program. Individual projects may receive funding between $10,000 and $100,000.

The most common types of facilities applied for under the program were arenas, curling rinks, community halls and grandstands. Some of the approved projects the funding will support include roof repairs, kitchen and bathroom renovations, window and door upgrades, and increasing accessibility.

"We're pleased to see a strong uptake of this new capital grant by ag societies across Alberta. These facilities are gathering spaces for a range of activities, including farmers markets, rural fairs, team sports and rodeos. The facility upgrades that are now possible with this funding will immensely benefit rural communities."

Tim Carson, CEO, Alberta Association of Agricultural Societies

"On behalf of the Madden Ag society, I would like to thank the provincial government along with the Alberta Association of Agricultural Societies for their financial support to help maintain and enhance our wonderful community centre. This funding makes it possible to both replace the flooring in our commercial kitchen as well as upgrade our curling rink with newer energy-saving liners to help reduce operating costs and improve the overall quality of the ice."

Dustin Helm, president, Madden & District Agricultural Society

Alberta's government will continue to support agricultural societies through the Agricultural Societies Infrastructure Revitalization Program in 2024, with the intake opening later this year.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT FOR ADULT LEARNING IN LAC STE. ANNE COUNTY

Submitted by Odette Lloyd, NorQuest College

NorQuest College is conducting community-based research in Lac Ste. Anne County to identify adult learning needs. This research will help us provide meaningful, local and accessible adult learning opportunities to residents of the County.

In partnership with other adult learning organizations based out of Evansburg and Stony Plain, we hope to identify:

- Language and literacy training needs for adults in the region
- Skills development gaps and priorities

among employers and other organizations

- Trends or changes in adult learner needs
- Supports we can provide to adult learners, organizations, and employers in the County

Data for this research will be collected through a short online survey as well as in-person focus groups at the Alberta Beach Public Library on January 25th. Two focus groups will be conducted: one for local employers, and one for community members and the agencies supporting them.

Residents from the area who complete the online survey can enter a draw to win a brand new iPad. Those who attend one of our in-person focus groups will receive a $10.00 gift card.

For individuals who have limited access to internet, or who may have difficulties with online forms, they can phone the NorQuest Community Adult Learning Centre in Whitecourt at 780-778-3691, and we will conduct the survey over the phone.

This community-based research has been approved by the University of Alberta's Research Ethics Board, which has no direct involvement in this study (University of Alberta Ethics ID:

Pro00134316)

The Principal Investigator for this research is Alana Johnson: alana.johnson@norquest.ca

Please contact Odette Lloyd, CALP Team Lead, for further information or enquiries.

GRANTS GIVE ALBERTA NON-PROFITS A SCORING CHANCE

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta's government is supporting 271 non-profit organizations to upgrade, expand, renovate and build new community spaces.

Through the Community Facility Enhancement Program (CFEP), Alberta's government provides funding for community groups to invest in facilities that support art, culture, heritage, sport and recreation. This in turn ensures that Albertans can access the programs and services they are looking for close to home. For every CFEP grant dollar invested in a community, up to $3 is raised in the community. In the 2023-24 fiscal year, Alberta's government is investing more than $42 million in communities through CFEP.

The Sturgeon Hockey Club is one of the many community organizations receiving support in 2023-2024. Each year, the Sturgeon Hockey Club serves Legal and area citizens, providing them with the opportunity to play the good old hockey game that so many Albertans love.

Alberta's government is proud to provide the assist to the Sturgeon Hockey Club and looks forward to seeing what work and services the staff and volunteers at the hockey club will be able to create with this investment. A $1 million grant from CFEP will go to improving the Legal Arena, a focal project for local youth and sports.

"The Sturgeon Hockey Club is very excited for the planned improvements that are slated for the Legal Arena. The Legal Arena is critical to the success and longevity of the Sturgeon Hockey Club, and these improvements will make a huge impact for not only the children and families of the Sturgeon Hockey Club but for the entire region. We can't thank the Alberta government enough for awarding the hockey club this grant."

Gene Connors, president, Sturgeon Hockey Club

CFEP funds a variety of facility enhancement projects across the province, including 41 projects that support the construction or redevelopment of public playgrounds. Additionally, funding from this year's program will support new or expanded facilities for organizations like the Crowsnest Historical Society, Friends Society of the Sir Alexander Galt Museum and Archives, the Bower Place Community Association and the Village of Nampa Library Board. These organizations, and many more, provide meaningful programming for Albertans of all ages and backgrounds.

"Investing in community recreation infrastructure binds communities together, builds community spirit and provides new opportunities for residents and our youth to get active in sports. These rehabilitation projects across the province create economic growth by helping spur the desire for Albertans to visit new areas of the province, whether it's for a hockey tournament or a weekend getaway."

Joseph Schow, Minister of Sport and Tourism

HOW TO AVOID WEDDING RECEPTION SEATING MISTAKES

Weddings are great opportunities for people to gather and celebrate the melding of two families into one. Weddings are a melting pot, and while the ultimate goal is for all guests invited to mingle and have a good time, preexisting relationships may cause some wedding-day interactions to be strained. However, with careful planning and some best behavior on the parts of all involved, getting hitched can go off without a hitch.

It's possible for guests who may have tumultuous pasts to keep the peace, but this also can be ensured through careful seating arrangements. This is just one factor couples need to consider when deciding where guests will sit and dine at receptions. It's important to avoid some common mistakes.

Mistake #1: Not having a seating plan. Let guests sit where they want and chaos may ensue. People may think they're entitled to certain seats, may hop into seats vacated by someone getting up to use the restroom or any number of other scenarios. Seating arrangements also ensure everyone is accounted for across the room.

Mistake #2: Seating families separately. Unless there are rifts between certain family members, it's best to seat parents and children at the same tables.

Mistake #3: Trying to force new friendships. Avoid trying to figure out who will get along by creating a potpourri table. A cousin in a band will not necessarily want to sit next to your coworker who plays guitar simply because they have a shared love of music. A wedding is not the time to try to create new friendships. If it's meant to be, they'll connect in a more organic way.

How To Avoid Wedding Reception Seating Mistakes

Mistake #4: The dreaded kids' table. Young children can probably get away with sitting at a dedicated kids' table, although it may mean their parents have to interrupt their experiences by checking on their kids throughout the night. A bigger faux pas is to sit teenagers or twentysomethings at the kids table even if they seem like youngsters to you. Set a strict cut-off age for a children's table.

Mistake #5: Being too strict in seating. It's one thing to direct couples or singletons to specific tables, quite another to assign specific seats. Do not dictate exactly where at the table a guest should sit. Some people arrive early, others late, and it is up to them to work out how to arrange themselves at the table.

Mistake #6: Failing to get family feedback. Always check with your parents and future in-laws as resources about how to seat certain guests. They'll likely know who will make the best table-mates, especially if couples are not familiar with everyone on the guest list.

Mistake #7: Not being aware of disabilities or needs. Be conscious of guests' needs. An elderly relative may not be comfortable in front of the DJ table. A person in a wheelchair may need easy access to and from the reception room. It's important to be mindful of these special needs.

A seating plan for wedding receptions is an important consideration so that every guest can feel comfortable.
