goaltenders in professional hockey history. Known throughout the sport as Mr. Goalie, he played 18 seasons in the NHL with the Detroit Red Wings, Chicago Black Hawks, and St. Louis Blues. Hall was a pioneer of the butterfly style of goaltending and set an enduring NHL record by starting 502 consecutive games, making him one of the most notable NHL players in history.

JOKE of the week

A child asked his father, "How were people born?" So his father said, "Adam and Eve made babies, then their babies became adults and made babies, and so on." The child then went to his mother, asked her the same question and she told him, "We were monkeys then we evolved to become like we are now." The child ran back to his father and said, "You lied to me!" His father replied, "No, your mom was talking about her side of the family."

Town Of Stony Plain Mourns The Passing Of Hockey Legend Glenn Hall

on behalf of Council, “Glenn Hall was more than a hockey icon; he was a proud member of our community. Having our arena named in his honour and a mural telling his story reflects the deep respect Stony Plain holds for him. His legacy will continue to inspire athletes and residents for generations.”

Town Manager Tom

Goulden says, “Glenn Hall’s achievements on the ice were extraordinary, but in Stony Plain he was valued most for the way he lived his life off the ice. He was a long-time resident who cared deeply about this community, supported local hockey, and took the time to connect with people in a genuine and meaningful way.”

Outside the arena, a 30-foot mural celebrates Hall’s remarkable career and his connection to Stony Plain, serving as a lasting visual tribute to his impact on both the sport of hockey and the local community.

“Mr. Goalie by artist Tag Kim captures Glenn Hall’s remarkable career while also recognizing the deep connection he and his family had to Stony Plain,” says Culture and Tourism Officer Chantelle Laberge. “The mural reflects not only his accomplishments in professional hockey, but also the enduring impact he had on this community and the contributions he made beyond the rink.”

The Town of Stony Plain extends its sincere condolences to Glenn Hall’s family, friends, and the many people whose lives he touched.

PARKLAND RCMP ASSIST SENIOR AFTER HEAVY SNOWFALL

Submitted by Parkland RCMP

On Dec. 31, 2025 Parkland RCMP received a report of a 96-year-old male who was snowed in at his residence. Heavy snowfall had blocked the man's driveway, leaving him unable to leave his home to attend important appointments. Due to the calls for service being lower at the time, a police officer was able to attend the residence and clear the snow, ensuring the gentleman could safely leave the residence.

SAFE AND AFFORDABLE HOUSING IS NOT ALWAYS A GIVEN FOR MANY PEOPLE...

Submitted by The Evergreens Foundation

If this applies to either yourself or someone you know please know you are not alone; and there may be some resources out there that you are unaware of.

The Evergreens Foundation is a not-for-profit housing provider that operates or manages facilities that may be just what you're looking for in one of your communities. Whether it be in Evansburg, Entwistle, Wildwood, Edson, Hinton, Jasper, Grand Cache or Victor Lake we might have a solution for you.

Social housing

This subsidized housing option is for families and individuals facing financial hardship. We understand the immense value that a secure and affordable home can provide in times of financial strain. This program is designed to ensure that families and individuals spend no more than 30% of their total household income on housing, including rent, heat, water and sewer services. We have a limited number of available rental units in each community, so it is important to get on our waitlist. Housing units are rented based on the greatest need rather than on a first come first serve basis.

Rental Assistance Benefit Program

The Evergreens Foundation is proud to offer and facilitate the Rental Assistance Benefit Program on behalf of the Provincial Government, which helps make housing more affordable for individuals and families in our communities. Support is available for those whose household earnings fall below the income threshold for their community. This initiative is part of the National Housing Strategy.

Senior Lodging

Our lodge program provides housing for Alberta Seniors no longer wishing to or unable to maintain a full household on their own. Our lodges are available for affordable monthly rents and are situated in the heart of rural communities so you can remain in the communities you love. In our seniors lodges you will have a wide variety of activities planned for you to participate in you will wonder why you didn't move into the lodge sooner.

Seniors Apartments

Looking to live independently in a senior only apartment you can call home? Our program provides one-bedroom apartments for low to moderate income seniors. Rental rates are based on 30% of income with additional costs for cable, electricity and parking applied as extras.

If you are wondering if you qualify for any of these options we would love to hear from you and see if one of our housing programs is right for you.

URBAN AGRICULTURE IS GROWING: BEEKEEPING AND HEN KEEPING TAKE FLIGHT IN STONY PLAIN

Submitted by Town of Stony Plain

The Town of Stony Plain is excited to announce residents can now apply for urban beekeeping and hen keeping licences, bringing a little more buzz and cluck to the community.

Urban beekeeping and hen keeping are permitted under the Non-Domestic Animal Bylaw approved by Council on June 23, 2025, following community interest and a review of best practices from other municipalities. The bylaw establishes clear standards for training, mentorship, animal care, and community impact to support responsible small-scale urban agriculture.

Expanding urban agriculture reflects the Town's commitment to environmental responsibility, a key pillar of the 2025-2028 Strategic Plan. Beekeeping and hen keeping are also key actions from the Environmental Stewardship Strategy, which guides initiatives to protect local ecosystems and advance long-term sustainability goals.

