JOKE of the week

A ghost had been staying in a bed and breakfast hotel and when he came down for dinner he asked the waitress, "Please can I have two eggs, one tough and one rubbery, really tough bacon and burned, fried bread?"

The waitress said, "Sir, we really can't serve that kind of horrid food here."

The ghost replied, "Well, you did yesterday!"

Shell, and more. Peavey Mart stores will reflect the needs of customers by providing reliable and relevant products, shifting offerings to reflect a focus on high quality, unique, and locally sourced items that highlight the Canadian entrepreneurial spirit.

"We know that the closure of Peavey Mart stores left a gap for many customers," said Doug Anderson. "Our investors and ownership group recognizes the importance of Peavey Mart in the Canadian retail landscape, and we're grateful for the opportunity to relaunch the brand in these communities."

With the historical success of many locations in prairie markets, the ownership group is confident in a successful relaunch of the initial four Peavey Mart stores. As the second tranche of investors are onboarded, the ownership group will target openings in other previously held markets, including Saskatchewan.

Kurt Schultz, Lead Merchant and a member the operations leadership team, echoed Anderson's comments. "We're bringing back the Peavey Mart that people know and love, a Peavey Mart focused on the needs of the farmer, rancher, acreage owner, homeowner and homesteader with a strong emphasis on providing value for dollars spent in our stores."

The ownership group secured the rights to the Peavey Mart name and associated intellectual property from the defunct Peavey Industries LP in April of 2025 with the goal of opening 7-12 locations. The new company has secured 40,000 ft<sup>2</sup> of distribution space in Red Deer County to support the ongoing operations and distribution requirements for the endeavour and has built a focused team within their Home Office to support the relaunch. Operations recruitment has also begun for positions within stores and the distribution warehouse. More information on available positions can be found at careers.peaveymart.com.

Anderson added a large component of the ownership group's mandate is to create an agile culture where store, office and distribution teams work collaboratively, while ensuring that the company can pivot as necessary to support both customer needs' and continued profitable operations for many years to come.

WHAT PRICE SEPARATION?

Letter to the Editor

What would happen if Alberta became an independent country? Some members of our province seem to think of the possibility with great fervour, believing that all conditions would rapidly improve for them, that new freedoms could arise, and that all problems would diminish or cease to exist. What a wonderful opportunity, without having to deal with an entire federated family! An immediate permanent paradise! Not so! Many difficulties must be overcome. Many obligations arise, both internal and foreign. Everything that is now Canadian national responsibility would become Alberta's, of course, in full. Perhaps the most immediate need would be to establish relationships with Canada. That would include border agreements (and security) over such things as water supply and travel and citizenships, trade agreements, shared costs like railway maintenance, establishment of a permanent embassy, removal of Alberta from all Canadian social security aspects, and formulation of a constitution for the new country, along with the multitude of laws to create it, of course. That is just to start - to open the door, if you will.

Some new responsibilities would include Alberta's new judicial system and set of basic laws, a monetary system, a police system, an international relations commission, a pension plan, a social service and benefits package, development of an international credit rating, import/export regulations within and beyond Canada, compensation for Canadian buildings and investments within Alberta, and much more. And if Alberta has a hard time covering costs of education and health care now, what will it do when federal transfers are no longer helping?

How soon could Alberta start its own pension fund (with at most 17% of the CPP value, not an impossible and unrealistic 53%), and social security arrangements, its postal service, tax department, national police force, and so on? What arrangements could be made for those who do not wish to stay in the new country; perhaps transferring pension benefits (and investments) back to Canada? Negotiate pension transfers based on month by month contributions during a worker's lifetime? Many new departments would be needed.

What Price Separation?

How soon could Alberta start its own military? Thankfully, it would be landlocked, so no navy is required, but can a five million population build and sustain a substantial army and airforce with all necessary equipment, or will contribution arrangements have to be made to sustain Canada's forces and NORAD and NATO?

