JOKE of the week

A man and his wife were having some problems at home and were giving each other the silent treatment. The next week the man realized that he would need his wife to wake him at 5:00 am for an early morning business flight to Chicago. Not wanting to be the first to break the silence, he finally wrote on a piece of paper, "Please wake me at 5:00 am." The next morning the man woke up, only to discover it was 9:00am, and that he had missed his flight. Furious, he was about to go and see why his wife hadn't woken him when he noticed a piece of paper by the bed ...

it said... "It is 5:00am; wake up."

THE FUTURE OF HEALTH CARE IS IN ALBERTANS' HANDS

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta's government is launching a series of provincewide in-person engagement sessions with health care workers and Albertans to help shape the future of health care.

As part of the government's ongoing efforts to refocus the health care system, Albertans are encouraged to register for one of the upcoming in-person engagement sessions, which start on Jan. 23. These sessions are an opportunity for open conversations about the challenges, solutions and innovations that will help build a stronger health care system.

Collaborating with front-line health care workers, regional partners and Albertans is crucial to creating a health system that better supports workers and improves patient care. The input, experiences and feedback received from Albertans will help create a more effective health care system that is there for Albertans when and where they need it.

Members of Alberta's government will attend these sessions wherever possible, including Minister of Health Adriana LaGrange, Minister of Seniors, Community and Social Services Jason Nixon, Minister of Mental Health and Addiction Dan Williams, and Parliamentary Secretary for Rural Health Martin Long.

Health care workers and members of the public are encouraged to register online for an in-person session in their area. Further engagement plans will be announced in the coming weeks. In addition to public sessions, there will be dedicated engagement with Indigenous leaders and other key health care partners. Regularly updated information about new and ongoing engagement sessions is available on the government's online "Shape the way" page.

Minister LaGrange will also be visiting hospitals and acute care facilities across the province throughout this engagement and continuing into the spring. She will hear first-hand from clinical staff and front-line health care workers as she works to identify ways to make both short- and long-term improvements to health care delivery in the province.

INDIGENOUS EXCELLENCE

Submitted by GYPSD

A child's sense of belonging to their community is critical to a positive Indigenous identity. It is enriched by sharing cultural values, social norms, support and guidance, celebrations, ceremonies, language, and gatherings (Ullrich, 2019).

GYPSD ensures that Indigenous perspectives are appropriately included in all programs of study offered in our schools. Indigenous Pathways Lead Teachers are in each school to assist all staff in learning more about the history and the legacy of Residential Schools, the Treaties, and the history of Indigenous peoples in order to better meet the needs of Indigenous and Métis students. Indigenous Pathways Lead Teacher Raeanne Miller at Crescent Valley School in Hinton is committed to connecting with their Indigenous students and community. Along with providing many resources and supports, she has designed beautiful bulletin board displays focusing on Indigenous identity.

Indigenous Pathways Lead Teachers also annually nominate a number of deserving students for the Honouring Spirit: Indigenous Student Awards sponsored by the Alberta School Boards Association. These awards are intended to recognize First Nations, Métis and Inuit students who model strength and commitment in pursuing their personal education path and embrace their gifts, strengths and potential while celebrating the ways of their people.

UCP GOVERNMENT'S BIG WIN IN CUTTING RED TAPE

Submitted by MLA Andrew Boitchenko

For the past several years, our United Conservative government has been steadfastly committed to cutting red tape – recognizing the negative impact it has on Alberta families and businesses.

Under the NDP, Alberta was one of the worst jurisdictions in Canada for red tape, getting a failing grade on the Canadian Federation of Business' (CFIB) Red Tape Report Card. In 2019, we promised to do better and cut red tape by one-third. Today, we are celebrating that achievement, as well as getting a grade of 'A' on the CFIB's Red Tape Report Card for the fourth year in a row.

The significance of the work we've done on the red tape reduction file cannot be overstated, as it not only reflects our government's responsiveness to the needs of businesses but also translates to tangible benefits for Alberta families. By simplifying procedures, eliminating redundancies, and embracing modernization, we've managed to save Albertans a staggering $2.75 billion since 2019. With over 200,000 pieces of red tape slashed, we're not only cutting through the thicket of red tape, but we're also laying the foundation for a stronger and more prosperous Alberta.

Through this work, Alberta is also addressing affordability concerns that are top-of-mind for Albertans right now. Every piece of red tape that is eliminated represents more money in Albertans' pockets and more time in Albertans' lives. As Minister of Service Alberta and Red Tape Reduction Dale Nally stated, "Our attitude about red tape is simple: when we find it, we cut it. We're proud that we've hit our one-third milestone, but we're not done yet."

The significance of Alberta's leadership in red tape reduction is not lost on the CFIB, whose director of interprovincial affairs, Keyli Loeppky, stated, "The Alberta government consistently demonstrates that with strong political leadership, progress can be made to reduce red tape for small businesses and Albertans. While the government has made significant progress, we further challenge them to make red tape reduction part of the solution in other areas like health care and housing."

Reducing red tape has played a pivotal role in fueling Alberta's economic prosperity. Over the past five years, our government has been steadfast in our commitment to lightening the regulatory load for Albertans. This has resulted in tangible benefits such as job creation, skill enhancement, and innovation and investment. This proactive approach has set Alberta apart from other provinces, with a dedicated focus on collaborating with job creators to identify and eliminate unnecessary bureaucratic hurdles.

The journey towards a leaner, more efficient government is an ongoing endeavor. We encourage any Albertan who has an idea for red tape reduction to submit to us at Alberta.ca/cut-red-tape. Our province has proven that by working together, we can build an Alberta that is better for everyone.

SUDOKU

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!
