CADOMIN HALL GRAND OPENING

Submitted by Yellowhead County

The Cadomin Community Hall officially opened on July 19, 2025 to a group of Cadomin residents, dignitaries, visitors in the hamlet, and families with a historic connection to the hamlet and the Coal Branch region.

The official opening featured a full day of family-friendly events increased need for a new facility for the community.

"We're extremely excited to have the new hall up and running and open to the public. Cadomin is a beautiful location, and this hamlet really represents the amazing history of our municipality and the energy of our residents and community members. This hall will be a great hub for the community, and I know it'll be a great place to host all types of events for generations to come."

- Wade Williams, Mayor of Yellowhead County

The vision for the hall began to take shape in 2019 with the formation of the Cadomin Community Society. In the years that followed, planning and fundraising efforts gained momentum, and in 2022 funding was secured from the Cadomin Community Society, Yellowhead County, and the Provincial Government, along with additional contributions from industry partners and donations from local property owners.

The new hall features a large event room, a kitchen, a lobby and community room, and a basement that can be used for activities and games. The funding for the hall came from Yellowhead County, as well as the province of Alberta, and donations from several families, businesses, and industries connected to the community.

To rent the Cadomin Hall, contact the Cadomin Community Society - contact details at www.yhcounty.ca. Several events are already planned and booked for the hall this summer and fall including an artisan fair and a gravel bike race that will bring in people from beyond the borders of the hamlet and Yellowhead County.

MORE CLASSROOM SPACES ON THE WAY

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Alberta's government continues to invest in more school spaces now with the 2025-26 school year on the horizon.

To support schools in managing the growing number of students, Alberta's government is investing $50 million to add 62 pre-made classrooms this fall. Through previous Budget 2025 commitments, a total $100 million will deliver 109 new modular classrooms, creating space for 2,725 students and relocating 575 more.

"Alberta's government is moving quickly to build new schools and create more classroom spaces, so our students continue to have room to grow and thrive. This additional funding for modular classrooms will help us get much-needed spaces to some of our busiest schools, while we work as quickly as possible to open the doors to more than 130 school projects underway in the province."

Demetrios Nicolaides, Minister of Education and Childcare

"Rocky View Schools welcomes these additional modular classrooms to help ease current enrolment pressures while we await completion of the seven much-needed new schools approved in budgets 2024 and 2025. RVS has experienced years of unprecedented enrolment growth and appreciates the Government of Alberta's recognition of the urgent need for more student spaces in our fast-growing communities. We remain committed to working with the government to ensure new school and modular approvals keep pace with student enrolment growth across RVS."

Fiona Gilbert, board chair, Rocky View Schools

Alberta's government is also providing $1 million in planning funding to advance four new charter school projects. The funds are being provided to New Horizons Charter Academy, New Humble Community School, Suzuki Charter School and Thrive Charter School to finalize planning details such as programming needs and the size and type of classrooms needed in each school. When completed, these new charter schools will contribute more than 2,400 new or updated student spaces.

"The Thrive Charter School Society is excited about this opportunity to advance efforts in addressing opportunity gaps for students in Edmonton. This investment paves the way to serve more students and their families with the programming and supports necessary to truly thrive."

Michael Hladun, vice-chair, Thrive Charter School Society

Alberta's government is looking to the future by providing $610,000 in pre-planning funding for 13 potential future school projects. Pre-planning funding helps school boards begin planning for school projects they believe will become priorities within the next three to five years. Examples of pre-planning activities include project scoping and community engagement and outreach. Although it is an important first step, pre-planning funding does not guarantee a school project will be built.

These investments in modulars and school planning are all part of the province's Schools Now program, which includes a generational investment of $8.6 billion to build and update more than 100 schools across the province and create more classroom spaces now. Over seven years, Schools Now will create more than 200,000 student spaces, helping school boards manage class sizes and bringing learning closer to home for more Alberta students and families.

A MESSAGE FROM MLA ANDREW BOITCHENKO: ADVOCATING FOR OUR REGION AND ALBERTA'S FUTURE

Submitted by MLA Andrew Boitchenko

As the elected representative for Drayton Valley-Devon and Alberta's Minister of Tourism and Sport, I remain deeply committed to serving our constituency and advancing the priorities that matter most to our communities. It is a privilege to represent such a dynamic and resilient region, and I want to share a few key updates on the work we've been doing both locally and provincially.

