GETTING ALBERTANS BACK TO WORK

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta's government is investing $33 million in training programs to help unemployed and underemployed Albertans gain the skills needed to rejoin the workforce.

Through the Training for Work program, Alberta's government has awarded millions in new contracts during the 2024-25 fiscal year. These programs are providing skills training and employment supports for more than 5,000 Albertans across the province over the next four years. These investments don't just support individuals – they strengthen families, communities and Alberta's entire economy. Training for Work programs offer skill development and

JOKE of the week

Upon entering a little country store, the stranger noticed a sign warning, "Danger! Beware of dog!" posted on the glass door. Inside, he noticed a harmless old hound dog asleep on the floor beside the cash register. "Is that the dog folks are supposed to beware of?" he asked the owner.

"Yep, that's him," came the reply. The stranger couldn't help but be amused. "That certainly doesn't look like a dangerous dog to me. Why in the world would you post that sign?"

"Because," the owner explained, "Before I posted that sign, people kept tripping over him."

employment services to unemployed Albertans in more than 50 communities across Alberta. Some programs offer virtual access to ensure all Albertans can get the training they need to propel their careers into the future.

“Alberta needs more skilled workers to meet the labour market demands of our growing economy. Training for Work helps unemployed or underemployed Albertans get the skills and support they need to get back into the workforce or upskill into new roles, while also assisting Alberta’s employers in filling high-demand positions with job-ready workers.”

Matt Jones, Minister of Jobs, Economy and Trade

In addition to helping fill labour market gaps in high-demand sectors like construction and health care, the Training for Work program helps offer personalized supports to meet the needs of job seekers and local employers. The Training for Work program remains vital to creating sustainable employment opportunities to strengthen Alberta’s labour market.

“BGS Career Ventures is proud to deliver Training for Work programs that help Albertans overcome employment barriers and build meaningful long-term careers. Through our JobPLUS Transition to Employment Services and JobCO Workplace Training programs, we’ve helped hundreds of Albertans including youth, older workers, newcomers and others facing challenges, connect to the labour market across a wide range of industries.”

Steve McGean, managing partner, BGS Career Ventures

In 2024-25, Training for Work programs were added to 23 communities across Alberta under four subcategories: Integrated Training, Immigrant Bridging, Transition to Employment Services and Workplace Training.

- Integrated Training programs provide industry-recognized skills, hands-on experience and job search support to help Albertans re-enter the workforce.

- Immigrant Bridging programs help newcomers get their credentials recognized and use their skills and education in Alberta’s labour market.

- Transition to Employment Services offers personalized support, including career counseling, job matching and up to $7,000 for short-term training and work exposure – to help Albertans rejoin the workforce.

- Workplace Training links unemployed Albertans with employers for on-the-job training, wage reimbursements, and up to $7,000 for off-site training to fill skill gaps and support long-term employment.

Alberta’s government is opening doors to opportunity by expanding training programs and tailoring support – helping thousands of Albertans get back to work or upskill, while connecting employers with the talent they need to grow. These investments reinforce Alberta’s commitment to building a resilient, responsive workforce that is meeting the needs of a growing and diversifying economy.

CHECK THE BOX, SAVE A LIFE

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Starting next year, Alberta's T1 tax form will include a check box so Albertans can request information on the importance of organ and tissue donation.

Hundreds of Albertans are waiting for life-saving organ or tissue transplants. By making it easier to learn more about donation, Alberta's government is helping raise awareness and potentially increasing the number of registered donors across the province.

Starting with the 2025 tax year, Alberta's T1 tax form will include a check box that allows Albertans to ask for more information about organ and tissue donation. Those who check the box will receive an email from the provincial government with details about how donation works in Alberta and how to register their wishes.

"This simple step can help save lives. The more Albertans who register, the more patients and families can hold on to hope for a second chance. We hope this change encourages more Albertans to start the conversation and register their wishes."

Adriana LaGrange, Minister of Health

This initiative builds on Bill C-210, introduced by former Alberta MLA and member of Parliament Len Webber. The bill, which received royal assent in June 2021, allows provinces to add a donation information check box to federal tax forms. Alberta is following the lead of British Columbia and Ontario. Ontario has seen a 32 per cent increase in registrations since adding the check box.