How soon and at what cost could new currency be minted and foreign relations with multiple countries be negotiated? Might Alberta have to pay back the 35 billion or so dollars for the Trans Mountain pipeline it would surely want to keep? It must certainly renegotiate its passage to the coast! Would Alberta miss the involvements with G7? Would it envy Canada's participation in international games or discussions? Could it afford numerous ambassadors and embassy staff in countries with which we would trade? And more...

Those would be new Alberta National obligations. All current obligations like education, health programs, infrastructure, environmental protections, forest fire controls, and much more would still have to be maintained and planned for the future.

Of course, corporate taxes would soon have to rise to Canada's average, and royalty rates would have to be increased on fossil fuels. Subsidies and deferrals for such things would have to end, and there will be no-one to blame for problems except Alberta's own government. Albertans will want to know why the Heritage Fund has barely grown while oil profits have boomed, why no balancing fund smoothed out the waves as oil prices rose and fell, what to do about taxes owed to municipalities, why professional workers left the province before the separation, why Alberta does not use more free green energy sources, why climate change is not considered worth studying, why vaccines cost more than anywhere else, and so on. Suddenly the answers must all come from Alberta's leaders without blaming elsewhere.

For those who think that joining the United States could be of benefit, remember that Alberta is about 11% of Canada's population, and would have far less influence as less than 1.5% of the United States IF that country even accepted Alberta as a state. As a territory, it would have even less than that.

Lac Ste. Anne Ratepayers Association

I, Chris Yeoman, am the President of LSARA. Lac Ste Anne and area Rate Payers Association. This is not a post I ever thought I would have to write. LSARA is a dedicated group of volunteers that come from all walks of life with different experiences. There is at least one volunteer from every single division in Lac Ste Anne County. This group was formed out of a need, not a want. There has never been any personal gain for any one of us who currently sit on the board. We have no PERSONAL AGENDA.

When this group became reality and the non profit was formed, our own personal home became the hub. This was all inline with the first petition wherein a referendum was held with the question being, "Did the ratepayers of Lac Ste Anne County wish to build an administration building for approximately 9 million dollars?" The people voted and the answer was no, they didn't. Six months later, the dollars increased, the bylaw number for borrowing changed and we did it all over again. The part that was missed was the location in the original petition. But it didn't matter as they didn't listen anyway. They ignored the petition and made the motion to short term borrow which means it gets paid off in 5 years or less. Many things happened in that time frame but suffice it to say, council and administration proceeded. The rest is kind of history however there remain lingering concerns as to the integrity. If you haven't seen it for yourself, I urge you to take a drive. Cracks in the walls that you can put your hand in...

They will tell that they had nothing to do with any of this.... They are victims too so just live with it. Well I'm here to tell you that the discussion regarding a new building was during the tenure of some of the current council from as many as 15 years ago. The CAO at that time, was prudently putting money aside for the eventual build. But that wasn't good enough for some. Certainly not the CAO that was recently released. They will tell you that LSARA is a "fringe minority" of people who are trouble makers, who don't know what they are talking about. Well I am here to tell you that not ONE article was published without being fact checked and verified. We have all the documents to support our position.

Again, we have had everything to lose and nothing to gain. Lose you say? What could we possibly have lost? Time. Time that we will never get back doing research, writing letters, making phone calls, doing petitions, holding executive meetings and public forums. Money. The money that it cost us for paper, ink, power, fuel. Not one of us ever took or were given a dime. This was all out of pocket. BTW, welcome to check out LSARA's books at any time but our current balance is $4025.24. Membership and donations.