Minister Boitchenko's New Role as Minister:

I'm honoured to take on the role of Alberta's Minister of Tourism and Sport. This new responsibility is an exciting opportunity to help grow two vital sectors that fuel our economy, celebrate our culture, and bring Albertans together. From supporting local tourism operators to investing in sport infrastructure and youth programs, I'm committed to making Alberta the best place to live, work, visit and play. Tourism showcases our province's natural beauty and supports small businesses, while sport fosters community, resilience, and well-being. As MLA for Drayton Valley-Devon, I'm especially proud to represent a region rich in outdoor adventure, local events, and community spirit—and I look forward to sharing our story with the world.

Updates in the Drayton Valley-Devon Constituency:

This summer has been very busy with stakeholder meetings, constituent meetings, and many community events, especially with the additional role as a Minister.

On June 25th, we celebrated the Grand Opening of Kickstand Drayton Valley and it was a tremendous success. I couldn't be more proud of the incredible teamwork that brought this vision to life. Thank you to everyone who played a role in developing Kickstand into the vital community hub it is today. I'm especially grateful to my colleague and friend, Minister Rick Wilson, for joining us in celebration and for meeting with stakeholders in the community following the event to discuss support for the people of Drayton Valley. Our government is committed to prioritizing the health and wellness of Alberta's youth, and Kickstand is a key partner in that mission. With the support of the Mental Health Association and the Drayton Valley Primary Care Network, this new centre is already making it easier for young people to access the mental, physical, and social support they need—right here in our community. I look forward to a brighter, healthier future for Drayton Valley and the surrounding area.

Additionally, what an incredible day it was to celebrate Canada Day right here in beautiful Drayton Valley—surrounded by friends, families, and neighbours. I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to the organizers, volunteers, and community leaders who made the day's festivities such a success. It was a privilege to attend and bring greetings on behalf of the Alberta Government. As someone who immigrated to Canada as a teenager, this day holds deep meaning for me. From our vibrant local events to the hardworking people who make this community thrive, Drayton Valley truly embodies the Canadian spirit.

Calgary Stampede Highlights:

The Calgary Stampede was a whirlwind of events and meetings. I had the pleasure of serving pancakes at community breakfasts, spending an evening with Equal Voice celebrating women in politics and leadership, and hearing inspiring words from Premier Danielle Smith. I also had the opportunity of meeting with Westjet and discussing their exciting newly added routes and explored what comes next. At the Alberta Indigenous Opportunities Corporation event, I met with leaders and entrepreneurs, highlighting the strength of Indigenous partnerships in Alberta's tourism sector. These experiences reaffirmed the importance of community, culture, and collaboration in building Alberta's future.

MORE PRIMARY CARE ON THE WAY FOR RURAL ALBERTA

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Rural Albertans will soon have better access to doctors and care teams as 74 medical residents begin providing care and dozens of clinics expand their staff.

Alberta's government is committed to ensuring Albertans receive the care they need when and where they need it. To strengthen rural health care, grants under two programs have been awarded. These grants support medical resident physicians training in rural and remote communities and help primary care clinics across rural Alberta grow their teams.

The initiatives include a $16-million pilot bursary program that supports 74 family medicine residents expected to begin practising in rural Alberta between now and July 2027. At the same time, the Rural Team Recruitment Grant will provide $6 million over two years to help clinics hire additional health professionals – such as nurses, pharmacists and physiotherapists – expand care teams and improve access.

"This is a great example of how we're delivering real improvements in primary health care. Our bursary program will help bring more family doctors to rural communities, and the team-based care grants mean Albertans will have better access to health professionals who can support their needs. Physicians are choosing to practise in Alberta in record numbers, especially family doctors, and we're working to make sure they increase access for patients in rural Alberta as well as in the cities."

Adriana LaGrange, Minister of Primary and Preventative Health Services

The Rural Team Recruitment Grant helps clinics and community organizations increase their capacity by hiring non-physician health professionals. These multidisciplinary teams significantly improve access to primary care by ensuring a range of health services are available locally.