In addition, organ and tissue donation programming will now fall under Acute Care Alberta, ensuring provincewide coordination and enhancing the efficiency of the donation and transplant system.

Alberta's government is committed to raising awareness about organ and tissue donation. Albertans can learn more about organ and tissue donation, and register their wishes on the Alberta Organ and Tissue Donation Registry at GiveLifeAlberta.ca.

$707K LIGHTNING LOTTO WIN STRIKES IN ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE!

Submitted by Western Canada Lottery Corporation

"It doesn't feel real!"

Candice MacDonald and Hughie MacKay won $707,422.70 on the April 3 LIGHTNING LOTTO draw!

"I look at the win tracker all the time," MacKay said. "If the jackpot is big, I buy [a LIGHTNING LOTTO ticket] on the way to work and one on the way home!"

On this particular occasion, he saw the instant-win jackpot was sitting at just over $700,000.

"I texted my partner and told her I was going to win the jackpot on the way home," he chuckled.

Little did he know, it would actually be true. A LIGHTNING LOTTO win struck for the Rocky Mountain House locals!

"I was like, 'No way, I won!'" he said. "The cashier didn't even notice right away!"

"I called Candice to tell her, and she didn't believe me, so I had to Facetime her to show her the ticket!" he continued.

MacKay and MacDonald are very excited about all the ways they could possibly spend the win and are already making plans.

"The top of the bucket list is a trip to Nashville to see the Grand Ole Opry!" MacDonald said. "We're also going to go to Mexico together for the first time!"

MacKay added that his list also includes "a nice big engagement ring for Candice."

MacKay purchased the winning LIGHTNING LOTTO ticket from Rocky Husky at 4520 45 Street in Rocky Mountain House. They won their prize instantly on April 3 with the selection: 2, 10, 32, 48, and 49.

USER GROUPS EXCITED TO SEE PROGRESS OF THE CULTURE & EVENTS CENTRE

Submitted by Town of Whitecourt

Members of local performing arts organizations and recreation groups had the chance to tour the Culture & Events Centre site on May 13. The tour gave representatives a first-hand look at what their feedback and input has helped to create.

"For years, our dancers and their families have had to travel numerous times a year to participate in festivals and competitions. With this facility, our studio will have the opportunity and access to a stage and space on which we can host quality recitals, dance festivals, as well as proper dress rehearsals," stated Natasha Douglas, owner of Illusion Dance Co.

"This will not only reduce travel for existing members, but will also make dance performances more accessible for those in our region."

The Culture & Events Centre has been in development for over 15 years; it was originally identified as a top priority in the community in 2008. Over the years, numerous feasibility studies, engagement processes, tours, and designs have been undertaken. All of the organizations represented at the site have been active participants in the planning for several years.

Slated to open in the fall of 2026, the Culture & Events Centre will serve the region and include an arts, culture and convention centre; library; and, Town administration office. The steel frame is up, and exterior wall framing and site work has started.

"Pumpjack Players has been waiting for almost 20 years for a new performing arts facility, so you can imagine how excited we all are," added Brigitte Moore, Treasurer of the Pumpjack Players – Whitecourt Drama Society. "We just performed our children's production to two sold out crowds so there is a thirst in our community to see live theatre. There is also a large growing interest – particularly with youth – who want to perform or be a part of theatre productions. This new Centre will have the latest theatre technology which will open so many doors for the types of productions we can do. We can't wait to perform our first production in the new performing arts centre!"

"The Society has been fundraising for this facility since 2012 by hosting a variety of shows, concerts and performances," added Neil Shewchuk, Chair of the Whitecourt

& Woodlands Performing Arts Society. "With increased capacity, and a dedicated, more comfortable space specifically made for performances, it's exciting to think about the variety of events and entertainers we'll now be able to host right in our own backyard - no need for travel!"

Shane McLaren, a local artist, added "This Centre will encourage local talent to practice their art, and give them a place to display it. It's a great step forward, and the integration of the facility with Festival Park adds value to both places."

