LEDUC COUNTY DECLARES MUNICIPAL STATE OF AGRICULTURAL DISASTER

Submitted by Leduc County

Leduc County Council declared a Municipal State of Agricultural Disaster at its regular Council meeting this afternoon, in response to record amounts of rainfall throughout the growing season.

In a report shared with Council, Administration shared statistics gathered throughout the season, with highlights that include:

- 367 to 478 mm of precipitation fell between May 1 and Aug. 31, with more than half of that amount falling in a two-week period in June.

IT'S ALBERTA TIME

Submitted by Government of Alberta

Albertans will no longer have to change their clocks as the province will be on permanent daylight time, known as Alberta Time, starting Nov. 1.

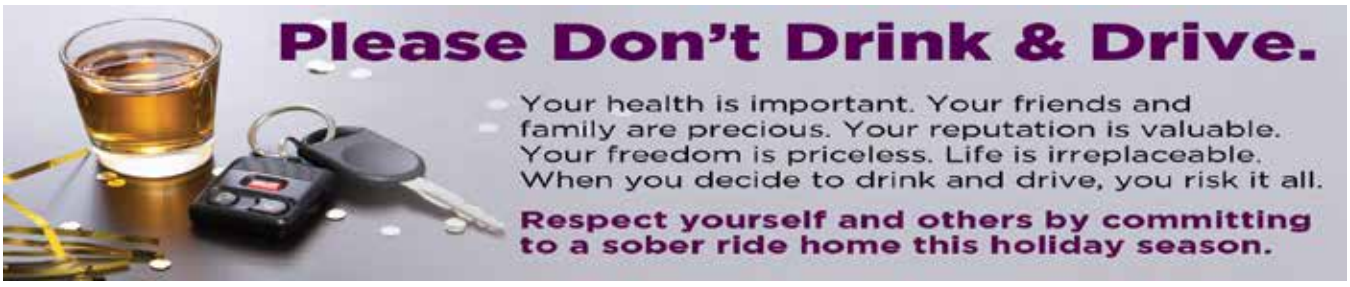

Starting this weekend, Albertans will no longer need to change their clocks twice a year as the province moves to permanent daylight time, known as Alberta Time (ABT). That means no more turning the clocks back in November or moving them forward in March. Albertans will now have one consistent time throughout the year.

"Albertans are tired of changing their clocks twice a year. Permanent daylight time means more evening sunshine to enjoy with family and friends, while

- One quarter of annually cropped acres were lost due to oversaturated soil.
- 75 per cent of pea and barley crops are in poor condition.
- 30 per cent of wheat crops are in poor condition.
- 50 per cent of canola crops are in poor condition.

In addition to the excessive moisture received during the growing season, producers faced harvesting challenges as well. Morning dew, frost and cool daytime temperatures limited the amount of harvesting producers were able to accomplish each day, with many crops needing to be artificially dried to prevent storage issues.

A declaration of an agricultural disaster is a tool that allows municipalities to bring awareness to the issues impacting local farmers. The declaration does not automatically trigger access to increased funding from either the provincial or federal government; however, it can open access to already existing programs.

ideas to life.

For more than 80 years, UFA has proudly supported 4-H Alberta and the vital role it plays in developing future leaders, strengthening agricultural knowledge and building strong rural communities. Today, the UFA Agricultural Community Foundation is proud to carry on that legacy through the UFA Funds 4-H Alberta Clubs program. By supporting local projects and initiatives, we're helping young people learn to do by doing, develop leadership skills and make meaningful contributions in their communities. Investing in youth is an investment in the future of agriculture, and we're honoured to continue supporting the next generation."

Kevin Hoppins, Chair of the UFA Foundation Advisory Board

Applications are open from November 4, 2026, to January 31, 2027, at 11:59 p.m. ABT. Funding is limited, eligibility-based and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Only one application from each eligible Club or District will be considered, and applicants must explain how the funding will be used.

Applicants must use the UFA Funds 4-H Alberta application form. Approved funds will be distributed by March 31, 2027, and should be used to support eligible projects of initiatives before November 1, 2027.

For program requirements and the application form, visit UFA.com/4H and select "Apply 4-H Alberta."

JOKE of the week

Two husbands were discussing their married lives. Although happily married, they admitted that there were arguments sometimes. The Chad said, "I've made one great discovery. I know how to always have the last word." "Wow!' said Sherman, "how did you manage that?" "It's easy," replied Chad. "My last word is always 'Yes, Dear.'" keeping us aligned with our western neighbours and making everyday life a little simpler."

Dale Nally, Minister of Service Alberta and Red Tape Reduction

Permanent daylight time also avoids extremely early summer sunrises, which could occur as early as 4 a.m. in some Alberta communities under permanent standard time.