In the first round of funding, 29 clinics across the province will receive support. This includes clinics in Consort, Drumheller, Stettler, Crowsnest Pass, Cold Lake, Grande Cache, Peace River, Delburne, Drayton Valley, Barrhead and Bashaw. Approximately 52 new full-time health professionals are expected to be hired, with a second intake for the grant program opening soon.

The Rural Team Recruitment Grant is a meaningful step forward for health care in rural Alberta. When clinics can hire more team members, people get access to the care they need faster and closer to home."

Ron Wiebe, parliamentary secretary for rural health (north)

The Rural and Remote Family Medicine Resident Physician Bursary Pilot Program is helping attract and retain doctors in Alberta's rural and remote communities. It provides bursaries of $125,000 for rural placements and $200,000 for remote placements to residents who commit to working in eligible communities after completing their training.

Bursaries are available to medical students from any Canadian university who have matched to a family medicine residency program at the University of Alberta or the University of Calgary. Residents can apply at any point during their training. Applications are being accepted until early 2026 or until all funding is committed.

Resident physicians are more likely to stay and practise in the communities where they complete their residency, making this program a key step toward building sustainable, long-term access to primary care in rural and remote areas.

"This bursary is an investment in Alberta's future. It gives resident physicians the support they need while helping rural and remote communities attract and keep family doctors."

Justin Wright, parliamentary secretary for rural health (south)

"This bursary is a significant step in strengthening retention in rural and remote family medicine practice. Resident physicians are the future of our physician workforce; fair and competitive retention initiatives will ensure all Albertans have access to the high-quality health care they deserve."

Dr. Sia Zare-Zadeh, president, Professional Association of Resident Physicians of Alberta (PARA)

Obituaries

BAHRYNOWSKI, Thomas "Tom"
May 1, 1941 –
July 23, 2025

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Thomas "Tom" Bahrynowski, on July 23, 2025, at the age of 84 years, at Good Samaritan Pembina Village in Evansburg, Alberta.

He is survived by his son, Darren; brother, Victor; sisters, Olga (John) Saiko, and Josie (Leonard) Ueland; sisters-in-law, Annette and Kathy Bahrynowski; brother-in-law, Gabe (Debbie) Andrei; as well as numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Tom was predeceased by his loving wife, Vicky; parents, Rosie and Peter; brothers, Mike, Walter, Pete, Frank, Carl; sister, Mary; and many cousins, aunts and uncles.

Tom was born May 1, 1941, to Peter and Rosie Bahrynowski, on the family farm, north of Wildwood. He attended school not too many miles from home, where he and his siblings made the trek to and from school, in all sorts of weather. Like many others at the time, graduating from school was not a priority: getting into the work force was more important. Tom apprenticed at Hutchisons garage in Wildwood, at age 16.

He then went on to attend NAIT, where he graduated from the very first heavy-duty mechanic class they offered. It did not take him long to find employment in his chosen field; he worked a few jobs before landing long term employment with Vulcan, for 20+ years. In 1971, Tom's cousin Margie introduced him to one of her co-workers, Victoria. The meeting must have been successful, because Tom and Vicky were married a short time later. After living briefly in an apartment with their son Darren, they made the leap and bought their own home on the west end of Edmonton. It was here that many memories were made. Tom and Vicky were known for hosting Christmas, Easter and many other occasions where they were very generous hosts.

In 1991, Tom moved the family to Wildwood; their new home was within miles of the original farm where he was raised, and only minutes from his brothers:

Frank, Carl and Victor. Tom and Vicky embraced farm life, farming the land and raising livestock, primarily cattle. Tom and Vicky enjoyed many great years at their Wildwood farm. Tom's final years were at Good Samaritan Pembina Village in the Evansburg Health Centre - we would like to thank the staff there for the care they showed Tom. In appreciation, memorial donations in Tom's honour may be made to the Good Samaritan Society towards Pembina Village, <https://gss.org/ways-to-support/donate-in-honour-or-memory/>. Photos, memories, and condolences may be shared through www.parkmemorial.com.

SUDOKU of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box.

ANSWER: Last Weeks

You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