For construction updates and project highlights, visit www.whitecourt.ca/live/culture-and-events-centre or on the Centre's Facebook and Instagram pages @CultureandEventsCentre.

COUNTY EASES STATUS TO FIRE ADVISORY*

LSAC.ca/fire-services

*As of press time—please visit online for the most up-to-date information.

Welcome moisture has been received across all areas of the County in recent days; with moderate temperatures and more scattered showers expected.

Fine fuel moisture has increased due to green up conditions. This reduces hazard in our area in light grassy fuels and mixed treed fuels.

As a result of these changes, the Complete Fire Ban status has now been reduced to a FIRE ADVISORY.

Allowed conditional burning in accordance with monitoring and weather conditions permitting is as follows:

- Fire(s) in acceptable fire pits
- Campfires on a non-combustible surface surrounded by a fire ring
- Permitted short-duration open burning with inspection by a Fire Guardian
- Burn barrels – where permitted, please see the County's Fire Services Bylaw 29-2020
- Wood-fired appliances, incinerators
- Propane powered appliances and pellet smokers
- Smudge and/or ceremonial fires

Prohibited burning includes:

- Large pile (greater than 16' in diameter), multiple piles, or windrow burning activities
- Fireworks
- Any burning activity not defined as allowed

Please report any wildfire to 9-1-1 with the exact location to assist Lac Ste. Anne County Fire Services personnel in locating and extinguishing these fires. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Please watch the County website for updates to this FIRE ADVISORY.

A REMINDER THAT TRAPPING SEASON IS UNDERWAY

LSAC.ca/beavers

The County has begun setting beaver traps in problem areas such as ditches and ravines.

Residents are strongly encouraged to keep pets on a leash when walking near these areas. If you come across a beaver trap, do not approach or touch it—these devices are dangerous and should only be handled by trained personnel.

If you are trapping beavers yourself, please ensure you are following the Code of Responsible Trapping, available at albertaregulations.ca.

As stated in the 2024-25 Alberta Guide to Trapping Regulations — "Fur-bearing animals must be trapped using methods that are proven to avoid unnecessary pain and suffering. The manner in which animals are trapped is a concern of many Albertans, including trappers."

Whitecourt Town Council Update

Festival Park. The event will include a bbq, crats and activities to celebrate the 2SLGBTQ+ community. Details on the event can be found on the Facebook event page.

Whitecourt encourages the community to recognize June 2 to 7, 2025 as Seniors' Week. Seniors' Week honours and celebrates seniors for their many contributions to our community and province. Celebrate Seniors' Week with the Town of Whitecourt and join the many activities scheduled throughout the community. Details on events and activities can be found on www.whitecourt.ca.

Party In The Park will kick off the summer season June 13 and 14 in Festival Park. Join us for two days of free family entertainment and performances, including headliners Aaron Pritchett and Wide Mouth Mason. Details on the event and activities can be found on the Facebook event page and www.whitecourt.ca.

A request was received from the City of Cold Lake to partner in a request to the Province regarding rural bus service.

Whitecourt, however, is already served by three private transportation companies that link our community to larger urban centres in northern Alberta.

The May 20, 2025 Policies and Priorities Committee meeting has been cancelled.

A request was received from Woodlands County for the Whitecourt Transfer Station to accept plastic bale twine. Council deferred this request to the Whitecourt Regional Solid Waste Management Authority for consideration.

Street closures have been approved for the July 19 5km Bubble Run. The Run, hosted by Anytime Fitness in support of the Whitecourt Food Bank, will take place in and around Festival Park. Reminders of the closures will be posted closer to the event date.

Haneef Hameer has been appointed as the Whitecourt & District Chamber of Commerce representative on the Economic Development Committee for a term to expire in October 2025.

WHITECOURT ISSUES REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS FOR NAMING RIGHTS OF THE CULTURE & EVENTS CENTRE

Submitted by Town of Whitecourt

Whitecourt has launched a sponsorship campaign for the Culture & Events Centre, and is inviting businesses and local organizations to submit a proposal for naming rights of the facility. Submissions as part of this process will be accepted until June 24, 2025 at 4:30pm.