Technology providers have been very aware of the transition to Alberta Time and Alberta's government has worked very closely with them for months. While most smartphones, computers, tablets and other connected devices are expected to update automatically, provided they have current software and automatic time-zone settings enabled, there may be some systems that do not update seamlessly. The province will continue to encourage technology providers to provide updates.

Albertans are encouraged to ensure their devices have the latest software updates installed and automatic time-zone settings enabled before Nov. 1. Some older or unsupported devices may need to be updated or adjusted manually.

NEW OFFICIAL ALBERTA LICENCE PLATES HIT THE ROAD

Submitted by Government of Alberta

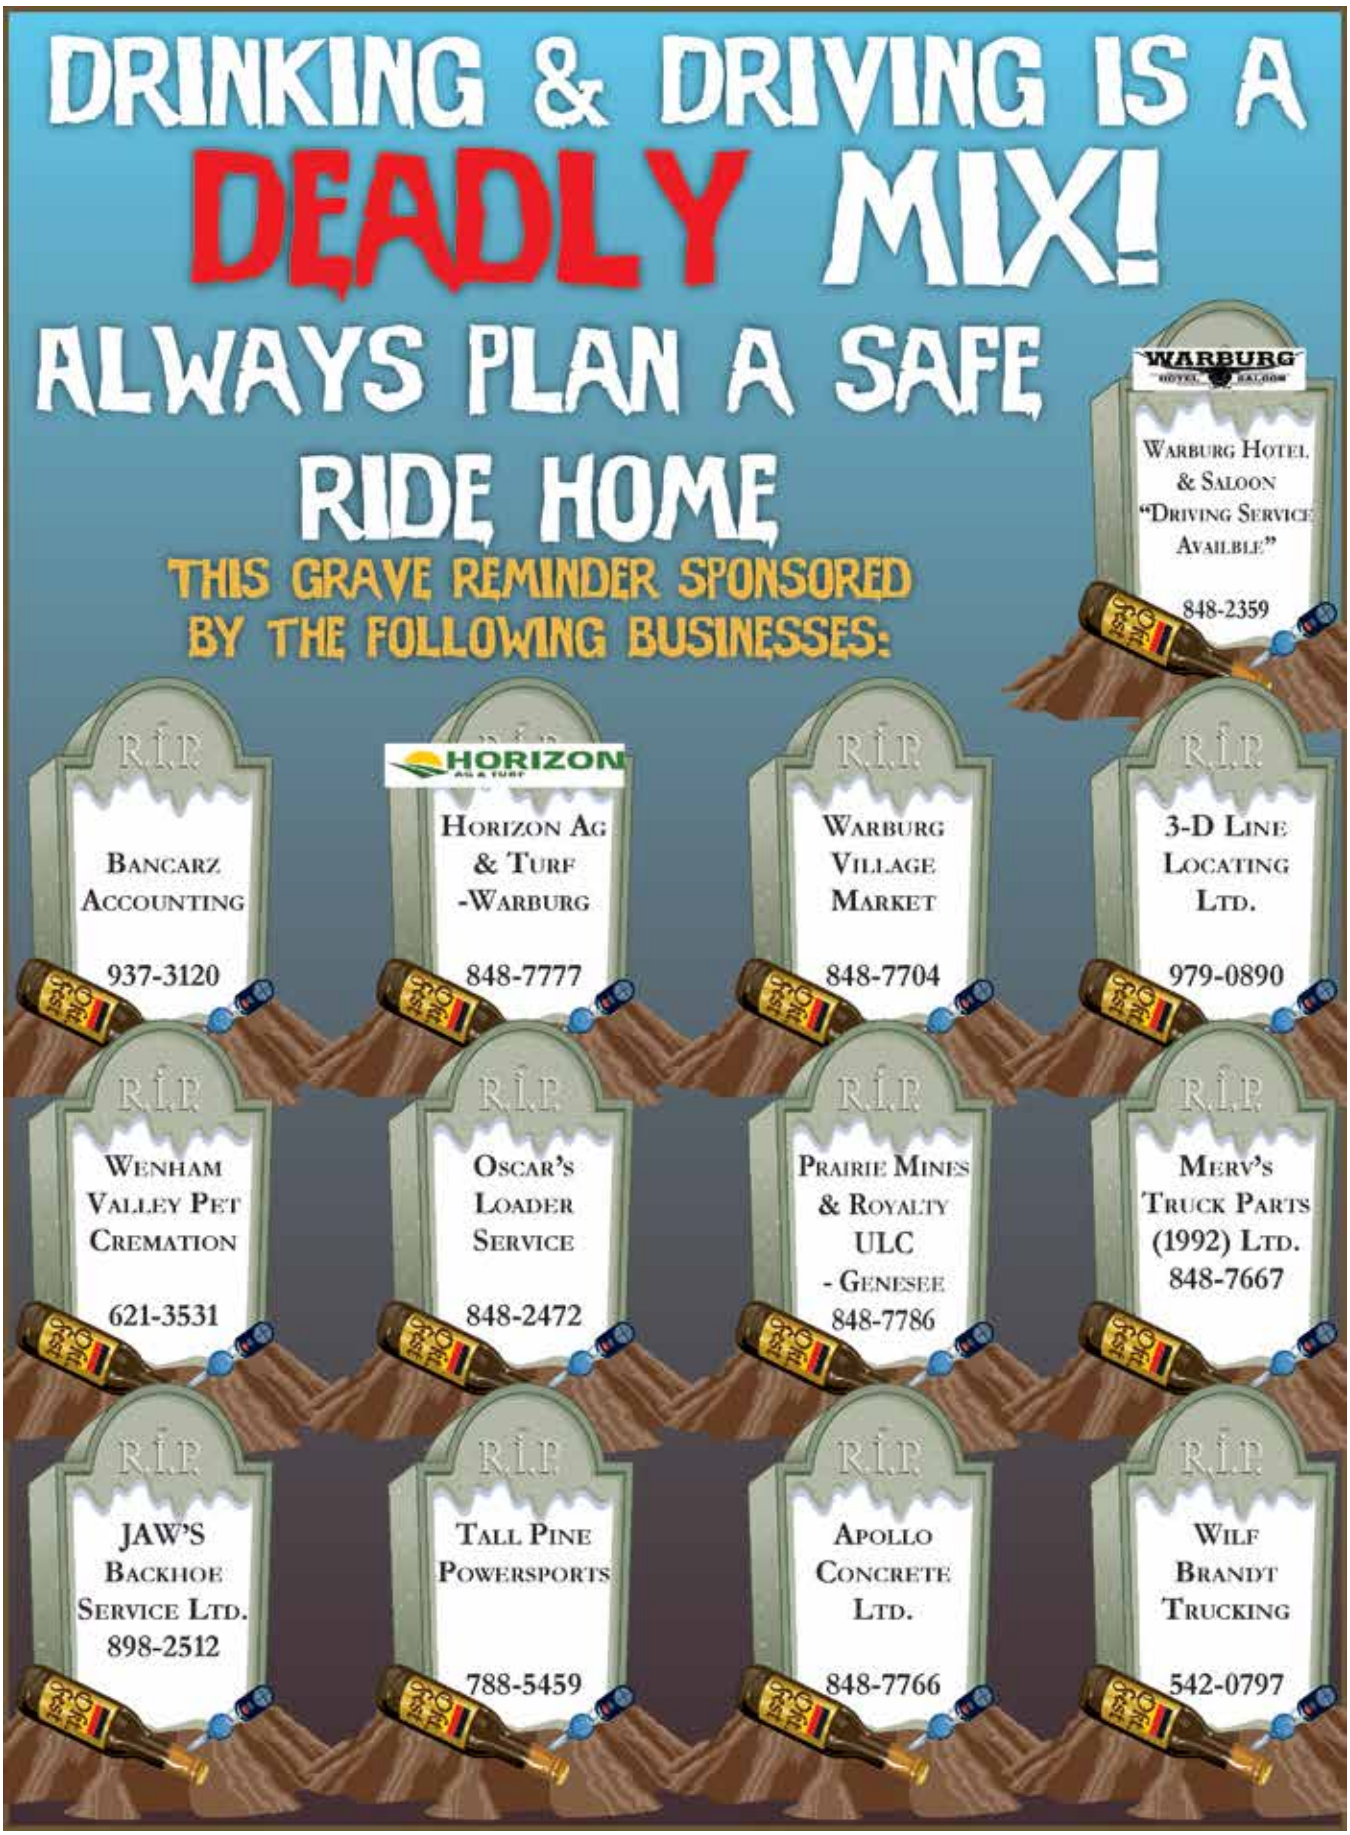

For the first time in more than 40 years, Alberta has a new official licence plate, with a "Strong and Free" motto.

Starting November 9, Albertans can visit their local registry to get the province's new official licence plate, featuring the iconic Moraine Lake. The new licence plate embraces the theme "Strong and Free," reflecting Alberta's bold identity, economic strength and deep-rooted provincial pride. The theme also pays tribute to Alberta's Latin motto and serves as a nod to Canada's national anthem.

Alberta's new official licence plate, featuring Moraine Lake, is available at registry agents starting November 9.

If an Albertan wants to replace their current plate for the new licence plate once it is released, they can voluntarily pay a $20 government fee and a $15 registry agent service charge. Alternatively, Albertans can obtain a new plate on their vehicle registration renewal date for a $15 registry agent service charge and applicable renewal fees. Motorists may also continue using the previous licence plate once the new licence plate is brought onboard, provided it is still in good condition.