Our home looked like a war zone during times of petitions as we put together packages and had folks coming and going to pick them up, drop them off or just to sign. Family. Most importantly, it took away time from our families. I sat at night in my camp room writing many of those articles as I worked away. Come home to work some more on LSARA items. The team that helped with all the posts, the editing, the publishing, they gave up endless hours as well. This was all TIME that we have never been compensated for. Most of the time hard to get a thank you. Why hard to get a thank you? Because people are intimidated by the current council and the ex CAO. Some worried that if they signed a petition or became a member they would be targeted. No sugar coating anymore.

I saw a post the other day wherein it was stated that petition went to the current Reeves home and it was commissioned there and that he helped get signatures. Not the truth. A special trip was made to bring the petition to a golf tournament where many county residents were in attendance. No signatures were collected. The petition was picked up and a few signed at the home when it was being picked up. Wendy did not commission that document at that time.

Several members of the current council sat at our kitchen table. Both in a councillor capacity and as directors of LSARA. Do you think they had anything to gain or lose? Two have been councillors for the last two terms. So call us or call me whatever you want, but I know I speak for myself and the executive and volunteers of LSARA when I say that the last eight years have shown us nothing changes, that's what it has shown us.

LSARA has made the effort to set up two forums. Forums for both the benefit of the incumbents, the challengers, and for the folks that want to be able to make an informed choice. We initiated these forums on the 23rd of September. We sent out emails to all the folks vying for a seat. We booked the venues (we pay for them) and arranged for moderators, respected members of the community. We sent out notifications to both newspapers, the Community Voice and The Bulletin for public notice. LSARA also sent out a subsequent email offering to post all those running for a seat to provide their bio and a photo and we would post it and share it through LSARA. Some of the folks responded immediately that they were grateful to be able to participate. Today, we received communication that there is another forum being hosted on the same day, at the same time in another community. We reached out to let them know that we had over a week invested into the forum already. They told us they were going forward. I did some checking. Their email went out this morning as did their FB posts. One paper was not contacted at all. Here's my thoughts. There were no responses from the incumbents this morning aside from Ross Bohnet who indicated that he would be unavailable to attend. A reminder email was sent out to all that had yet to respond including the incumbents. Then the next thing we know, there is a forum that is at the same time, same date and the incumbents advertise it. This is what it tells me. They don't want to be put together with those challenging for a seat. They want to tell their supporters the same stories they have told us all for the past 8+ years. They don't want to listen to new ideas or concerns raised.

So here is what LSARA is going to do. We are going to run our forum for all that wish to attend whether they are vying for a seat or an incumbent. We are going to run it for the ratepayers who deserve to be able to make an informed decision.

Our FB posts have been reported, removed and reported and removed again. Folks comment as anonymous and call me out as we no longer reside in the County of Lac Ste Anne. We do reside in Parkland, an adjacent county with an IDP with LSAC. More importantly, we have some of our children, our grandchildren and great grandchildren living in Lac Ste Anne.

I personally have never hid under the veil of an anonymous post and never will. You either want what you have got for the last 8 years plus or you don't. Make an informed decision and come hear the folks vying for a seat.

October 8th at 7 pm at the Sangudo Hall for Divisions 4,6 and 7.

October 14th at 7 pm at the Onoway Heritage Center in the gym for Divisions 1,2,3 and 5.

I posted this to my own page first so it shows my name. Not LSARA but mine. I'll post it to LSARA and hope you will share. Your comments are always welcome.

Regards

Chris Yeoman

President LSARA.

COUNCILLOR LLOYD GIEBELHAUS ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT FROM LAC STE. ANNE COUNTY

LSAC.ca/news

September 15, 2025 — After eighteen (18) years of dedicated service to the residents of Lac Ste. Anne County, Councillor Lloyd Giebelhaus has announced he will not be seeking re-election in the upcoming Municipal General Election on October 20, 2025.

Councillor Giebelhaus has proudly represented his division for five consecutive terms on County Council. Over the years, he has brought a steady, principled voice to Council deliberations and was called upon to serve in the role of Reeve for several of those terms. His leadership has helped shape important policy decisions and advance local priorities — always with the best interests of the community in mind.