Located in the heart of downtown and at the entrance to Festival Park, the Culture & Events Centre will include an arts, culture and convention centre; library; and Town administration office. With a capital investment of $54 million, this is the single largest project Whitecourt has ever done.

Construction on the Culture & Events Centre started last year, and the facility is scheduled to open in the fall of 2026.

- Roof work, exterior wall framing and interior work is underway.

- Exterior wall systems and glazing, slabs, and interior wall framing are scheduled to be complete by the end of 2025.

"Sponsorships help create mutually beneficial opportunities," stated Whitecourt Mayor Tom Pickard. "Sponsorship revenue will be used to off set the cost of construction, making the facility more accessible. In exchange, participating sponsors will receive increased brand awareness through increased visibility and a positive image for their involvement, support and connection to our region. Whitecourt was extremely successful in our sponsorship campaign for the Allan & Jean Millar Centre, and we've already received a number of requests for information from local organizations wanting to be part of this project and its legacy."

In addition to facility naming rights, there are a variety of other components available for sponsorship, depending on how involved an organization wants to be. Sponsors will gain exposure, boost brand recognition, and demonstrate their commitment to our community. Other sponsorship opportunities include the gallery, multi-purpose rooms, meeting rooms, dressing rooms, green rooms, and an art wall.

A copy of the Request for Proposals and sponsorship package can be found at www.whitecourt.ca. Updates on the project will be posted on the Centre's Facebook and Instagram pages @CultureandEventsCentre.

SUPPORTING ALBERTA'S WILDFIRE EVACUEES

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta's government provides emergency evacuation payments to assist those who have been forced from their homes for an extended period of time.

Emergency evacuations due to the threat of a wildfire or other natural disaster can cause incredible emotional and financial stress for those affected. To help ease the costs of evacuating and provide some peace of mind, Alberta's government provides emergency evacuation payments to assist those who have been forced from their homes for an extended period of time.

"Being forced from your home is one of the most difficult things a family can face. Our government is here to support Albertans every step of the way – helping cover urgent costs and providing reassurance during an incredibly stressful time. We're committed to ensuring families have the help they need, when they need it most."

Danielle Smith, Premier

Each adult resident of an affected community who has been evacuated for seven days or more is eligible to receive a one-time payment of $1,250 and $500 for each dependent child under the age of 18. These evacuation payments help pay for temporary accommodations, food and other necessities while evacuees are away from their homes. Most insurance policies will also provide coverage for additional living expenses if the insured are forced to leave due to a disaster.

"Whether flood or fire, evacuations due to natural disasters can be incredibly stressful. As always, our government is working hard to ensure help is there for those who need it and do everything we can to support Albertans through this wildfire season."

Jason Nixon, Minister of Seniors, Community and Social Services

Evacuees can apply for the payments online and will have up to 60 days to apply following the start of an evacuation order for their respective community. Payments will be made by e-transfer within 24 hours of application, which is the fastest and most efficient way to receive these payments. Evacuees unable to apply online or receive e-transfer can call the Alberta Supports Contact Centre at 1-877-644-9992 for assistance and to make alternate payment arrangements.

"In the face of floods and fires, Alberta's government remains committed to providing essential support and resources to protect and assist Albertans during this wildfire season, ensuring that help is always within reach for those affected."

Mike Ellis, Deputy Premier and Minister of Public Safety and Emergency Services

For those who may need help with evacuating, Alberta's Income Support Emergency Contact Centre is available 24-7 to provide support. Vulnerable Albertans or those in acute financial need who may need additional financial support for items such as food, clothing, transportation and temporary shelter as they leave their community should contact the Income Support Emergency Contact Centre at 1-866-644-5135.

"Wildfires are a reality of life in Alberta's forests, but no Albertan should have to face them alone. Our government is standing with affected communities every step of the way – supporting firefighting efforts on the ground, providing critical information and ensuring families have the support they need to get through these challenging times."

Todd Loewen, Minister of Forestry and Parks

The most up-to-date evacuation information is available at alberta.ca/emergency, Alberta Emergency Alert or by downloading the Alberta Emergency Alert mobile app, which immediately pushes all alerts out to subscribers.

SUDOKU of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box.

ANSWER: Last Weeks
 You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