"We've heard from residents who are eager to start beekeeping and hen keeping, and I'm excited to see their success," says Mayor William Choy. "Urban agriculture isn't just about food; it's about growing community. Keeping bees and hens helps create a healthier, more connected community by sharing knowledge, and supporting each other through sustainable practices."

Prospective keepers must complete relevant training and find an experienced mentor for at least their first year. Education and mentorship ensure new keepers are set up for success while safeguarding community interests and animal welfare. Applicants are also required to notify their neighbours before setting up their hives or coops.

Highlights

Beekeeping

- Maximum two hives per property
- Hives must meet location and care standards
- Keepers must follow best practices to support colony health and minimize impacts on neighbours

Hen keeping

- Minimum of two hens and a maximum of six
- Coops must meet size, locations, cleanliness, and care standards

· No roosters

"By setting clear standards, the Town is empowering residents to act responsibly, respect their neighbours, promote animal welfare, and strengthen community well-being," says Mayor Choy.

"Urban agriculture opportunities like this spark curiosity and inspire lifelong learning," says Evan Joyes, Sustainability Planner. "Whether you're tending hens or managing hives, these activities help people learn about pollinators, sustainability, food production, and local food systems. It's a rewarding hobby that benefits the whole community."

ALBERTA RCMP COMMUNITY RESPONSE TEAM ARREST SUSPECT IN STOLEN TRUCK

Submitted by Alberta RCMP Community Response Team

The Alberta RCMP's Community Response Team with the assistance of the Real Time Operations Centre, Parkland RCMP and Parkland RCMP Crime Reduction Unit, conclude a stolen property investigation.

On Jan. 8, 2026, the

- Possession of Property Obtained by Crime over $5000;
- Operate a Motor

Vehicle while Unauthorized;

- Failure to comply with a Release Order (x4);

MADE WITH LOVE - A QUILTING STORY

Submitted by Seba Seniors

Each year, our Seba Seniors Quilting group spends one day a month creating beautiful handmade items to give to those in need. Last year, they donated 13 quilts to Little Warriors—an incredible gift made with love.

For 2025, the group chose to make Quilted Hugs, inspired by a project they had read about that began in the United States. The idea resonated deeply with them, as Quilted Hugs is a pay-it-forward initiative. The originators encourage that the hugs not be made for sale, believing it would take away from the spirit of giving a heartfelt gift of love. For this very reason, the Quilting Group felt it was the perfect project for them.

Longtime quilter, Janeen, suggested donating their Quilted Hugs to the Good Samaritan-Pembina Village in Evansburg, where her father once lived. Many of the quilters also have loved ones who lived with dementia and used wheelchairs, and they felt these Quilted Hugs were ideal—providing comfort without getting caught in the wheelchair wheels.

With the Quilted Hugs completed in November, Joanne and Janeen—along with Tracey, the Seba Seniors

Communications Director, who was there to document the handover—headed to Evansburg on December 4. There, they met with Amanda, the Clinical Site Manager at Pembina Village, and presented 18 Quilted Hugs to be shared with the residents. They were even able to personally gift three of them to residents Rosemary, Vera, and Val.

The most heartwarming moment of all came with one simple question: “Is this for me?”

“Yes ma’am... they sure are.”

Thank you to our incredible Seba Seniors Quilters & Fibre Arts for continuing to spread warmth, kindness, and comfort—just as their label proudly says “Made with Love”.

ALBERTA RCMP WARN OF SPIKE IN FATAL COLLISIONS AMID WINTER CONDITIONS

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

Parkland RCMP are urging drivers to use extra caution on Alberta roads after a sharp increase in fatal collisions during December and early January. Preliminary data shows 20 fatal collisions occurred across K Division in December; above the 10-year average of 16.7.

Winter weather and the recent snowfalls may have contributed to a significant portion of these crashes. Injury collisions also appear to be up. This trend has continued into the new year. Four fatal collisions in Alberta, resulting in four deaths, were reported in the first four days of January. Weather is believed to be a factor in three of those incidents, though investigations remain ongoing.

Police are reminding motorists to slow down, allow extra time for travel, and adjust driving habits to winter conditions. Waiting for better road conditions is always an option as well.

ALBERTA RCMP ISSUES 998 TICKETS OVER THE HOLIDAYS

Submitted by Alberta RCMP

From Dec. 24-31, 2025, the Alberta RCMP was busy conducting enhanced traffic safety enforcement throughout the province, resulting in 998 tickets being issued.

Of the 998 tickets issued, 242 were for speeding, 31 for distracted driving and 21 for seatbelt infractions.

As well, 121 drivers were removed from the roads for being impaired due to drugs and/or alcohol, including 80 Immediate Roadside Sanction (IRS) FAILs and 23

IRS WARNs.

Unfortunately, due to road-related incidents, there were 99 non-fatal injury collisions and six fatal collisions, resulting in seven fatalities.

"We are never happy to report fatal motor vehicle collisions," says Sgt. Dar-rin Turnbull, Alberta RCMP Traffic. "Everyone should have been able to make it home safely for the holidays. I encourage everyone to look out for each other on the roads. If you suspect an impaired driver, call 911 immediately."

berta Order of Excellence.

of the week

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box.

ANSWER:
Last Weeks

You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