Lloyd brought a rare combination of calm leadership, practical insight, and deep community roots to everything he did. Over the years, including his time as Reeve, he offered not only a strong voice for Sangudo and area, but a grounded and principled perspective that helped shape the direction of the County as a whole. He never sought the spotlight, but always showed up, always listened, and always cared.

"Lloyd has been a steady hand and a trusted voice on Council for as long as I've served alongside him. He always came to the table with the interest of residents at heart and brought wisdom and common sense to every discussion. His quiet leadership and deep understanding of this County will be missed more than words can say," commented Joe Blakeman, Lac Ste. Anne County Reeve. "On behalf of Council, thank you, Lloyd, for your outstanding service and friendship over the years."

Whether it was the Agricultural Service Board, municipal planning, or everyday concerns of residents, Lloyd approached his role with humility and heart. He has left a lasting mark on Lac Ste. Anne County, and his legacy of public service will not be forgotten.

"Serving the people of this County has been a great honour. I've always believed in showing up, listening, and doing what's right — even when it's not easy. After 18 years, it's time to step back and make space for fresh perspectives," reflected Lloyd. "I'm grateful for the support of my community and proud of what we've accomplished together. As I often say — without a sense of caring there can be no commitment. To Council, Administration, and Staff — thank you for your assistance, understanding, and commitment throughout my service on Council."

On behalf of Council, staff, and the residents of Lac Ste. Anne County: thank you, Lloyd. We wish you nothing but the best in this next chapter — you've earned it.

County Assessors are doing property site inspections in the region, so you're sure to see them out and about near properties, taking photos and making notes. They're just doing their job to keep property values fair.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT PHOTO CONTEST DEADLINE APPROACHING

Time is running out to enter our 13th Annual Photo Contest! Entries close on Wednesday, October 15. Don't miss your chance to share your best shots of life in our community!

This year's theme is all about Community Spotlights - capturing the places, events, and everyday moments that make this region shine. We've already seen some fantastic entries, but we know there are still plenty of great photos out there waiting to be shared.

Think about those moments that truly show our community at its best. We're fortunate to have a backyard full of stories to be captured — from the branches and decorations of the Coyote Christmas tree to the colour and energy of a summer powwow. It could be local camping adventures or taking in a summer parade or concert. Maybe it's a quiet trail walk, stopping at your favourite roadside stand or farmers' market, a big day at a local fair or rodeo, family fun at a local u-pick or community garden, or mudding it up on the trails of Stanger Hills. The list goes on — and each moment adds to the story of what makes our community unique. Whatever you cherish, share it with us through your lens!

Quick Contest Reminders:

- Open to County residents of all ages and skill levels
- Photos must be taken within the County — including neighbouring municipalities within our borders
- You choose the subject — we just want to see where your photo takes us
- Multiple entries are welcome
- Submission deadline is Wednesday, October 15 at midnight
- High resolution landscape (horizontal) photos are preferred

Winners will receive one of twelve $100 prizes or the grand prize of $250, and the winning photos will be featured in the County's 2026 wall calendar, and showcased on our website and social media.

Fire Prevention Week

A Little Prevention Goes a Long Way

Follow these prevention tips to safeguard your home and family.

- Always remain in the kitchen while cooking, and keep things that can burn, such as towels, plastic bags or paper, at least three feet away from the stovetop.
- Store matches and lighters in a place where children cannot reach them.
- Keep space heaters at least three feet from curtains, newspapers and other things that can burn, and never leave heaters unattended.
- Have your chimney, furnace, fireplace and wood or coal stove inspected every year.
- Install smoke alarms on every level of your home and inside or near every bedroom. Test alarms monthly, and replace batteries once a year.
- Develop and discuss a home fire escape plan with your family. Identify two exits from every room, and pick a meeting place outside the home.

SUDOKU

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box.

ANSWER: Last Weeks
You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
